Successful Niles Days Festival...and no rain!

(By Alice M. Bobala)
The 1975 Niles Festival enjoyed a 5-day run of near-90 degree weather, opening on Wednesday night, July 16, in the Four Flags Shopping Center, 8203 Golf Rd. in Niles. It was the first year that the Festival has not been rained out, noted Festival Co-chairman Ben Mankowsky, although some severe early morning thunderstorms heralding the beginning of Niles Days had curtailed power throughout the village and set off alarms in other Niles areas. Teenagers predominated the huge turnout on Family Night, Wednesday, forming long lines waiting turns on numerous rides. The Himalaya, a car ride of increasing speed, was judged to be most popular, bringing in a total four-figure admission price on opening night. New this year, the Zipper was said to be most frightening ride with its turning and twisting cages. Instead of the usual Grand Prize raffle of a car this year, $3,250 was given over the 5 nights. A senior citizen at The Huntington, out-of-town vacationer M. Carlson was not aware, up to Monday morning, that she had won the $250 on opening night.

Thursday night winner of $500, the owner of La Venecia Restaurant at 8743 Milwaukee Ave. was visiting Greece for 3 months, unaware of his good fortune...in Niles.

Mrs. Estelle Wozniak of Niles, notified that she had won the $500 on Friday "was very thrilled to think I was the winner from all those people!" Her family, she said, due to return this week from a Canada vacation would not believe her good fortune. She plans to use the money for something sensible, she said, "like new curtains and a new bedspread."

Telling It Like It Is ...

Last week we reported Niles Police Captain Russ Beavers said the Niles Police Department is not likely to have problems similar to those Skokie has experienced because Niles policemen live within the village. He noted when there are differences in the department, Niles cops can drop in for a "chit chat" at one of their fellow-officer's homes, implying Niles' department exemplified a closeness missing in neighboring Skokie.

The day the article was published, last Thursday, an unidentified lady called in and said Beavers and the article was "a lot of B.S." We were merely recording what Beavers told us. Knowing Beavers and knowing many of the men in the department, we would have to agree it's a bit difficult to believe a cop with a grievance would drop over to Beavers' house for a "chit chat". Beavers is part of the establishment. And he'd probably be the last guy in the department any policeman would see to air his problems. We know this. The cops know this. But when we report what a man expresses, it isn't our business to debunk his comments while he's pontificating.

Tuesday's newspapers reported the RTA overpaid NORTAN (the United Motor Coach Company) $150,000 in emergency grants. Officials said when the exact overpayments are determined the RTA will take steps to recover them.

The RTA made grants after NORTAN, the North Suburban Mass Transit District, submitted estimates of operating deficits for the last 6 months. NORTAN took over United's transportation duties last year.

Prior to United being taken over by the new transportation district it was receiving support from the village coffers of many of the communities it was servicing. This continuous

Increase in tax bills for Maine Township

While property tax bills dropped in 7 of 10 suburban Cook County townships, an increase in property taxes is likely for virtually all residents in Maine Township. Cook County Clerk Stanley Kusper released the 1974 real estate tax rates which showed substantial increases in Maine Township communities. Rates for Des Plaines show a 4.8 per cent increase and Niles a 4.8 per cent increase.

Sister Sebo: "Humanize Nursing Homes"

Editor's Note:

The following article tells the story of Sister Irene Sebo's speech as well as her election to President of the National Geriatrics Society. It is reprinted from a story in The Miami Herald which appeared May 27, 1975.

Sister is the administrator of St. Benedict Home in Niles; a member of the Niles Chamber of Commerce and Industry Board of Directors; former vice president of the National Interfaith Coalition on Aging; and a member of the Niles Senior Citizen Commission.

She is a member of Sacred Heart Convent, Lisle, Illinois.

"Misery, bitterness, guilt and real fear surround the point at which an aged parent has to be put in a home, according to the new president of the National Geriatrics Society.

Sister Irene Sebo, a Benedictine nun who is administrator of a nursing home in the suburbs of Chicago, told the society's 22nd annual congress, in Miami Beach recently: "The vast amount of human misery suffered by members of a family over and with the aging parent usually comes to a breaking point before a sensible and practical solution to the unhappy situation is arrived at."

And, once the decision has been made and acted upon, the problems do not cease, she said, because, inside the home, the frustrations of the work force may be taken out on the old person as he or she becomes less and less able to be self-reliant.

This is particularly true, said Sister Irene, of the aides -- "the burden bearers in every health care institution" -- whose own sense of self worth is depleted by the system.

SHE RECALLED a recent incident, when a woman called her at 11:15 on a Sunday night "for no particular reason" to ask about the facilities in Sister Irene's homes.

Detecting a certain note in the woman's voice, the nun reminded her she had chosen an unusual hour for a casual inquiry and said, "Why don't you tell me why you called. But first, please cry."

"She cried for 15 minutes," said Sister Irene.

Her eldest daughter had left home, her husband was threatening to follow.

"I think I have to put my mother in a nursing home," said the woman.

"Where is she now?" asked Sister Irene.

"Upstairs, sleeping," said the woman. "She has taken over my home."

IN SUCH instances, including the times that daughters or daughters-in-law become part-time housekeepers for old women who managed to live alone, Sister Irene said there would be sudden explosions of resentment from the younger woman, with hurt feelings all around. Or "Grandma will choose to ignore these disruptions, because she has grown totally dependent on her daughter for companionship and services. Once again, she has repossessed her daughter and she is not about to rock the boat."

"Why has not the son, daughter or other children felt sufficiently relaxed and free to approach the aging parent, before their relationship begins to fracture, to consider a change in his or her living arrangements or lifestyle to something more accommodating, secure and protective?" asked Sister Irene.

The reason, she said, is guilt-ridden fear.

"Fear of offending the spouse. If it is the husband's mother, there could be trouble. And vice versa.

"Fear of insulting Grandma (or Grandpa). Perhaps not so much the insult as Grandma's angry litany of 'How good I was to you; how much I loved you; look what you are doing to me now, you are kicking me out. You don't love me any more.'"

"Fear of criticism by neighbors, friends and other relatives... most of this criticism coming out after the aged person dies, which is tragic.

"Fear of the nursing home, because the children have become saturated with propaganda and horror stories of crimes and hideous things perpetrated against helpless victims in nursing homes."

GOOD, MODERN nursing homes give professional care, based on medical needs, while allowing the resident to live as normally as possible, even where there are handicaps, said Sister Irene.

But, while the emphasis, especially in governmental control, is upon buildings, safety devices and the proper surroundings for a nursing home, there are no threatened penalties, she said, for lack of compassion and decent physical treatment.

"Our state governments demand super structures and safety devices (I have seven). They ask what is practical and I am all for that," said Sister Irene. "But I have yet to hear them scream, 'You will be penalized $100 for every patient we find with bed sores.'"

In her own nursing home, said Sister Irene, there was "hell to pay" if nurses did not turn patients and use lotion on their bodies to keep them comfortable.

"I am a lion," she said. "Only because I want for them what I would want for my mother... and what I would want for me."

"If you give me a clean bed and bathe me and give me a drink once in a while, come around and kiss me on the forehead and say 'I am glad to have you here because, without you, I could never develop my capacity for compassion and love.' If you turn me because I am no longer able to turn myself, I will be eternally grateful."

HER GOAL, for her year as president of the National Geriatrics Society, is to "humanize" the system which fractures family relationships over the guilt and fear of putting old persons in nursing homes and which can leave the elderly patient "feeling like a person without a country."

A popular expression among health professionals concerns the need to provide "quality care."

But, said Sister Irene, "Unless we, as administrators, generate in our staff a profound, genuine sensitivity to all the people they work for and with... we will not have quality care. No amount of public legislation, penalties or any other kind of threat from the government is going to bring about quality care."

And the nursing aides need a kind word just as much as the patients, according to Sister Irene's philosophy.

"Our aides are the burden bearers in every health care institution. We educate them in techniques and procedures. But how often do we say to them 'You know, I am so happy you are here. I would never be able to carry this load alone. And are you not proud you can help these human beings maintain an optimum level of their capacity to remain alive and functioning?'"

FACED WITH the fact that "in old age you are deprived of much of your physical beauty," when their charges drool, have watery eyes, are incontinent and ugly, the aides, said Sister Irene, become clock-punching automatons who look upon their patients as "broken, depleted, a burden who makes their work drudgery."

Speaking at a workshop attended by nursing home administrators, doctors, nurses, pharmacists and several college professors, Sister Irene pointed out that aides "don't have professional workshops. We don't give them the uplift they should have as part of the team."

SPORTS

Scouts present colors at softball marathon

Boy Scout Troop 273, in spite of inclement weather, presented the colors for the opening ceremonies of the Girls Softball Marathon for Muscular Dystrophy on Friday, July 11. Presenting colors were Dan Waryck, Gene & Jeff Shaffer, and Bob Bobinsky. Mayor Blase and Scoutmaster Bernie Shaffer also participated.

Little City golf tournament

Little City will be a big winner when Chicagoland businessmen and Illinois PGA members sharpen their golf skills to meet the challenge to help mentally retarded children, in Little City's 12th Annual Pro-Am Invitational Golf Tournament, Monday, August 4th, 1975 at Hillcrest Country Club, Long Grove, Ill.

Over 150 businessmen and patrons will contribute an entry fee of $500.00 to play in the five-man (one professional and four amateurs), best-ball tournament vying for many top prizes.

Morrie Kellman, 6929 N. Kenneth, Lincolnwood, President of Globe-Amerasia Glass Company is serving as tournament chairman for the 12th consecutive year.

Little City's Pro-Am is one of the few charity tournaments which has been sanctioned by the IPGA, has raised over $335,000 to date for the mentally retarded children at Palatine, Ill.

Tam Tennis Club adds handball courts

The highly successful Tam Tennis Club, located on the site of historic Tam O'Shanter Country Club at 7686 N. Caldwell Ave., Niles, is increasing its number of indoor handball-racquetball courts from two to five, according to Club Manager and Head Professional Neil Kramer.

J. Emil Anderson & Son, Inc., Des Plaines, owner-builder-developer of the luxury facility, has started construction with completion of the courts expected in time for play this fall. Anderson built the original facility in the summer of 1972.

In addition to handball-racquetball courts, Tam Tennis Club has eight regulation indoor tennis courts in plush, air conditioned surroundings including carpeted locker rooms with separate saunas and whirlpools for men and women.

Mr. Kramer indicated that the handball-racquetball additions were in response to growing, widespread interest in these two sports and requests by the Club's 1800 members. "Both games are fast-paced and can be enjoyed with a minimum of training or investment. Women, in particular, have suddenly discovered the fun and exercise of racquetball," he added.

Courts at Tam Tennis Club are available for Club members' use each season on a permanently reserved or open-time basis.

Mikva meets with area senior citizens

Congressman Abner J. Mikva (D-10th) told more than 100 area senior citizens in Morton Grove last week that the nation's Social Security system is basically strong, but steps must be taken to strengthen it for the future.

Mikva is a member of the newly-created Social Security Subcommittee of the Ways and Means Committee which is in the process of holding hearings on ways to improve the system.

"We can no longer rely upon the payroll tax to exclusively finance Social Security because declining birthrates, longer life spans and earlier retirements are resulting in a decrease in Social Security revenues and an increase in recipients," Mikva said.

"We can correct this problem by switching a portion of the financing to general tax revenues. We should also consider increasing the wage base that is subjected to Social Security taxes," he continued.

Mikva emphasized to his audience in the Morton Grove Park District Senior Citizens' Center that if President Ford's proposal to limit Social Security's cost-of-living increases had taken effect, it would have severely limited the system's ability to provide for the present and future needs of older Americans.

"The reason Congress passed legislation to make sure that Social Security benefits will keep pace with the cost-of-living is that a senior citizen's costs are the very necessities of life—food, clothing, housing, medicine, heating and electricity," Mikva said.

"To put a five per cent limitation on Social Security increases as President Ford suggested in his State of the Union message is unbelievable and unfair. I am sure that Congress will never approve it," he said. "If we cannot produce economic and fiscal policy that keeps our prices stable, we have no right to ask the citizens who are on limited, fixed incomes to absorb the impact of price increases."

Mikva noted that his position in the Social Security Subcommittee will enable him to work closely on securing passage for two bills he is co-sponsoring which would:

—Guarantee that widows and widowers receive pension rights that their spouses earn. Presently, these survivors benefits would be denied if a spouse does not live to the normal retirement age of 65.

—Allow senior citizens to use Medicare funds to purchase prescription drugs needed to combat life threatening diseases.

Arrest suspect in arson-burglary

A 23-year-old Chicago man was arrested July 14 as a suspect in the July 5 arson-burglary of a firm in the Tam Industrial Park, according to Niles Police.

Wayne Ferguson of 4415 N. Racine, a former resident of Niles, has been formally charged with arson and burglary of Hoyt Fastener Corp., 7300 Oak Park Ave., according to Niles Police Chief Clarence Emrikson. He is being held in Cook County Jail under $20,000 bond on each charge.

The suspect apprehended in Chicago on July 6 had been returned to Niles for questioning and subsequently released, said police. Further intensive investigation and resulting crime lab evidence led to apprehension and return of the suspect to Niles for arrest on July 14.

Unable to make bond, Ferguson was denied reduction of bond by Judge John Burke in Niles Court last Friday. A preliminary hearing was set for Friday, July 25.

"The entire Detective Bureau was involved," said Niles Police Chief Emrikson in commending his men on Friday. "They all did a very good job in breaking the case."

According to Niles Fire Chief Albert L. Hoelbl, a notifier alarm at 6 a.m. Saturday, July 5, brought Niles firemen, housed a short distance away, to the industrial firm within minutes. Strong odors of a flammable fluid which had been spread over the front office area were immediately discernible to firemen, he said, and police were summoned to the scene.

According to Niles Police, burglars had entered the building through an east window taking currency, office equipment and a grandfather's clock. Police determined the fire was an attempt to cover up the burglary.

Police theorize there were others involved in the burglary. The suspect, employed in the corporation's warehouse up to 2½ months ago, was observed leaving the area Saturday morning by an eye witness said police.

None of the currency or stolen merchandise has been recovered yet said police.

loss of approximately $8,000 of which $2,500 was currency.

According to the owner, Joseph Hoyt of Glencoe, there was a total

Park swimmers victorious

Three in a Row For Morton Grove
Morton Grove swimmers chalk up another win defeating Prospect Heights by a score of 284-265. This boosts the swimmers to a 3-1 win-loss record and is the first time in the teams existence to win three meets in a row.

The success of the team is due greatly to the swimmers themselves. They have really worked hard this season, improving their times and strokes, along with working together as a team instead of individuals. Another important factor for success is due to the coaches themselves. The team is very fortunate to have four coaches who spend most of their free time putting the team together.

1st place relays to the 8 and under boys, 9-10 girls, 11-12 boys and girls and the 13-14 girls.

1st place ribbons were awarded to: L. Nelson, R. Grazian, R. Drag, T. Dunn, A. Nelson, T. Dunn, A. Mazon, J. Krozel, S. Fitz, B. Nopen, J. Hopper, N. Dunn, L. Hopper, B. Simkins, and E. Olsen.

The BUSINESS Picture

Second installment real estate tax bills in mail

The Cook County Treasurer's office today began the mailing of 1.4 million second installment real estate tax bills.

Treasurer Edward J. Rosewell said that the official penalty date for the tax payment is September 10. After this date, a one per cent penalty per month or any portion thereof on the amount due will be assessed.

Rosewell said that his office currently is mailing the tax bills in the Chicago townships of Hyde Park, Jefferson Park, Rogers Park and Lakeview.

Under the law, the Treasurer must have 1.4 million tax bills in the mail 30 days prior to the September 10 penalty date.

"We have geared our staff to work double shifts and weekends to insure that all the bills will be in the mail to meet the penalty date," Rosewell said. "We will begin the distribution of the tax funds as soon as payments are received. I urge all taxpayers to make their payments as quickly as possible so that we can make the disbursements to the County's taxing bodies."

Rosewell said that one of the problems in mailing the tax bills for the suburban townships is the delay in receiving the computation of the tax rates for these areas. Many of the townships overlap with other counties and these tax rates, which are computed by the County Clerk, are last to be received.

Rosewell noted that this is the first time in recent history that the County has not had a penalty deadline of the first of the fifteenth of the month.

"After conferences with all concerned officials, we feel that we can have all of the bills in the mail by August 10th, thus meeting the requirements for the September 10th deadline," Rosewell said. "By establishing the deadline five days early, we realize tens of thousands of dollars in additional interest. On September 10th alone, we will collect and process more than 200 million dollars, primarily from the large corporations and utilities that place checks in our will call department. These checks will be processed immediately."

Norwood Federal's first branch customer

When Norwood Federal Savings opened the doors to its new branch office at 5415 West Devon, on hand to be the first customer was Edward Borek (right), 7083 Caldwell Avenue, who turned out to be a Norwood Federal-saver for more than 20 years.

Welcoming him to the new facility are Michael Cannone, Branch Manager, and Teller, Karen Makowski.

Commenting on the event, Donald J. Babicz, Executive Vice President, observed: "When we finally settled on the location for our first branch office, we hoped that many of our existing customers would find the new site more convenient than the main office at 5813 N. Milwaukee. It was a pleasure to discover that in Mr. Borek's case, our decision proved to be accurate."

A complete savings office, Norwood Federal's new branch features five teller stations, two walk-up windows, plus off-street, private parking.

Organized 48 years ago, Norwood Federal currently has assets in excess of $65 million, and during the first two weeks the branch office was opened, more than $350,000 were deposited by area residents.

Jefferson State Bank's 20th birthday celebration

"We're throwing our own birthday party because nobody throws one quite like us." These were the words of Paul Anderson, Vice President, Jefferson State Bank, as he enumerated all of the big events taking place at his bank this year.

"First of all, there's our 'Lucky Winners' Sweepstakes. It's a giant drawing with thousands of dollars in big-ticket prizes. Some lucky person will be the proud owner of a new 1975 Dodge Coronet 2-door hardtop. This is our grand prize!" Among the other great giveaways: 19" color TV; dishwasher; washer-dryer; refrigerator-freezer; AM/FM 8 track stereo radio; freezer; radar range. In addition, a free $100 bonus will be given to those winners who have an existing account, open one before the drawing or who personally deposits the coupon - or its equivalent - at the bank. Full details on the drawing may be obtained by calling 777-4433. The drawing is slated for Tuesday, Aug. 5, at 3 p.m. Winners need not be present.

For depositors who open - or renew - a times savings account, Jefferson has a lavish new array of gifts. Homemakers will relish the Pokey Pot slow cookers, Bissell vacuum cleaners, electric ice cream makers, 6-piece Calico cookware sets and 5-in-one cookers. Rounding out this impressive roster are 4 and 8-cup coffee-makers, planter stands, electric hair combs, deep heat massagers, men's and women's umbrellas, clothing steam-outs and personal security mini-guards. Practically all gifts are free; a few require a token payment.

"Our new drive-up/walk-in banking facility really puts the frosting on our 20th birthday cake," continued Mr. Anderson. This ultra-modern facility is located at Milwaukee and Higgins just across from the Jefferson Park Terminal. Anderson stated that the facility is open every morning at 7 a.m. (except Sunday) and remains open until the evening hours so that depositors can bank to and from work. There are three drive-in lanes and parking for thirty cars.

The walk-in area also houses "Big Jeff" - the bank's affectionate name for its new Teller-Matic 24-hour-a-day electronic banker. According to Mr. Anderson, "Big Jeff" can handle practically any type of money transaction by the press of a button. It's fantastic! I hope all our customers get a chance to see "Big Jeff" in action."

Mr. Anderson concluded by saying, "Along with everything that's new, we'll also continue with all the old benefits and virtues that have helped Jefferson gain the banking confidence of

ED HANSON

Something special....

They have pills and drugs for just about every ill today. But kleptomaniacs have a problem — what can they "take" for it? Water is the best cure of all for anything — if taken with the right spirit.

Some women, after a few drinks, start looking for a chaser. Some people have no respect for age — unless it's bottled. Keep your swimming pool safe. Fill it with martinis. You can't drown because the deeper you sink, the higher you get.

Special cure for hangovers — keep drinking.

A healthy senior citizen friend of mine said, "I don't smoke, drink or chase women. Tomorrow I'll celebrate my eightieth birthday." "You will?" I asked. "How?"

Do you know Howard Hughes is so rich he has an unlisted phone company.

I like the quiet things in life — like the folding of a $100 bill. If you go out with a doctor's wife don't forget to bring an apple.

Adam was always true to Eve. Eve was always true to Adam. I know a lawyer who makes a practise of going out with doctor's wives. I saw him last week in the produce department buying a bushel of apples.

An apple didn't cause the trouble in the Garden of Eden. It was a pear.

I spent so much money in the past 20 years on a woman I know I think I'll marry her for my money.

You know what a newspaper is — but what's a noose paper? Sometimes it's a love letter.

Buffalo Lark, the 2-5 winning disqualified favorite last Saturday at Arlington Park is the only race horse in history that took 20,000 people for a ride at one time.

Something special, in fact, several new specials are being offered at Jake's Restaurant of Niles Monday thru Friday. Jake's Omelette special which consists of a Denver, Ham, Spanish, Bacon, Mushroom or Salami and served with four small pancakes — your choice for only $1.65.

And a brand new other special consisting of 1/2 of a lb. hamburger with french fries, cole slaw and onion on dark rye bread is offered for only $1.50.

And, of course, there's Jake's "all you can eat" breakfast specials, served Monday thru Friday, from 6:30 a.m. till 10:30 a.m. which have proved to be so popular they've become a regular feature at Jake's. Monday it's Farmer Style Eggs with French Toast, Tuesday Ranch Style Eggs and Pancakes, Wednesday Parslied Eggs with Potatoes and Pancakes, Thursday Denver Style Eggs and French Toast and Friday Chinese Style Eggs with Pancakes. And children can have these specials for only 75 cents on an "all you can eat" deal.

And there's that old standby Jake's "all you can eat dinner" specials for only $1.85 which have proven during the past year to be so popular with area folks that people come from far and wide to eat their fill of these delicious save-money specials. And children have a number of menu items to choose from for half-price on Saturday and Sunday too. And Jake tells me he has refilled his treasure chest with all new toys for the kids from ages 1 to 12.

And during these hot summer days, Jake's has a long list of special goodies from his big fountain service that daily delights both the young and old... sundaes, sodas, soft drinks. Jake's Restaurant, 7740 Milwaukee ave., Niles, according to Jake, is the luckiest place in town to purchase raffle tickets as literally hundreds of winners have been posted at Jake's. You're always a winner at Jake's famous place of Niles.

There's another big dance being held at La Ray's Executive Caterers, 7225 Caldwell, Niles, on Saturday, July 26, from 9 to 1 a.m. There'll be live music, danceable music from the 40s, 50s and 60s, free champagne drawing held every hour and fun for everyone. Mixed drinks $1.50, beer 75 cents and the bar will be open until 2 a.m. Admission is only $1.50. Meet people, dance and have a gala evening at La Ray's next Saturday, July 26th.

Last Saturday I dropped into the Lone Tree Inn, 7710 Milwaukee ave., to say "hello" to my old friend Tony DeVito who is back playing and singing again at his favorite place. A large crowd, as usual, was on hand and having a ball and enjoying Tony's music and patter. Nightly dinner specials, cocktails and dancing make the Lone Tree Inn an enjoyable place to have fun and get away from the cares and worries of the day.

Chick Stella & Friends, a locally popular 4 piece group, will perform Friday and Saturday, Aug. 1 and 2, at the Excalibur Lounge in the Golf Mill Shopping Center behind the movie theatres. The Excalibur Lounge, open till 4 a.m., is a "live" spot and a place I know you'll enjoy.

John F. Bush

Marine Corporal John F. Bush, son of Mr. and Mrs. B.C. McConnell of 10069 Linda Lane, Des Plaines, has been meritoriously promoted to his present rank while serving with 3d Marine Division on Okinawa. He received the early promotion in recognition of his outstanding performance of duty, dedication and military bearing.

A former student of Glenbrook South High School, Glenview, he joined the Marines in January 1974.

Art Exhibit

Oils, watercolors and sumi-e (Japanese ink paintings) by Des Plaines artist, Elvera Campbell, are the July-August offering in the Art Corner of Ladendorf Olds. Shown with the artist is David W. Ladendorf getting a preview showing of the works Mrs. Campbell has on display in the showroom at 77 Rand Road in Des Plaines.

A charter member of Des Plaines Art Guild and teacher of art, Elvera Campbell studied figure and portrait art under Karl Buehr of the Art Institute, oil and watercolor with Gianni Clifone, watercolor with George Mally, and sumi-e with Ryoza Ogura. She has taught this latter technique in Maine Township Adult Evening School, and took over the classes of her instructor, Mr. Ogura, following his death in December, 1973.

Her exhibit of paintings in three media may be viewed weekdays from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m., and Saturdays until 5 p.m. through August 30.

Musical "George M" opens Friday

When the curtain on the musical GEORGE M opens tomorrow night, it will reveal the life of a man and the flavor of a country still remembered by most of us.

George M. Cohan (who lived from 1878-1942) was the most versatile showman in the annals of the American stage. The musical GEORGE M (that's how he signed all his letters and memos) is his story. It tells of his relationship with his family, his marriages (he had two), but mostly, it tells his life as a singer, dancer, choreographer, composer, director and producer.

George M. appeared on stage early—as a babe in arms. By the age of fifteen, as vaudeville chains came into being, George M., his parents and his sister Josie were a standard act known as The Four Cohans. The sign of this act used, "my father thanks you, my mother thanks you, my sister thanks you and I thank you", became immortally associated with Cohan's reputation, and even found its way into this play.

Altogether, Cohan wrote over 500 songs, created about 41 musical plays and produced 130 Broadway presentations. With his partner Sam Harris, he owned three theatres on Broadway. He did all this mostly by the age of 41, when he "retired" from show business in pique at the formation of the actor's union after the historic strike in 1919. Later he relented and wrote, directed and produced four more hits in the next eight years.

Although most of Cohan's plays so thoroughly reflected the 1900-1920 era than they have now become impossibly outmoded, his songs remain as wonderfully exuberant and rousing as ever. "Give My Regards To Broadway", "Mary", "Harrigan", "It Is A Grand Old Flag", and "Forty-Five Minutes from Broadway" can still make eyes

Old Orchard summer concerts

Wayne King, The Waltz King, will make his fourth consecutive appearance at Old Orchard before his typically captivated audience July 28.

Many guests that evening will recall tripping the light fantastic at the Aragon Ballroom where King made his early rise to fame as a dance band conductor. At a time when the jazz craze for fast but hot music seemed to be the thing, Wayne King insisted every other number be a waltz.

His insistence was backed by his ability and his superb interpretation of waltz music and the public's desire for something new combined to make him an immediate success. The waltz popularity swept Chicago and then the nation. The Waltz You Saved For Me became must listening from coast to coast and other tunes like Josephine, Goolus and I Love You Truly made the music of Wayne King the most popular of the day. He'll be playing some of these same melodies at the Old Orchard Summer Concert.

Roy Leonard of WGN Radio will be master of ceremonies for each of the four concerts. Old Orchard is located at Golf rd. and Skokie Hwy. in Skokie and the gazebo can be found in the parking area southeast of Marshall Field. There is no admission and seating is available. Concerts begin at 9:15.

Kalinyen-Hickman Concert at Guild Playhouse

In a change-of-pace offering to theatre and music lovers in the area, Des Plaines Theatre Guild will present Michael Kalinyen and Ray Hickman in concert this weekend at Guild Playhouse in Des Plaines.

Two performances by the vocalists will be given at 8:30 p.m. on Saturday, July 26, and at 7:30 p.m. on Sunday, July 27 in the Playhouse at 620 Lee St. (U.S. 12-45 North at U.S. 14). They will be accompanied by Arthur Lonsdale.

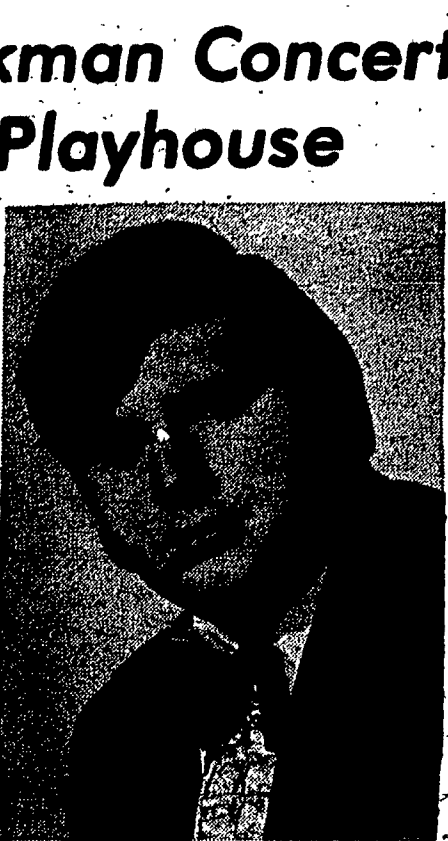

Michael Kalinyen has appeared in almost every facet of show business: opera, musicals, night clubs and even with jazz bands. He will be remembered by Des Plaines Theatre Guild audiences for his outstanding performance as Tony in The Most Happy Fella last September, for which he received the Guild's Best Actor of the 1974-75 season at the DPTG annual awards banquet in June.

He holds a Bachelor of Theatre Arts degree from the University of Illinois and is currently associated with Lyric Opera of Chicago. Kalinyen and his wife, Susan, are Des Plaines residents, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Kaye, live in Niles.

For their joint concert appearances on July 26 and 27, Kalinyen and Hickman (who is associated with Skylight Theatre in Milwaukee) have planned a varied program of familiar operatic

Freedom Train to display historic items

The American Freedom Train -- the only national Bicentennial project -- will be displaying historic treasures from every state in the Union, including Illinois, when it arrives in Chicago July 28. The 25-car red, white and blue train pulled by a steam locomotive, will be located at Navy Pier and will be open to the public beginning Monday, July 28 through Sunday, August 3 from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. daily.

Children under age 3 will be admitted free. Regular admission is $1 for youth between 3 and 12 and senior citizens 65 and older. All others will be $2. Tickets are now on sale at all Chicagoland Jewel Food Stores and Grand Bazaars.

The Freedom Train pays special tribute to Abraham Lincoln, who lived in Illinois at the time he began establishing himself as one of the outstanding leaders of America. Included in the Bicentennial display is a replica of the president's box at Ford Theater as it was the night of Lincoln's assassination on April 16, 1865. The display also contains a life-sized replica of Lincoln's rocking chair at the theater and personal memorabilia ranging from his famous stove-pipe hat (circa 1858) to four of his law books on Illinois. The titles are: Volume I, Illinois Reports, 1841; Volume II, Illinois Reports, 1844; Journal of the Convention Assembly at Springfield, June 1847; and Revised Code of Laws of Illinois, published in Vandalia, 1827.

The Lincoln memorabilia is on loan from James T. Hickey of Elkhart.

On loan jointly from the Chicago Bible Society and the American Bible Society, is an original edition of the first English Bible printed in the United States of America.

At the time of the Revolutionary War, there were shortages of almost everything, including the Bible. It took a special act of Congress to authorize the publication of Robert Aiken's Bible which is known as "The Bible of the Revolution". This edition was printed with the authority and recommendation of the Continental Congress in 1782. Only 50 copies are known to be in existence of the initial 10,000 printing.

More than 500 historic documents, artifacts and memorabilia spanning 200 years of America's heritage are being displayed in 10 display cars and two showcase cars of the train. Viewers are taken through the cars on a moving walkway.

Included in these historic displays, for example, is an 1831 model of the first successful reaper that was invented by Cyrus Hall McCormick. It is on loan from International Harvester in Chicago.

Other states, like Illinois, will be planning many of their Bicentennial activities around the visit of the American Freedom Train. More than 80 cities in 48 states are included in this 17,000-mile epic journey.

The American Freedom Train Foundation, Inc., is a non-profit, non-commercial and non-political project financed completely without government or state funds. The train's visit to Chicago is hosted by the Chicago Bicentennial Committee.

Orchard Village gift

A $1000 gift has been presented by the Fun Fair officers to Orchard Village, the new community facility for retarded adults. The contribution toward the (half million) $500,000 cost of the recently purchased property in the 7600 block of Marmora, Skokie, was handed to Bernard G. Saltzberg, Executive Director.

Orchard Village is operated by the Orchard Association for the Retarded, made up of parents of mentally retarded and/or physically handicapped children in Niles and Maine townships.

Orchard Village is a training residence for young adults who have progressed through all available special education facilities and who are not quite up to entering the workaday world entirely on their own.

OCC architectural tech grads find jobs

As the Architectural Technology Program at Oakton Community College enters its third year, its first graduating class is already well established in the job market, according to coordinator Les Jacobs.

After two years of technical training in the skills of architectural drawing and construction documents, these students were able to secure well-paying professional positions in architectural offices throughout the community, Jacobs said.

"They were able to get good jobs because they have marketable and well-developed skills," Jacobs said.

He compared his graduates' training with that of a liberal arts major whose skills may be neither immediately apparent or marketable.

"Our program offers the opportunity to learn the skills required to get a good job in the architectural and construction industry and, what's more, you can become a registered architect," he pointed out.

The Architectural Technology curriculum concentrates on the process involved in preparing a set of construction documents. In learning this process, the student becomes familiar with construction details, building materials, building codes, specifications, and cost estimating procedures.

Oakton offers both a two-year degree program leading to an Associate of Applied Science degree and a one-year certificate program. For further information, contact Jacobs at 967-5120.

Students planning to attend Oakton Community College, located at Oakton and Nagle in Morton Grove, should apply now for admission at the Office of Admissions, Building 3. They will be notified by letter of their admission and date of appointment for registration for the fall term.

Cash taken in burglary

Cash totaling $250 and personal papers were stolen in the burglary of a home, Monday July 14, on the 6700 block of Forestview Lane said Niles police last week.

Burglars gained entry to the home on the north side of the building according to police, ransacking a bedroom and taking the money, drivers license and personal cards from a dresser drawer.

Shoppers Walk burglary

Bathroom equipment and cash totaling $2,125 were taken in a burglary during the July 12 weekend of Modern Kitchens, 9018 Milwaukee Ave. according to Niles police.

Entry was made through the rear door of the Shoppers Walk store. Faucets, towel bars and other bath fixtures and $360 in currency were removed from the premises, said police.

A grateful family

Recently my husband had a cardiac arrest and he wouldn't be with us today if it weren't for the miraculous job of two Niles Paramedics, Rich Timm and Rich Valkanet and our friend and neighbor Joe Margalski, a Niles fireman. It seems we just don't realize how fortunate the Village of Niles is to have such fine men working so hard to save the lives of others. I feel much safer and confident knowing there are people like the paramedics ready to help when an emergency arises. My family and I will be forever grateful to all those men. Sincerely (Mrs.) Norman Kowalski and family

Case of the missing tent

Dear Editor:

The Fourth of July weekend was to be hot. Invited guests will need a shady place to sit and enjoy the day. July 3 I drove to Hermann, purchased a 12 x 12 screened tent, set up inside our fenced yard and we all enjoyed it. July 10 it was stolen from our yard. The cord had been cut and the stakes pulled from the ground. Why?

In 1973 a Toro $175 lawnmower was also stolen from inside my yard and in the car port. Why? I read of many items being stolen from radios in cars, bicycles, lawn furniture but never recovered. Maybe we need a little more patrolling and less watching for cars going thru stop signs at a cemetery.

Nursery School begins registration for summer

Registration for 1975-76 attendance in Suburban Nursery School is now being accepted and will continue throughout the summer months. The school for tots, now in its twelfth year is located at the St. Anselm's Church at Dempster and Greenwood in Park Ridge, just one block south of K-Mart and Dominick's shopping areas.

This fall there will be two school sessions with a three-day afternoon class each week for four and five year olds and a three-day class each week for early four year olds and three year olds in the mornings. A two-day class per week will also be available.

Oakton registration for senior citizens

Special registration dates have been scheduled for senior citizens planning to attend Oakton Community College for the fall term, according to Dr. Harvey Irlen, dean of Learning Cluster III.

Residents of the college district over 60 years of age may register on Wednesday, July 30, from 9:00 a.m.-11:00 a.m. and from 1:00 p.m.-3:00 p.m. and on Tuesday, August 5, from 5:30 p.m.-7:30 p.m. Registration will be held in Building 6 on the interim campus, Oakton and Nagle, Morton Grove.

Oakton's Gray Matters program for senior citizens is entering its first full academic year this fall, offering three regular college credit courses with special emphasis for the senior adult student. Dr. Irlen said.

A first semester communications course (COM 101-08) will be offered on the college campus in tandem with the Psychology of Personal Growth (PSY 101-09) on Tuesday and Thursday mornings from 8:00 a.m. until 10:45 a.m. The course will combine the study of values and goals with the study of language and the writing of expository prose.

Two courses will be offered at the Mayer Kaplan Jewish Community Center. The Individual in Modern Society

Jaffe bill waiving summer school fees awaits signature

A bill to loosen regulations concerning the payment of summer school fees has been passed by the General Assembly and is now on the Governor's desk. H.B. 496, sponsored by Rep. Aaron Jaffe, provides that school boards no longer are required to charge fees for summer school if these boards determine that such extra summer education is necessary for a particular child, or if a child is indigent.

Jaffe commented, "If we are to give the best education available to students in Illinois, we cannot tie the hands of school boards because of the payment of summer charges. School boards should have the kind of permissive statute which will allow them to provide that education at their discretion."

"Summer school is often a vital part of the education program for many children, and the payment of fees should not be the deciding factor as to whether or not that child will be able to attend school during the summer session. H.B. 496 opens the door to summer school for these children."

Suburban Nursery School is a state-registered, non-sectarian school with an extensive program and experienced teaching staff. Activities for the children will include arts and crafts, guidance projects, creative drama, and outdoor play. Field trips are scheduled for good weather months.

The Nursery School serves an area which includes Des Plaines, Park Ridge, Niles, Glenview, Morton Grove and Skokie. For enrollment and information on both class sessions, please call Mrs. Ruth S. Abrams, director, at 296-6202.

(SSC 101-09) will be taught by Dr. Dennis Lamping on Monday and Wednesday afternoons from 1:30 until 2:45. This course will center on discussions of events as reported in newspapers, magazines, and on television.

The second course is Creative Writing (COM 201-03), offered on Monday and Wednesday mornings from 10:30 a.m. until 11:45 a.m. It will provide students the opportunity to develop their own personal writing styles.

Gray Matters has been organized to enable the senior citizen to experience the social and intellectual activities of a college environment. Credit courses are available to district residents 60 years of age or older at half tuition ($5.00 per credit hour).

In addition, a number of discussion, mini-courses, and other outreach activities are planned for the 1975-76 academic year. For further information, contact Ms. Bonnie Agnew or the Cluster III office (967-5120, ext. 309).

Congressional Fellow joins Mikva staff

Catherine E. Rudder, a participant in the prestigious Congressional Fellow program, has joined Congressman Abner J. Mikva's Washington staff.

The Congressional Fellow program enables outstanding persons from various fields—such as journalism, political science, history, medicine and the federal agencies—to work in both Senate and House offices for nine months to gain a practical understanding of how Congress works.

Congressional Fellow spend their first month in Washington attending orientation sessions and interviewing members of Congress with whom they might want to work. After the interviews, the program matches up the preferences of the Fellows and the Congressmen.

"I choose Congressman Mikva for a number of reasons—he has a very good reputation on Capitol Hill for both his policies and for his rapport with his staff. And I have the opportunity to work as his liaison with the Ways and Means Committee, which is one of the most important committees in Congress," said Ms. Rudder, who spent the first part of the program working for Senator Richard Clark (D-Iowa).

Ms. Rudder is an assistant professor of political science at the University of Georgia.

Registration for OCC Child Development center

Registration for the fall sessions of the Child Development Center at Oakton Community College have been scheduled for this month, according to Susan Berger, supervisor of the school.

The Child Development Center is open to children between the ages of 3 and 5. Children of OCC students and faculty receive priority for admission. Registration will be held in Room 615, Building 6, between 11:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. on the following days:

Monday and Tuesday, July 14-15: Children of students registered for the Fall 1975 semester. Wednesday and Thursday, July 16-17 and Monday and Tuesday, July 21-22: Children of students, faculty and staff.

July 24, 25, 28, 29, and 30: Open registration.

Parents should bring proof of age and be prepared to pay the first month's fees, Ms. Berger said.

Classes will begin on Monday, August 25.

Registration can be for any number of sessions, but a minimum of two hours per session is required. Ms. Berger explains that interchanging of days is not permitted in order to provide for a meaningful and continuous group experience.

The OCC Child Development Center is not a sitting service but offers a planned educational experience for preschool children, according to Ms. Berger.

The Center's Monday-Wednesday-Friday sessions will be scheduled from 8:30 a.m.-11:30 a.m. and from 12:30 p.m.-3:30 p.m. The Tuesday-Thursday sessions are held from 9:20 a.m.-12:20 p.m. and from 1 p.m.-3:30 p.m.

The fee for the three-day session is $18 for one calendar month; the two-day a week session is $12. The fee is paid in advance each month.

Children must be completely toilet trained. A physical examination by a physician as well as a birth certificate are also required. Forms for the physical examination can be obtained at the time of registration.

The Child Development Center is under the direction of the Child Care Services program at Oakton and serves a dual role. It is not only a preschool for children of students and residents of the community, but it also provides students in Oakton's Child Care Services program first-hand experience with young children. Ms. Berger has a master's degree in child development.

Children from the community are accepted in the program on a space available basis.

For information about the Center, call the Learning Cluster IV office at 967-5120, ext. 210.

Recycling Center volunteers needed

The Niles Township High School Reclamation Center is now accepting applications for volunteer workers. The center is primarily looking for young volunteers from the age of 13 to 18 to help sort and prepare materials for recycling.

The reclamation center is now in its fourth year of providing an outlet for our Niles Township communities to recycle their household wastes instead of discarding them. By recycling your wastes you are not only helping to conserve natural resources but, more importantly, you are providing a second and third use out of materials and ores that would normally be tossed aside. It should be noted that products made of recycled materials are not inferior to products made of virgin materials and in most cases it is more economically desirable for the consumer to purchase goods made from recycled material.

Young people who volunteer in the program will help people unload their cars and process the materials for shipment to the recycling mills. Volunteers are asked to work a single three hour shift per month, but may log additional hours if they desire.

The reclamation center is a program of high school district 219. The purpose of this program is twofold. First, it provides an interim answer to our solid waste problem and it also gives students and young people experience with working at a basic recovery program. Volunteers should call 679-0425 for full registration.

Mikva bill helps handicapped children

Congressman Abner J. Mikva (D-10th) has introduced legislation which would enable blind or disabled children to get vocational, health, social and educational services from appropriate State Agencies.

Mikva's bill would enable blind or disabled children who are receiving federal supplemental security income (SSI) benefits to be treated in the appropriate State agencies. Presently, only SSI adults must be treated by State agencies.

"This is a serious oversight in the law which must be rectified immediately. Current estimates show that nearly 70,000 deserving children are being denied much-needed care because of a horrendous mistake in the Social Security Act," Mikva said. Of these children, approximately 2,200 are blind and 67,600 are disabled.

The bill would also require the Department of Health, Education & Welfare to establish disability criteria for blind or disabled children. This is a responsibility that Mikva said should have been met by HEW under existing statutory authority some time ago.

"I am confident that once children's disability criteria are developed and a referral mechanism is established that desperately needed services will be finally be available to eligible handicapped children," Mikva said.

"This is a serious oversight in the law which must be rectified immediately. Current estimates show that nearly 70,000 deserving children are being denied much-needed care because of a horrendous mistake in the Social Security Act," Mikva said. Of these children, approximately 2,200 are blind and 67,600 are disabled.

Heating/air conditioning technology

Heating and Air Conditioning Technology, a new program at Oakton Community College this fall, will prepare students for positions as service representatives in the heating and air conditioning business.

Because industry is experiencing a rapid growth in this area and new applications for heating and air conditioning are being developed, trained personnel are constantly being hired, according to Wayne Marek, acting coordinator of the program.

Marek said job opportunities in this field include positions in servicing, installation, design and engineering, with salaries reaching $250 per week.

Through a program of instruction including both theory and "hands-on" laboratory experience, the student will learn to install, service, and maintain residential and small commercial systems.

Heating and Air Conditioning Technology is offered in both a one-year certificate program and a two-year degree program. While a good mechanical background and a high school diploma are desirable, they are not necessary for admission to the program.

For further information, contact Marek at 967-5120, ext. 252.

Students planning to attend Oakton Community College, located at Oakton and Nagle in Morton Grove, should apply now for admission at the Office of Admissions, Building 3. They will be notified by letter of their admission and date of appointment for registration for the fall term.

Open registration for the fall 1975 term is scheduled for Monday and Tuesday, Aug. 18 and 19. Classes for the fall term begin on Monday, Aug. 25.

Carnival for Muscular Dystrophy

A live puppy raffle, clowns, magic show and pie eating contests are among the attractions July 29 from 3 to 6 p.m. when the 2 1/2 to 5 year old day care students of the Preschool Educational Center, 9000 Home Ave., Des Plaines present their carnival for muscular dystrophy.

The PEC students have been busy for several weeks making and preparing prizes, polishing their performances and baking for this exciting event and will man the booths on the big day.

Additional attractions will be a fortune teller, man sized "animals," approximately 10 games and a plant booth. The students will also be passing out free balloons.

Gift to Orchard Village

A $3,000 gift has been presented by the National Council of Jewish Women to Orchard Village, the new community living facility for retarded young adults. The contribution toward the (half million) $500,000 cost of the recently purchased property in the 7600 block of Marmora, Skokie, was handed to Bernard G. Saltzberg, Executive Director.

Orchard Village is operated by the Orchard Association for the Retarded, made up of parents of mentally retarded and/or physically handicapped children in Niles and Maine Townships.

Orchard Village is a training residence for young adults who have progressed thru all available special education facilities and who are not quite up to entering the workaday world entirely on their own.

Board ok's support of MSD flood plan

Niles trustees Tuesday night resolved to support a $1.4 billion Tunnel and Reservoir Plan System proposed by the Metro-politan Sanitary District to control overflow sewage and rainwaters following heavy storms.

The System calls for construction of a rock tunnel under the North Branch of the Chicago River from Wilmette south and west to the Stickney sewage treatment plant whereby overflow stormwaters and sewage will be stored and funneled by controlled measures into the treatment plant for processing at a normal rate.

Federal approval of the System, according to a presentation during the Tuesday night board meeting by MSDGC civil engineer Joe Irons, will initiate plans in 1976 to relieve Niles with construction of another tunnel system leading Morton Grove and extending 9 and a half miles under Niles to the Stickney sewage plant. A third, from Park Ridge, will relieve western suburbs of Maywood, River Grove, Oak Park, La Grange and Cicero. Overall completion of the project will take about 20 years, said Irons.

In other action trustees named as "Rusch Drive" the new northeast road created by the Touhy-Waukegan-Milwaukee on roadwidening construction. Residents of the St. Andrew Home, 7000 S. Newark had requested that cul-de-sac road be named after Monsignor Francis S. Rusch as one of Niles' pioneers.

Accepted a $35,979.50 bid from Ill. F. W. Equipment Co. of Rosemont on a public works aerial truck from 4 bids ranging from the amount of $32,113.55 to $39,855. Refusal of the low bid, according to Village Manager Ken Scheel was that the company ranged "too far from truck specifications as requested by the village department."

Mayor Nicholas Blase appointed a committee of Trustees Ang Marcheschi and Ralph Bast to be chaired by village clerk Frank Wagner for review and recommendation in reduction of village "Canning Days."

Plant maintenance and engineering

Plant Maintenance/Engineering, a career program offered for the first time this fall at Oakton Community College, will train students for jobs in troubleshooting, conducting preventive maintenance, and repairing industrial machines and equipment.

"A serious demand exists for individuals skilled in the broad knowledge of engineering technologies oriented toward the maintenance problem," said Dr. Fred Salzberg, acting coordinator of the program.

With experience, opportunities for advancement are excellent, leading toward supervisory positions, according to Dr. Salzberg.

A two-year associate of applied science degree program and a one-year certificate program will be offered this fall, both preparing students for employment as machine and equipment repairmen. The degree program, however, offers a wider range for employment and advancement opportunities.

On Friday, Aug. 8 the films scheduled are Yellow Slippers, Diek Whittington and His Cat, and The Sorcerer's Apprentice. On Friday, Aug. 22 and Saturday, Aug. 23 the film to be shown is Willy Wonka and the Chocolate Factory. Tickets (they're free of course) will be necessary to attend Willy Wonka. Friday night programs begin at 7 p.m. The Saturday showing of Willy Wonka begins at 10:30 a.m. All programs are in the audio-visual room at the Main Library, 6960 Oakton St.

For further information, contact Dr. Salzberg at 967-5120, ext. 346.

Students planning to attend Oakton Community College, located at Oakton and Nagle in Morton Grove, should apply now for admission at the Office of Admissions, Building 3. They will be notified by letter of their admission and date of appointment for registration for the fall term.

Niles Days... Continued from Page 1

Winners of Grand Prizes of $1,000 each on Saturday and Sunday nights were vouchable about their good fortune.

A Niles resident for 28 years, Saturday night's winner Mrs. G. Moore was "so excited I couldn't recall my phone number." She plans to give the money back to her brother, a resident of Jefferson Park. "He's a wonderful brother and needs the money more than I do," said the 74-year-old senior citizen. "Because he has glaucoma."

Sunday night's winner, a West Niles resident for 19 years, Mrs. Mary Marino toured the Festival grounds Sunday evening with her husband and returned home to receive her thousand dollar call at midnight. "The money will be used for my children's education," she said. Of 3 boys, one will begin his first year at St. Norbert's College in Wisconsin; a second is in Notre Dame High School and her youngest attends St. John Brebeuf School, both in Niles.

Marring the 5-day event were a carfire in the parking lot which was extinguished before arrival of Niles firemen, a 2-car collision on Golf Rd. which resulted in an explosion and fire of one car, and a burglary of one of the concessions which reportedly put the perpetrator into the hospital with injuries.

More than 652 volunteers from 31 Niles organizations assisted in this year's Days, according to Co-Chairman Ed Brash and Personnel Director Bill Bers. Brash also noted that aside from the Illinois State Fair, the Niles Days Festival has been the largest carnival in Illinois for the last 4 years, having more equipment and more rides.

He also noted that $95,559 was been distributed to Niles organizations through Festival receipts over the past 5 years.

Fairgoers were enthusiastic. Fourteen-year-old Ted Paulos of Merrill St. in Niles won a pink Snoopy for his Glenview friend, Paula Gauer. Nilesite teens Jim O'Connor and Mike Krok termed the Festival as being "terrific."

Sherry Lessen of Niles, new owner of a stuffed pink walrus said "It's a fun-filled Fair, even though I wasn't one of the Grand Award winners!"

Lil Pettinato of 7919 Neva summed it up: "It's a family-type Fair where you have the opportunity to see many friends."

Her husband was a volunteer worker in the Northwest Italian-American sponsored (what else?) Italian sausage and meat booth.

B.L.I. recommends thunderstorm relief projects

The Board of Local Improvements Tuesday night recommended that the village engineering department draw up specifications to relieve storm waters in specified Niles areas and let bids out at the earliest date possible.

Projects requested for the 1975 fiscal year, at a recommended approximate cost of $140,000 were:

- 1) Installation of a new storm sewer on Lincoln from Bruce to Normal.
- 2) New storm sewers from Greenwood to Western Ave. on Sunset, Park Lane and Stirling.
- 3) Installation of a sewer valve at Lee and Milwaukee Ave. for retention of storm waters in cemetery.
- 4) Construction of a short retaining wall on the west side of Milwaukee Ave. from Main St. to Greenleaf to hold storm waters in the cemetery.
- 5) Installation of a new storm sewer on Lee and Breen, east of Harlem to relieve the combination sewer.
- 6) Complete a study and infiltration testing of the entire sewer system in Niles.

feeding of public moneys into the bus system is a frustrating problem which hopefully can be worked out by the larger RTA district.

For many years the antiquated bus system was woefully in hot water. While reports noted the inadequacy of the old buses they were not receiving sufficient public support.

Thus, while the buses kept getting older and more obsolete, the bus company was not receiving revenue to keep its head above water. While it's now temporarily being bailed out by the new public districts it's obvious the entire system will have to be resurrected. New modern equipment, and more frequent service to more local areas are likely to be considerations for its future.

The village of Niles' free intra-village bus service may be the forerunner of future public transportation services in suburbia. Niles has just received approval for a federal grant which will buy 4 more buses plus bus shelters. The tremendous use of the service within the village may portend the future bus services in all suburban areas. Linking neighboring suburbs' services together and linking bus services to downtown train services may well be the future for such transportation.

Maine Township property tax bills, which had been reassessed upward in 1973, and experienced tax hikes then, are up again for 1974. It's up in the Glenview area, in Morton Grove and in Districts 63 and 64 in Niles.

In Niles Township it's down in Morton Grove in all school districts, down in Lincolnwood, down in Niles District 67 but up in the lowest school district, District 71.

In another column in this week's Eagle, find your tax rate and you can determine your own tax bill. Multiply your assessed valuation by the equalization factor, 1.4453, which will give you the equalized value of your home. Multiply this figure by your own tax rate in your school district and you should get your tax bill figure for the 1974 year.

Tax rates... Continued from Page 1

Other significant increases were registered in Niles. Niles Township with a 2.4 to 4.3 per cent increase and Skokie, Niles Township, up to 3.8 per cent. Areas where tax rates are down from previous years include Morton Grove, 1.5 to 5.2 per cent, Lincolnwood down 3.5 per cent.

The first installment of the 1974 taxes, due last March 1, was half of the 1973 tax bills paid last year. The second installment will reflect any changes.

While tax rates are up in parts of other townships, the increases will be more than offset in tax bills by the 2.5 per cent reduction in the equalized assessment. And that reduction will offset part of the added tax bite in areas with larger increases.

Taxpayers in those areas where taxes decreased will find their bills down by an additional 2.5 per cent because of the lower state equalization factor.

As in past years, much of the increases are accounted for by higher tax rates for school districts, which often take two-thirds of a tax bill, and for municipal governments. In addition, tax rates are higher as usual for Cook County government and the forest preserve district.

One new factor contributing to this year's increases is the recession, which has resulted in higher general assistance tax rates in some townships.

Here are the 1974 tax rates made public Monday. They are expressed in dollars and cents applied against each $100 in equalized assessed valuation.

Funds are raised through the sale of a puppet named "Kandy the Clown" which is filled with 10 oz. of hard candy. The State Candy Committee, headed by Mrs. C. Grace of Wilmette and Mrs. Molly Schwartz (sister-in-law of Mrs. Rosenstone) of Lincolnwood, is asking for a donation of $1.25 for each bag of candy. Mrs. Grace says: "Having Mrs. Rosenstone's assistance is a real asset. Many people do not realize the importance of their participation in our candy campaign. We're hoping with her help and others to sell 100,000 bags of candy between August and October."

The proceeds from the drive will assure the perpetuation of the programs of the Kidney Foundation of Illinois which are public and professional education, patient services, and supporting research in the area of kidney disease.

If someone would like to help Mrs. Rosenstone, they can contact her by calling the Kidney Foundation's Chicago office at 263-2140.
