First O' The Month Meanderings

St. John Brebeuf's first annual International Festival had the "sold out" sign posted by 9:15 P. M. Saturday night. Inside, the walls were bulging, as more than 3,100 people saw the 2 night's entertainment. There were Irish songs, and bamboo dances from the Philippines, and there was a German sing-along and Polish and Italian singing and skits and an International Cafe which served corned beef and pizzas. More than 600 workers poured their hearts into the weekend which proved to be a great success, and which is likely to be repeated next year for 2 week-ends.

One of the many talents included Niles Park District President Jerry Sullivan, who was the MC at the Chicago Today show, and sang beautifully. The amazing creative work which was done by those who transferred the classrooms into the very festive displays proves we've loads of local talent among Nilesites.

We can't get off this tax squeeze kick we've been writing about, because it's the paramount issue facing our communities, and it's a subject which is being discussed continuously in our areas.

When the East Maine unincorporated area began its boom some 8 years ago many of us talked or wrote about what should be done. Politicians toyed with suggestions what should have been done but none really took action, applied pressure, or in any way led the community toward a solution. Thus, the community remained in limbo, watching the building taking place there, which inevitably meant higher taxes for every resident in Maine Township.

The time has long ago arrived when something has to be done about mounting taxes. Again, since the politicians are not likely to do much leading, residents are going to have to do something about trying to find solutions to a most complex problem.

Since the purpose of this newspaper is to inform, and not to propagandize on behalf of any group, it is well to recall that all taxpayers in Niles and Maine townships will have 22 cents per $100 assessed valuation added to their new taxbills for the junior college. We okayed 17-1/2 cents for the educational fund and 5 cents for the building fund last April 8, which should show up on this year's taxbills.

While there are not any present plans, Maine High School Board members have discussed coming back to voters for more money for the #207 high school district. And over in Niles Township a Monday night meeting discussed ways of alleviating crowding at Niles West.

Back at the parochial schools Brebeuf is talking about a $1,000 raise for teachers and we've been told there's a $60,000-$70,000 burden in this area as well.

The question has to be asked: "How high is up?" Just how far can residents in our area go in paying for these costs?

In the major problem area, district 68, the Board has done a tremendous job in giving the area quality education, despite the many obstacles there. But there's a great many people who have private school fees to pay, who don't use the public schools, and ask, "Why can't the classroom load be increased?" Oak School resident Frank Cicero asked the school board why 24-children classrooms couldn't be increased to about 30?

While many of us go to the polls and always vote "Yes", saying "education must be paid for at all costs", there has suddenly been a counter-group which refuses to go along. And we believe this counter-force is growing larger with voters who formerly voted "Yes".

The simplest answer is to pressure larger government bodies for greater amounts of money. The state is not doing its share, being among the worst in the country in subsidizing local education. But while we wait for some help from Springfield the problems continue to grow, and our average income communities get caught in a bind.

MAY LOWER VILLAGE TAX RATE IN 1971

The lowering of Niles' village property rate by about $5 per head per household is a likelihood for 1971.

At Niles Tuesday night village board meeting Mayor Blase read a resolution which states "we intend to try our utmost to let whatever monies we receive from the State Income Tax reflect in our property tax rate." After the meeting Blase and Manager Ken Scheel said they believed some reduction of the village property tax will result from this action.

Local school districts have been requesting municipalities share with the schools in state income tax money. Blase noted the overlapping school districts in the village, which also are in neighboring towns, makes such a refund to the schools most difficult. The state legislature indicated municipalities should consider helping the school districts. However, the resolution contends if the legislature wanted this money to go to the school districts it would have given it to them directly.

In other actions a letter from U. S. Senator Smith acknowledged receipt of Niles' desires for larger postal facilities. He said the need is apparent and interested government officials were looking at another building in the area. He said the Post Office will seek another facility. Blase noted about 75 businessmen and companies have written letters requesting a new facility be considered.

At village attorney's recommendation the board is amending the obscenity code. Niles code could not be enforced in light of recent Supreme Court decisions. New law will make it possible.

...Scheel reported October sales tax refund is $103,822.

...Reported the Family Service Counseling Service is now one year old and 315 cases have been activated during the year.

...The Board okayed a stop sign on the southwest corner of Church and Maryland.

...Bids were turned over to committee for Greenwood ave., sewer and new Albion water main.

...Petition for a bike shop and second floor living quarters, turned down by the zoning board, at 8140 Milwaukee ave., will be studied for 2 weeks. Robert Amling, owner of a shop on Oakton st., made the request pointing to other second floor apartments in the area. Acknowledging the Board has rejected most cases, the okaying Skaja Funeral Home's second floor quarters above its business, Blase noted zoning experts generally do not recommend combining commercial and residential zoning in the same area.

...Turned over to the Plan Commission a variation request to build a home on a 32 foot lot at 7801 Oconto and for a 5 foot fence variation at 6917 Keeney.

...At village attorney's recommendation the board is amending the obscenity code. Niles code could not be enforced in light of recent Supreme Court decisions. New law will make it possible.

Kiwanis Drug Alert Program

The Kiwanis Club of Niles will begin a program of drug abuse education, according to M. Wittkemper, President of the club. The program is entitled Operation Drug Alert. It will be directed to the community in general, but ultimately to those in the upper elementary and junior high schools who have not yet been confronted with an option of voluntary drug use. Operation Drug Alert constitutes Kiwanis International's "major emphasis program in community service for the current year. Reviewing films and materials for the program are: 1. to r., the club's president M. Wittkemper, Ed Salerno, Len Happ and Al Johnson. The Niles Kiwanis will sponsor a study group for those who wish further information on drug abuse beginning Feb. 25 at the Niles Park District, 7877 Milwaukee ave. (Story on Page 13)

Blase Endorsed By C.O.P.E.

Committee Chairman Nicholas B. Blase of the Maine Township Regular Democratic Organization received the endorsement of C.O.P.E. (Committee on Political Education) of the 10th Congressional District for the post of Democratic Central Committeeman from that same district.

Blase was interviewed Sunday, Feb. 1 by C.O.P.E.'s endorsement committee, a non-partisan organization acting as the political arm of the AFL-CIO, whose function and purpose is to inform and educate the labor force about the candidates who will best reflect the attitudes of the labor unions and the voting populace as well. C.O.P.E. spent more than 6 months informing labor forces throughout the state of Illinois of their voting responsibilities by sending representatives from the organization on a traveling junket in the November 1968 National Election.

Blase also seeks reelection as the Democratic committeeman of Maine Township. In addressing the endorsement committee he reiterated the position he has taken with regard to a city-oriented Democratic Party and the fact that this leadership has and is not reflecting the attitudes of suburbanites and their problems. Blase told the group, "With only 24 State Central Committeemen representing the entire state of Illinois, it is imperative that your attitudes, your desires, your wishes be reflected by men who can create and establish policy for the regions they represent. We can do this in the 10th Congressional District by making the post of State Central Committeeman one of importance rather than a regard for faithful service rendered to the Party."

Blase went on further to discuss the 5 basic problems of the District: high property taxes, mass transportation, air and water pollution, additional state aid to education, and the development of additional recreation facilities. "Air pollution affects the resident in Melrose Park as well as in Des Plaines, aid to education is equally important to the resident of Maywood as it is to the resident of Niles, Mass transportation affects every suburb and the problems of scent recreational facilities at all levels knows no boundaries."

Blase continued, "We of the Democratic Party must become responsive to these needs and look towards finding solutions to these problems. I believe this is the first time that a candidate for the position of State Central Committeeman has taken the time or trouble to outline the problems to our voters. It's time to make this position one of importance and accept it as the policy making arm of the Democratic Organization."

On the basis of his answers to the endorsement committee's questions, Blase received this well coveted endorsement.

The school was sponsored by the American Water Works Association. Speakers were N. J. Dautoust of the City of Chicago Water Works, H. R. Frye of Evanston Water Works, Walter Peter, Director of Education, AWWA, of New York and Robert Baker, Technical Director of Chlorination Unit from New Jersey. Reply To "Professional Housewife"

Dear Mr. Besser:

It seems to me that the "professional housewife" and the group of people who share her opinions have placed the "no" vote where it can do the most harm rather than the most good. For whether we like it or not, our children and their education will suffer for it - that's fact not just talk. It is regrettable that these people did not know sooner about the "power" of the "people". If they had, they could have directed that power into the right channels - their local and state representatives!

I agree with her statement that the tax burden on the people of this district has become unbearable and that the municipalities should channel our tax dollars into education. I do not understand her referral to the "spending whims" of the school district. I presume she is referring to the members of the school board who are the ones who make up the school budget and so do the "spending". How can anyone think that the work these people do or the decisions they make are done merely by "whim"? Has she any facts to substantiate such a statement, or is it just an irresponsible accusation? These people who serve on the school board have just as much at stake as we do, for they live in the school district, pay the same rate of tax as we do and send their children to the schools in the district. I also disagree with her belief that people who have gone out to vote can be called an "apathetic mass" - quite the contrary - it is those people who do not vote who are apathetic.

This is an election year, the time when the "people" can let their "power" be felt strongly if they will take the time and effort to let those people whom they choose to represent them, know how they want them to vote on issues of vital concern to education in this state. Our Con Con delegates are asking for our opinions on changing the State Constitution. Now is the time to voice that opinion. Let them know we want and desperately need to change the antiquated laws on education in Illinois like removing the 5% bonded indebtedness and replacing the current irrational system of financing suburban schools with a system that compensates for tax base inequities. For a state as wealthy as Illinois, it is a disgrace that we rank among the lowest of the 50 states in state aid to education. I believe that our district does supply quality education - a quality that most districts do not come anywhere close to duplicating. Our grievances do not lie with the people who represent us on the school board, but rather with those people who represent us in the local and state governments. The Income Tax Bill, which was passed by the legislature, because of its wording leaves the decision to the municipalities as to whether they share the state income tax funds with the school districts. If there is no further help from the state or the municipalities, then who bears the burden? We the residents of the school district do!

Do we hold education in such low esteem that we cannot see it is the only bargain we get for our tax dollar? In our society, taxation is the method by which we purchase collectively that which we could not afford individually. I am one who does not want to destroy the quality of the education of my child and my neighbor's child, the only commodity I know of which lasts a lifetime!

Sincerely,
Mrs. Arlene Nides

A Voice From "Niles Days"

Dear Mr. Besser:

I wish to answer you on the article in your last week paper, I am on the board of directors for Niles Days. No Mr. Besser we did not have to buy an ambulance for Niles. We wanted to. The money from 1969 Niles Days funds was being asked for by the same organizations that asked for it in 1968 and three of them have not used the money yet. They are the Youth Congress-Commission, the Niles Art Guild and Friends of the Library; so why should we give more money. As for the Senior Citizens we always give them what they ask for except in 1969.

As for the teens, well all I can say is they are not interested in anything for very long. A lot of good money has gone down the drain with projects that were started for the teens with Niles Days money. (Remember the Crab?) It seems to me that the bad ones destroy everything they are given. They must first be taught to respect other people's property and take an interest and pride in their village, then I'm sure we would be more than willing to help them. It's just too bad that the good teens which there are many have to suffer for the few bad ones. The kids today have too much too soon and have not had to earn it. Everything is handed to them on a silver platter. Clothes, money, cars, etc. What they really need is a good firm hand to guide them and also to give them a crack in the mouth when they need it and also love and understanding in plain English; they need parents, not buddies. My youngest is 18 and believe me he is not raised yet. I still play detective, it's a big job, but he is my responsibility.

Well anyway Mr. Besser that is why we decided to buy the ambulance for Niles. Everyone in Niles will benefit from it. I could give you a long list of things that Niles Days money does, but we never get credit for it anyway.

Golf-Maine Park Construction Slated

Golf-Maine Park District president Donald Ross announced at the Feb. 1 regular board meeting that the district expects to authorize the advertising of bids for construction of the park site at Dee rd. and Emerson st., at the regular board meeting to be held Sunday, March 1. Bids will be opened later in March.

Construction will begin as early in the Spring as weather permits. The Site Plan which was previously approved after public hearings includes baseball fields, playgrounds, tennis and basketball courts, ice skating area, paved walks, benches, area lights and landscaping. Total cost of this construction is estimated at $419,000.00.

Approximately $90,000.00 worth of this construction will not be included in the bids, against the possibility of receiving a Federal grant of a maximum of $45,000.00. No work can be begun on this portion of the construction until the government acts on the grant application.

The district has approximately $230,000.00 in its construction fund. If additional funds are not made available through bonds or other means, construction will halt when present funds are depleted. Development of the District's other park site at Kathy Ln. and Western ave.; consideration of construction of a recreation building; and additional land acquisition and development plans will depend on future financing.

The approximately 3 1/2 acres on the Site Plan set aside for a pool complex will be graded and grassed, to provide additional open-play space. In other business, the Board authorized the firm of Howard Voss and Associates, financial consultants, to begin studies for a bond referendum. The study will cover a bond issue to provide funds for completion of the Dee and Emerson site, plus funds for additional land acquisition and development of additional park sites.

The Board also heard reports from Commissioners Martin Katzenberger and Donald Ross, who had been investigating securing state or private fund grants. Katzenberger reported that the total amount of money available through the state for the more than 266 Park Districts in Illinois is only one million dollars, Ross reported that he had contacted the Illinois Association of Park Districts and the National Recreation and Park Association; neither group could provide information on the existence of private fund grants programs for park construction.

Ross also reported that he had discussed the possibility of additional federal financing with Senator Charles Percy's office, and had been advised to investigate the Neighborhood Facilities Grant program. Investigation revealed that this program requires 1/3 of the families benefiting from the program to be classified as low income.

New Interest Rates At Des Plaines Bank

Des Plaines National Bank is now offering its depositors maximum interest rates on savings in accordance with recently passed Federal Reserve Board regulations, president G. Rex Wilson announced Monday.

"Retroactive to Jan. 21, 1970 when the new rulings of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System went into effect, interest rates on our Regular Passbook Savings Accounts will increase from 4% to 4-1/2% per annum, paid quarterly," said Wilson.

Des Plaines National continues to offer Special Passbook Accounts which earn 5% interest per year, paid quarterly, on a minimum balance of $1,000 or more, and automatically renewable Certificates of Deposit which earn 5% per annum at maturity, which can be from 3 to 12 months.

In addition, Wilson announced that Des Plaines National's depositors can get a guaranteed return on their investment of 5-1/2% for one year single maturity Certificates of Deposit and 5-3/4% per annum for 2 year single maturity Certificates of Deposit issued in amounts of $1,000 or more in multiples of $500.

"In this way, it is now possible for our investors to increase their rate of return by 3/4 of a percent if they are able to commit their funds for a two year period," he added.

Maximum rates for time deposits of $100,000 or more have also been increased under these new federal regulations so that Des Plaines National will now be able to pay investors up to 7.50% for Certificates of Deposit of 1 year or more. Interest rates for CDs of $100,000 or more issued for less than 1 year will be as follows, the president stated:

- 30-59 days - 6.25%
- 60-89 days - 6.50%
- 90-179 days - 6.75%
- 180 days to one year - 7%

DFNB's president also emphasized that each account at Des Plaines National is insured up to $20,000 now by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. "So it looks like 1970 is the year to SAVE more and EARN more with complete safety and convenience at our bank."

"Our walk-up teller windows at 678 Lee st. are open every Wednesday from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. for the added convenience of our customers, both for savings and checking transactions, money orders, loan payments and Christmas Club payments.

"And by the middle of the year, our new Auto Bank at 518 Lee st., (corner Perry and Lee) will be in operation for added convenience and personalized service."

Des Plaines National Bank's assets have now passed the $26 million mark.

A "No" Vote Disasterous For Dist. 63

Voters in East Maine School District 63 will have a second opportunity to approve the funds which are necessary, according to members of the Board of Education and school officials, to continue a sound educational program in the district's 9 elementary and 2 junior high schools (one to open next fall) for the next two years.

A defeat of the tax increase proposal a second time on March 28 would mean the "total destruction of the school district," according to Supt. Frank Dagne.

For even if the most drastic and untenable of cutbacks (such as the elimination of nearly a fourth of the district's classroom teachers and the freezing of all salaries) suggested by some at the Feb. 3 continued board meeting were made, he says, it would only postpone the inevitable; that day when the district would not have sufficient funds to operate.

Date set for the second special school tax election is Saturday, March 28. Residents of the district will be presented with one proposition: a 40-cent increase in the educational fund tax rate from $1.81 to $2.21 per $100 of assessed valuation. Only 35-cents, however, would be levied the first year. The additional 5-cents (or full 40-cent increase) would be levied the second year.

This single request for a 40-cent increase in the educational fund tax rate is 7 1/2 cents less than the combined request of a 30-cent increase in the educational fund tax rate and a 17 1/2 cent increase in the building (operation and maintenance) fund tax rate increase presented to voters at the special tax election defeated on Jan. 27.

The district, however, would receive the same amount of funds for the next two crucial years under the new rate increase request as under the Jan. 27 request. The difference: the district would not levy an additional 5 cents the third year and 2 1/2-cents the fourth year.

Officials of Dist. 63 are asking for the minimum funds needed for two years, in the hope that by the end of that period greater state and federal aid will be assigned to local schools. The district's need for funds is being presented in a single request for a tax increase in the educational fund to avoid misunderstanding created by usage of the term "building fund."

For although the Board of Education has a d repeatedly pointed out that the tax increases in both the educational and building (operation and maintenance) funds presented to voters on Jan. 27 would be used to meet educational expenditures, a variance in the total votes cast for the two propositions indicates that the misunderstanding persisted.

"Building Fund" is a legal term, an unfortunate choice of words, designating a category of monies used by a school district to maintain and operate school buildings. It would not be used to finance the construction or improvement of school buildings.

CANCER . . . AND YOU

Be on your guard against promises of a sure-fire cancer cure. No reputable druggist or physician will offer any panacea for the disease that every year takes over 1 1/4 million lives in the United States. Perhaps the apparently incurable nature of the disease prompts so many people to fall victim to the claims of fakirs and quacks, but cancer is not as incurable as commonly supposed. A vast research program now underway has had results that lead to the expectation that there will soon be a major breakthrough in cancer cure.

Are we on this vicious circle of civilization, have we passed the point where faith gave us liberty and procured abundance. Are we in the stage of selfishness, or complacency, or apathy, or perhaps even dependency? Can we stem the tide? See your physician TODAY, and have your twice a year check-up, YOU'LL FEEL BETTER IF YOU DO! Remember BIRCHWAY DRUGS . . . 7503 Milwaukee Ave. . . The Niles Kiwanis club began its drug abuse education some two years ago when it purchased and donated to the Niles Police Department a film titled "Marijuana." When Kiwanis International announced last October that its major emphasis program for community service for the current year would be Operation Drug Alert, the Niles club voted the major portion of its budget to the school program. An additional film was purchased for use in the upper and junior high grades. While we can all sit around and bemoan this ever-increasing problem, we're going to have to pressure the men in office to help us. We're going to have to ask guys like Nick Blase, who is seeking our vote, to apply pressure for help. And the men who are running the state, bosses are going to have to be pressured into facing this problem and genuinely help the people they represent. There's been a genuine cop-out from politicians on aid to schools, and it's time they be made to face this problem. Passing a state income tax and then having municipalities decide whether or not they would pass on money to the school districts, manifest the refusal of the men we elect to face this acute problem. And villages refusal to filter the money into the school districts, is a pax on a political system, which is paid for by the very people who become short-changed. The burden rests with the men we elect, but when they don't do their job then the voters must take action.

Study New Grading System at Golf

A reappraisal of grading practices is underway at Golf Jr. High school in Morton Grove, reports Principal Joseph Sullivan. Teachers are making a study of grading because of all the furor and controversy on the subjects, to see how it affects them and their students.

A recent meeting assembled 24 home-room representatives of the students, elected by their classmates in the 310-student school. They were not permitted to discuss any individual teacher or his grading procedure.

"Many of the comments made by various representatives showed a great deal of insight," said Sullivan, who is from Northbrook. Here are some of those comments, not revealing who made them: "Parents put a lot of pressure on us to get good grades. They expect us to get A's in everything."

"Marking on the curve isn't fair. If you are in a class with a lot of bright kids, you can't help but get A's or B's and they don't even have to work very hard." "Girls are given better grades than boys. If a girl has the same average as I do, she gets one letter grade better." (Says Sullivan - "It may be because girls are neater.")

"I think report cards make the majority of students work harder...I don't think that should be." (Sullivan asked for a show of hands on this; 15 thought they did, 7 did not, 2 didn't respond.) "Some teachers don't grade you on your work, but on your attitude toward class." "Instead of report cards, teachers could tell kids how good you are doing." (Referring to verbal grade reports, not written.) "Parents expect too much out of kids."

Ken Scheel Niles C.C. Speaker

A Look into the Seventies will be projected without an astrology chart for members of the Niles Chamber of Commerce and their guests when they meet at Bunker Hill Country club, 6635 Milwaukee, for luncheon next week.

Although the meeting date has been set for Tuesday, Feb. 17, close to the time the zodiac swings from Aquarius to Pisces, the guest speaker will not call on the stars or other gimmicks to foretell the future.

As a Niles resident, former trustee and present Village Manager, the guest speaker, Kenneth Scheel is at the hub of business management and planning. Invited to be present with Scheel by Chamber president, Robert C. Worde, Jr. of the Teletype Corp. are village officials with key posts pertaining to Niles' future.

The social half-hour will begin at 1:45 a.m., with seating for luncheon promptly at 12:30 according to Wordy. For reservations, call Western Girls, 824-8156.

Illegal to "sell obscene matter to minors (under 18). Defining obscenity, the attorney said material considered obscene does not have any redeeming social value.

Trustees Keith Peck and Angelo Marcheschi discussed considering setting up a review board for films and Peck said perhaps Niles should lead the way in tightening obscenity regulations.

The Board discussed the movie films in which one may be for a general audience while a second one may be rated for adults only. They also discussed persons under 18 who work in theatres in which adult films are shown. While no decision was reached Niles Board indicated it would like to increase surveillance in this area.

Dist. 63 Begins Cutbacks

More than 100 concerned parents heard the Board of Education of EastMaine School District 63 vote at the Feb. 3 continued board meeting to cancel all field trips unless paid by students, to eliminate all paid lunchroom supervision in the district's nine elementary schools except for bussed students and to cancel all intramural and extra-curricular activities in both elementary and junior high. These cutbacks will go into effect this school year.

In answer to a question from the audience, William Gurolnick president of the District 63 Board of Education, indicated that parents could certainly finance those activities cancelled if they so desired.

"Some parents may think that we are pressuring them into voting 'Yes' on March 28 by making these cuts," Superintendent Dagne commented later. "We realize that these things will work a hardship on parents and will certainly hurt children. But the point is: the financial prospects for the future in this district are dim, and we've got to begin to conserve funds now against a possible defeat on March 28."

The lunchroom supervisory program, he says, was instituted to meet a community need for the convenience of working mothers. "It is the one program in the district which least affects the educational program and which can be terminated this school year, so if we are to cut, this must be one of the first programs to go."

"We hope, of course, that with these immediate cuts parents will realize that our predicament is serious and that the cuts we have made so far are only minor ones. The point is: we could cut to the point of totally destroying the educational programs in our schools and still face a bankruptcy crisis. The people have got to realize this."

"People tell us to cut," Frank Dagne, superintendent, says, "but we can't cut without hurting the kids in one way or another. Even if we strip the district of everything except a bare minimum of administrators and teachers, we'll still run out of money at some point within the next couple of years."

Among extra-curricular activities eliminated: chorus, glee club, drama club, school newspapers, art club, cheerleading, pep club, science club, home-makers club, after-school baseball, basketball and wrestling practice and intramurals, student council, the radio and television clubs.

Jubilee News To Be Aired

Some 15 Chicagoland radio stations have been sent announcements about Morton Grove's 75th Diamond Jubilee. Most of these public service announcements will be on the air the first week of February according to Public Relations Director Frank McTier.

Station WNUS will carry a taped message throughout the following days: Feb. 15 through Feb. 18; and also in the month of March, the 5 through the 18 and from March 29 through the 31.

Greg Olson Leading Scorer

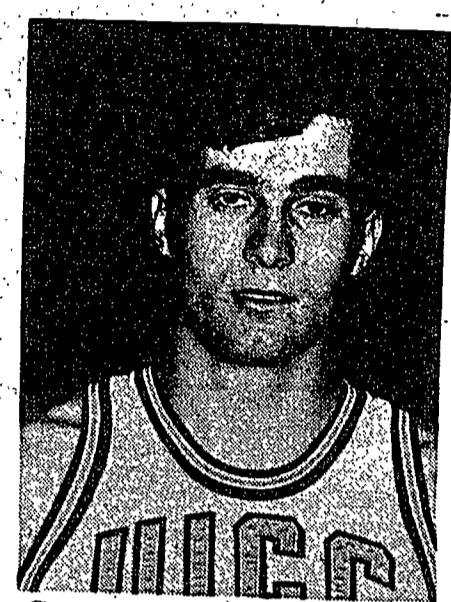

At 6'3" Greg Olson is considered small for a college center but the Niles Maine East High school product is filling the shoes of two men for the University of Illinois at Chicago Circle basketball team.

For the second straight season Olson leads the Chikas in scoring and rebounding and has been the key reason for Circle's nine wins in their first 17 games. Only a junior, Olson has scored 327 points for a 19.2 average and has pulled down an average 13 rebounds per game.

"He is, without question, the finest all-around player I've ever coached," said his coach Tom Russo, now in his eighth year as head mentor.

Other Circle athletic officials feel Olson could very well be the greatest basketball player in school history. Olson set a school single season scoring record for the Chikas last year with 426 points, breaking Ray Milknaits' mark of 423 points in 1966. He also set a game rebound record with 25 against Chicago State college.

After the season Olson was named "Most Valuable Player" and in the spring was named the school's "Athlete of the Year."

Notre Dame Fencing Finals

On Saturday, Jan. 31, Gordon Tech hosted the final A.F.L.A. fencing meet before the mid-west championships.

Freshman Terry McConville took first place in the 13-14 age division while teammate Mike Braskich took fourth. Mike must feel jinxed as this is the second tournament this year that he has missed a trophy by two or three touches.

Notre Dame failed to place anyone in the 15-16 bracket finals. In the 17-18 bracket, Notre Dame placed two in the finals: Jim Mullenix took third place and Steve Mashl wound up sixth.

There was a fence off for first place between Tom Fillipp and Ken Fleischer and Tom won.

Students from Notre Dame and Maine South led the other boys in trophies (2) and Notre Dame, New Berlin and Maine led the others in finalists (3).

With only a few dual meets left, the schools are looking towards the two days of competition at the state championships at Urbana in March.

Finalists: 13-14 - 1, McConville; 2, Labow; 3, Hitt; 4,

Koehnline, Hartstein Speak At Maine Dinner

Dr. William A. Koehnline, president of Niles-Maine Township Community College and Raymond E. Hartstein, chairman of the college's board of trustees, were the speakers at the annual dinner for Maine Township's school board members and administrators, Thursday, Jan. 29 at the VFW Hall in Park Ridge.

The affair, sponsored by the Superintendents' Club was chaired by Deno J. Fenili, Superintendent of School District 79. Board members and administrators from Districts 207, 62, 63, and 64 were in attendance, as were members of the community college board.

Dr. Koehnline gave his audience a projected look at the new community college for 1973. By that time, he said the institution should begin to demonstrate its personality.

"It will then be hard" the new president stated, "to look back at tonight, when we had 7 board members, 2 full-time staff members and a crystal ball."

Dr. Koehnline said he expected 1973 to find the college still in interim facilities, but permanent facilities under construction. Classes are expected to run from 8 a.m. until 10 p.m. There will be a full transfer program and occupational courses that will be terminal in 2 years. There will be general courses of both long and short duration.

He mentioned that there would be an emphasis on counselor services, and an effort to use the resources of the community as the resources of the college. Every concern of the community, he hopes, will be a concern of the college. As for the development of extra-curricular activities the emphasis is expected to be on participation.

Dr. Koehnline told the group that the college would not try to duplicate programs of the other community colleges, but would strive to satisfy the needs and desire people in the Niles-Maine Community.

Honor Rolls at Maine

Girls outpaced the boys named to the high honor roll and honor roll of Maine Township High School East as the first semester closed. Principal John J. Clouser announced this week.

86 girls, distributed among the 4 classes, achieved high honor roll standing, to 69 boys. These are students with a grade average of 4 out of a possible 5, with no grade below B.

For the honor roll, 426 girls had a grade average of 3.0 through 3.99 with no marks below C to 267 boys. A total of 848 students made the honor rolls out of an enrollment of some 3900 students.

Open House Mar. 1 For Non-Public Schools

Martin J. Lowery, chairman of the Chicago Archdiocesan School Board, announced recently that all Catholic elementary and high schools in the archdiocese will be in session Sunday afternoon, March 1, to join in the statewide project of "Open House Sunday" for non-public schools.

On that day, non-public schools throughout Illinois will be open for inspection by the general public, Lowery said, and the Archdiocesan School Board has approved participation in the undertaking. "Regular classes will be conducted in academic subjects which are taught in common by non-public and public schools," he reported.

This will be a demonstration of Catholic support for their schools," he said. "Its theme and spirit are, 'Come and see what we're asking you to buy.' The public is entitled to see the services we're asking the state to purchase."

The Chicago Motor Club-AAA advises motorists to be on the alert for pedestrians when passing buses stopped at the curb. Hurrying to make connections with other transit vehicles, or just to get across the street, passengers getting off the bus often disregard auto traffic. Always, a motorist should be alert for pedestrians.
