No 'energy crisis' for Oakton College

By Tony Davis

The "energy crisis" that has kept numerous public agencies from getting their fuel oil for this year has apparently skipped Oakton Community College.

Instead, a negotiated agreement has been reached with the Murphy-Miles division of Amoco Oil Company for the purchase of 100,000 gallons of fuel oil, OCC Board of Trustees chairman Paul Gilson announced at Tuesday night's board meeting.

Under the one-year contract, Murphy-Miles agreed to furnish the oil for 13.9¢ per gallon including delivery.

"That's only two-tenths of one percent higher than last year," Gilson said. "Considering the tight fuel situation, I think that's pretty good." Before the Board voted unanimously to approve the purchase, newly elected Trustee Thomas G. Flynn suggested a copy of the agreement be sent to Sen. Stevenson, D-Ill., whose Senate subcommittee is investigating fuel shortages in the Midwest, and Gilson agreed.

The Board also cleared the way for the addition of 200 more parking spaces by next Fall when they approved the purchase of 2.3 acres of land west of the College from a Chicago land trust company for $225,000. Occ had been authorized to purchase the land consisting of two separate parcels on March 15 by the Illinois Junior College Board.

The OCC Board had previously passed two other resolutions stating their intention to buy it.

However, the trustees of the land, the Chicago Title and Trust Company refused to sell and on May 10, the Board filed a petition to condemn the buildings there in the Cook County Circuit Court. Since then, according to the Board's resolution, the beneficiaries of the trust decided to sell rather than fight the case in court. The Trust Company, refused to identify the beneficiaries except to say that one was named "Baker", Gilson said.

In other actions the Board approved the creation of a new staff position and approved the hiring of four new faculty members.

The new position is that of the Director of Instructional Research and Education whom the Board hopes will prepare the college for its upcoming bid for accreditation by the North Cen-

SKAJA QUILTS VILLAGE BD. TO BECOME TEACHER

Man found hanged in Morton Grove

A 24 year old Lafayette, Indiana man, Joseph Rickers was found hanged from a tree on the Public Service property in the area of 9000 N. Oak Park ave., Morton Grove Monday morning.

Mr. Rickers, who was residing with his aunt, Mrs. Jamruszka at 5218 George st., Skokie, Mrs. Jamruszka told police she

In an exclusive story The Bugle has learned newly-elected village trustee Jerry Skaja has resigned in favor of teaching at Marmon Military Academy in Aurora. Skaja may become a teaching brother in the Benedictine Order, though ordination in the Order would not take place for several months.

Mrs. Skaja, mother of Jerry, as well as 2 girls and 6 other boys, (and grandmother of 32), said she was surprised at his decision though she knew he loved working with boys.

Recently, Skaja received a plaque from the Niles Youth Commission for his work with Niles youngsters. He ran the basketball program at St. John Brebeuf, and has been active in Our remembrances of Russia will be for the great contrasts we saw.

We landed in Sevastopol, a city of 150,000 and recall the dozens of flower ladies who formed a corridor in the airport where you could buy tulips and lilacs. Flowers were everywhere. Persons arriving in the airport had flowers for the guests they were visiting and the guests had flowers for the visitors coming off the plane. In all the cities you would see people with flowers heading for home. At the marketplaces outdoor vendors stood fifty deep to sell their flowers.

While flowers are a fragrant memory, you can't forget the appalling toilet facilities we mentioned in our last column. At the Sevastopol airport the inside facility had no toilet bowls in the airport terminal, only a hole in the ground which you straddled.

We attended a keno (movie house) in Tbilisi and saw James Garner speaking in Russian, while he sped his way thru "Grand Prix." The three-floored theatre had 2 interesting innovations on the top floor. While theatre-goers could wait for the end of the film, they could sit in theatre seats in the third floor lobby. About 10 rows of ten seats were there. Off the top floor lobby a cafe was in an ante room where you could drink seltzer, water, lemonade (a watered down orange drink) or a glass of tea or a cup of coffee.

We went to the Philharmonic Hall in Tbilisi for a children's dance and song program. The beautiful Philharmonia was filled to the last seat. And while the well-attired audience was enjoying an exciting evening, a late-comer tried to gain entrance to her seat and the middle-aged woman usher grabbed the woman by her belt and literally pulled her out after she had started down the front aisle.

Questions Young's campaign contributors

To the Editor:
At the 10th District Republican Women's Club annual luncheon, Rep. Sam Young attempted to refute the charge made by syndicated columnist Jack Anderson, that the oil and chemical companies from whom Young accepted large campaign contributions, may have influenced his later repeated attempts to water down a bill designed to prevent pollution of the air with toxic substances.

Young stated at the luncheon that Anderson "was a little bit short on his facts," and went on to claim that the chemical interests of the two companies mentioned, would be exempt from the bill. The freshman congressman did not specify which facts Anderson was supposed to be "short on," but it may be wise to consider the following before evaluating what is actually involved in these events:

Lawyer Chemicals, which gave Young $10,000 in campaign contributions, manufactures chemicals for use by the coatings and printing ink industry, and these chemicals are clearly subject to the bill's provisions. American Hospital Supply, contributor of $4,500 to Young, is a large supplier of drug reagents to clinical laboratories, whose chemicals are used for such purposes as blood testing. Young, a stockholder and former officer of the company, introduced an amendment that passed by voice vote, which would exempt this production from the reporting requirements of the bill.

Readers may remember that earlier this year Young received $500 from Union Oil employees, and then co-sponsored a measure to remove natural gas prices from government regulations.

If we are disturbed that this kind of activity may not be in the public interest, the least that those of us living in Young's district should do, is to let him know our concern. Otherwise, he may assume his actions are perfectly fine with his constituency, especially in light of the seemingly accepted, but questionable standards of conduct followed by so many public officials in today's political climate.

District 63 early admittance program

Friday, May 25, is the last day for interested parents to enroll their children for a pilot early admittance program to kindergarten in East Main School District 63. The new program is called P.E.A.K. (Pupil's Early Admittance to Kindergarten).

The new program will permit a limited number of selected children who are 5 years of age on or before Feb. 1, 1974, to enroll in the pilot program which will begin in September. The present cut-off date states that kindergarten children must be 5 years of age on or before Dec. 1, 1973.

Interested parents who have a child born between Dec. 2, 1968 and Feb. 1, 1969 who feel that he can handle the regular kindergarten program are asked to contact the elementary school in their attendance area. Children who are eligible will be screened through Operation Pre-Diet and by District 63 staff members. Those children who are approved through the screening process will enroll in the regular kindergarten program in September.

Plan for Morton Grove Days

Morton Grove Days 46th annual carnival to be held on June 21 thru 24 promises to be one of the best summer activities to be held in Morton Grove this year. The new site of the carnival at Dempster and Waukegan is located in the heart of Morton Grove offering all of the town's citizens a closer access to join in the celebration and fun at Morton Grove's favorite summer activity.

President of Morton Grove Days, John Arendt, assures that this year's carnival promises to be the largest and most fun-filled in the history of Morton Grove.

Concession chairman, Steve Yadron has brought together one of the largest midways ever seen in Morton Grove, consisting of a wide variety of games and prize booths, many of which will be operated by local organizations. Also some of the biggest and fastest rides in the midwest today will be on the carnival grounds.

Under the able guidance of John Arendt and the entire board of directors, the carnival presentation will be given a proper leadership to stage a successful spectacular carnival-festival.

MG Memorial Day parade

This scene depicts the Elm-Mor area, a group of homeowners patriotic beyond the call of duty; who always fly their flags and the camera in this lovely illustration.

Step off for this Monday's Memorial Day Parade, May 28, is at 1 p.m. from the Morton Grove American Legion Post #134. Many floats, groups, dignitaries, drum and bugle corps, etc., will participate. Among them will be the Niles West Band and the Morton Grove Lions club.

Mayor Jule Bode and his village board will ride in an open car and then along with the speaker of the day, the Mayor will address the groups and residents at the mid point of the parade, at the Public Library.

Parade chairman Dan Scanlon indicated the line of march will be east to Austin, south to Lincoln and then west to the library where the services in memoriam for the war dead will be held.

Legion groups involved are the Auxiliary Unit, Rifle Squad, the Juniors, S.A.L. and of course, Legionnaires themselves.

Senior Vice Commander Tony La Rosa will have a well known personality as the guest speaker of the day.

Post Commander Frank Hilbert will also address the crowd during the ceremonies.

Through the courtesy of the village Public Works Dept. Superintendent, James Dahm, American flags will fly on Dempster st. the complete weekend. These were donated to the village by Post #134 when the former Cougar Drum and Bugle Corps disbanded the remaining treasury funds were voted for this purchase.

Residents are also urged to fly their flags the whole weekend. Through Americanism Officer, John Roddy, YOS-4333, businesses and homeowners may obtain an American flag, set complete with pole, for the Legion cost as a way for Post #134 to promote the patriotic spirit with costing citizens just a minimal amount. Capt. Frank J. Allston, a naval reservist, will be the principal speaker during the mid-point ceremonies of the American Legion Post #134 Memorial Day parade Monday.

Legion Sweepstakes winners

Commander Fran Hilbert of the Morton Grove American Legion Post #134 has announced the winners of the recent Kentucky Derby Sweepstakes drawing conducted by the local Legion in conjunction with the Seventh District, American Legion.

David Ogren of Evanston was awarded the top prizes of $1,000. John Townley, Frank Park, was a $200 winner; Jim Leary, Chicago $100; and a trio of $50 prizes were awarded to Mrs. L. David, Evanston; James Pembroke, Chicago; and Pat Morey, Wooddale.

Skaja honored by Youth Commission

At its regular meeting of May 16, the Niles Youth Commission made a special presentation to Niles Village Trustee Jerry Skaja to thank him for his constant concern and assistance in planning activities for the youth of our community. The Commissioners presented Mr. Skaja with a plaque which reads as follows:

Niles Youth Commission Award presented to Jerome T. Skaja. For dedication above and beyond the call of duty to the youth of the Village of Niles over the past years.

The plaque was signed by Youth Commission Chairman Ambrose J. Panico and his Commissioners: Tom Argyrakos, Rich Aviano, Ralph Braun, Fyrells Keopke, Rich Machnowski, Mary Ann Massari, James Puccio, Kurt and Nancy Redig, Rhoda Salins, Jim Slowik and Mary Vrablik, and expresses our appreciation for all he has done.

Gala book sale

Everybody can use a good book or two around the house and the Morton Grove Public Library has a few thousand books to sell at rock bottom prices — from 5¢ on up. The sale will be held on Saturday, June 9 — 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., and Sunday, June 10 — 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. in the meeting room of the Library.

All types of books — paper-backs and hard cover, fiction and non-fiction and even an encyclopedia set or two — are in the collection. Good reading for just a few pennies is always a good buy.

Make this a must on your schedule for June 9 and 10. Come and visit your Morton Grove Public Library and take advantage of our Gala Book Sale.

SPORTS*Big league baseball for area?

Whether Big League Baseball, a program chartered by Little League, Inc. for young men 16 through 18, will be launched in the Maine-Northfield area this season or not is in the hands of about a dozen young players and two managers.

According to Bill McCarty, president of Maine-Northfield Little League, which is ready to provide a Big League program and has 26 players signed, the operation can't get under way unless there are at least 36 registrants. "And now," McCarty stated, "we've lost two prospective managers."

Maine-Northfield undertook the organization of a Big League last fall after a large group of boys completing Senior League (ages 13 to 15) play petitioned McCarty and the League for an extended program. Last fall, 85 MNLL "Alumni" expressed an interest in continued play, but as the young men took jobs or became involved in other activities, the interest dwindled until the actual enrollment was down to 26.

"The calibre of manager candidate it takes for a league like this is never easy to find," McCarty said, "and when only a handful of boys show up for organizational meetings, it's hard to expect any possible manager to be very enthusiastic."

At this point, MNLL is hoping to reach at least 12 more boys 16 to 18 who earnestly want to play ball on Saturdays and Sundays only through this newspaper's article. They're also looking for two experienced volunteers to manage. If they get them by Sunday night, May 27, the Big League still will come to the community. If not, the program will have to be shelved for this area.

"I'm awfully sorry for the boys who signed up and really want to play," McCarty said. "This was an ideal opportunity for young men not playing in high school or Legion or other programs. There aren't many other places open for them to play now. This is about as close as we've ever come to having a league like this for the boys in this area. We have a place to play, equipment, charters and whether it will ever get off the ground again if it falls this year."

Interested players or managers should call Bill McCarty before the Sunday night deadline at 299-1286.

Oakton no-hitter brings winning week

Oakton pitcher Larry Gawaluch led Oakton Community College to another winning week of Skyway Conference baseball with his no-hitter last Wednesday against Niles College in non-conference competition. Oakton is currently 6-4 in conference and 14-7 overall. Gawaluch struck out fifteen men in his 8-0 win at Niles, walking five men as his teammates backed him up with a fourteen hit attack. Gawaluch aided his cause going 4-4 at the plate, all singles driving in three men.

"He was just overpowering," said Oakton baseball coach Rich Symonds. "He just threw the fastball right by 'em." Gawaluch felt he had better stuff earlier this year. "I thought I threw better against Elgin when I struck out 16 men," he said. "But I didn't get a play like the one Rosin made in the sixth inning."

Rightfielder Bob Rosin made the defensive play of the game when he fielded a sharp liner on a bounce and threw out the runner by two steps to preserve the no-hitter. Ken Schroeder added another dazzler at shortstop as he threw off balance to first near the pitchers mound to get his man.

In other games Oakton dropped 10-2 to Lake County as the Raiders pounded out 19 hits against a usually stingy Raider pitching staff.

Rich Miller picked up his fifth win against one defeat in a 4-3 Skyway win against Mayfair. Dan Moss singled home Gawaluch and Mahoney in the second inning which ended with Oakton scoring all four runs.

Then last Saturday the Raiders swept a doubleheader, winning the first game 4-1 behind Scott Prochik who went the route in his boosting record to 3-0. In the second game, Oakton came from behind to win 8-7 as Jeff Heist went the distance in his first win. Oakton was scheduled to play at Waubesa on Monday.

Niles Park District

Siegfried Dursch skating professional Camp Mor Gro

Siegfried Dursch will again be the Head Pro for the Niles Park District Staff of Professional Skating Instructors for the 1973 Skating season.

For nearly 10 years Siegfried

Dursch skated in competition in the Southern part of Germany. In his early 20's he attended and graduated from a Fashion Design School in Munich, West Germany. Shortly after graduating he decided to go into the entertainment field. His first professional appearance was in a theater located in Amsterdam. The show was an Opera on Ice called "Winter- Traum." From there he joined several top Ice Shows in Europe. He was one of the headliners for the International Ice Shows which started Sonja Heine. Between Ice Shows he taught Figure Skating. He then signed with the Paris Sur Glace Ice Show and for 2 years toured the Near East and all Capital Cities behind the Iron Curtain. He also skated in Africa, West Europe, and East Europe.

When Mr. Dursch came to America he signed and toured with Holiday on Ice. He currently toured with Symphony on Ice throughout the U.S.A. He choreographed shows in Canada and also in the United States.

Siegfried Dursch is looking forward to a very successful 1973 Roller Skating season since he is enjoying a most successful winter ice skating season at the Sports Complex in Niles.

CHURCH & TEMPLE NOTES...

BIBE to confirm 44 during Shavuot

Many Jewish synagogues celebrate the ceremony of Confirmation in conjunction with the holiday of Shavuot (the Feast of Weeks) which occurs this year on Wednesday, June 6.

Shavuot commemorates the revelation on Mt. Sinai, when Moses received God's commandments, and the people promised that they would "do them and hearken unto them." The ceremony of Confirmation is appropriate to that theme. Youngsters who have completed the 10th grade of Religious School, participate in the Shavuot service, offer sermonettes, join in a floral offering, and receive a blessing from their Rabbi. They do not commit themselves to a creed, but individually affirm that Judaism, as they interpret it, shall be their way of life.

During the service, Confirmation approach the Ark for a private and individual blessing.

This year, Congregation B'nai Jehoshua Beth Elohim, 901 Milwaukee ave., Glenview will confirm 44 students in 2 separate services; one on Tuesday evening, June 5 and one on Wednesday evening, June 6. As a gift, each Confirmand receives a Bible from the Congregation. Among the Confirmands are Julie Botton, Miriam Brenner, Karla Friedman, Michael Glanzrock, Debra Glick, Michael Mazius, Gall Merker, Ken Pink, Harvey Rome, Shelley Root, Susan Swidler, and Jackie Winograd, all of Des Plaines.

From Morton Grove, the Confirmands are David Brandon, Gall

Cohen, Darlene Hurto, Steven Michel, Cindy Robin, William Simon, and Debbie Winer.

Also, Faith Cannon, Alan Cramer, James Feldman, Caron and Oran Friend, Ellen Levine, Debra Lipschultz, Susan Rehaut, Russell Schenkman, Joseph Schlang, Dan Shapiro, Caryn Skebel, Jill Straus, Randy Sylvan, and Jeff Trotter, all from Glenview.

Helene Davitz, Alan Hirsch, Aileen Smith, Nanette Sterling, all of Niles.

Arlene Freeman, Lynn Froehlich, Linda Horwitz, all of Mt. Prospect.

Laura Krass, Wilmette; Alexis Siegel, Northbrook; and Michael Sternberg, Skokie.

MTJC

Three judges have been selected for the Golf-Mill Junior Art Show Saturday all day June 2. The event recognizes the artistic talents of area high school students from the Northwest Suburban areas. The exhibit takes place along the malls of the shopping center at Golf and Milwaukee in Niles.

One of the judges, George Jon Leonard Wulff is an art instructor at Maine East High School. Wulff recently returned from a leave of absence to obtain a Master of Arts degree at the University of Illinois on a full fellowship in art and education from the university. Wulff specializes in ceramics and sculpture and has had 2 pieces accepted for the Illinois Craftsmen exhibit at the Illinois State Museum in Springfield. He studied as a potter apprentice while in Japan from a 17th generation family of potters. Wulff has held many one-man shows in the Midwest area.

Another judge is Katherine Kaiser who is presently an advanced painting instructor at the New Trier High School in Northfield. She received a Master of Fine Arts degree from the Art Institute of Chicago where she emphasized in oils and printmaking.

Miss Kaiser has shown in many Midwest college shows and has recently taken up work in photography and acrylic painting.

The third judge is Edward O. Miller, Chairman of the Art Department of Glenbrook South. He is known for his work in ceramics, jewelry, and sculpture. He has studied in the Midwest at the Chicago Art Institute, Illinois State University and Drake University. Miller has won many awards in shows nationwide.

This is the fifth annual art exhibit and is anticipating the highest number of artists showing in the past 4 years. Any area high school student is eligible to enter. There is no entry fee. Applications may still be accepted by writing Junior Art Fair, 308 Golf-Mill Professional Building, Niles, Ill. 60648. Include name, address, phone, high school and year, and type of work to be entered.

Judges will award first, second and third place ribbons and trophies in each category as well as a Best of Show for finest entry.

An August, 1973 wedding is planned at Northwest Suburban Jewish Congregation.

Weight No More

This article is directed to those readers who are interested in losing weight and keeping it off. Weight No More classes offer you an adult educational reducing program based on the idea that "Knowledge is the Key to Successful Weight Reduction."

A weight control program must deal with causes... Weight No More presents a dynamic program which deals with many areas of weight control. It's dedication is to teach those who have the willingness to learn. Wrong foods create and cater to bad eating habits. Linda Kraus, president and founder of the Weight No More program says, "My program is not to see how little we can eat, BUT, how much of the right foods we can eat and still lose weight readily."

At Weight No More classes the individual is taught not only what to abstain from but what to put in place of those foods and why. Once unwanted pounds are lost the proper guidance is given in the art of maintaining this new found slim status.

Open - House Session: Niles Park Recreation Center, 7877 Milwaukee ave., Niles, Tuesday, June 5 at 1 p.m. For additional information: 967-7929.

Albert 'K', women's fashions

"The store will be for the Young, the Jr. Pettie, and Misses Fashion," said Mike Ball, general manager of Albert 'K'. Golf Mill's newest store opening in mid-June.

Ball stated "Albert 'K' is the fastest growing women's specialty store in the midwest and chose Golf Mill because of its unlimited potential of filling the void in the Young Look, the Swinging 70's."

"When we stress 'A World of Fashion,' we mean the latest in style from Italy, France, Spain, Israel, Taiwan, and world over," said Ball. "Our buyers know what the young girl wants and we literally comb the earth to bring it to her."

...of Interest to Women...

Who says there's a generation gap?

For the Sostrin family in Morton Grove the often heard phrase "generation-gap" is non-existent.

Howard and Ethel Sostrin, and their 3 children, Barbara, 19, Fred, 17, and Donna, 15, willingly share their successful formula; each family member participates in another member's interests, activities as well as accomplishments and accolades.

There have been many accomplishments, personal as well as public, the most recent of which occurred only this week.

Mrs. Ethel Sostrin and daughter Barbara were both recipients of awards for outstanding academic honors Sunday, May 6, during the Oakton Community college third annual Honors Convocation. Presenting the awards were William A. Koehnline, President of Oakton Community college and Richard L. Jordan, Dean of Instruction.

Mrs. Sostrin, a part time Liberal Arts student the past 1 1/2 years has no specific career in mind, but "likes to learn and gains immense satisfaction from being allowed the freedom of absorbing much knowledge from a wide variety of courses."

Her activities do not stop with her schooling. She is employed 4 days each week in real estate sales. Earlier this year the Home Builders Association presented Mrs. Sostrin with an Award in recognition of outstanding achievement as a saleswoman with new home sales in excess of $1 million for the year 1972 with Hollywood Builders.

A physical fitness enthusiast, she swims regularly (early a.m.),

Country Cupboard sale

The Women's Guild of St. Luke's United church of Christ is sponsoring Country Cupboard Sale of baked goods and home made foods at 9233 Sherman rd. on Saturday, May 26, from 10:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

BJBE Sisterhood

The culminating luncheon of the Sisterhood of B'nai Jehoshua Beth Elohim, Glenview, will be held Sunday, June 3 at the Lincolnwood Hyatt House. Betty Lou Silverberg, chairman of the luncheon announced that Edward L. Baron, one of the world's leading hypnotists, will be the featured entertainer for the affair.

Friday, June 8 BJBE will celebrate Sisterhood Sabbath, with an original program written by the members of the Sisterhood. During the Service, the new executive board for the ensuing year will be installed by Rabbi Mark Shapiro. The new board consists of President, Shirley Boton, Des Plaines; Ways and Means VP, Gloria Karp, Des Plaines; Program VP, Dolores Stillman, Des Plaines; Membership VP, Renee Kraus, Northbrook; Religion and Education VP, Sue Winett, Glenview; Financial Secretary, Helen Friend, Glenview; Earning Fund Secretary, Shirley Silverman, Morton Grove; Treasurer, Bobbi Silber, Glenview; Recording Secretary, Lenore Levy, Des Plaines; and Corresponding Secretary, Zeida Wise, Northbrook.

"Of course we will offer an easy-to-open Fashion Charge and the other features, such as unisexed money-back policy, but more important, we offer an alternative to the everyday dress store. A store who reflects today's youth; and the young suburbanite."

Inflation hasn't changed the price of ashes.

But it has changed the price of your home. For example, if you bought a $20,000 home in 1966—today it's worth about $27,000. Don't be left with a costly pile of ashes. See me about a State Farm Homeowners Policy that will cover your home for all it's worth... and keep it that way with automatic Inflation Coverage.

Little league majors

National division

Opening Day games - May 12, Giants - Norwood Savings - 5-4. It was all Terry Brady as the Giants edged the Cubs 5 to 4 in a see-saw battle. Brady had 3 doubles, 3 at bats and drove in all 5 of his team's runs. He was also the winning pitcher. Striking out the last batter with a man on third to preserve the win for the Norwood Savings Giants. Another hitting star was M. Augustyn who went two for three at the plate and scored 2 runs. Good pitching by Augustyn, Kowalski, and Brady held the Cubs in check in many scoring situations. Barry Brodsky did a fine job handling the catching chore for his team.

Impertal Eastman Cubs 4 - Cardinals - 5. Good hitting game, but errors cost the Cubs the game. Cardinals - Barnaby's - 10-9. Double play from Paul to Laurie ended a Colt 6th inning drive enabling Ratcliff to get a big double in the bottom of the 6th driving in 3 runs to win the game for the Cardinals.

Colts 9 - International House of Pancakes Cardinals 10. Home runs by Jack Walsh and Jeff Lepak. Triples by F. Chryznowski and Don DeSantis. Also a great double play by DeSantis and Borowski but not enough runs to win the game.

Phillies-Lawson Products-11-2. The Redlegs overwhelmed the Phillies 11 - 2 getting 9 hits and 4 walks while the Phillies managed 8 hits and committed 4 errors. Ury got 2 triples for the Red Legs. Gaertner and Gluth each had 2 hits for the losing Phillies.

Mets - V.F.W. 7-12 - 8-4. The Mets opened the season with 2 runs in the first inning on hits by Manning, Maycan and a double by Stec. The Braves tied the game in the third inning on hits by Sheehan, Jim Mahoney and Mike Tait. The Mets went ahead in the fifth on hits by Manning, Stec, Ugel, Jim Sliwa and a 3 run home run by Russ Maycan.

Dodgers - Golf Mill Lanes 8 to 7. The Golf Mill Lanes Dodgers held off a late inning Astro rally winning 8 to 7. Dodger Steve Romano went 3 - 3. While Rob Webber hit a solo home run and also ended up the winning pitcher. Dodger 1st baseman Joe Nessler saved the game when he made a spectacular pick up of a hard line smash that would have won the game for the Astros in the bottom of the last inning.

Braves - Tam Tennis Club. Joe Mahoney hit a solo home run in a losing cause and Joe Booker and Mike Antonini combined for 3 scoreless pitched innings but still lost 7 to 3.

Dodgers - Golf Mill Lanes. The Dodgers and the Red Legs tied 5 to 5.

Phillies - Lawson Products. Phillies buried the Cardinals when the Cardinals did not know what to do with the ball and the Phillies had some good hitting. Score 25 to 8.

Braves - Tam Tennis Club. Braves were down 4 to 1 and tied it up 4 to 4 in the 3rd but the Mets broke it open with 4 runs in the 5th to win 8 to 4. Even in losing all the Braves players got at least one hit apiece.

Red Legs - Callero and Caltino. Hitting star of the Red Legs was Scott Ury with 2 - 3 base hits and 1 base hit and 6 RBI's. Excellent pitching by Frank Angulo and Tom Anderson and great fielding by the entire team led the Red Legs to an 11 - 2 win.

Astros 7 - Dodgers 8. The Dodgers edged the Astros in a very exciting contest when the Dodgers scored a single run in the sixth inning after the Astros had rallied with a 4 run in the fifth to tie the score. A. Qualiano, Jeff Hoff, Don DeLouise all had 2 hits each in the Astros losing cause. Scott Chamness, Russ Sall, Steve Hanrahan one hit each. Nessler saved the game with Astros on 2nd and 3rd and 2 outs made the defensive play of the day with a spectacular stop of a ground smash.

Giants - Norwood Savings. The Norwood Savings Giants lost their 1st game of the season 9 to 7. The game was a closely played one, that saw the head change hands on 5 different occasions. The closing pitcher for the Giants was M. Kowalski who gave up 6 runs on 6 hits in the two innings he worked. Other pitchers were M. Augustyn who gave up one run on one hit, a homer by Dick Devary and Terry Brady who yielded 2 runs on 3 hits. The Giants collected a total of 10 hits in the ball game.

Colts 4 - Mets 0. International House of Pancakes Colt pitching was magnificent as F. Chryznowski pitched 3 perfect innings to get the Colts their first win of the young season. Timely hitting by Bob Heath, F. Chryznowski, Ken Borowski, Jack Walsh, Jeff Lepak and a home run and double by David DeSantis paced an 8 hit Colt attack.

Barnaby's Cardinals 17 - Tam Tennis Club Braves 7. Good pitching by Laurie was supported by consistent hitting highlighted by Schwamacher home run and Ratcliff 5 for 5.

Notre Dame hosts midwest championships

Notre Dame High school hosted the Midwest Sectional Fencing Championships this past weekend. There were 10 states represented and 205 fencers. Although most of the information involves the U-19 competitions, the U-10's did well in the adult segment also.

In the Adult competitions, Tim Glass made the semi-finals, and Karen Beckman (MS) made the semi's also. Mike McCahey and Howard Labow made the quarters in foil.

In Under-19 competition:
Epee: 1. Greg Massillas (Mich.), 2. Jacques Sampon (Wis.), 3. Tim Glass, NDHS (Ill.), 4. Russ Rempala (NDHS Ill.), 5. John Strass (NDHS Ill.), 6. Mike Kennedy, (Tenn.), 7. Ken Bauer (St. Louis), U-19 Sabre: 1. Dan Edwards (St. Louis), 2. Sam DiFiglio (ex-NDHS), Ill., 3. Gary Diamond (NTW), Ill., 4. Jack Reinbruger (G. Tech, Ill.), 5. Jacques Sampon (Wis.), 6. Jim Landis (No. Ohio).

U-19 Foil (Women): 1. J. Thayer (KY), 2. C. Klutke (Mich.), 3. Cathy Seiler (Ky.), 4. Karen Beckman (MS, Ill.).
The Midwest U-19 Team Championship trophy went to Illinois for the 3rd consecutive year, the results were: 1. Illinois (145), 2. Michigan (76), 3. Kentucky (60), 4. Wisconsin (46), 5. St. Louis (36), 6. Tennessee (29), 7. No. Ohio (23), 8. Indiana (21), 9. Ohio-Columbus (6), 10. Minnesota (5).

The Illinois Division took home 6 of the 12 medals possible. NDHS took 2 (Glass and Gerard) and Sam DiFiglio, a graduate, took another. The other 3 were earned by McCahey, Labow and Diamond, 3 different schools. The Illinois division was stingy as it left only 6 trophies for the other 9 states to split.

Terry McConville, the #2 ranked fencer in the US nationally was ill and will be pe-tioned as an automatic in foil and epee. John Strass (Epee) may have a chance to go as an alternate.

At the Nationals, the Midwest is going to be there in full strength and should be very strong. We will be sending Greg Massillas - U-20 World competitor in foil and epee for Greece, Pat Gerard, Semi-finalist at J.O.'s, 3rd here, Howard Labow - #2 in State, #2 in Midwest championships, semi-finalist at J.O.'s, Tim Glass - U-20 World competitor in Epee for USA, 3rd in State (foil), Illinois and Wisconsin state amateur champ, Mike McCahey, state champ, divisional champ, Midwest Foil champ in foil, Russell Rempala - 3rd qualifier in epee, John Strass, alternate, Sam DiFiglio - 2nd in Midwest, Gary Diamond, 1st in Midwest, first in Division.

The likelihood of one or more national champions coming from Illinois is very good. We had one

DINING & ENTERTAINMENT

Angelo Ciavarella enjoys South Pacific tour

Angelo Ciavarella Jr., son of the owner of the popular Beam'N Barrel of Niles recently returned from an extensive tour of the South Seas.

Angelo visited the exotic far-way places of the South Pacific. In Pago Pago he roamed the harbor and climbed the lush high mountains that surround it, including the famous "Rainmaker" of Sadie Thompson fame. Former Lt. Angelo Ciavarella of the U.S. Army re-visited other such interesting places as Tahiti, Bora Bora, Samoa, Fiji and Hawaii. In the Islands he visited the fabulous estate of actor Marlon Brando where he was an honored guest. He also spent considerable time at the home of the great writer, Robert Lewis Stevenson and many, many more historic and famous places in the land of the soft, southern warm trade winds.

Angelo invites all of his many friends in the area to come to the official grand opening of their popular Beam'N Barrel, 7136 Milwaukee ave., Niles on May 24, 25 and 26.

Angelo has a ton of interesting color pictures of his south sea adventure which he will show. "Come to our grand opening and have a split of champagne with your dinner on me — Aloha, be there!" says Angelo.

No Oliver show on May 26

Because so many families will be taking vacations on Memorial Day weekend, Mill Run Children's Theatre will not stage "Oliver!" on Saturday, May 26.

If you haven't seen this delightful musical version of Charles Dickens' classic, "Oliver Twist," you have one final chance. The last performance of "Oliver!" is scheduled for Saturday, June 2 at 1 p.m.

Tickets are priced at $1.75 and may be purchased on the day of the performance at the Mill Run Box Office or in advance by mail order.

'I Never Sang for my Father'

The Open Stage Players at the Mayer Kaplan Jewish Community Center in Skokie are winding up the 1972-1973 season with Robert Anderson's poignant drama, "I Never Sang for My Father."

The actors' sensitive interpretation of Anderson's theme of alienation between aging father and middle-aged son, promises to evoke identification and compassion from theatergoers. Harry J. Stein and Harold Terchin of Skokie play the roles of father and son respectively, with Skokians Gert Goodman as mother and Yvette Edlhart as daughter. Other cast members include Sue Benjamin, Robert Goodman, Sidney Martens of Skokie; Rosh Kagan of Lincolnwood and Irving Alberts of Chicago. Performance dates are June 9, 16 and 23 at 8:15 p.m., and June 10, 17 and 24 at 7:30 p.m. Tickets may be purchased at the Kaplan JCC, 5050 W. Church st., Skokie. ## THE CORNERS

and What's happening...

By Ed Hanson

Last week I was sitting at the posh bar of the Beam'N Barrel sipping an orange juice when he came in. I spotted him immediately because his dark sun glasses and thick black rug didn't fool me. After he sat next to me I said, "Joe Peptone, I presume?"

"Yeah," he replied. "You're Ed Hanson?"

"Right on, you called me."

Joe looked around somewhat furtively and said, "You're sure there's no Cub fans around?"

"Like I told over the phone, Joe, there ain't no Cub fans in Niles."

"Yeah," Joe gave me a sickly smile. "After this season there ain't gonna be no Cub fans no where — no how."

"I know, Joe. So you're on your way to Atlanta in exchange for a sand lot player and an undisclosed amount of cash — how much cash, Joe?"

"It hurts my ego to tell you, Ed."

"Let me guess, Joe — about 25 bucks."

"You're on the high side, Ed."

"That figures, Joe. But don't feel badly because that makes you worth twice as much as I'd give for the whole Cub team."

Joe nodded. "Look at it this way, Joe. You lost a loser and gained maybe a pennant winner."

"Atlanta is 8 games behind in the Western division, Ed."

"So the Cubs in the Eastern division are only 9 1/2 games out of last place. And I have great faith that the Cubs have the team that can do it."

"I feel better already, Ed — let me buy you a drink."

"Well, Joe — just one. Doctor's orders, orange juice and vodka." I signaled Mike Angelo, the bartender at the Beam'N Barrel.

After a somewhat lengthy discussion with Joe about the Cubs and baseball, although this is like comparing apples with oranges, he took his leave. "So long Joe," I said. "Who knows? — maybe you're on your way to the world series. And remember, if you had stayed with the Cubs you'd have needed a ticket."

As a baseball expert and former baseball great I confidently predict that the Chicago Cubs have an excellent chance to wind up last in the Eastern National division. Incidentally, the Eastern division of the National League has the most miserable array of no-talent teams that have ever stepped on the diamond in the long history of baseball. It is by far the weakest division in both leagues and in my day I played with a high school team that could have spotted every team in that division 3 runs and beaten them 9 out of every 10 games played.

Despite the fact that I wouldn't have permitted the so-called "stars" in this division to clean the mud from my cleats, I do respect the fact that thru some miracle they made the majors.

As I write these lines (Sun. May 20) the Chicago Cubs against the worst teams in history have lost 16 games while winning 23 for a .590 percentage.

A professional analysis, using a computer and the most advanced methods of modern technology reveals these interesting facts about the 23 games won by the Chicago Cubs:

Of the 23 games won the Cubs, 19 were won by sheer luck and assorted accident. Games won by the Cubs thru superior playing skills totaled only 4. Thus, the standings, as revealed by the analysis, as of Sun. May 20, should be: Cubs Won 4, Lost 35.

Luck, accident, or summed up as, "The Breaks" evens up during a season of 164 games. Thus, it is upon these facts that I base my prediction that the Cubs should finish last in their respective division. Further, taking past performance in consideration as handicappers do in selecting race horse winners, the Cubs show a consistent "losing" factor for almost 3 decades.

And again like horses, the Cubs show a "faint heartedness," a "quit" factor, and weakness to "fold-in-the-stretch." It would not be surprising to me, if from Aug. 15 to the end of Sept. 30, the Cubs generate a losing streak of from 13 to 28 games.

Only a "miracle" like God coming down from on high and using the devil from down low to catch for him while he pitched could the Cubs win a pennant.

But even then the Cubs couldn't win the world series. For who the devil is going to beat the White Sox?

57th Street art fair

Exhibits of 300 sculptors, painters, craftsmen and photographers will start June off in a blaze of color at the 26th annual 57th Street Art Fair, Saturday, June 2 and Sunday, June 3, according to Adrian Alexander, Art Fair Chairman.

At the Midwest's first major outdoor Art Fair of the season, artists from all over the United States and the greater Chicago area will display their works from noon to dusk both days on the Ray School playground, 57th st. and Kimbark ave. in Chicago's Hyde Park.

Exhibitors include:
Lincolnwood: Helen Goldfus, 6848 N. Kildare, Paintings;
Morton Grove: Victor Ing, 5810 Lincoln ave., Paintings; Barbara P. Tuch, 7536 Lyons, Paintings; David Hirsch (Dave), 6601 W. Maple st., Caricatures.

Wilson students present 'Oliver'

Students at Woodrow Wilson school in Niles invite parents and friends to attend an evening performance of the play "Oliver" to be given Thursday, May 31. Curtain time is 7:30 p.m. Mrs. Ellen Fiely and Mrs. Debbi Klein are directing the play.

Tickets for this popular musical are 50¢. They are available at Wilson school, 8257 Harrison st., Niles, during school hours in rooms 106 and 205. No tickets will be sold at the door.

Characters in the play include Dom DiMaggio as Mr. Bumble; Leslie Straus as Widow Carney; Dean Papajohn as Oliver; John Cerney, Fagin; Sharon Sylvan as the Artful Dodger; Jill Sherman as Bill Sikes; Beth Humenski as Nancy; Dom DiMaggio as Mr. Bromlow; and Leslie Straus as Mrs. Bromlow. Susan Marie Beckman is the narrator for the play.

The Workhouse Boys are played by Elsa Campo, Patti Elsner, Robin Resnick, Susan Wechsler, Susan Stein, Donna Eckardt, Pam Resnick, and George Campo. Fagin's Boys are portrayed by Rachel Epstein, Becky Benjamin, Cecil Campo, Kelly Lauter, Melissa Cielo, and Karen Pikula.

In the "Sister" scene, Maria Granat and Allison Gibson are the ladies, Lisa Millner and Cathy DiPrima play the children, Susan Wechsler plays the character of the bum; and Cheri Schwartz is the businessman.

Supporting the actors are piano players Aris Damianos, Chuck Braverman and Harry Schmalz, Kim Burke, Linnea Conrad, Maria Abramson, Carrie Haffstad, Peter Diamond and Jill Straus are in charge of the costumes.

Scenery for the play was created by Karen Kupelian, Pamela Pryst, Janice Pryst, Alysa Canter, Kim Burke, Kerry Banks, Linnea Conrad, Patsy Anderson, Mark Mayster, Susan Beckman, Dean Papajohn and Marilyn Sawicki.

Paul Bloomquist is the faculty member in charge of the lighting for the production.

Skokie Valley Symphony concert

The final concert of the Skokie Valley Symphony 1972-73 season will be given on Sunday, May 27, 7:30 p.m. in the Niles West High school auditorium, Oakton at Edens Expressway, Skokie. The featured soloist will be cellist Shirley Tabachnick. The program will include the Saint-Saens Cello Concerto No. 1, the Tchaikovsky Sixth Symphony, and Dances from

George Carlin at
Mill Run, June 1-3

If you haven't had a side-splitting, mind-bending experience lately, meet George Carlin face to face at the Mill Run Theatre on Friday, June 1 through Sunday, June 3. During his limited 5-show engagement, he'll break down the barriers and leave you laughing with satires on language taboos, TV game shows, drugs and news programs.

His choice of material has made him a big hit with younger audiences, who love his knack for cutting through the fancy wrappings of the establishment. They also enjoy his on-the-spot routines created right on stage and his delivery which is as casual as his appearance.

You may see George Carlin do his stuff on Friday at 8:30 p.m., Saturday at 7:30 p.m. and 10:30 p.m., and Sunday at 5 p.m. and 8 p.m. Tickets are moving fast, so it's advisable to obtain them now at the Mill Run Box Office or any Ticketron outlet. Tickets are priced at $6.75 and $5.75. For ticket information, call 298-2170.

'Private Lives' returns to Arlington Park
"They're coming back - by popular demand," announced David Lonn, Managing Director of Arlington Park Theatre. Mr. Lonn was referring to Louis Jourdan and Barbara Rush in "Private Lives" which was presented at the Arlington March 30 through April 22 with enormous success.

Because that engagement sold out almost immediately and a tremendous number of people were unable to secure tickets, Mr. Lonn re-negotiated with Mr. Jourdan and Miss Rush and they will return for a 4 week period opening Tuesday, July 10 and playing through Sunday, Aug. 5. Basil Langton will repeat his directorial assignment in "Private Lives," Noel Coward's marital melee about a man and women who can't seem to live happily together or apart. Scenic design will again be by Sandro La Ferla with costumes by Andrea Kalish.

Performance times and ticket prices for "Private Lives" are: Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday - 8 p.m. - $6.50; Fridays - 8:30 p.m. - $8; Saturdays - (2 perfs.) 7 p.m. and 10:30 p.m. - $8; Sundays - (2 perfs.) 3 p.m. (Matinee), $6.50 and 7 p.m. - $8.

Symphony's spring concert

Two local residents will take part in the Spring Concert of the North Side Symphony of Chicago. The concert will be performed at Orchestra Hall, 220 S. Michigan ave., on Sunday, June 3, at 3:30 p.m. Tickets to the event are $3, $2, and $1. They may be obtained from the Orchestra Hall Box Office, from orchestra members, or by calling Mrs. Sarah Bard, at 338-5192. The local residents include: John Weiler, 1295 Earl ave., Des Plaines, violin; Vernon Bunker, 8298 N. Newcastle, Niles, bassoon.

BUSINESS Picture

Ford's One-Cent sale

Marshall White Ford, Inc., 9401 N. Milwaukee ave., Niles, has announced a one-cent wagon sale and many customers are taking advantage of the offer. According to the dealership, customers purchasing any Ford station wagon—from the Pinto to the LTD Country Squire—can buy the little red wagon pictured above for an additional penny. The bargain is available through June 17.

Elected chairman of VW dealer advisory council

Lester Abrams, President of Suburban Volkswagen, Inc., in Schaumburg, was elected as Chairman of the Volkswagen North Central Dealer Advisory Council at their annual meeting, held recently at the Marriott Hotel in Chicago.

During his term as Chairman of the Council, Mr. Abrams will preside over 12 Council members, who represent the 108 Volkswagen dealers in Volkswagen North Central's 6 state area.

The purpose of the Council is to make recommendations on important concerns on a distributor-wide basis and suggestions for continued improvements of customer relations, better service to Volkswagen owners and strengthening dealer operations.

Mr. Abrams, a native of Chicago, has been in the automotive industry since 1950, and became the dealer principal of Suburban Volkswagen in 1970. He has been active in many auto associations over the years and served as President of the Chicago and Suburban VW Dealer Association. Mr. Abrams, his wife, Helene, and their 3 children reside at 9223 Menard in Morton Grove.

Applies for patent

Thomas E. Ennis, 9019 Greenwood, Niles, of the materials and apparatus laboratory for GTE Automatic Electric, Northlake, has applied for a United States patent.

Ennis has invented a method of trimming film-deposited resistors in communications networks.

Honored

Honors were accorded 20 midshipmen of the Naval Reserve Officers' Training Corps of the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign at the NROTC annual Spring parade Sunday, May 13. Among midshipmen recognized for distinguishing themselves in academic and military achievements during the university year was Norman J. Fry, 7232 Lake st., Morton Grove, awarded Commandant's Cup as member of midshipman battalion who contributed most significantly to the organization and development of student athletics.

Orange safety cones used by Illinois Bell

It's a familiar sight to see a telephone truck parked in our communities with a telephone worker nearby. But perhaps your curiosity has been aroused if you have recently seen a parked telephone truck of car with a bright orange safety cone placed at the rear of the vehicle.

Len Hillinger, Illinois Bell's Commercial Manager explained, "It's part of a new safety program Illinois Bell has introduced to help reduce motor vehicle accidents. The brightly colored markers are placed behind a vehicle when it is parked. In order to retrieve the drive must make a 'safety circle' of the parked vehicle. In the process the driver will note any obstacles or hazards that might not be visible from the drivers seat."

The idea originated in the Pacific Telephone Company several years ago and was tried first in large general area at Oak Park. During this trial backing accidents were virtually eliminated. Encouraged by the results, the practice was initiated throughout the North Suburban Area," Hillinger said. "Illinois Bell, with the largest privately owned motor vehicle fleet in the state, has always had a comprehensive motor vehicle safety program. All vehicles are equipped with seat belts, tires and brakes are inspected frequently and to insure operational safety the vehicles are maintained in good mechanical order."

"But far more important than these considerations is the safety attitude and driving ability of the person behind the steering wheel," Hillinger added.

"All employees who drive in the normal course of their jobs are enrolled in the Bell System's Advanced Driver Performance Course. The course includes comprehensive study of safe driving practices and on-the-road applications."

"But just as important, safety continues to be stressed on an every-day basis, both on and off the job. We believe in our slogan—'Safety is Right-Now'."

SCHOOL NEWS

OCC committees discuss site

The Oakton Community College Site and Facilities Committee met jointly with the Ad Hoc Advisory Committee on Site on Tuesday night, May 15, to discuss site and annexation possibilities.

Members of the Ad Hoc Advisory Committee on Site represent the 7 municipalities in the Oakton district and the 2 high school districts. The unincorporated area is represented by a member selected by Elementary District 63. Ray Nelson, Morton Grove, was re-elected chairman of the Ad Hoc Committee for 1973-74 and will serve as co-chairman of the OCC Site Committee with Paul Gilson, chairman of the OCC Site Committee and chairman of the OCC Board of Trustees.

Other members of the Ad Hoc Advisory Site Committee are Corvin Wagner, Des Plaines; Howard Trotter, Lincolnwood; Tom Bondi, Niles; Milton F. Langer, District 63; John L. Means, District 207; Evelyn Rosenzweig, District 219; Wallace Lieberman, Skokie; and Edward Blake, Glenview.

A subcommittee was named to coordinate financial and educational data for an enlarged community college district compared with 2 college districts. Members of this special subcommittee, in addition to Gilson and Nelson, are OCC Trustees Raymond Hartstein and Thomas Flynn, and Lieberman and Blake.

Maine East summer school registration

If students are planning to take a course in Maine East's summer school this year, now is the time to sign up.

Course offerings are quite varied. For example, if you want to take a course that will allow you more time for other courses next year, there are U.S. History, Biology, or Government classes. If you want to take a course simply to give yourself an extra credit, there are courses in History of Civilization, Urban Geography, and Psychology.

There are also courses which are "fun" - such as Drama Workshop and courses which give students a new skill, as well as credit toward graduation, such as Clothing, Typing, and Art. In Art you can choose either painting, drawing, pottery, or photography.

Mr. L. Rozdalovsky, director of summer school, also announces two new courses this year. They are Woodshop Workshop for students already having one year of Woodshop in school and English IV - Film Study, which may be taken by underclassmen also.

To register, either come in person to the Maine East guidance center on week-days between 8 a.m. and 4:30 p.m., or if this is inconvenient, call 825-4484 and a registration form and list of courses with tuition fees will be sent out so that you can register by mail.

Degree candidates

Bruce R. Bianchi and Thomas Bernard Christell, Jr., both of Niles, are candidates for bachelor of arts degrees from Augustana college, Rock Island, at the 113th annual commencement May 22.

Bianchi, a chemistry major, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Bianchi, 8336 Caldwell ave., and Christell, Jr., a political science and sociology major, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Christell, Sr., 8425 W. North terr.

Park View students win top science honors

Richard and Dan Gonzalez, Randy Regula and Gary Siegelman's science projects were judged as being "Outstanding" in the competition of the Junior High Science Fair which was held on the University of Illinois Urbana Campus recently.

Richard and Dan's project dealt with thermistors. Randy experimented with Chemical effects on plant growth and Gary studied the "Phototactic Response of Stentor Coeruleus in Relation to the Wave Length of Light."

First place project awards were presented to David Friedman, (not pictured) Mike Jacobs, Rick Bleser, Stuart Gelfman, Nancy Chikaraishi, Robin Solway and Kim Hren. Second place winners were Julie Sweeney and Jan Abrams.

Special education legislative meeting

Dolly Hallstrom, Chairman of the Legislative Action Committee in the State Legislature, will be the featured speaker at a meeting sponsored by the Maine Township Special Education Program. The questions concerning state legislation affecting special education programs, as well as what parents of these students can do to affect proposed legislation now under consideration.

The meeting will be held Monday, June 4, in the Little Theatre of Gemini Junior High School, 8955 Greenwood ave. in Niles, beginning at 7:30 p.m. Parents, staff members and interested citizens are encouraged to attend.

PEC summer program

Fun activities will supplement learning activities for Pre-school Educational Center students enrolled in an 8 week summer program which runs from July 1 to Aug. 24.

Indoor and outdoor games, exercise, arts and crafts, creative play, nature walks and cook outs are among "fun items" on the summer curriculum. Each of the activities is designed to contribute to the child's overall development and knowledge of the world around him.

The winners of the Park View competition went to the local competition at Niles West, then the "Regional" at Wheeling High School and finally to the state competition where they competed with students whose projects were judged the best from many of the Jr. high schools in Illinois.

The meeting was called in response to several questions asked by parents of students in the Maine Township Special Education Program. The questions concerned state legislation affecting special education programs, as well as what parents of these students can do to affect proposed legislation now under consideration.

East Maine School District 63 will host the meeting. District 63 Superintendent G. Allan Gogo will make the opening remarks.

Milwaukee avenue beautification

Looking at one of the first trees being planted along Milwaukee ave. are 1, to r., Mayor Nicholas B. Blase, Trustee Richard Haczak, Ron Kornacker from the Public Works Department and the Director of Public Works, Edward Bacher.

The trees are being planted as part of a beautification program to enhance the appearance of some of the main arteries in the Village of Niles, Milwaukee ave.

was selected as the first area to begin this program as 18 Ginkgo trees were planted in the median strip from Maryland st. to Golf rd. This tree is a native of Western China and was selected because of its hardiness to withstand the effects of carbon monoxide and road salts.

8 Scarlet Maple trees and 8 Norway Maple trees were also planted in the parkways along the west side of Milwaukee ave.

north of Dempster to Ballard rd. This tree program will continue with the next phase being the planting of 14 Flowering Crab trees from Albion st. to Harts rd. Trustee Haczak, who initiated the beautification program, stated this will make a total of 40 trees that will be planted along Milwaukee ave.

Said Mayor Blase, "We feel this beautification program will give our residents a greater sense of pride and make those who visit our village aware of our desire to constantly improve the appearance of, not only our local streets, but also the main streets that go through our village."

Through the cooperation of the Niles Garden club, the baskets of flowers that have been hanging from the light posts on Milwaukee ave. will be refurbished and rehung in the next several weeks.

Board sets budget hearing date

June 26 was set as the date for the public hearing on the budget for the 1973-74 budget by the East Maine School District #63 School Board. The date was set at the regularly scheduled Board meeting held May 15. The budget hearing will be held at 7:30 p.m. at Ballard school, 8329 Ballard rd., Niles.

A copy of the tentative budget will be on file and conveniently available for the public's inspection at the office of the Board of Education, 8320 Ballard rd., Niles, from and after May 25.

The Board also authorized the transfer of $300,000 from the Working Cash Fund to the Educational Fund and $290,000 from the Working Cash Fund to the Building, Maintenance, and Operation Fund. The sale of Tax Anticipation Warrants in the amount of $1,000,000 was authorized to provide the necessary funds for operation through July.

Washington School PTA

Washington school, 2710 Golf rd., Glenview, will have an open PTA meeting on May 24 at 7:30 p.m. The business meeting will include installation of officers for 1973-74 year.

The program will feature an audience participation musical drama presented by "The Truck," a Repertory Co., directed by Derek Evans. The name of the play will be "If I Were Your Shoes."

Parents are invited to bring their children with them.

Niles Elementary PTA luncheon

The Niles Elementary school North and South PTA will hold their Spring Luncheon at the Millionaire's Club, Golf Mill, on Wednesday, May 30, 12 noon until 3 p.m. Tickets are $6.50 and include a social hour, prime rib buffet for lunch and a fashion show by Mr. Marty. For more information please call 966-8356.

31. This action was taken since it is not certain when the 1972 tax monies will be received by the District.

In other action, the Board rescinded its previous action to retain Anderson, Rehder, and Yandre, Inc., as architects for the Apollo school addition. It also accepted the resignations from professional and classified personnel and approved contract riders for teachers earning additional semester hours of graduate work.

Contracts were awarded on bid items for the 1973-74 school year. Accounts payable were discussed and approved.

Three in family to graduate

The Erwin Miller home in Des Plaines will echo to congratulations for 3 of its members soon. And who knows how many gifts and presents will be exchanged? Miller, of 9348 Home circle, will graduate 18 years after he began his studies at Roosevelt university. He'll receive a B.A. in history. Miller met his wife while she was a student at Roosevelt.

At the same time he graduates, his oldest daughter, Michelle, 14, will graduate from Gemini Junior High school and his young son, Elliot, 5, will receive his certificate of completion from nursery school.

Miller gives credit for his persistence to his wife and to his professor of history at Roosevelt, Paul Johnson, both of whom encouraged him to stay with it.

Cast member

When the performance was over the crowds heaved toward the front entrance and very passively exited out only one open door, while the remaining doors stayed closed. Had one person taken the time to release the other doors they could have all filled out in one-fifth the time. But they patiently queued up and filed out pushing ever so slightly.

Lining up for food was common in Moscow, where we spent our first and last nights. In stores not unlike our Stop and Shop downtown, shoppers waited in line at 9:30 at night for foods. Along a beautiful main Moscow street the elegant storefronts were not unlike North Michigan avenue shops. But the inside stores were mostly food stores and long queues had formed for the late-evening shopping. In every store the shopkeepers used an abacus to determine the cost of your bill.

Spending much time with the family and friends a middle-aged doctor stood on the sidewalk with our family group which had just emerged from 2 autos. While we were all going to go on everyone seemed to just stand around the walk and loiter away the time. After endless minutes, which were bided away leisurely, and without any hint of our next activity, the doctor smiled and said, "How we ever won the war I'll never know. We have absolutely no organization."

The doctor's mentioning of the war is significant. After 28 years the middle-aged people still live every day with World War II. The doctor was considered a war hero, twice being wounded. Our family mentioned how they fled the Germans when they headed into southern Russia. One sister and her family started from their village and returned to retrieve some possessions, and they were all slaughtered. Little boys and girls were drowned. And 7,000,000 Russian women were left widowed. The doctor said the accompanying problems of raising families without husbands and fathers was indeed a major problem with much social significance in this vast country.

Like most Americans we went to the ballet one night, a small local ballet, where no more than 200 persons were in the audience. In the orchestra pit were 65 men and women performing. It impressed me even though such a limited audience was present, how many people were involved in this experience to bring entertainment and culture to the local residents. To be sure, a Tschalkowsky's Swan Lake excerpt was performed. And while we enjoyed it, the men with us were anxious to leave. We had the feeling they'd seen it dozens of times and were not too happy to have to sit thru one more performance.

You can create images of depression and images of joy. While the May Day parade we viewed was somewhat joyless, nevertheless the people seemed to be having a genuine holiday. Little 5 year old girls with flowers paraded in flimsy sleeveless dresses, which were light and feminine and organdy-like. A slight cold drizzle interrupted the parade and mothers with coats for their wunderkind came from everywhere to protect them.

Our first night in Moscow a group of college-aged youths were singing up a Russian storm at one end of the restaurant. After closing time they peeled out into the street and continued with their songs.

At a family gathering one cousin brought out a concertina and the little wife was swooped from her chair and whirled about the dining area floor amidst much laughter and singing.

In Odessa we went to dinner at the home of a director of a leather factory. There were a dozen dishes on the table including herring, caviar, and smoked fishes. After lining the digestive tract with the first morsels, the vodka-drinkers began their toasts, with each toast requiring a bottoms-up finale to the drink. The little wife began eyeing me furtively after the fourth or fifth shot, telling me I'd better slow down. But I followed the drinking skills of my hosts by eating between drinks and the toasts went on and on thruout the meal. Along with dinner a vishna, or cherry wine, was served, as was the proverbial lemonade and seltzer water, replacing the drinking water which we were told was better not to drink. After the dozen dishes were completed, a hot meal was served.

The hosts for this meal included two younger persons, one who acted as our interpreter. They stayed with us only about 2 hours; since they had another engagement. They had to be Russia's equivalent to the "beautiful people." They were young, attractive, blond Ukrainian people, still in their late twenties. During the 2 hours they were with us the young interpreter twice changed her dress, each time wearing bright and exquisite blouses and skirts. Her handsome young husband changed into 3 different jackets or suits during his brief stay with us. They indeed were exceptional, unlike our more modest family.

tral Association. (The college hopes to gain accredited status by 1975.) The future director's duties will be to evaluate existing educational programs to see if they're doing students any good, suggest new programs and improvements in existing programs and to develop methods of "screening" incoming students to determine which ones are best fitted for which programs.

The latter duty, as well as the director's proposed $18,000-$24,000 salary, drew strong criticism from several members of the Board who said it sounded like the college was going to introduce a testing program which they felt was useless.

"One thing our young people have had enough of is testing," secretary Vivian D. Medak said, "especially considering that it is being discredited so much now nationally." After hearing Gilson's assurance that there was no intent to start a testing program, the Board decided not to strike that portion of the resolution. But they did remove a reference to a proposed $18,000-$24,000 yearly salary for the director because of Trustee Steven Laska's objection that "we're way out of the ball park."

The new faculty appointments are: Dan J. Detloff, music instructor who received his M.A. and B.A. in Music from Northwestern University, Vera L. Homrighous, an assistant professor of Physical Therapy, who received her B.A. in Physical Therapy at the University of Illinois in Champaign and her M.A. at along Devon and Touhy in Chicago should be banned to unclog those streets.

"Why the great necessity of constructing more streets when you don't improve the ones you got?" Proesel said. He also said the proposed construction which would endanger school children walking along Pratt to the 3-school elementary school complex bounded by Pratt, Crawford, Lunt and East Prairie aves.

In expressing their opposition to the proposed construction, the Board passed three resolutions, all unanimously. One condemned the proposal, urged residents of Lincolnwood to make their opposition known and authorized Village Attorney Louis Ance to seek a Cook County Circuit Court injunction to stop construction even if the County Board approves it.

Ance Friday said the village had the legal right to do so because part of "the area is in our corporate limits."
The second resolution requested the Cook County Environmental Control Commission, which must make an environmental impact statement before the County Board approves the construction, to hold a public hearing before issuing the statement. The third resolution empowered Ance to hire an environmental expert to help him prepare for the hearing and the ensuing controversy.

Carnival. . .

Days said that he felt the carnival in this location would draw mostly local people. Michael Yardon said he thought that this carnival would not hurt anyone in the village. He mentioned that there has always been adequate police protection and said he felt the village could only benefit from this carnival. Dick Hols moved to give Morton Grove Days permission to hold their carnival on the Shaf Land and Ed Brice then moved to table Hols' motion. The motion to table was defeated and Hols' motion was passed.
John Slater said that the Girl Scouts did a great job on "Keep America Beautiful Day."

"Undoubtedly our continued dedication to the sale of brand name carpeting, tiling, marble, ceramic and decorative vinyl floors as well as top quality sheet linoleum has been instrumental in building high traffic and sales. Full utilization of our service center, considered one of the trade's finest, has played a key role in increasing consumer confidence," said President Halp in his presentation of the company's brand name merchandising policies.

While we were all going to go on everyone seemed to just stand around the walk and loiter away the time. After endless minutes, which were bided away leisurely, and without any hint of our next activity, the doctor smiled and said, "How we ever won the war I'll never know. We have absolutely no organization."

The doctor's mentioning of the war is significant. After 28 years the middle-aged people still live every day with World War II. The doctor was considered a war hero, twice being wounded. Our family mentioned how they fled the Germans when they headed into southern Russia. One sister and her family started from their village and returned to retrieve some possessions, and they were all slaughtered. Little boys and girls were drowned. And 7,000,000 Russian women were left widowed. The doctor said the accompanying problems of raising families without husbands and fathers was indeed a major problem with much social significance in this vast country.

Like most Americans we went to the ballet one night, a small local ballet, where no more than 200 persons were in the audience. In the orchestra pit were 65 men and women performing. It impressed me even though such a limited audience was present, how many people were involved in this experience to bring entertainment and culture to the local residents. To be sure, a Tschalkowsky's Swan Lake excerpt was performed. And while we enjoyed it, the men with us were anxious to leave. We had the feeling they'd seen it dozens of times and were not too happy to have to sit thru one more performance.

You can create images of depression and images of joy. While the May Day parade we viewed was somewhat joyless, nevertheless the people seemed to be having a genuine holiday. Little 5 year old girls with flowers paraded in flimsy sleeveless dresses, which were light and feminine and organdy-like. A slight cold drizzle interrupted the parade and mothers with coats for their wunderkind came from everywhere to protect them.

Our first night in Moscow a group of college-aged youths were singing up a Russian storm at one end of the restaurant. After closing time they peeled out into the street and continued with their songs.

At a family gathering one cousin brought out a concertina and the little wife was swooped from her chair and whirled about the dining area floor amidst much laughter and singing.

In Odessa we went to dinner at the home of a director of a leather factory. There were a dozen dishes on the table including herring, caviar, cheeses and smoked fishes. After lining the digestive tract with the first morsels, the vodka-drinkers began their toasts, with each toast requiring a bottoms-up finale to the drink. The little wife began eyeing me furtively after the fourth or fifth shot, telling me I'd better slow down. But I followed the drinking skills of my hosts by eating between drinks and the toasts went on and on thruout the meal. Along with dinner a vishna, or cherry wine, was served, as was the proverbial lemonade and seltzer water, replacing the drinking water which we were told was better not to drink. After the dozen dishes were completed, a hot meal was served.

The hosts for this meal included two younger persons, one who acted as our interpreter. They stayed with us only about 2 hours; since they had another engagement. They had to be Russia's equivalent to the "beautiful people." They were young, attractive, blond Ukrainian people, still in their late twenties. During the 2 hours they were with us the young interpreter twice changed her dress, each time wearing bright and exquisite blouses and skirts. Her handsome young husband changed into 3 different jackets or suits during his brief stay with us. They indeed were exceptional, unlike our more modest family.

tral Association. (The college hopes to gain accredited status by 1975.) The future director's duties will be to evaluate existing educational programs to see if they're doing students any good, suggest new programs and improvements in existing programs and to develop methods of "screening" incoming students to determine which ones are best fitted for which programs.

The latter duty, as well as the director's proposed $18,000-$24,000 salary, drew strong criticism from several members of the Board who said it sounded like the college was going to introduce a testing program which they felt was useless.

"One thing our young people have had enough of is testing," secretary Vivian D. Medak said, "especially considering that it is being discredited so much now nationally." After hearing Gilson's assurance that there was no intent to start a testing program, the Board decided not to strike that portion of the resolution. But they did remove a reference to a proposed $18,000-$24,000 yearly salary for the director because of Trustee Steven Laska's objection that "we're way out of the ball park."

The new faculty appointments are: Dan J. Detloff, a music instructor who received his M.A. and B.A. in Music from Northwestern University, Vera L. Hornrighous, an assistant professor of Physical Therapy, who received her B.A. in Physical Therapy at the University of Illinois in Champaign and her M.A. at along Devon and Touhy in Chicago should be banned to unclog those streets.

"Why the great necessity of constructing more streets when you don't improve the ones you got?" Proesel said. He also said the proposed construction which would endanger school children walking along Pratt to the 3-school elementary school complex bounded by Pratt, Crawford, Lunt and East Prairie avenues.

In expressing their opposition to the proposed construction, the Board passed three resolutions, all unanimously. One condemned the proposal, urged residents of Lincolnwood to make their opposition known and authorized Village Attorney Louis Ancelet to seek a Cook County Circuit Court injunction to stop construction even if the County Board approves it.

Ancelet Friday said the village had the legal right to do so because part of "the area is in our corporate limits."

The second resolution requested the Cook County Environmental Control Commission, which must make an environmental impact statement before the County Board approves the construction, to hold a public hearing before issuing the statement. The third resolution empowered Ancelet to hire an environmental expert to help him prepare for the hearing and the ensuing controversy.

Days said that he felt the carnival in this location would draw mostly local people, Michael Yaron said he thought that this carnival would not hurt anyone in the village. He mentioned that there has always been adequate police protection and said he felt the village could only benefit from this carnival. Dick Hobs moved to give Morton Grove Days permission to hold their carnival on the Shaf land and Ed Brice then moved to table Hobs' motion. The motion to table was defeated and Hobs' motion was passed.

John Staror said that the Girl Scouts did a great job on "Keep America Beautiful Day."
