Will the 12 year old girl who asked the shell lady how to make things out of shells (At the Golf Mill Art Fair, Sunday, September 20, 1970), please get in touch with this newspaper.

I know it's hunting a needle in a haystack. She was accompanied by her father who had bought a chambered nautilus from me the year prior to this.

I was hot, distracted, tired and hungry, and I did not answer her question. I thoughtlessly gave her an adult "non-answer" answer.

I do have a beginner's booklet which I shall be happy to give to Dr. Richard R. Short, Supher, to get her started on an enjoyable hobby. Leonard Gabriel, of the architectural firm of Erickson,

She was such a sweet serious little girl ... and I didn't help her. When a child wants to know how to do a thing, they need concrete directions and I didn't even refer her to a library.

Thanks for your help.

The cramming of Maine East students into school buses is a crime and something should be done about it. Even though we pay a SEAL on the bus my son stands crammed, sardine-fashio all the way to school. Last week while coming home from school the driver closed the door before he could get off and he was left off 6 blocks north of his normal drop-off point.

Since Niles now is helping subsidize the bus company what can the village do to alleviate this problem?

M. J.

A Maine High School official said the school can't do much about the problem since the buses are public buses, not school buses, and the school district merely acts as an agent by selling tickets for the company. Niles Village manager Ken Scheel said he believed there was a state statute under the motor traffic section which makes such action illegal. Nevertheless, because of the short ride, plus the obvious financial burdens of the local company, it's unlikely the problem can be solved without placing additional financial burdens on United Motor Coach Company.

Mr. Hancks, vice president of United Motor Coach Co., told the Bugleline the public buses are much safer than school buses. He said they have 10 rivets on the side of the body, compared to 3 on school buses. He noted there are 2 schedules for morning passengers and if the students insist upon a seat they can catch the earlier bus which leaves at 6:55 A.M. compared to the 2nd schedule at 7:35. He also noted the 20 cent ride compared to an adult fare of 45¢ to 50¢ for a comparable ride and noted the student bus ticket can be used for any public buses in the area.

I attended the culminating dinner of the Morton Grove Diamond Jubilee Committee Sunday evening and would like to commend them on the tremendous effort they undertook on behalf of the community. Have you any idea how many manhours of work they put into this

OK DRIVE-IN BANK ON

Maine North GREENWOOD

Niles Population Going Down.

Annexing Maryhill Cemetery

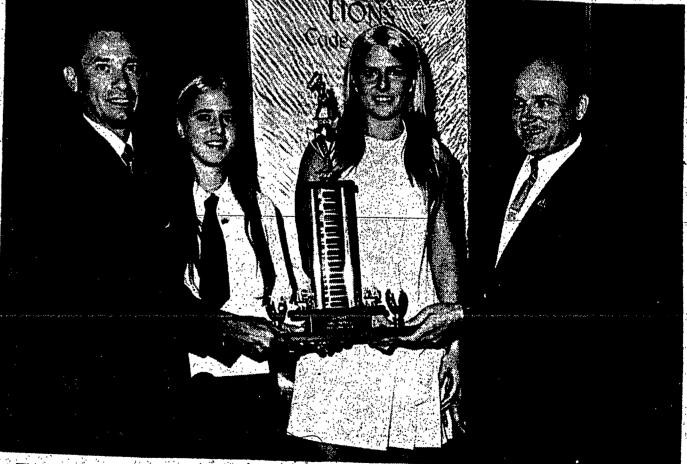

A drive-in bank facility for a new bank at 8825 Greenwood on the west side of Greenwood north of Dempster was approved by village trustees Tuesday night. While officials agreed with the lone dissenter, Tr. Rich Gruenwald that traffic in the area is already excessive. they acknowledged a rejection of the request might place the fac-ility in Park Ridge (on the south side of Dempster) or the bank might not be able to receive its charter. State law requires a drive-in facility, and while the bank will be in the Greenwood-Dempster Shopping Center, the likelihood of a drivein there is slim. Gruenweld, in opposing the drive-in, said the action should be put off until there are 4 lanes in the area. Mayor Blase said there were no plans contemplated and it might be 5 years before such school would be ready for ocan improvement is made. New trustee Ralph Bast, seconded Tr. Pete Pesole's motion for approval, noting the traffic flow there into and out of the facility will be to the north, preventing left hand turns. The question of preventing cars crossing from the center-into the facility will be left ly post signs against such action. In other village board actions, Niles passed a resolution to re-annex Maryhill Cemetery into the village. It had initi-ally been in Niles 12 years ago, but requested disannexation. Village attorney Dick Troy said the North Maine Fire Department District, which is challenging Niles' annexing property in its district to the north, contends annexation places its district in jeopardy. It notes the Maryhill land, which is in North Maine's district, has been separated from the rest of the district by the annexation, and this legal technicality resulted in Troy's recommendation Niles annex the property. The Cath-olic Archdiocese is willing for the annexation, and Niles expects it to be completed by the end of the year. Included in its resolution, Niles will not charge any burial tax, a concern which the cemetery interests had. Rich Gruenwald wryly gave the Board's sentiments when he said he felt when one is laid to his eternal rest, he should at least have a "free

The Lions club of Niles girls soft ball team completed a most successful season winning 15 of 17 games to capture first place in the Niles Youth game winning streak then dropped their last game forcing a play off. Playing the Whiz Kids, the Lions team romped to a 20-2 victory to clinch first Manager Todd Bavaro said, "it was truly a team effort that made the team successful. When a team is formed it is difficult to find the Congress soft ball league. The girls started the proper positions to play the girls, but they have season with a six game winning streak, dropped ing the willingness to play any position made them a close one and proceeded with another eight successful. He thanked everyone who participated in making the league a success and said it was a pleasure to be part of it.

Legion Activity Calendar 'Very Busy'

The first of many social events on the calendar for the Morton Grove Post #134 of the American Legion is a Saturday, Oct. 31 Hallowe'en Dance. Rather than a Veteran's Day function in Nov. when everyone wishes to be fresh the following day for the parade, Legionnaires are planning a Hallowe'en costume affair with the proceeds promised to the Auxiliary unit as they have been in the past and which are used for rehabilitation work for the veterans, the Auxiliary's prime purpose.

After Oct. 19 tickets will be available for the general public,

The affair is also so spectacular that the Postallows their members to make a donation for the purchase of tickets before anyone else.

Jr. Vice Cmdr. Frank Hilber, 5733 Lincoln, is chairman of the event. He may be reached er in o-agas; or bis co-le servation chairman, Ed Martin, may be reached at YO 5-3478.

Casual attire is suggested if participants do not care to dress in costume. However, the most unusually dressed couple will receive a prize. For a $10 per couple donation, the even-ing of dancing, liquid refreshments and a late evening buffet snack is available.

The Veteran's Day Parade is to be held at 1 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 8. Earl Christian sen of Chicago and Al Nehart of Morton Grove are co-chairmen. They request groups who would like to march with Post #134 to advise of these intentions at the organization's earliest opportunity. And also scheduled for the future is the Bruce Kennedy Memorial Dance which will benefit the Illinois School for the Deaf in Jacksonville. Child Welfare Chairman Tony La Rosa indicates he has bids avallable presently. It will be recalled the Kennedy lad was fatally burned in the Conrad Hilton Fire while on an outing to Chicago from the school in Jacksonville which he was attending at the time. Illinois Constitution: 1970 - Introduction

The date is Dec. 15 for the referendum on the product of the Sixth Illinois Constitutional Convention. In ceremonies marked with a sense of history, members of the Convention signed the final recommendation on Sept. 3. The Convention had held 116 plenary sessions since convening Dec. 8, 1969. The delegate body had 56 lawyers, 5 farmers, 5 bankers, 11 educators and 39 representing other occupations, from homemaker to caterer. The committees spent the equivalent of 500 days in committee work, hearing 800 witnesses in Springfield, 2,000 witnesses during 17 field hearings throughout the state, and counting 7,000 people in attendance at the hearings.

The 1970 Constitutional Convention follows those of 1818. 1847, 1862, 1870, and 1920 in the history of the state. It lasted about 9 months, spent about $2,977,000 and ended in

The recommendations adopted in some turmoil during the closing month of the Convention will be submitted to the voters on a blue paper ballot and will include the "package" which is a revised and reworded, updated and re-evaluated version of the present 1870 document. It will take a majority of those voting on the proposition to pass the package. In addition, because of the inability of the delegates to agree, 4 controversial issues were left to the decision of the voter. These are: the option to retain multi-member legislative districts and cumulative voting or to adopt single member districts, to either elect or appoint supreme, appellate and circuit court judges, to lower the voting age from the present 21 years to 18 years of age and, whether or not to abolish the death penalty. The unanswered question is on the vote required for passage of these separately submitted

In its address to the people, the Constitutional Convention says: "The Convention sought to write a constitution which was acceptable to a majority. This process of democratic discourse was seldom easy. Intense disagreement was often encountered. Members differed with one another in their efforts to find the best constitutional course for the people of IIIinois. The dominant themes throughout that search were 3 in number: greater protection of individual rights, increased re-

said Rogala, then continued,
"That is why I offer my support and endorsement of Alan Scheffres. He is the kind of candidate who shows concern for the people, more concern than was shown by Alan's opponent for me or my family during my detention. I am making this my personal campaign to speak to as many people as possible and inform them of Alan Scheffres outstanding qualifications as the Fighting Senator from the 4th."

In addition to campaigning, Rogala makes personal speaking appearances concerning the and is planning to return to his classes late this Fall at Western Michigan university

Many hours were spent re- tion whose aim has always been actual writing, rewriting, proof eading, etc. spent by the eague of Women Voters of forton Grove-Niles in preparing the copy to be inserted in the Historical Book which the Morton Grove 75th Diamond Jubilee Committee is soon to issue. Credit was paid to them this week by Jubilee Coordinator Bill Yates.

Due to unforseen circumstances, the deadline of the book has been advanced; however, Frank Mc Tier, public relations director of the Jubilee Committee indicates it will be well worth waiting for. He says, "The Know Your Town section written by the women with their exper-

Mc Tier wonders if the villagers realize there are 150,000 Leaguers in the nation located in 1200 cities. Sen. George Aiken of Vermont some time ago com-plimented the formidable success of the League of Women Voters by remarking that the busy LWV seems 10 times its

The year of 1970 marked another special occasion for the local League. After completion of a similar study of their village by the village of Niles members of the M.G. League, national approval was given through the state board for the incorporation of an area League which will encompass both sub-

Morton Grove Senior Citizens just last week enjoyed a very nice flower show at the Methodist church in Glenview. The Seniors had a very nice booth display there. There were sure some very lovely table settings and quite a few antiques such as old time lighting. There was also a very nice garden setting of the Bible Lands.

This week our Seniors took a trip to Nappanee Ind. to see a very interesting Amish settlement. We had a lovely home cooked meal in their barn setting restaurant. We enjoyed lots of antiques and plenty of history of these very gracious people.

Three times each week - more than 18 hours a week - Charles prepared the machine, inserted the tubes, watched the guages in order to give his wife the life saving treatment from this artificial kidney machine. Dolores had both her kidneys removed and was awaiting a transplant. She had been crossmatched at the University of Illinois hospital where data was placed in a computer system to be matched by a donated kidney. but none became available. Charles feels today if a kidney had been available she might still be living. Charles children, Debora Lynn, 13 and Stephen Bennett, 12 have been a tremendous consolation to their father. Charles feels, "If only one patient a year can be successfully cross-matched (through this fund) it would be wonderful."

Kidney Foundation of Illinois has as an objective to have enough people sign Donor Cards to enable everyone in need of a kidney transplant to receive one. There are some that claim a good match from an unrelated donor takes place once in every 500. There are about 300 people in Illinois today making use of the artificial kidney machine and many of these are candidates for transplant; but are unable to receive them because of the lack of available kidneys. Mr. Hoffing would like to see everyone over 18 years of age sign a Donor Card and also urges any one who is interested in supporting the Dolores M. Hoffing Memorial Fund to send the check to the Kidney Foundation for the Dolores M. Hoffing Memorial

Information about kidney disease and donor cards is available from the Kidney Foundation, 127 N. Dearborn st., Chicago 60602.

Firelight Rally Sparks ND Homecoming

A rousing homecoming week, Oct. 12-17 has been in the making for Maine Township High school East students who have planned a float-building contest. omecoming queen election, and the sale of special homecoming buttons designed by senior Rick ohnson from Glenview.

Float-building, following the theme of "Maine-agerie '70" will conclude at 9 p.m. Friday, Oct. 16 at which time Maine's first "Firelight Rally" will be held in the stadium. This rally is calculated to stir up school spirit for Saturday's game with the lighting of large M.E. ini-

Saturday morning, floats will be judged in 3 categories class, giant and midget. The annual parade will begin at 9 a.m from the fieldhouse and continue along the designated route.

The Riverside - Brookfield Bulldogs are the Demon's opponents for the football game beginning at noon. Half-time ceremonies will include special marching numbers by the band, Pom Pon girls and cheerleaders. Floats will circle the stadium' and winners of each division will be announced.

Biggest half-time thrill will probably be disclosure of the homecoming queen. She and her court will reign at the homecoming dance, "Zoo-Odyssey" beginning at 8 p.m. in the cafeteria-turned spaceship.

The class of 1960 alumni have been invited to attend all homecoming activities. Senior Maureen McConnell, chairman of the festivities commented. "I'm really excited about this year's homecoming. All our new Jean Stanley 401-145, Nancy ideas should make it the best Engle 369-135, Linda Garnett one in Maine's history."

American Education Week

"Shape Schools for the 70's" is the theme and challenge of this year's American Education Week observance, Oct 25-31. In announcing local participation in the observance, Clarence E. Culver, Superintendent of Niles Elementary schools, Dist. #71, called upon the entire community to join in a reassessment of the school's role in today's society. "During the sixtles," he said, "there was an awakening across the country to many alarming inadequacies in our educational programs and during the seven-

In addition to the traditional emphasis on school visitation by parents, good citizenship, and the need for strengthening and supporting the schools, this year's observance will focus on ways in which the schools might be changed and how more peo-ple can work together in shap-ing the schools for the 70°s, Niles' Mike Sedjo made the big jump from high school ball at Maine East to starting linebacker for Wheaton college, and he made it fast. The only freshman to crack the starting lineup, Sedjo came to the Crusaders with a fine record behind him.

The relatively small 5'9" 190 pound scrapper received all-conference and all-area recognition while at Maine East under coaches Eck and Soltis. Sedjo makes up for his lack of size with hustle and determination. Head coach Mal Pearson characterized his prize rookie as a hard hitting, enthusiastic player. With added experience, Sedjo and his mates hope to tighten up the Crusader defense to produce some victories for Wheaton. Their next chance is the homecoming game Saturday against North Central college.

Rep. Bob Juckett (R-4th) this sek endorsed the $750 million state-wide pollution bond issue to be voted on Nov. 3. Most of the funds would be spent on sophisticated sewage treatment plants, Juckett said. A small percentage would be

This bond issue, though, will do much of what has to be done now," he said.

Three-quarters of a billion dollars sounds like a lot of money, and it is," he said. "But the problem isn't going to just o away. It will take that much and much more, to put our environment back into shape. The longer we wait, the more expensive it gets, both in money and in lives."
