Oppose 6 lanes for Golf Road for 3rd time

200 residents attend Washington School public hearing

Approximately 200 residents attended Tuesday night's public hearing at Washington School, most of whom objected to the State's proposal to widen Golf Road to 6 lanes with a median strip separating the flow of traffic between the tollway and Harlem ave. at a cost of about $7,000,000, 70% coming from federal funds. Tuesday night's meeting was a replay of two previous meetings held July 14, 1970 and March 10, 1971 when residents similarly objected to a like proposal. The state received objections from residents who resided along side Golf rd., as well as from neighboring residents who ob-

By David Besser
Editor & Publisher

The accusation the Press is biased, one-sided and tends to choose up sides, is one which has much validity.

During the past month's Young-Mikva race here in our 10th Congressional District, we had the rather unsentimental gut reaction Mikva got much the better exposure from the newspapers and television. He got it, not because the mostly Republican press suddenly went mad and tilted toward the independent Democrat, but rather because the candidate has certain qualities which give him this exposure.

The Press' bias is almost unconscious. Newsmen are often relentless in policing themselves from taking sides. But a candidate like Mikva forces newsmen to take sides, just as many of his followers are utterly committed to their man.

Ted Kennedy has much of this much-over-used word "charisma" which Mikva has. Kennedy does it with his good looks, his little boy humor and his downright animal instincts which makes his entering a room a happening.

When we attended the press conference for Kennedy and Mikva at the Palmer House during the Mikva campaign, Kennedy's entering the pressroom erupted the native press with volts of animation. Cameras flashed furiously, and scribes wrapped themselves around the man like kids would around Santa Claus. The Press becomes intimidated. They fawn over the man, stroke him with long gentle strokes which makes Kennedy pull several lengths ahead of his competition before he ever begins campaigning.

Mikva has similar advantages. He knows how to use the Press and he makes full use of it.

The Congressman is an extremely bright man. He is warm and courteous and knows how to cover all the bases. When he speaks, he is backed by a mountain of facts. Newspapers in his presence cannot help be impressed by the well-prepared candidate. He is brighter than most of the newsmen, more knowledgeable than all of them on issues he's studied and the

Skokie Valley United Crusade Directors

Dr. James P. Richter, President of the Skokie Valley United Crusade's Board of Directors, at a meeting of the Board on Nov. 19, received a report that the campaign is 76% on its way to reaching the $92,000 goal. Ronald Gralewski, Campaign Chairman, reported that $70,000 has been received. He urged residents and businesses to mail contributions to the Crusade office at 4017 Church st., Skokie.

Skokie, Chairman, has reached 90% of their goal. The village of Niles has reached 100% of its Residential Goal and Lincolnwood, 98% of its goal for the Public Employees Division, Bernard Arends, Chairman.

St. John Brebeuf's Festival '77 programmed for February

A Speakeasy and The Follies have no relationship with Strange Bedfellows but those are the names of some show productions conjured up by parishioners of St. John Brebeuf of Niles for Festival '77. Co-chairmen Bob Dan and Joan Zale started programming the festivities this past summer and have now set up 36 committees with a cost of some 800 workers to forge a successful production. Festival '77 offers a magnificent range of parking accommodations, entertainment and refreshment facilities.

With an array of seven stage and cabaret shows, Festival '77 will run on consecutive weekends, Feb. 11-12 and again on Feb. 18-19. This will mark St. John's eighth year of successful shows.

Bob Volence is still searching for talents that run from construction professionals, scenery painters, waitresses, to singers and musicians. He stated: "We will always find a spot for all volunteers and we'll be happy to give them on-the-job training!" Restaurant facilities will flow from the International Cafe to a Pizza Hut to The Continental Coffee Shop. Bob Rinaldi's Pizza Hut last year sold some 1,200 pizzas and he's out to break that record in '77. The International Cafe, ably headed by Barry Kies, is pointing toward dinners served each Friday evening during the two weekends with special delights for early-comers to the shows. Judy Pavkovic's Continental Coffee Shop, the newest eatery addition, will feature desserts that will satisfy any sweet tooth — 15 varieties in all.

Ticket chairmen Joe and Rose Bachochin will have tickets ready for a Dec. 1st distribution and have started accepting advance sales applications. The Bachochin's objective is to have sellouts for the four evenings and have enlisted a widespread network of parishioners to meet these goals.

NFS plans discussion on Separation and Divorce

"Separation/Divorce: For Better or For Worse?" is the topic for the free lecture being presented next Tuesday, Nov. 30, at 8 p.m. at the Niles Trident Center, 8060 Oakton St., Niles. The lecturer is Dr. David Busby, a psychiatrist who has been in private practice in Niles for 17 years, and consultant to Niles Family Service for 8 years. Dr. Busby has helped to lead several Marital Growth and Enrichment Workshops for Niles Family Service, as well as having given other lectures there in the past.

Dr. Busby will be speaking to a timely issue of our day, separation and/or divorce. This is a relevant issue today because while 10 couples are being married in Cook County, 6 couples are being divorced. This is the question that Dr. Busby is raising about separation and divorce. "Is it for better or for worse?" Those who have been through divorce know some of the answers to this question. All are welcome to come and hear Dr. Busby, and reflect upon this crucial question as it can be an important turning point in life.

This is the 8th lecture in the series, "Turning Points in Marital and Family Living." The lecture series is being jointly sponsored by Niles Family Service and Niles Mental Health Center. If you have any questions, please call 692-3396. This free lecture series is open to the public and will continue each Tuesday through Dec. 14, 1976.

NILES HOCKEY LEAGUE
PEE WEE "A"

Tuesday, Nov. 16 - Ballard Sports Complex - Niles 1, Wilmette 1

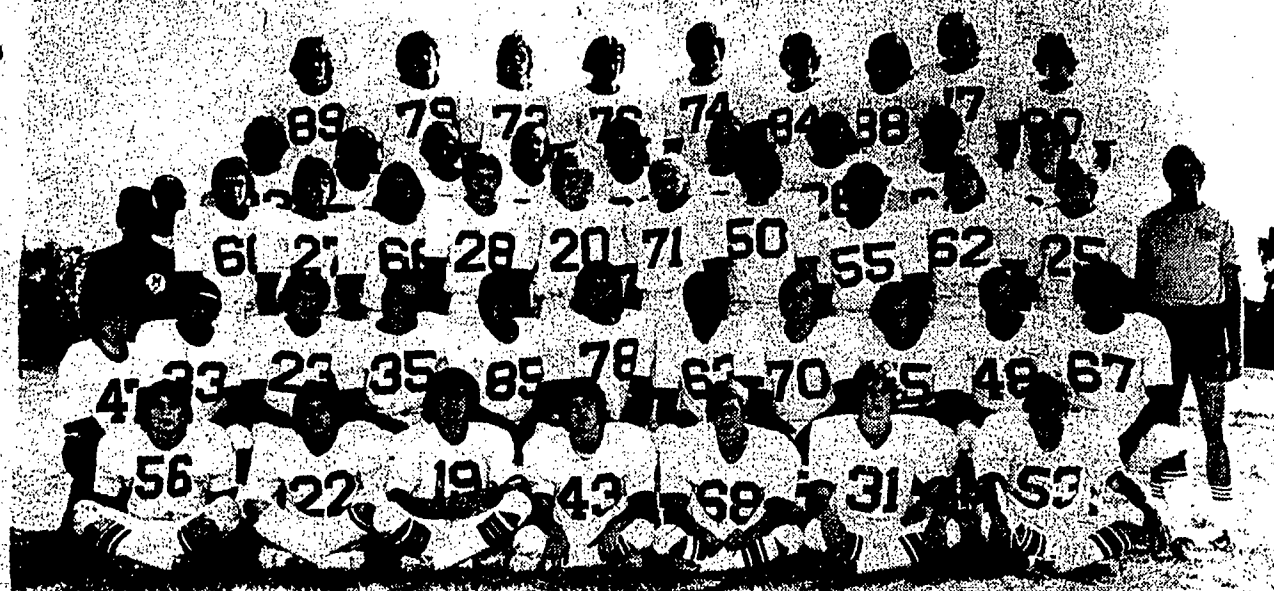

First a correction must be made by this writer. The Niles Traveling All Stars have two teams in the Pee Wee Division, "A" and "AA". This writer has been calling the "A" team "B". Sorry about that fellas! Now to business.

Jim Kitching, center for the Niles Sharks and playing against his former teammates from Wilmette scored the lone goal for the Sharks in the third period unassisted resulting in a tie with Wilmette. The team's conference record now stands at one loss, one win and one tie. The Sharks were once again skating like a bunch of figure skaters permitting Wilmette to take 26 shots on goal (13 in the last period) against the Sharks' 11.

Timmy Dispart once again in tandem with Tom Wolski saved the day. Dispart's third period effort was brilliant.

The Sharks have moved George Lofgren up to left wing from defense. George is a fine skater, strong and tough. As soon as he gets comfortable in his new position, I am sure the team will significantly improve its offensive punch.

Demon debaters

The Maine East debate team took third place in the large school division at the Illinois State University High School debate tournament Nov. 12-13. Approximately 35 schools participated in the event.

Falcon Pee Wees in "Optimist Bowl"

The Falcon Pee Wee squad of the Pop Warner Jr. Football Association today finished a fine season with a 7-1 record and won the right to represent the Northern Illinois Pop Warner League in the Thanksgiving "Optimist Bowl" in Huntsville, Alabama.

The football players and cheerleaders from Niles and Morton Grove will take part in all the pre-game planned festivities and play the Madison Alabama Packers at Frank Municipal Stadium on Nov. 27 at 11 a.m.

Parents and players will be spending the Thanksgiving weekend in Huntsville and will be honored by their counterparts on the Huntsville Team with a pre-game banquet and awards ceremony on Nov. 26.

Head Coach, P. Mierkiewicz says "this is one of the finest teams we have had. The team is the result of a building program begun two years ago. These boys will continue to play together and will be back next year to bring us league titles and bowl bids in the Midget division as well as the Pee Wee's."

New MNLL Board

Girls' gymnastics

The girls' gymnastics season gets underway Saturday, Nov. 20, as Maine East travels to Glenbrook South; however, on Tuesday, Nov. 23, Maine East hosts traditional rival Niles West.

Last year Maine East won the C.S.L. south division championship with a winning score of 98.69. Niles West was second with 96.10.

Coach Betty Axelson looks forward to another winning season, particularly with such varsity material as Ellen Barrett and Kathy Baffes, working both vault and bars; Sue Kane and Donna Mancini, both beam and floor exercise; Gaby Isola, bars; Cyndee Graff, beam and bars; and Karen Sele, vault.

Words of praise from East mom

An open letter to:
Mr. John Clouser, Principal
Mr. Bob Riek, Athletic Director
Mr. Al Eck, Mr. Ward and Mr. Rotzoll, Varsity Coaches
Mr. Bolton and Cheerleaders
Marching Band and Pom-Pon Squad

Since I didn't have the courage to speak thru the mike at the Varsity Football Awards Dinner this past Tuesday evening to express my feelings, I did want to take this opportunity to say what is in my heart to all of you.

We heard many words of praise from all of you for the 1976 Maine East Varsity Team. I heartily concur with all of those kind words. However, I would like to tell you how I feel, as a parent, who looked at each game from a different view.

I found it most gratifying first of all, to see Mr. Clouser at each game — a most dedicated fan, to be sure.

The band was the best I have witnessed on the field in all the years of being a Maine East parent, and of course the Pom-Pon girls always added that special flair needed to make the whole show complete.

To the Cheerleaders and their sponsor, Mr. Bolton, all I can say is how great all the fun things were that you dreamed up this year — and although the big guys with the shoulder pads won't admit it, they loved everything you did and do realize how much that what you did was an important part of getting their spirits up for each and every game. I'm almost disappointed to open the drapes on Saturday mornings, now, and not find the trees decorated with t.p. or signs hanging on the door. It was truly fun.

To the coaches, thanks for all you did for all of the team to bring them so close to the top. I was probably one of the loudest fans as my family and friends will surely attest to, and I'd be surprised if you said you didn't hear me yelling instructions to you throughout each game as if I were the most experienced scout. Needless to say, I played every game right along with each of you, coaches and team, and felt exhausted when it was over.

In conclusion, what I really wanted to say from the very beginning, from me and my husband and I'm sure all of the other parents, it was a very exciting year for us who were sitting in the stands and we couldn't be prouder or happier to have our sons part of such a great team and great school, Maine East. We love you all and thanks.

Sincerely yours,
Mrs. A. F. Perry

To All Residents of East Maine School District #63

To All Residents of East Maine School District #63:

The East Maine District #63 School Board will have two vacancies this year, and it is the job of the East Maine School District #63 General Caucus, which is composed of representatives of civic groups within the community, to seek out the best qualified candidates for these positions.

Although many citizens are quick to criticize the schools, it is always difficult to find people who are willing to step forward and seek seats on the School Board, where they can take an active role in determining policy for the schools which serve them. This is an open plea to any citizen who has ever considered running for the School Board to please submit your name to the District #63 Caucus. You need not make a definite commitment at this time — just let Caucus know if you are at all interested.

Please contact Caucus Search Committee Co-Chairpersons Hanna Shapiro at 729-1243, or Sharon Subeck at 967-6864, if you are interested or would like to suggest the names of potential candidates. Now more than ever, we need your enthusiastic participation.

NORTRAN responds to MG query on new train station

Dear Editor:

We are enclosing a copy of our reply to Mrs. Schmaus' letter of Nov. 15, 1976.

Her letter was published in your Nov. 18th edition and we would like the public to know that since the time locks are not yet installed, arrangements have been made to have the station open to them for their convenience.

Sincerely,
Joseph DiJohn
Executive Director and
General Manager

"Dear Ms. Schmaus:

"Thank you for your letter of November 15, 1976, concerning the Morton Grove railroad station. The NORTRAN Board has been aware of the inconvenience to commuters to have the station locked early in the afternoon. The Board, in order to alleviate the problem, has authorized the installation of a time lock which would allow the station to remain open during the commuter hours. The time lock will be installed in the very near future.

"In the meantime, we have directed the agent to leave the door open and NORTRAN personnel have been locking the station at night. This arrangement was instituted on November 2, and has alleviated the problem of accessibility of the station by daytime commuters.

"Thank you for your interest in this matter.

"Sincerely,
Joseph DiJohn
Executive Director and
General Manager"

A Kenney Aluminum 'satisfied customer'

Thank You

Dear Editor:

On behalf of the people who worked very hard to make the Hockey Celebrity Roast a success, I'd like to thank you for putting the articles and pictures in The Bugle all the weeks before the benefit.

Because of interested people like the "Down The Street" restaurant, the Hyatt Regency O'Hare, Imperial Leasing, The Bugle and many, many more there will be approximately $12,000 in the Mike Schwass Fund. Thanks to all who helped in every way.

dealt with seemed to place a much higher value on their good reputation and maintaining customer good will than they do today? I found a business locally — Kenney Aluminum Products on Milwaukee ave. — who rectified a problem without a hassle even though it probably cost them quite a bit of money.

What impressed me most was the fact that they took the position that it was their problem to fix; I never had to beg, argue or threaten. (The problem concerned installation of new gutters on my roof.)

Perhaps we consumers can get more done by publicizing those who treat us well than complaining about those who don't.

Notre Dame Freshman 4-4 in football

The Notre Dame High School freshman football team finished the 1976 season with an overall record of 4-4 on the "A" level and a 4-1 mark on the "B" level. The freshmen tied for third place with Holy Cross and St. Patrick in the East Suburban Catholic Conf. St. Vitor was second in the conference with 4-1-1 and Marist finished first with a 6-0-0 season. Notre Dame was 3-3-0 in the conference.

Notre Dame started its season on Sept. 18 with home games with St. Joseph of Westchester. The ND "A" team shut them out 19-0 with three touchdowns by Joe Stevens of Niles. The ND "B" team then followed with a 22-0 victory. Bob O'Brien of Park Ridge provided the primary offensive punch in that game.

The following Monday ND met Luther North in an away game and emerged victorious 26-0. Dave Fleisner of Niles started the scoring in that game as he ran the opening kick off back 75 yards for the touchdown. Stevens added two touchdowns and Rich Krieg of Evanston added his first of the season.

Returning to conference play on Sept. 25 against St. Viator, ND lost 6-0. The "Dons" displayed tremendous defense led by Kevin Gallagher of Des Plaines and Glenn Goorsky of Niles, but fell in the last 50 seconds as St. Viator connected on a 60 yard pass for the only score of the game.

The following Saturday ND played a home game against a tough Marist team and again the ND offense could not get going. The final score was a victory for Marist 12-0.

On Oct. 9 the Dons played home non-conference games against Elk Grove. Elk Grove won the "A" game 12-0. Defense was the name of the game for most of the game. Elk Grove did its scoring at the end of the first half and ended it with one second left in the final period. Once again Gallagher was outstanding on defense. The ND "B" team suffered its only loss of the year to the Elk Grove team 32-0.

The Dons returned to conference play on Oct. 16 against St. Patrick at Riis Park in Chicago. The ND defense was tough as usual, but a fumble by the offense was picked up by St. Pat's and resulted in the only score of the game. ND lost 6-0.

Notre Dame regained its offensive punch on Oct. 23 as the ND "A" team downed the Carmel freshmen 12-0. Stevens added one touchdown to this total and a timely pass by Pete Fortune of Park Ridge to Marty Ross of Northbrook finished the scoring. The ND "B" team also won 28-0.

The two final games of the season saw ND come out on top of its arch rival, Holy Cross, in two away games on Oct. 30. In the "A" game a powerful one yard plunge by Krieg capped a 70 yard drive in the third quarter which ended the hopes of Holy Cross for a victory. ND won this game 8-0. The Dons were in command throughout the game, but penalties and mistakes hampered the ND offense. The freshman "B" game resulted in another ND victory as they outlasted Holy Cross in four overtimes. Mike Pater of Niles scored on a beautiful pass from Tom McCarthy of Evanston in the fourth overtime to end the game. John

Oakton golfers finish third in Skyway

Oakton Community College golfers finished third in the Skyway Conference this season, placing three team members on the all-conference team.

The three, all from Niles, are Dave Klenski, finishing third; Bob Silvestri, fourth, and Kevin Paluch, seventh. Paluch also qualified for the Region IV tournament, carding a 77 at the

Oct. 19 Northern Sectional at Wedgewood Golf Club in Joliet. Finishing behind Lake County and Joliet, Oakton averages were actually very good, considering the poor weather this season, according to Coach Rich Symonds. Competing in 15 meets, Silvestri finished with a 78 average and Klenski and Paluch both averaged 79.

Pre-school registration at Maine Highs

Application forms are now available at the four Maine Township high schools for parents wishing to register their children for two hour pre-school classes to be held at Maine East, Maine North, Maine South and Maine West during the second semester. Applications will be accepted until Dec. 15, 1976. The classes, conducted by junior and senior students under the direction of a certified child development teacher, are part of the "on-the-job" training program of the Child Care Occupations course offered by the Home Economics Departments.

The pre-school classes at the high schools enable Child Care Occupations students to observe the growth and development of young children and to gain experience in supervising their activities.

Ten to fourteen children of pre-school age will be enrolled in each session. To be eligible for acceptance, children must be between three and one-half and four and one-half years of age on Feb. 1, 1977.

The programs at all the schools are similar, but vary regarding times and days on which they meet. A letter accompanying the application form will explain the specific program at the individual school. The forms will be available in the main office of all the schools except Maine South, where applications are available in the Home Economics Department.

All those applying for enrollment will receive notification early in January of the acceptance of their children. To defray the cost of supplies and food served to the children, a registration fee of $25 will be charged.

Sponsored by these Civic-Minded Firms and Organizations

Freedom and Abundance are part of this hard-won heritage . . . ours as long as we are prepared to work for them and, if necessary, fight for them. Let us give thanks for what we have . . . to re-affirm our faith in freedom and our determination to preserve and cherish it, that is the true meaning of THANKSGIVING.

LTC Wood heads
Chicago District
Recruit Command

Major General Eugene P. Forrester, Commander of the United States Army Recruiting Command, Fort Sheridan, today announced that LTC Robert D. Wood has been appointed Commanding Officer of the Chicago District Recruiting Command and is responsible for Army recruiting in the Cook, Lake and DuPage County area.

Colonel Leo S. Comish, Commander of the Midwest Region Recruiting Command (which covers fifteen states, including Illinois) revealed that LTC Wood's Chicago District is, with regard to population, the largest District Recruiting Command in the United States with 186 Army recruiters located in 34 stations, the Fort Sheridan Headquarters, and the Armed Forces Entry and Examination Center.

LTC Wood has served as an officer at home and abroad for 18 years and has numerous decorations including the Silver Star awarded in Viet Nam. His last assignment was Commander, 4th Battalion, 6th Infantry, Berlin Brigade.

He is a graduate of the University of Illinois and has a Master Degree from George Washington University.

He was born in Mount Carmel, Illinois and his parents still reside in that city. He is the son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burns, Evangeline ave., Sebring, Florida.

He will reside at Fort Sheridan with his wife Barbara and three daughters.

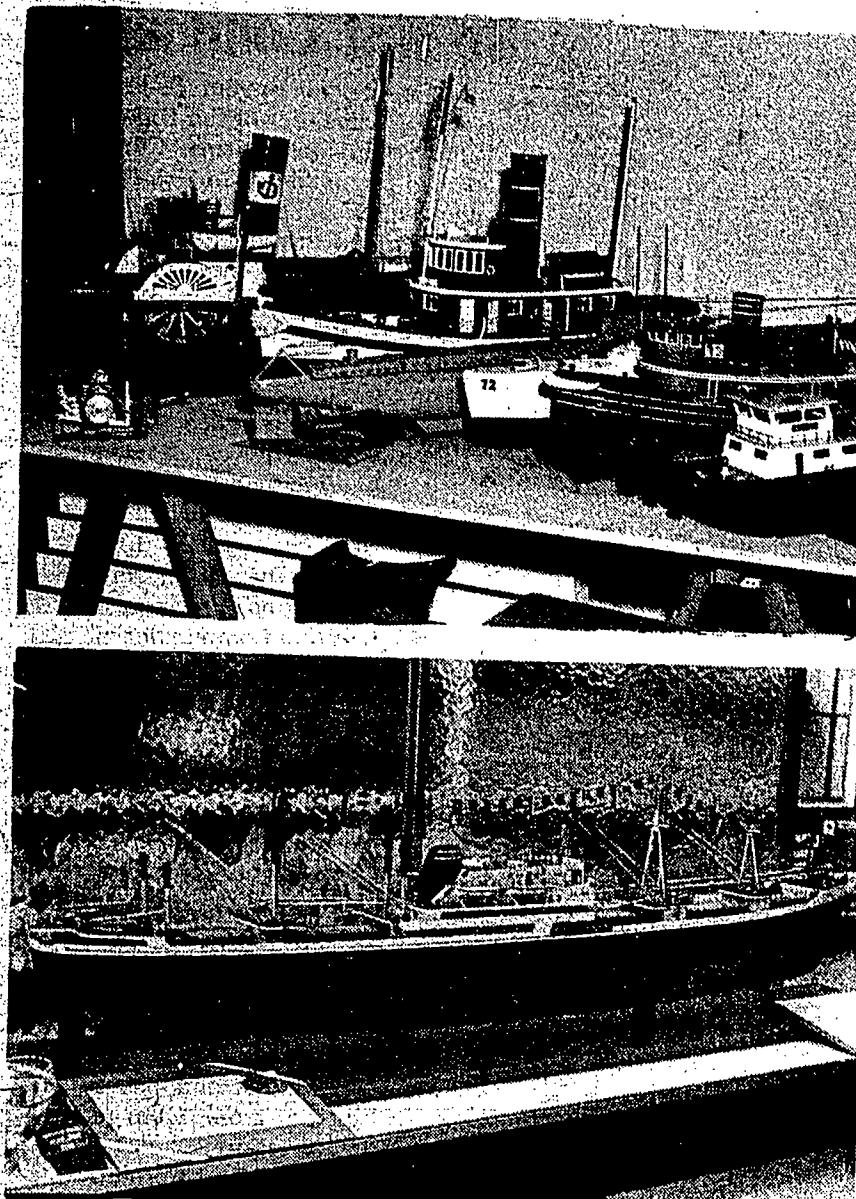

Niles West

Coming as early in the season as it does, the annual Niles West High School Thanksgiving Basketball Tournament should be an odds-maker's dream. This year even more so, because it's been expanded from four to eight teams. New Trier West, Downers Grove South, Buffalo Grove, and Libertyville will join the original four, Evanston, Notre Dame, Loyola, and Niles West in the three-day tournament which will be held Nov. 24, Friday, Nov. 26 and Saturday, Nov. 27.

A blind draw (it's too early in the season to seed), said West basketball coach Billy Schurr, paired New Trier West and Downers Grove, Loyola and Buffalo Grove, Niles West and Evanston, and Notre Dame and Libertyville for the first round of competition. New Trier and Downers Grove played first Nov. 24 at 4:30 p.m. That game is being followed in succession by the other three.

Model boat display at Intellect Hobbies

Shown above are some of the working models made by members of the Northwest Commodore Sail and Scale Model Boat Club which are currently on display at Intellect Hobbies, 8780 Dempster Plaza, Des Plaines. This unusual display ends Sunday, Nov. 28, so be sure you don't miss it.

The Northwest Commodore Sail and Scale Model Boat Club was founded in the Fall of 1972 by a small group of persons drawn together by a common interest in model boat building.

Since its formation, the Club has continually grown. Included in its membership are both young and old of both sexes, having varying degrees of modeling finesse from the novice to the master.

Boats being built by membership include a variety of types and eras in both static and operational models. Operational models include sail as well as those powered by gas engines, electric motors and steam. Models range in size from those which can be held in the palm of the hand up to and including one eight feet in length.

Benefits derived by Club memberships are many, some are established by constitution such as insurance, participation in meetings and special events, while others just seem to happen; these include receiving assistance for one's own modeling problems from those having the expertise needed, a chance to discuss and share with another a common interest, and above all the opportunity to gain new friends and share in fellowship with them the thrill and enjoyment of "Model Boat Building".

For additional information contact "Gus" Kaufman, c/o Northwest Commodore or call 824-7393.

Crime Opportunity Form

The Morton Grove Police Department has adopted a Crime Opportunity Reporting Form. Police Chief Norman Glauner explains that the form is now being used by the uniformed patrol units. The card is to notify the residents of Morton Grove of better ways to secure their possessions and reduce the risk of a crime being committed.

Officers on patrol, when observing a crime opportunity such as an unsecured bicycle or a garage door left open for several hours, are now able to bring this situation to the owner's attention, thereby making the owner's property more secure.

When a patrol officer observes a crime opportunity, he will submit a copy of the form to the resident, if possible, and one copy to the Crime Prevention Bureau. The crime opportunity will hopefully be corrected by the resident and help our fight to become a more secure community.

The newly formed Crime Prevention Bureau is attempting to educate residents through new projects and public information. This bureau is for the public to use as a benefit to them.

Maine East Food
Occupations Class

The way to a man's heart is through his stomach! This is the premise behind the Maine East food occupations program, which has 25 students enrolled in the class and working afternoons at local restaurants and grocery stores.

In class the students discuss such work oriented subjects as workman's compensation, social security, taxes, finding a job, job interviews, and characteristics of a good employee/employer. One of the most recent areas discussed was the rules of the Retail Clerks' Labor Union. As a part of this subject, a speaker from the union spoke with the class and answered questions. Five of the twenty-five students belong to the Retail Clerks' Labor Union.

The largest percentage of students are working as cooks, waitresses, and cashiers.

The instructor of the class, Miss Barbara Von Holdt, naturally plays an important role in the employment of each student, meeting with their employers and evaluating the student's work on the job.

Miss Von Holdt has been involved with this program at Maine East since January of 1975.

Former resident of Niles, Ray Kref, stands in front of the heishi and findings display at the new Jewelry Craft store which opened Nov. 8. Ray is the manager of the store at 7509 N. Milwaukee ave. in the Niles Shopping Plaza. He is a retired Lt. Col. in the U.S. Army Reserve, a veteran of World War II and Korea, and a current member of Niles Memorial VFW Post #1177.

Jewelry Craft specializes in jewelry and findings from around the world. They handle over 75 varieties of heishi, one of the largest selections in the country. Heishi are the ground sea shell necklaces the American Indian first created hundreds of years ago. Most of the heishi carried is made from sea shells cut and ground in the Philippine Islands. Heishi is available in a wide variety of colors to go with most any attire. Besides the Philippine heishi, they carry turquoise, serpentine, ironwood, and jet heishi made in the southwest part of this country. Another interesting type of heishi carried is liquid silver and liquid gold heishi. Many people are familiar with this, but don't know they are also called heishi. To get people familiar with how easy it is to create their own gorgeous original jewelry, everyone who stops by receives enough liquid silver or gold to make their first choker. There is always someone in the store ready to assist one in creating their own jewelry.

Besides heishi, Jewelry Craft carries a wide variety of natural materials from different corners of the world, including turquoise, ivory, malachite, tiger eye, sodalite, lapis, agate, jade, rose quartz, abalone, carnelian, goldstone, and red, white, black, pink, orange, and gold coral. These come in a variety of shapes and sizes including many fetishes. A fetish is a carved animal shaped bead. These were first used by the American Indian and were believed to have magical powers.

With the holidays just around the corner, a person can put a personal touch in their gifts and at the same time save about 70% by doing it themselves. Everyone always seems to appreciate a handmade gift.

Besides the selection of natural materials for the do-it-yourselfer, there is a selection of handmade rings, bracelets, and necklaces. These are made of sterling silver set with turquoise, coral, mother-of-pearl, and agate. Most of these are made by the American Indians. A person can also design their own jewelry and it can be made on the premises by the employees of the shop, usually in one day.

Act Now! Before December 31st You Can Save $300 - $700 or More on Your 1976 Income Taxes

Depending on your tax bracket, you can save $300 - $500 - $700, or even more on this year's income taxes. . . You can draw interest on money you would have paid in taxes. But you have to act now - during 1976 - to cut your income tax bill for 1976.

Here's how it works:

You deposit up to 15% of your annual salary or $1,500 annually, whichever is the smaller, into a FNBOS Financial Security Plan (a plan based on the Independent Retirement Account "I.R.A."), and then, take the amount you deposited right off the top of your income for tax purposes. If you are in the 20% tax bracket, you pay $300 less income tax this year - If your wife works, she can have one, too!

All you need to qualify is to have a salary, and not be already covered by a tax deferred pension plan.

The money - your money - stays in the account and draws compound interest till you reach 59 1/2 years of age - it can stay even longer, till you reach 70 1/2 if you like - and then, you draw it out - both principal and interest - as regular income. At that time you will probably be in a lower tax bracket - so the tax bite will not be as severe as it would be today - besides, look how it has grown - in 10 years, your $1,500 a year ($15,000) is worth $24,548.66. In 20 years your $1,500 a year ($30,000) is worth $71,341.93. In 30 years your $1,500 a year ($45,000) is worth $162,591.96. And these figures are based on drawing it all out over 5 years - you could almost double those figures if you were to take it out over a 10 year period. (These figures are based on depositing $125 a month as an automatic transfer from your checking account into the plan). It is your money, the entire balance in the account goes to your beneficiaries in the event of an untimely death. Come on in, let us show you how it can work for you - but hurry - December 31st is the last day you can start if you want to save on this year's taxes.

And All
That Jazz

The sounds of a ragtime piano swirled out of the lounge and swept through the hall. Twenty people were listening for the beat and melody that had just been explained. The lounge, to keep the record straight, was being used as a classroom at the Old Orchard Manor, and the people were music students, all residents at the convalescent home in Skokie.

This course, A Short History of the Jazz Piano, was taught by John Durant, who is a professional musician and part-time instructor in the adult and continuing education program of Oakton Community College, MONACEP. The five-week course in the Jazz Piano is one of several courses that is "put on the road" because it seems to be especially interesting to residents of extended care facilities.

Durant began the first session with a beat, a heartbeat, which he explained is the first rhythmic sequence all of us have had. The sounds of a mother's heartbeat are heard by a baby well before birth and therefore represent the first experience with rhythm for each of us. As the course progressed Durant unravelled the vertical harmonies and horizontal influences of different cultures and times and then provided examples of how these were incorporated into that typically American music, Jazz. During the short term the students were very intent in listening to the sounds of Fats Waller, Hubie Blake and Jellyroll Morton. One person was overheard saying, "that can't be a course, this class is really fun."

"There's No
Business Like
Show Business"

An all new musical revue titled "There's No Business Like Show Business" will be presented by Des Plaines Theatre Guild's Cabaret Theatre on Thanksgiving weekend.

Performances will be Friday and Saturday, Nov. 26 and 27 at 8:30 p.m. and Sunday, Nov. 28, at 7:30 p.m. in Guild Playhouse, 620 Lee st., Des Plaines. Tickets may be purchased at the door or reserved in advance by calling the box office, 296-1211, between noon and 8 p.m.

Students, senior citizens and Golden Agers with I.D. cards will receive a discount on tickets over the general admission donation of $2.50.

The Cabaret Theatre revue is available to groups, desiring entertainment for special occasions and fund raisers throughout the coming year. Information on bookings may be obtained by calling the Guild Playhouse box office, or writing DPTG at P.O. Box 84, Des Plaines 60017.

Co-chairmen of the troupe are Paula Unell of Glenview and Fran Pitchford of Arlington Heights. John T. Klein, Des Plaines, is producer, with Jeanne Stillman, Palatine, Joel Cohen, Niles, and Fran Pitchford accompanying the musical numbers.

Between the Bugle and its friendsTheatre

Theatre is alive and well in Chicagoland. More importantly, this season's acting performances have been superb.

Long Day's Journey Into Night
Thursday night Goodman Theatre presented Eugene O'Neill's Long Day's Journey Into Night. It is autobiographical. It is a long night's journey into an even longer night, 3 1/2 hours long. It is an agonizing, tormenting interpersonal play between four marvellous actors, whose family quarrelling bounces back and forth off each character in endless railing. When you exit from the theatre you've been traumatized into carrying the family's burden with you. You're not too happy. But you know you've seen a very special play.

Edward Binns, the patriarch of the family, revels in his past glory as a great actor. You're not sure of his greatness even though he tells you no less a thespian than Edwin Booth complimented him on a great performance.

Frances Hyland, Binns' stage wife, is addicted to morphine, and reminisces for three acts of pain, not from her addiction, but from the loneliness of being a stage wife.

Senior son, Drew Snyder, is also addicted, to the bottle and his own life's failures. His father is ruthlessly incriminating in pointing out his son's dismal past, which the son accepts with alcoholic calm.

Younger son John Shea (portraying O'Neill) is poetic and gentle and his mother's special son, who is soon leaving for the sanatorium. The contrasts of the hard-drinking son and the more gentle second son is great theatre, as they unwind their anger and eventual love for one another.

The play will not leave you satisfied. It ends abruptly. And it uproots you for having been there. You're part of their Irish heritage, hard-drinking, tormented, with grave humor running through their lives. Living with a dope-addicted mother, who becomes wandering and disoriented; with a father whose real estate poor, and portrays the role of a tight-fisted skinflint whose cheapness contributed to the family's woes; with a failing son whose drinking and whoring carries him through life; and with a consumptive son who disdains his future by flaunting his indifference toward death, is depressing theatre. But it is so well acted it might well be considered a theatre happening.

An Almost Perfect Person
Friday night An Almost Perfect Person opened at the Arlington Park Theatre with Colleen Dewhurst, George Hearn and Richard Schaal.

It's a frothy comedy by Judith Ross about a defeated woman candidate for Congress, whose exhaustion from the campaign leads her into quickie romances with her political manager and accountant, during the first 24 hours following her defeat.

The play is summer frothy. It is likely the play will join the ever-increasing number of sex farces which play endlessly up and down the country roads during the summer season. It is neither better nor worse than 100 similar bits of froth of a similar genre.

But the acting is superior. Colleen Dewhurst carries the almost banal script along by herself. She has been defeated for Congress. And she could well be defeated by the death of her husband two years before. But she accepts her role with dignity and rage, with sympathy and anger, and with so much love, which her two lovers amply manifest.

George Hearn, the hard-driving political pro who accepts all political victories as his own, is pursued into the bedchamber by the fallen candidate. And Dick Schaal, the soft-driving thwarted husband, receives similar favors, but out of his own unrequited needs. Both men's performances are extremely well done, complementing Miss Dewhurst's superb performance.

SHARP SECRETARY/
STENO: Have We Got a Great Job for You!

Golf Road expansion.

jected to the hazards in crossing the wider street by school children attending Washington public school and St. Isaac Jogues parochial school.

The State of Illinois Department of Transportation representatives cited the congested traffic as the primary reason for the change. Presently, 25,000 to 27,000 vehicles use the existing roadway. By 1995 they projected 37,500 to 40,500 cars will use the major arterial street, which extends from Evanston to Elgin.

The total improvement is 2.94 miles. The proposal calls for a mountable median strip of 14 feet and pavement width of 66 feet from curb to curb.

While the road improvement is the central issue, a closed drainage system would extend the length of the project emptying into the Big Bend Lake which would run-off into the Des Plaines River. Last year a young married mother drowned in an overflowing ditch in the area east of Greenwood ave. The villages of Niles and Morton Grove both sent letters supporting the proposed street and drainage projects.

Shelly Banoff, representing a group opposing the widening, summed up the remarks of most of the objectors. He said contrary to state figures, if the street remains 4 lanes only, a normal 1% traffic increase can be expected, saying it has stabilized as of today. Banoff noted the braking problem of trucks would add to the hazardous conditions to children and residents there. He proposed guard rails should be placed within the Washington School area.

Noting the proposed $200,000 overpass the state would build at Washington School, he stated St. Isaac's would not give up the land for part of the overpass. He said speed limits, which now are ignored, would likely increase to 50 m.p.h. and more. And he emphasized the safety of the children is opposite to the need for traffic flow, which was a major argument of the state representatives.

Representatives from School District 63 and St. Isaac's voiced strong objections to the project. While the state admitted it would pay for the overpass, it said the day to day maintenance and liability for the overpass would have to be paid for by both schools, which they strongly objected to.

St. Isaac's school board president noted if the widening takes place, the church would have to build a frontage road which would prevent parishioners from standing in front of the church, since highway traffic would be within 22 feet of the church building.

Summation of other objections included increased pollution; no shoulders - alongside roadway which would increase the hazard; traffic would be backed up since the highway would revert to 4 lanes at Harlem; environmental effects would include increased vibrations from traffic which would hinder school children's work; residents would suffer for 3 years while the project is being constructed; the sewer system would not benefit the immediate area.

Other objectors included Congressman Mikva, state representative Jaffe and Maine Township clerk Raffe, the former two objecting by letter.

School Board 63 members Phil Deckowitz and Dick Smith both voiced objections as residents in the area. Smith said he drove the street in his travels many times a week and believed the state's plan would be a disservice to drivers. Deckowitz, speaking after 2 hours of objectors voiced their opposition, tried to sum up the majority of the audience's feeling, saying, "We don't ever want it (Golf rd.) to go to 6 lanes. Like many objectors, as well as his own school board, which approved a similar resolution, he favored a 4-lane highway.

The state also presented an "interim" plan which would have 4 lanes in most of the areas but increase to 6 lanes in the Greenwood-Milwaukee ave. intersection. Again, having 6 and 4 lane areas contiguous to one another was unsatisfactory to most of the audience. Business manager Jim Bowen of School District 63 pointed out the hazards to a similar plan farther west in front of the Union Oil building in the Schaumburg area. He said in and out traffic did not improve the traffic flow but only increased the driving hazards there.

Dick Africk, 8702 Golf rd., a businessman (Krispy Roll), cited legal action taken against the state over similar plans which the state lost in 1972. His objection was to refute the point the improvement would add commercial activity in the area.

Included in the state's proposals are turn bays at the major intersections. They pointed out, between 1973 to 1975, 1,235 accidents took place in this area which included 7 fatalities and 616 injuries. More than half of the accidents in this 2.7-mile area were at intersections. State officials emphasized the primary purpose of this improvement is to reduce accidents.

The state also noted curb and gutters would be built in the area. And while their interim plan for 4 lanes would include the median strip and turn bays, the implication was an additional improvement could be expected in the future. It was emphasized federal funds were necessary for the project and whatever proposals were approved were dependent on these moneys, which would pay for about 70% of the highway improvement.

communities who receive their water from the City of Chicago, conducted a study, the cost of which was shared by each of the communities. The study was done by Beck and Associates and when completed, showed the suburban communities were being overcharged 35% by the city. The study showed the city included in their charges the free water they furnished to public institutions located in the city, the cost of their city fire hydrants and the cost of the entire sewer system for the City of Chicago.

As Mayor Blase explained, "We felt since we have our own public institutions, our own sewer system and our own fire hydrants, why should we have to pay for the ones in Chicago?"

Blase said he subsequently had conversations with city personnel and two calls to Mayor Daley who said the city would do their own study to determine whether the community study was accurate.

Nothing further was heard from the City of Chicago, said Mayor Blase, until we were notified the water charges were being increased another 20%. He said since we were already being overcharged by 35%, we certainly felt a further increase of 20% was definitely not justified.

In further conversations with a Mr. Pavia of the City of Chicago, Blase asked a letter confirming the proposed increase be sent to the Village, but Mr. Pavia felt that was "not a good idea." Blase asked about hearings, but was told there would be none. He also asked to appear before the Finance Committee and received no answer.

Therefore Blase said their only alternative was to call the Dec. 9 meeting with the other 39 communities who took part in the initial study and take the steps necessary to prepare filing a law suit against the City of Chicago. Blase said, "We are being forced into this situation." Blase also received the unanimous approval of the board for the procedure of the suit which will be dependent on determining the costs involved. After the Dec. 9 meeting, Blase told the board he would be able to furnish them with cost figures which would also have to be approved by the board.

In other actions, the board passed a new village ordinance which will make it compulsory for gas stations to post the exact gasoline prices that appear on their pumps. Letters are being sent to all Niles gas stations notifying them of the passage of this new ordinance and seeking their compliance as promptly as possible.

Mayor Blase presented plaques and congratulated "Gallon Blood Donors" Mrs. Dolores Ullestad, Mrs. Karen Schumann and the first couple to become gallon donors, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Freibies. Donors who were not in attendance, but who will receive awards, are William McEnerney and Norbert Mos-song.

Captain Harry Kinowski of the Niles Fire Department reported to the board that 4,015 swine flu inoculations were given out on Nov. 10 and 11 by the Village of Niles. Capt. Kinowski, project coordinator for the swine flu program, commented this was the first real project where all departments of the village were asked to work together and he complimented them on the complete cooperation he had received not only from village personnel, but also from community-minded volunteers who donated their time and services. Captain Kinowski was complimented by Mayor Blase and the board for the efficient manner in which the whole inoculation program was handled.

Ordinance passed for stop signs at the southwest corner of Greendale and Prospect and at the intersection of Greendale and Field dr.

Ordinance passed to erect "No Parking Between Signs" and "No Parking" from Here to Corner" signs at Oak and Maryland between the stop signs.

Board okayed removal of two "No Parking" signs on Octavia behind the old post office.

Board okayed plat of easement at 9021 Maryland for storm sewer to Milwaukee ave. (Cha-teau Ritz).

For two years in Niles, we did business with you in a small ranch house. In Mt. Prospect, it was three years in a special trailer unit.

Now First Federal is happy to announce the opening of two spacious new buildings at both locations.

Striking, contemporary architecture characterizes both structures. Glass-walled and topped by an overhanging, open-truss roof, they are a study in simple, clean-lined beauty.

Inside, the decor is comfortable and friendly. With First Federal's familiar deep-blue carpeting, smoked glass privacy partitions between teller stations, and warm wood furniture and paneling.

The new buildings are as functional as they are beautiful. Increased space allows us to expand our services with more tellers and counselors, private counseling rooms, and safety deposit boxes.

Drive-up service has been expanded and improved with an electronic traffic control system that cuts down waiting and directs you to the first open teller. You'll save time on busy days.

Both our Niles and Mt. Prospect branches offer the full range of financial services you get downtown at our main office. Including savings accounts, Saver's Certificates, and mortgage, home improvement and education loans. Plus a world of sound, personal advice about the best way to handle your individual financial situation.

There are now 15 First Federal branches in the city and suburbs with more on the way. And your First Federal passbook is good at every one of them.

So stop in at First Federal's brand-new offices in Niles and Mt. Prospect. You'll be pleased by what you see. And by the service you'll get. Watch for the grand opening celebrations planned for both new buildings. They'll be coming in a few weeks, with gifts, celebrities and refreshments for everyone.

Press defers to him as they would their eighth grade teacher, whose facts and figures and demeanor earned her respect.

Mikva's opponent last month, Sam Young, was also a very good candidate. He's an attractive man. But unfortunately he's not in the same ball park with Mikva. Matter of fact, if Mikva was to debate Senators Percy or Stevenson, Mikva would likely receive similar kudos. Unlike Percy, who is somewhat superficial, Mikva would bury him with his facts and figures. And Stevenson's hesitating style, monotonous in its presentation, would contrast vividly with Mikva's excitement.

Our narrowly-elected Congressman also touches all the bases. Twice before we endorsed him and he was quite sure he had us in his back pocket. In conversation with the candidate he would never be so boorish as to mention it. But, and it's a big one, a couple of weeks before the election Mikva phoned us on a Saturday afternoon to commend us for a paragraph we wrote about public employees' needs. He didn't call to talk about his campaign. But he made sure he contacted us and scored points which certainly made us think well of him. Was he insincere? No. He undoubtedly very much favored what we wrote. But he is well aware every election in this district is a close one and it's important he touches all the bases. His political astuteness is near the top of his many assets which enables him to get so much more out of the Press.

This "getting more out of the Press" is really what we're writing about. We would be willing to wager the amount of press space and radio and TV coverage exceeded his opponent's by a substantial amount. He once told us he vacationed with Channel 2's Walter Jacobson. There's nothing wrong with that. But I'll promise you Sam Young did not vacation with Walter or Bill or Ron or Jane or Fahey or Len or any local TV newscaster. It's just the nature of the two men.

At a press conference in Skokie a couple of winters back we casually mentioned we delayed a skiing outing by a couple of hours to attend the conference. It was a small talk comment used to fill a few moments' silence before the meeting began. Two months later Mikva met us at a gathering and asked us how the skiing was going. Another time he met my son in an elevator downtown. This man, who meets hundreds, and perhaps thousands of supporters, business acquaintances and friends, told us he recently had seen my son, Bobby. Remembering the trivial occasion was unusual. To remember his name was uncanny.

Put together what we've written and you can see how newspeople become biased like anyone else. A bright knowledgeable man, who always does his homework before appearing publicly; a warm, courteous man, who had to kiss his way thru a crowd before arriving at the podium to accept the cheers of victory at his campaign headquarters 2 years ago; a telephone call a couple of weeks before an election to compliment the writer; a close friendship with top people in the media; remembering the little things, like, "How has your ski season been?", and "I saw your son, Bobby, recently," are additional reasons why newspeople form the same biases as the restless natives.

Swimming Preview

Coming off their best season in twelve years, the Demon varsity swim team opened the 1976-77 season on Wednesday, Nov. 24, at New Trier East.

Head coach Ron Davitt, assisted by Paul Nelson and diving coach Art Belmonte, said that the loss of many of last year's varsity swimmers will hurt the team, but with a lot of practice, the team could do just as well as last year's team, who finished with an 11-3 record and a second in districts.

Swimmers Scott Schwandt, Scott Steigerwald, and Mike McKevey are available at the Village Hall. Ed Brice said he and Jack Wendell showed a movie about Bicycle Safety at Golf School, and intend to make similar presentations during the winter.

Joining them will be seniors Steve Holst, Rick Marder, Doug Olsen, Roark Rogers, John Nankervis, Andy Brodner, and John Schmidt.

Dominick's benefit day

Dominick's Finer Foods, 6931 Dempster, Morton Grove, will have a Benefit Day for Nelson School on Wednesday, Dec. 8.

MG police building

floor will have the Police Station, the middle level will house the council chambers and the Administration offices will be on the second level. The architects are Brim and Braun. At Henrici's suggestion, Acting Mayor Houndt called for a Special meeting to be held on Saturday, Dec. 11 at 9 a.m. in the council chambers to make a public presentation regarding this project. To be discussed are: 1) background, 2) Site selection, 3) Professional Consultation, 4) Development of Plans, 5) Governmental Agencies Contacted to get funding, 6) Architects proposal, 7) Final Design for Board Approval, and 8) Financing.

Trustee Henrici then proposed the village atty. prepare a resolution to have a committee choose a civil engineer to give counsel on this project. Once again the question of Kohl's parking lot came under discussion when Mr. Steiner representing Kohl's addressed the board on that matter. He said Kohl's felt the existing situation is a workable arrangement and is just like the ones that exist in all of their other locations. If the board desired changes, they feel these observations should have been made before actual striping was done some time ago. He asked the board give this matter six months of observation through the winter months and then see if changes need be made. They also feel the existing ordinance relative to such parking is rather vague in several areas. John Hilkin said he sympathizes with Mr. Steiner and would like to go along with this request. Mr. Steiner pointed Kohl's is just the tenant on that property and only the landlord could re-do the striping as it is his property. Ron Henrici said he would like to see the developer discuss this problem with the board, and he feels the Building Dept. should be held accountable for these mistakes. "If we're not getting the job done then we should get someone who will do it," stated Henrici. Ed Brice moved to rescind Henrici's motion passed last meeting and the board agreed. Then John Hilkin moved to 1) to give Kohl's a six month review period on this parking matter 2) to notify the landlord that he is in violation of our ordinance and 3) to recommend the Plan Commission report back to the board within a six month period. This motion was carried.

In other business Chief of Police Glauner said it would be advisable to have crossing gates put up at the crossing on Old Mill rd. near the Studio Restaurant, in view of the accident there recently. Acting mayor Houndt said a letter came from the Milwaukee Road saying federal funds may be available for such safety measures. However, it will first have to be determined who owns that property, and Karl Oestreich said it would be looked into by him and his Traffic and Safety Committee.

Clerk Fred McClory noted Vehicle Stickers are available at the Village Hall. Ed Brice said he and Jack Wendell showed a movie about Bicycle Safety at Golf School, and intend to make similar presentations during the winter.

Trustee Juanita Goldberg announced that 2,645 senior citizens received the flu vaccine and 2,481 in the age 18-60 group also received inoculations. She also said a letter of appreciation should be sent to all those who participated in this project and the board agreed.

John Hilkin reported the August 1976 Sales Tax receipts as $104,381.81. He noted that so far this year the tax revenue is $17,000.00 per month ahead of last year. Mr. Hilkin also announced next month's blood drawing would be on Dec. 2 at the Julia Malloy School from 5 to 8 p.m.

Trustee Oestreich noted the M.G. Historical Society would hold its next meeting on Nov. 30, and urged all interested parties to attend. Mayor Houndt read a letter from Bldg. Commissioner Hajek asking board approval of parking in a R 2 area for the First National Bank of M.G. This case has been heard and approved by the Plan Commission and Hilkin moved to grant the request. The board concurred.

Mr. Houndt then read a letter in which he resigned his trustee seat so that a new trustee may be selected to fill that seat. He said the board is receptive to receiving resumes from any resident. The requirements are that you must be a resident of Morton Grove and be of voting age.

Trustee Henrici said he felt that since there are sometimes many calls for an animal warden perhaps it is asking too much of our Sanitarian to do this job along with his other responsibilities. He said perhaps our Sanitarian can make a study of the situation and advise the board if some outside help is needed.

Skokie VFW Toys For Tots collection Depot

A new or good used toy, in addition to a nominal entry fee, will admit members of the Skokie Valley Post No. 3854 of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, its Ladies Auxiliary and their guests to the Post's Annual Toys for Tots Dinner Dance to be held on Saturday, Dec. 4, at 8 p.m. at the Post Home, 7401 N. The dinner dance signals a lively kick-off to the Toys for Tots collection drive sponsored nationwide by the U.S. Marine Corps Reserve, the accumulated toys being destined for Christmas morning delivery to needy children. As in prior years, Skokie Valley VFW Post is an official collection agency for the effort in this area. Toys may be brought to the Post Home at the 7401 N. Lincoln address at any time from now through Christmas, or pickup for toys which the public or businesses wish to donate may be arranged for by calling the Post Home at: OR3-9781; Post Commander James A.
