From The You're On The BUGLELINE Left Hand

by David Besser
Editor & Publisher

In our first BUGLELINE column on Page 2 an anonymous letterwriter asks us "what we're going to do about" the hoodlum-dominated Apex Amusement Company down the street on Milwaukee Avenue? It's a rather vexing question because there isn't anyone whose going to do anything about the company operating here, so long as their activities are legal.

In past years the good fight was made to eliminate pinball machines in Niles because it was clearly an illegal activity. But the manufacture and distribution of vending machines is within the realm of the law so they will remain with us, even though Niles gets its face smeared every now and then when publicity mentions the Niles-based operation.

In days of yore if you decided to change vending machine companies or change linen companies you were inviting a brick to be tossed thru your window as a mere introduction to the harassment of things to come. But those very unsophisticated days have long since past. Today, if you desire to change companies...

This week BUGLELINE answers:

1. What can be done about the hoodlum-dominated Apex Amusement Co. on Milwaukee Avenue?
2. Where can a middle-aged widow find activities in the area?
3. Where would you go to have a letter written in Polish translated?
4. What can be done about Nilesites who leave their garbage cans in front of their homes for several days?

Teacher Orientation At Maine East

For the first time in the history of Maine East, orientation sessions are being held for teachers new to the system. Mr. James Hartford, Assistant Principal in charge of administration, states, "The purpose of the six orientation sessions is to acquaint teachers new to Maine's system with complex forms, processes, and regulations necessary in a large school system."

The first session was held on September 19, Mr. Hartford, Mr. Lester Rozdalovsky, Assistant Principal in charge of Student Affairs, and Mr. Alex Begrowicz, Dean of Students, spoke about the philosophy of the School. The second lecture was given by Mr. Hartford and Mr. Rozdalovsky on Oct. 10, Discipline and Study Halls were the topics of the third session on Oct. 24, given by Miss Agnes Brady, Dean of Girls, Mr. Beg-rowicz, and Mr. Robert Schildgen, Dean of Boys. At the fourth lecture on Nov. 7, Mrs. Janet Meyers, Head Librarian, and Mr. Rozdalovsky will speak on the Library and Special Services. The fifth session, on Nov. 21, will feature Mr. Schildgen and Mr. Richard Van Scoyoc, Director of Guidance, speaking about Co-Curricular Activities. The last lecture will be Dec. 12, at which time Mr. John Clouser, Principal, Mr. Hartford, and Mr. Rozdalovsky will review the school program.

Mr. Begrowicz comments, "I was very impressed by the new teachers' comments and questions."

Mr. Hartford remarked, "The sessions thus far have been quite successful, and we plan to continue with the orientation sessions for new teachers next year."

You're On The BUGLELINE

BUGLELINE answers your questions and puts you in touch with the people who can solve your problems. Either phone 966-3910 or drop us a line at 8129 Milwaukee Ave., Niles, 60648....

An anonymous letter writer enclosed an article from the November 1 edition of the Chicago Daily News in which it was pointed out members of the crime syndicate are involved in the Apex Amusement Corporation, 7730 Milwaukee, a Niles vending company. Eddie Vogel, 73, is an officer and director of the company and he has recently been included on the crime commission list.

Letter-writer sans name asked THE BUGLE, "What can you do about this?"

Village Manager Ken Scheel said the company is a legitimate corporation and they cannot be stopped legally from operating. Scheel pointed out there are local residents who were included in the recent crime commission report but that they cannot be stopped from living here.

Like all local businesses Niles can inspect their operations at anytime but so long as their activities are not illegal they can actively participate in their business enterprise as any other business.

Scheel notes he refrains from patronizing these machines.

The point of the recent exposure of known syndicate operations was to alert citizens to their activities. If residents stopped putting money in these machines, stopped betting with football cards and refrained from adding revenue to hoodlum-dominated operations they would soon be out of business.

A middle aged widow telephoned THE BUGLE last week and asked what local activities are available for participation. She said she was too young for Senior Citizens activities, and was interested in participating in activities outside of her religious group.

The voice from the village hall suggests community groups she might join include the Niles Women's Club, the Citizens Advisory Committee, the Niles Safety Council, the Youth Commission, Niles Citizens Committee and the Friends of the Library.

Other voluntary work available includes auxiliary work at local hospitals.

A greater social outlet would be joining a nearby Parents Without Partners group. Their telephone number in Chicago is 235-4164.

Recently I received a letter from Poland. Since we do not have any family members who are able to translate it we would like to know who might help us read the letter?

R.B.

Fortunately, the village clerk's office has its own UN linguistic department. Connie Rodopoulos informs us Polish, Greek, Swedish, German and French are among the languages which one of the girls, or members of their families can interpret. Telephone 647-8485 before seeking the translation.

In passing by a home at 8147 Ozanam we notice the garbage cans are always in the front of the house. We were wondering if there is something you can do about this?

BUGLELINE telephoned Betty Bacher at the Public Works Department. She said this complaint should be given to the Health Department. It is likely it would request the residents place their cans in front of their home only on the night before pick-up. If they resisted the request the Department would issue a citation (a ticket) causing the offender to appear in court. Betty noted Niles only has garbage pick-up on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, which enables all residents to keep their garbage cans hidden over the week-end. She noted an apartment dwelling at 7424 Waukegan is also an offender; leaving the cans on Waukegan Ave. Betty also reminds residents garbage can lids should be secured to all cans noting this is not only a health precaution but also a good neighbor policy.

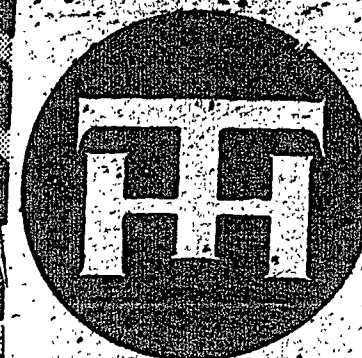

Art Teacher Named Chairman

For the second year in succession, Mr. Kermit Lindberg, art teacher at Maine East high school in Park Ridge, has been named chairman of the High School Division of the Illinois Art Education Association.

The annual conference of the Association, which will be held in Peoria, Nov. 9-11, is under the direction of Mr. Lindberg. One of the featured speakers will be Mr. J. T. Edgar of Liverpool, England, who will lecture on the art programs in the English school system.

Also taking place at the conference will be the unveiling of the new state mobile art unit by its curator Mr. K. Englund. Another "extra" of the conference will be exhibits of sculpture and student and individual works.

Maine East Fall Band Concert November 17

Maine East's Fall Band Concert, to be presented Friday Nov. 17 at 8:00 p.m., in the school's auditorium, consists of music ranging from flute solo to variations on a Korean folk song to Broadway show tunes.

Mr. O.D. Premo, conductor of the bands, commented, "The Concert Band has practiced diligently since the beginning of the school year and has reached a precision that is almost unbelievable. The band has achieved such dynamic contrast and attention to detail that one has to be inspired from seeing youngsters do so well with difficult pieces."

The band will also play three stirring marches by Smetana, Liszt's "Les Preludes" in five parts, and then go south of the border with Sadel and Tucci's "Lola Flores" which captures the color and excitement of the bull-ring. Finally, tunes from Lerner and Loewe's "Camelot," which will be the school's Broadway musical production in May, will be presented.

In conclusion Premo remarked, "I can only be laudatory toward the progress through private lessons and parental support that the students have made. This is a concert you won't want to miss since the precision with which difficult pieces are played is so excellent."

League Of Women Voters Finance Drive Plans In Final Stages

Plans are in the final stages for the League of Women Voters' 1967-68 Finance Drive. The non-partisan organization is supported by member dues which are supplemented by contributions from civic-minded citizens who wish to aid the League in its work for good government. This year's drive begins November 13th with a kick-off coffee at the home of Mrs. Harold Goldsmith, Finance Chairman.

The personal approach have proved the most successful in past years. The women will be contacting businessmen in the Morton Grove - Niles area during the week of November 13th in an all out effort to combine fund-raising with the opportunity to tell the League story. Because League work is a public service, it deserves the support and understanding of all community leaders.

The LWV has proved to be an adult education group whose by-word is excellence and involvement. It is a source of reliable, non-partisan information about elections, candidates and issues. It is an instigator of reform, a backer of worthwhile issues and a watchdog of the public interest.

League in the Morton Grove-Niles area, is looking for women who are concerned about water pollution, good schools and foreign policy. League is looking for women who are intrigued by politics and those who are simply interested in government problems. If you are a woman who is bright and interested, who likes to discuss and act on issues, with women of the same caliber, League is looking for you. Call Mrs. John Adams, Membership Chairman, YO 6-7139.

Gas cooking makes sense.

Because you're in command with gas. When you turn it off, it's off. There's no hangover heat to scorch food or overheat your kitchen. And when you turn it on, it goes on to the exact shade of heat you want.

Because today's new gas ranges give you more features per dollar than any other range—actually cost less to buy, less to use.

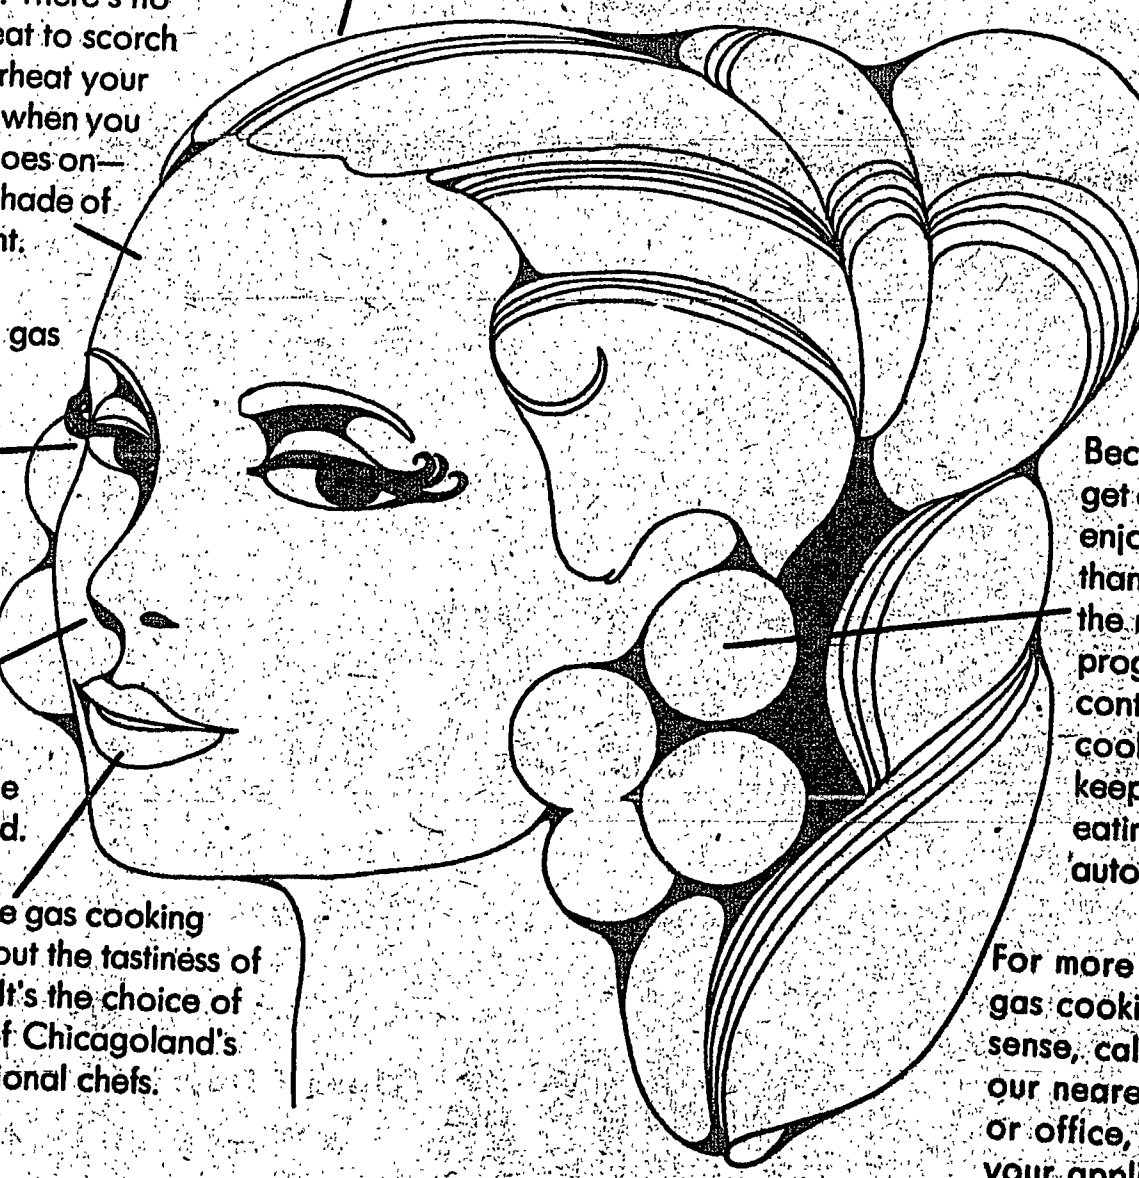

Because modern gas ranges are so colorful and beautifully designed, they add glamour to your kitchen.

Because gas broiling is clean and smokeless. You broil with the oven door closed.

Because gas cooking brings out the tastiness of foods. It's the choice of 95% of Chicagoland's professional chefs.

Because you can get out and enjoy life more, thanks to the many programmed controls that cook things and keep them eating-warm, automatically.

YMCA Camping Soars

A report just released by the YMCA of Metropolitan Chicago Camping Services division shows that 32,405 boys, girls and families participated in YMCA camping during the 1967 season.

Day Camping, where Chicago area youth camp during the day and return home at night, enrolled 16,015 youngsters. This was a 31% increase over last year. Summer resident camp enrollment at 11 Y camps in four states were 7,219, up 3.3% over 1966.

A record number of youth participated in the day camping services of the Leaning Tower YMCA again this season. Four separate day camps were operated: a co-ed camp for kindergarten through second grade; a co-ed camp for third and fourth graders; a camp for girls in the fifth grade; and a sports and aquatics camp for boys in the fifth through eighth grade.

Leaning Tower also offered resident camping to a record number of area youngsters - with the largest percentage attending YMCA Camp Rodney-Kroehler at Hayward, Wisconsin.

The Y family camp, Camp Nawakwa, located near Lac du Flambeau, enrolled an additional 1,513 youth and adults for the July-August season.

School Camping was also very successful. The YMCA and the Chicago Board of Education have joined in an outdoor education and camping program to allow city youth a camping opportunity by moving classrooms and teachers to four northern Illinois Y camps for a one-week period.

Here 7,658 elementary school youth enjoyed their regular schoolwork, all with a nature flavor during the February 10-June 12 season.

"We expect to serve 10,650 school campers through June 10, 1968," said Peter Sorensen, director of YMCA camping services.

Lutheran General Hospital Goes Back To The 20's

By Millicent Dachman

With continued normal efficiency, but with a stir of unusual excitement the 3rd floor west of Lutheran General Hospital had a touch of the roaring 20's to the complete surprise of the patients and staff on duty Saturday, the 21st of Oct. 1967 at 7:00 P.M.

With permission fully granted by the Hospital Administration, six officers in full regalia denoting the era they were receiving that evening, came to bring good cheer to one of their fellow officers recuperating from major surgery.

Mrs. Millicent Dachman of 8001 Lyons in Niles, the patient at the Hosp., was visited by her costumed friends from the Maine Township Regular Demo. Women's Club of Niles whose dance was being held that very evening at Bunker Hill Country Club.

Certainly the Gals had no way of knowing the effects of their bright costumes and brighter personalities would have such startling effects on patients and visitors alike.

A number of patients who moments before had been grimacing in pain, opened their eyes first in disbelief, and then grinned broadly at the colorful parade.

A male visitor, just alighting from the elevator on his way to visit a loved one, took one look at this brilliant display of six and color and swore never to touch another intoxicating drink in his life. The nurses smiled in amusement and the women needless to say handled themselves in very good taste.

The dance held later was a tremendous success, which was no surprise to Millicent who saw that certain sparkle in the eyes of Lisa Jennings, Karen Gudorf, Ethel Sostrin, Diane Hanson, Irene Barron and Erna Manlon the ingredient needed for the fun filled evening that followed.

When the bedecked visitors left the floor, they left behind them not one, but many cheered patients whose inent on a fast recovery was perhaps a little more definite than it had been prior to their coming.

Once again Lutheran General Hospital came back to the year 1967.

Niles Safety Council Gives Safe Walking Rules

Last year 11,082 pedestrians were struck down in traffic in Illinois. Of these, 426 persons on foot in traffic were killed when they were hit by motor vehicles. Ben Mankowsky, Chairman of the Niles Safety Council reported today.

"Urging everyone who walks or drives to pay strict attention to common-sense rules, he pointed out that most of these accidents occurred because pedestrians insisted upon crossing in midblock or walking or playing in the roadway. These violations were also the primary cause of injury and death to children in the age group five to nine."

Chairman Mankowsky advised all pedestrians to observe the following safe walking rules:

serve the following safe walking rules:

- Cross the street or highway only at marked crosswalks or intersections. If you must cross in midblock, wait for a safe gap in traffic and yield the right-of-way to all vehicles.

- Look left, then right before crossing. Remember, the car on the left is closer and could hit you first. As you cross the centerline, the car on the right is the one that you must watch.

- Cross only on the green light or walk signal at intersections controlled by traffic lights. Watch for that car making a right turn from your left.

- Look for traffic before stepping in front of a stopped car or bus. Be sure drivers in the traffic stream can see you before you cross.

- Never walk, stand or play between parked cars at the curb. This rule applies particularly to children who cannot be seen by passing drivers.

- When it is necessary to walk on a rural road or where there are no sidewalks provided, be sure to walk on the life side facing traffic and step off the roadway to the left when traffic approaches.

- At night wear something white or light colored. On rural roads without lighting, carry a flashlight. Remember, drivers might not see you even though you can see them.

- Carry umbrellas, packages and other objects in a manner that will not obstruct your view of traffic.

- Be extremely cautious and walk slowly on slippery pavements. Remember that cars need more time and distance to stop when the roads are wet or icy.

- Adults should set a good example for children when walking in traffic. Safety taught in school will have little effect on the youngster whose parents disregard the safe walking rules.

Sparky Leads Halloween Parade

The Niles Fire Department's Sparky mannequin recently led a Halloween Parade for over 200 Niles children. The parade wound its way from the Oak School to the Grenman Heights Fieldhouse. Firefighter Donald Chiero, who doubles as the department's clown for such events, distributed hundreds of pieces of candy to the tots.

Only electric dryers give you the same kind of gentle heat you get from the sun.

The sun, most people agree, was a pretty bright idea. Hard to improve on.

A little hard to count on, too. Which could be annoying on a rainy day to a woman with two weeks' worth of laundry fresh out of the washer.

So somebody had a bright new idea of his own—the electric clothes dryer. One that would dry clothes fast, and with controlled, flameless heat. Radiant heat, like sunshine.

Now all the little lady has to do is dial the heat she wants—electrically. No worry about scorching, harsh over-drying, fumes, combustion by-products, grayed whites, faded colors, and all like that. Just nice, clean, dry clothes for her family, that's what she's got. And she loves it.

Which gives us a certain glow of satisfaction, too. Being able to bring a little sunshine into an otherwise gray washday.

But then, that's the sort of thing we've been doing for years. Brightening people's lives—the best we can. Commonwealth Edison Company

Local Merchants' Taxes Improve Our Community

Of course you look for and find bargains in quality merchandise when you shop locally, but did you know you are also really investing in our community too? Your neighbor-merchants' taxes support civic improvements and help finance schools and recreational facilities right where you live. It pays, in many ways, to shop at home!

Time and Transportation Costs are Saved

Instead of wasting time traveling to distant stores, the wise shopper puts that time to use in a more careful selection from the large varieties carried by our local merchants. The money saved on transportation is put to better use too — on the items themselves. Every day it will pay to shop right here at home!

Your Merchants Are Your Own Neighbors

It's mighty nice to know that the merchant you deal with is probably one of your own neighbors. You feel you can trust him and he is eager to maintain that trust. He is anxious to please you in a personal way — to give you quality products at the lowest possible price. "Yes," you'll say, "it really does pay to shop here at home!"

Nilehi Set Dates For Open House

Moms and Dads of Nilehi's more than 7,600 teenagers are expected to attend Open House programs in each of the three high schools next week.

The schools will dismiss their students at 1:25 p.m. the day they have their Open House programs, according to a school official.

In commemoration of American Education Week, Nilehi East will hold its evening program for parents Tuesday, November 14, while both Nilehi West and North will hold theirs Wednesday, November 15.

The national theme of this year's commemoration of American Education Week is "How Good Are Your Schools?"

The evening program in each high school is scheduled to begin promptly at 7:30 p.m. Parents will follow their children's daily class routine.

School officials urge parents to be in the school building they will be visiting well in advance of the start of classes at 7:30 p.m. Parking one's car and getting sense of directions will take time, they advised.

Class periods at Nilehi East will be 10 minutes each while at Nilehi West they will be eight minutes and at Nilehi North six minutes.

Individual conferences with teachers are being discouraged for this evening program, but parents will have the opportunity to meet their children's teachers and activity sponsors and to hear summaries of their work.

Each high school will have coffee and refreshments available to parents during the evening.

Nilehi's chapters of the Future Teachers of America and student government groups, as well as other student organizations, will serve as parent guides.

Chairmen in charge of faculty committees arranging the Open Houses were Marvin Ihne, assistant principal at Nilehi East; Otto Karbusicky, social studies teacher at Nilehi West; and Dr. Gilbert Weldy, principal at Nilehi North.

Young G.O.P. Dance Will Benefit Mentally Retarded

The Maine township young Republicans have announced plans for their second annual Fall harvest dance to benefit the Northwest Suburban Aid for the Retarded (NSAR). All proceeds from the dance will go to the NSAR shelter, located at 31 Grace Avenue, Park Ridge. The dance will be held on Fri., November 10 at 8:00 p.m. at the Des Plaines VFW, 2067 Miner Street, Des Plaines.

Philip Paulson, the YR social chairman, said that the dance will feature two bands, "The Misfits", a rock and roll combo, and for those less energetic in their dancing, "The Tradesmen".

Local merchants have donated many prizes to be given away at the dance, ranging from pumpkins to free haircuts at a local barbershop.

Last year the YR dance netted the NSAR shelter over $400. The shelter's only income is from voluntary contributions.

The ageless beauties of Switzerland will be presented in a new and amusing style as Dick Reddy comes to the Maine West Community Lecture Series with his "Adventures in Switzerland with Mark Twain." The program will be held at 8 P.M., Thursday, November 16th, in the auditorium at Maine Township High School West, Wolf and Oakton, Des Plaines.

In a spectacular color film Dick Reddy records a tour of Switzerland, and embellishes the personal narrative of his travels with legends and hilarious anecdotes as told by the inimitable Mark Twain. The journey begins on Lake Lucerne at Weggis, where Mark Twain lived for two months, and retraces the month-long tour of the famous humorist and his friend, Joe Twichell. Whenever possible, Mr. Reddy travels by the same modes of transportation as Mark Twain — on foot, by horse and buggy, sleigh, even balloon flight. Thus the scenic splendor of the country is seen in a perspective not often encountered by modern tourists.

Dick Reddy's introduction to Switzerland came after World War II when he commanded one of the first troop trains carrying G.I.'s to Zermatt for an Alpine holiday. Two weeks among the friendly Swiss in their wonderful made it impossible not to return for a more extensive sojourn.

Mr. Reddy, a native of Texas, is a graduate of the School of Journalism, North Texas State University. He also holds a Master's degree and has served as both teacher and administrator. His intense interest in photography and travel resulted from his study of cinematography at the University of Southern California.

Season tickets for this and the succeeding four lectures at Maine West are still available by contacting the Maine Adult Evening School offices at Maine East and Maine West. Tickets for this single travelogue will be sold at the door the evening of the program. The Adult Evening School offices, 825-3435 or 295-3400, can supply further information.

The Debate Club, sponsored by Mrs. Margaret Leonard, meets every Thursday at 3:45 in room 149. As of Oct. 13 there were 11 people in the club, although any student can join. The four officers, all of whom are taking the debate course offered at Maine, are senior Ross Terman (Morton Grove), president; sophomore Jeff Richards (Park Ridge), vice-president; senior Kathy Bergman (Morton Grove), secretary; and junior Leonard Harty (Niles), treasurer.

The first debate tournament will be at Forest View high school on Nov. 4; the next will be at Proviso East on Nov. 11. The Maine East team competes in the West Suburban Debate Conference, which includes the same schools as the athletic conference. The first engagement this year was a practice debate at Maine West on Oct. 19, which was attended by the members of both the class and the club. Mrs. Leonard also plans to hold formal debates at the regular club meetings.

Each year, the National Forensic League sets up a topic for competitive high school debate. Debates must concern all aspects of the topic; some of the items included in this year's topic, "Criminal Investigation Procedures," will be the feasibility of legalizing wire tapping and the stop-and-frisk law.

The debate class, which meets ninth period, is not mandatory for the students in the club, although, according to Mrs. Leonard, "having class members in the club keeps the club more lively." The club exists in addition to the class for the benefit of any student initiated into Phi Eta Sigma. Ian Gilson, a 1967 graduate of Niles East, has been initiated into Phi Eta Sigma, freshman honor society, at the University of Wisconsin in Madison.

Blair H. Matthews, assistant dean of the College of Letters and Science of the university, made the announcement last week.

In announcing Ian's election to Phi Eta Sigma, Dean Blair commented, "Qualifying for membership constitutes a distinctive honor for this student and a basis of justifiable pride for Niles High School."

Maine East Debate Club Meets Every Thursday

"Resolved: that Congress should establish uniform regulations for criminal investigation procedures." This is the subject that Maine East's Debate Club will discuss, argue, and perhaps exhaust this year.

The Debate Club, sponsored by Mrs. Margaret Leonard, meets every Thursday at 3:45 in room 149. As of Oct. 13 there were 12 people in the club, although any student can join. The four officers, all of whom are taking the debate course offered at Maine, are senior Ross Terman (Morton Grove), president; sophomore Jeff Richards (Park Ridge), vice-president; senior Kathy Bergman (Morton Grove), secretary; and junior Leonard Harsy (Niles), treasurer.

The first debate tournament will be at Forest View high school on Nov. 4; the next will be at Proviso East on Nov. 11. The Maine East team competes in the West Suburban Debate Conference, which includes the same schools as the athletic conference. The first engagement this year was a practice debate at Maine West on Oct. 18, which was attended by the members of both the class and the club. Mrs. Leonard also plans to hold formal debates at the regular club meetings.

Each year, the National Forensic League sets up a topic for competitive high school debate. Debates must concern all aspects of the topic; some of the items included in this year's topic, "Criminal Investigation Procedures," will be the feasibility of legalizing wire tapping and the stop-and-frisk law.

The debate class, which meets ninth period, is not mandatory for the students in the club, although, according to Mrs. Leonard, "having class members in the club keeps the club more lively." The club exists in addition to the class for the benefit of any student

Initiated Into Phi Eta Sigma

Ian Gilson, a 1967 graduate of Niles East, has been initiated into Phi Eta Sigma, freshman honor society, at the University of Wisconsin in Madison.

Blair H. Matthews, assistant dean of the College of Letters and Science of the university, made the announcement last week.

In announcing Ian's election to Phi Eta Sigma, Dean Blair commented, "Qualifying for membership constitutes a distinctive honor for this student and a basis of justifiable pride for Niles East."

Notre Dame Mauls Marmion Military Academy 31-12

by John O'Connor

Notre Dame mauled the Cadets from Marmion Military Academy, 31-12, to capture their fifth SCC victory.

The class of 1968 played its final home football game. As of now, the seniors have yet to be defeated, although they have suffered three ties.

Notre Dame's Green Machine finally got into gear in the second quarter. The long dormant offense, stalling in the first quarter at the six yard line, burst forth. After Roy Vana intercepted at the Marmion 25 yard line, Tom Lange nailed end Jim Lannon at the four yard line. Then fullback Greg Luzinski plunged from the four. The conversion attempt failed and with 9:16 remaining in the 2nd quarter ND led, 6-0.

With 5:01 remaining in the half, the Dons got a break. From the six yard line, Greg Luzinski fumbled into the endzone. Alert senior tackle Mike Kraft recovered the ball for six points. Luzinski missed the conversion, and the Dons led 12-0.

Defensive halfback Richard Tosch stopped the final Marmion drive of the half with an interception. He ran it back 22 yards to the Marion 42, as the gun, for the half, shot.

In the opening moments of the second half, Gary Aylesworth grabbed Tom Lange's pass and scored on a 58 yard run. Luzinski missed his third straight conversion. The Dons led 18-0.

Two minutes later, Luzinski plunged from the 11 yard line for his second touchdown of the night. He made the extra point kick to boost the Dons' lead to 25-0.

Marmion finally got on the scoreboard with 2:29 remaining in the third quarter. Senior halfback Bob Kehoe intercepted a Tom Lange aerial at his own 35 yard line. A few plays later, end Scott Hartman grabbed Randy Jakous' pass for a 59 yard scoring play.

Greg Luzinski scored his third touchdown of the night with 1:08 remaining in the third period. Greg broke off tackle for a 40 yard touchdown gallop.

Marmion's Dietiker concluded scoring in the fourth quarter with a one yard plunge. The conversion missed and the final score read Notre Dame 31-Marmion 12.

Next Saturday, the Dons play Benet Academy in Lisle for the final game of the 1967 season.

Juniors at Maine East high school were given instructions in a regular guidance period concerning entrance examination tests for colleges. Mr. Keith Honn, career counselor, urged the juniors who are in the upper half of their class to take the morning section of the College Entrance Examination Board Test, the SAT, in May. Juniors, who later need to take achievement tests for the college of their choice may do so in the first semester of their senior year. Honn explained that the test score on this test is the more important of the two scores available (one in English and one in mathematics). Unless a student is going into mathematics or science in college, he need not be as concerned with his score on the mathematics portion. Those juniors who want to try to qualify for an Illinois State Scholarship must take the American College Test in May if the test is to be taken at Maine East. Students who are interested in this scholarship must put its code number on their registration blank so that results of the test can be sent to the Scholarship Service. Information about both the SAT and ACT are available in any of the guidance offices.

In February, juniors in the upper half of the class should take the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Examination. Mr. Honn stated that it is a difficult test, but that even those students who are in the lower half of the class, but who have been grossly underachieving, should consider taking the examination.

To conclude his remarks on tests and colleges, Honn explained some very basic facts about college choices. First, it is better to do well in a small college that is not too well known than to go to a large "name" school and fail. He urged students to keep in mind the caliber of students they are and are likely to meet in various colleges. Second, all colleges now have some form of financial aid to use for stu-

Troop 175 On Campout

Last weekend, scoutmaster Ralph Kozney, Walter Elder, and boy scout troop 175 went on a two day weekend camping and fishing outing at: Cut Rock State Park in Rockford, Ill.

This was the first campout that was picked out by our camping chairman Mitch Kolecz on which it did not rain and on which we had good weather. The most fish was caught by the Beaver patrol who promptly threw them back in to grow up. The largest fish was caught by Don Moriarty and no one had a ruler to prove whether it was a bona fide caught or whether it was a large minnow.

In the way of promotions, we are happy to announce that Bill Rizzo is now a tenderfoot. The rank of second class scout was attained by Charles Schultz, Bart Murphy, and Tom Pausation. Greg Kozney has now joined the rank of first class scout. Congratulations boys and keep up the good work.

Music Degree

KENNETH E. FEARN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Fearn of 7032 West Dobson St., Niles, is studying for a Master's degree in Music at MANHATTAN SCHOOL OF MUSIC in New York City. A pianist, he is a pupil of Dora Zaslavsky, who need it. Financial aid can include jobs, scholarships, grants, and loans, and most of this aid is distributed through the college of the student's choice. Good students, who lack the money, can apply at well-known schools. If these schools want certain students, they will take care of the expenses for these students. Finally, he urged juniors to check now with the companies for whom their parents work and various fraternal organizations for scholarship help.

Talent Pool Seeking More Volunteers

Children in the Oak Elementary and East Maine Junior High Schools have been enjoying an added value in education as the result of this new partnership between the schools of this area and the community.

Since January more than fifty adults have been sharing their skills, experience, hobbies on a one-to-one basis, for small groups or as one-time lecturers for entire classes. These volunteers, representing the numerous knowledgeable resources available in the Niles, Morton Grove, Glenview and Des Plaines area, were supplied by the Volunteer Talent Pool of Maine Township.

What is a Volunteer Talent Pool? Why is it desirable from the standpoint of the schools? How does it operate?

The Talent Pool is a local organization formed to recruit adults who are willing to share their competence with the schools. They do not act as teachers but supplement the curriculum and extend the teachers' activities, sometimes to provide information in greater depth than that which limited classroom time permits; sometimes to assist children who might need additional stimulation; sometimes as just an added pair of hands for the teachers in preparing curriculum material in libraries and in other non-academic pursuits.

Cultural change has contributed to an increased need for supplementary services in schools. The teacher has access to special skills and knowledge through this volunteer resource. Individualization is implemented further. The concept of education as a part of community life is opposed to a community apart, is fostered by the school volunteer program.

Major changes in our social structure have made a growing number of volunteers available. Automation provides more time for women to extend their services to their communities. Early retirement and increasing longevity contribute to the availability of the older adult. Employed people are also sharing their knowledge to enrich the curriculum.

The Volunteer Talent Pool is chartered by the State of Illinois as a not-for-profit corporation and is staffed entirely by volunteers. It maintains offices during the school year in the Niles Park District Recreation Center at 7877 Milwaukee Avenue. Here volunteers are interviewed for participation in the school work and assigned to children at the teacher's request, for purposes designated by the teacher.

In the schools, co-ordinators with teaching experience are employed by the schools to supervise the volunteers. Training for co-ordinators is provided in a course which has been in operation at Barat College, Lake Forest, Illinois during the past two years.

Subjects covered by volunteers this year included new Math, remedial reading, Ceramics, Ornithology, Geology, Electronics, Banking as a profession, Portrait Painting, Weather reporting, Sewing, Flower Arrangement, Organ construction and numerous others.

The Press of District 63 has been most co-operative in recording the story of the founding and growth of the Talent Pool. The Niles City Mayor, the Niles Chamber of Commerce and the Parent Teacher Associations representing the schools in the district have also lent their support to the program. Service organizations, Women's Clubs, Senior Centers, Church Groups, Retirement Homes and individual industries have all been visited and acquainted with the program.

Co-ordinators have been employed and trained for the remaining schools in the district.

St. Isaac Jogues Christmas Bazaar November 9

The St. Isaac Women's Club will hold its 3rd Annual Christmas Bazaar, "Fide Fair," on Thursday, November 9, from 10 AM to 10 PM in the Church Hall, 8101 Golf Road in Niles. Among the many different gift items for sale will be repro-

This will require more volunteers thus opening interesting opportunities for more people in the community. Anyone wishing to join in this very rewarding activity should call the Volunteer Talent Pool, 966-0048, or visit the office.

There is an opportunity for many kinds of experience and skills. The name Talent Pool does not mean that volunteers are restricted to artists, musicians, theatrical people or those specially gifted. Some may want to volunteer for work in the Talent Pool office or in non-academic services in the schools. Others may be accustomed to work with children regularly and still others may possess special knowledge that can be imparted in single lecture appearances.

Volunteer programs such as this one in District 63 are being formed in various parts of the country. Six Illinois Communities are being assisted in forming these programs by a team experienced in the Winnetka Project for Academic Motivation. The Niles program is the first of these six. The demonstrations are being funded by the Administration on Aging, United States Department of Health, Education and Welfare, with particular emphasis on the older adult as a volunteer.

Teachers in the District 63 schools have requested volunteers for sixty-five types of subjects ranging from Art to Weather Maps and Music, Clerical Work, Library help, discussions about Russia, Illinois and Cities of the World, Chemists, Foresters, Reading help and many other varied subjects. The Talent Pool invites calls from anyone who could help fill these many requests.

THE STORY OF VETERANS' DAY

Light up a cigar on Veterans Day in honor of the men who served our country—and give a thought to how this national observance began.

One minute before 11 o'clock on the morning of November 11, 1918, the long battle line in France shook with the roar of cannon. One minute later, there was silence.

This cease-fire, which ended World War I, was the result of a general armistice between the Allies and Germany, signed at five o'clock that morning in a train in the forest of Compiègne in northern France. The terms of peace had not yet been finally determined, but the fighting ceased.

Since that time, November 11th has been a special day of remembrance in the United States, Great Britain, Canada, and France. Until 1954, the day was called "Armistice Day" in the U.S.

An armistice, or truce, differs from a surrender or a treaty of peace in that it does not legally end a war. It is merely an agreement to suspend hostilities. In both the first and second World Wars, armistices were signed with individual countries before the general conflicts ended.

In World War I, separate armistices were concluded between the victorious Allies on the one side, and defeated Bulgaria, Turkey, and Austria-Hungary.

The U.S. Congress changed the name Armistice Day to "Veterans Day" in 1954, dedicating the observation to world peace. The day presently honors the veterans of the Korean conflict, as well as those of World Wars I and II.

A gift of a box of fine cigars is a welcome way to honor the veterans you know. Veterans Day—or any day—men like to relax with a good cigar.

les a mere phone call will do the trick, and many a word will be mentioned about the change. While the hoods are in many illegal activities, their many legitimate enterprises are simon-pure.

Chicagoans realize the hoodlum-dominance in and around the city comes with the territory. In Niles 5 men were mentioned as being residents whose names were published as being connected with hoodlum activities. Most Chicagoans shrug their shoulders and admit, "They don't bother me, and I'm sure not going to bother them."

Growing up on the south side we Chicago-oriented kids all had our favorite stories about the notorious gangsters (award out of the 30's) we rubbed shoulders with, usually at a great distance. In my neighborhood Al Capone owned a 2 story building at 7277 Prairie where his mother and brother lived. In later years we lived a block away from movie union czar Tommy Malloy, who, we kids used to report, had a down-stairs room where one of his henchmen used to man the peepholes in the corners of the ceiling, whenever Malloy entertained company. Naturally, his guards were aiming a rifle barrel (always more picturesque than a pistol) at the visitor when he walked into the room.

Next door to Malloy lived a boyhood friend who used to fill us with stories of gun battles he witnessed which took place in the backyard of this home. And ironically, the boyhood chum lived rather extravagantly with his widowed mother in the south shore area. Years later while leaving thru a book on criminology we came across the boy's father's name. He happened to have been the bondsman for Capone.

When we were still getting our first courses in Chicagoese we remember stories told by the men of the family about their elbow-rubbing with the mobs. My dad once mentioned how he saw an oldboyhood friend, since turned into more nefarious activities, who was standing out the stairs of a downtown building. When my Dad yelled out a greeting, the hoodlum momentarily failed to recognize him. When he finally did, and called him by name, my Dad felt it may have saved his life, since the momentary failure to recognize brought 2 or 3 bodyguards on the run ready to take on all comers. And it was an uncle who was picked up by his union colleagues once upon a time and was whisked to a store which was not unionized and did not wish to become a part of the union. And so the family yore went, the resistor said, "no", and he was gunned down with nary another word.

After 3 years in the service, I joined the taxicab union while going to school. When my Dad found out I was a part of that union, which 20 years before had its own tales of Chicagoese, he pulled me out of bed and laid down the law that I end my career driving for the Yellow Cab Co.

Most Chicago-born boys have many hoodlum stories to tell, mostly third and fourth-hand as those mentioned. Still, they've been a part of our growing up here. Thus, the mention of their hood operation here, or the fact they may live down the street, is not unusual.

One irony which we long had been aware of concerned the latter many Niles residents got themselves into when a negro family moved into town. While many Nilesites had nightly meetings figuring out what could be done to keep out the negro veteran with 2 college degrees, a white resident only a short distance away was making the headlines in every Chicago newspaper for his traffic in robbery, dealing with dope and other activities not fit for even an adult audience. Nobody batted a white resident about this Nilesite. We always figured this was just one more example of good old "Chicagoese".

Legion Auxiliary Announces Date Of Christmas Luncheon

Each year the Morton Grove American Legion Auxiliary Unit #134 begins the holiday season with their annual holiday luncheon. Auxiliary Christmas Cheer Chairman Mrs. Jack Terrazas has reported she has set Wednesday, December 6th as the date of the heralded Christmas party for the 1967 season.

To be held once again at the Legion Memorial Home, the noon meal will feature a delicious entree and accompaniments, all for a tiny donation.

Mrs. Terrazas indicates the rose bowl will be back again, Santa Claus will pay his annual visit with a sack full of items for youngsters and oldsters, there will be door prizes and other awards and card of your choice may be played in the afternoon.

The Legion Home is gaily decorated for this festive holiday party of the year and this festive occasion puts the entire village in the true Christmas spirit; but Mrs. Terrazas points out "the true meaning of the party is in its name - Christmas Cheer", for our boys. Proceeds are used by the Unit Rehabilitation Committee to make the December 25th holiday a little more cheerier for those boys still confined to hospitals.
