CB volunteer group aids Niles cops

[by Alice M. Bobula]
A newly formed group of CB volunteers has pledged themselves to aid police security of Niles citizenry.

Patrol by the citizens band motorist volunteers, called the Niles Citizens Alert Patrol (NICAP) began Monday, Nov. 22, and will continue from 8 p.m. to 12 p.m. nightly. Police aid interest evolved from a group of concerned citizens, according to NICAP secretary Michael Crisci, who are established regular Cbers whose purpose is observation and reporting suspicious circumstances in the community.

The dedicated CB patrolers use their own cars and equipment and provide their own gasoline.

While patrol is confined to Niles, membership in the group is open to Niles, Morton Grove and Park Ridge residents. 18 years of age and over, who hold a valid Federal Communications Commission license. They meet usually the first Wednesday of the month at the Village Council Chambers in the Niles Police Department.

Crisci, a 23 year old bank teller at Golf Mill State Bank, said the 20 member mobile organization which includes 5 women is drawn from varied walks in life: insurance salesmen, musician, housewives, college students, auto mechanic, gas station attendants and a self-employed chauffeur whose CB handle is "Crazy Greek".

"We're concerned about Niles residents getting their CB units stolen, car thefts are on the increase and with the holidays

First O'The Month Meanderings ...

If you're sending a Christmas card to the guy next door, here's what local postal officials say about its routing. Nilesites, whose postal office is part of the Chicago system, have all mail going downtown for sorting. We were told Tuesday if there is only a small volume of mail in Niles and a couple of trainees are available, then some of Niles mail could be sorted here. Preprints and newspapers, which are already sorted by carrier and delivered to Niles, are the only mail which does not take a trip into Chicago's Loop.

Morton Groves, who have their own postal station (not a substation like Niles), have all mail shipped to River Grove, a district station for sorting, and then sent back to Morton Grove. There are two exceptions. If you drop your letters in the postal box in front of the Post Office building, or in the Morton Grove slot inside the Post Office building, it will be sorted in town.

This time of the year we get many telephone calls from residents seeking to help those who are less fortunate. Mary Kay Morrissey, coordinator for the Niles Senior Citizens, told us there may be a need for a couple of food baskets this year. If you care to help, we suggest you call her at 967-6100, Extension 75.

Oak School kindergarten alumni, who had the good fortune to have Mrs. Hartzell as a teacher, should send get well cards to the school, which will be forwarded on to the lady at her suburban address. Mrs. H. is the same lady who never forgets her former "kids". When our 3 older children graduated from high school, Mrs. Hartzell took the trouble and time to send each of them a graduation card, some 12 years after they left her 5-year-olds' class. We're sure there's many hundreds of former Oakites whose families still reside here who would like to wish her well this time of the year. It is expected she will be back in school some time after the first of the year. Mrs. Hartzell and Oak School started in business together in 1954.

Zoning Board tables decision on 'wrap up' reducing method

Delay action on reducing salon

[by Alice M. Bobula]

For the second time the Niles Zoning Commission tabled action Wednesday, Dec. 1, on a Special Use permit for a reducing salon operation in the Oak Mill Mall.

Petitioner Consetta Bizzoni, 8974 Western ave., Des Plaines, said she was reluctant to disclose any part of the formula or chemicals intended for use until a trademark or patent could be secured for exclusive rights to the reducing process.

Zoning action had been continued from the Nov. 3 hearing to allow Ms. Bizzoni to provide a sample of the solution for laboratory testing or a chemical analysis report to determine its safety.

Bizzoni said her process, "an old Swedish remedy," which she purchased from a Ft. Myers, Fla. salon is intended to lose inches rather than weight. No massage is involved, she said.

Clients are put in dry sauna after which they are "wrapped" and a non-toxic, non-allergenic mineral solution is applied. Measurements of the area intended for reducing are taken before the treatment and after the solution is washed off.

A $15 to $20 fee for the hour-long process is made only after the client's satisfaction of the guaranteed loss in inches.

Ms. Bizzoni appeared before the Zoning Board Wednesday night with her attorney Richard Ross, 9390 Parkside, Des Plaines. Continued on Page 38

CB radio theft prevention tips

Chief Norman Glauner and the Morton Grove Police Department Crime Prevention Bureau have issued the following "tips" to protect your CB radio from theft:

- Don't broadcast your home address or telephone number.
- Park a car with a CB antenna off the street.

- Buy a retractable or removable antenna.
- Choose a radio that's built into your dashboard, if possible.
- Don't answer calls for help yourself, but alert police or ambulance service.
- Buy an alarm system for your car.
- Buy special locks available for CB units.
- If you're a woman, be somewhat guarded in your conversations with strangers.
- Don't leave CB equipment lying around when your car is in a parking lot or garage.

Italian American executives sponsor university program

The University of Illinois at Chicago Circle has announced that a series of courses, collectively titled "The Italo-American Experience", will be offered beginning with the winter quarter of 1977. Unprecedented in the State of Illinois, the aim of the new program is emphasize the contributions of Italian immigrants to their adopted country, the United States.

The Italian American Executives of Transportation, sponsors of the program, believe that the image of the Italo-American has suffered. The program is designed to provide students with an awareness of the thousands of contributions made by Americans of Italian descent, that have gone virtually unnoticed. Funding for the program has been obtained through personal contributions of the I.A.E.T. members.

The primary emphasis of the program will be on the history of Italian Americans in this country. Their struggles for recognition, the hardships they encountered, and the discrimination they overcame during their assimilation into the "melting pot" of American life will be explored in depth. The initial course, "The Image of the Italo-American", will begin in the winter quarter, 1977 and deal with the images and stereotypes of the Italo-American. It will also analyze the Italo-American contribution in literature and the image created in American History texts, the press and media, and within educational literature.

Scheduled for the Spring Quarter, 1977, the second course will be entitled, "The Italo-American Experience", and is designed to study the Italian-American experience within the American Community and Institutions. Following an examination of the Italo-American family, the course will investigate the Italo-American experience within educational institutions and the legal system. The role of Americans of Italian ancestry in the business, religious, political and cultural world will also be carefully studied.

Planned for the Spring Quarter, 1978, "Research Projects in the Italo-American Experience" will allow students to take advantage of the various archival repositories in the city of Chicago. The projects will reflect the interests and disciplines of the individual students, and will be supervised by participating faculty members.

All courses will be offered at the "300 level", and will be open to Sophomores, Juniors, Seniors, and Graduate students.

Individuals desiring further information on the program should contact the University of Illinois at Circle Campus, College of Liberal Arts & Sciences.

Two Christmas concerts planned at Oak Mill Mall

Local students will perform two Christmas concerts at the new Oak Mill Mall during the next week. The public is invited to both free concerts.

The District 63 Honors Band from Gemini and Apollo Junior High Schools will play at 2 p.m. this Saturday, Dec. 11. The band, which consists of about 50 of the best band students from the two schools, will play a wide variety of numbers, including such favorites as "Candy Man", Disney's "It's a Small World", "Silver Bells", "Hogan's Heroes March" and many others.

Fourth and fifth graders from the Oak School will raise holiday spirits by singing Christmas carols and other winter songs at 7 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 15, in the Mall.

Santa Claus will be in the Mall during both concerts with free candy canes for all children. There will be hot chocolate and donuts sold at old-fashioned prices during and after the performances. Children will also have a chance to have a Polaroid picture taken with Santa. Oak Mill Mall (formerly Candlelight Courts) is fully enclosed and is located at Milwaukee and Oakton in Niles.

Toys for needy children

Past Grand Knight Augie Pranske of Niles and a member of North American Marys Council 4338 of the Knights of Columbus announced that Santa Claus will make an appearance at Mon-signor Flanagan Hall at St. John Brebeuf Parish, 8301 N. Harlem, Niles, on Sunday, Dec. 19 from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. Children and members and their friends are asked to please bring a toy for some needy child. These toys will be delivered by Chairman Pranske and members to some unfortunate child before Christmas Day in our area.

Christmas puppet program at Niles Library

A special puppet variety show will be offered at the Niles Public Library, 6960 Oakton st., on Wednesday, Dec. 29, at 1 p.m. and at 2:30 p.m. Arranged by the Children's Department, the program will be presented by the Coleman Puppet Theatre. Because of the popularity of the program, tickets (free) will be necessary to attend either performance. Ask for them at the Main Library, Branch Library, 9010 Milwaukee ave., or the Bookmobile.

The Photo Club at Niles West is alive and growing. Growth is rapid, according to club advisor Bill Handzel who said that since last year, the club membership increased from 2 to 16 students. Club members attend regular meetings, plan pair and individual projects and participate in learning workshops. Photo Club members include Mary Terzakis.

Santa's Speedy Helper

Sleigh bells ring and children sing and Christmas shoppers hurry to get gifts on their way to Grandma, Aunt Emma and Cousin Timmy.

In these times of hurry and scurry, it's nice to know you don't have to send presents early to get them there by Christmas. Greyhound says they'll get them there on time, even if you're late. For gifts traveling up to 300 miles, you can wait 'til Dec. 23 and they'll still be there by Christmas Eve. Cross country takes longer, but you'd be surprised how quickly gifts travel. Greyhound asks only a few days to do the job.

Be sure your packages are wrapped securely and take them to the nearest terminal. They must be no more than 60 inches in length and may weigh up to 100 pounds. The first $50 valuation is free. You can declare value up to $250 for a small charge.

Greyhound's been helping Santa make happy Christmases for years. Gifts ride as smoothly and safely as passengers. Buses operate 24 hours a day, seven days a week, to thousands of cities, towns and crossroads communities. Many of which have no other form of public transportation. For additional information, call the Greyhound office listed in your phone book.

A MERRY CHRISTMAS; A SAFE CHRISTMAS

A trimmed tree twinkling lights. Gifts decoratively packaged and waiting to be opened. A perfect holiday scene. Right? Wrong!

From October 1, 1975, to September 30, 1976, over 170,000 children were reported injured by toys that seemed safe, with the highest percentage occurring between infancy and 14 years. And, in 1974, approximately 1,600 fires were started in Christmas trees and decorations.

Royal-Globe Insurance Companies remind holiday decorators and giftgivers to think ahead about safety when preparing for holiday festivities.

When purchasing a tree, real trees should be freshly cut and the needles should not be dried out. Artificial trees should be manufactured of nonflammable material and checked for parts that may be sharp and likely to cause serious lacerations.

When putting up your tree, make certain it is standing away from candles, fireplaces, radiators and other sources of heat. Also, safely secure your tree so that it will not topple over. Natural trees should be kept in water and discarded as soon as possible after the holiday season is over.

All lights used in decorating the tree should be checked for proper wiring and be UL approved. Ornaments and tinsel should also be made of nonflammable materials and be securely fastened to the tree to avoid their falling off and causing injury. Toy trains, motors or engines should not be operated under or near the tree.

Remember to consider the purchase of toys as carefully as the purchase of your tree. Toys with sharp, protruding edges should be avoided. Parts that can be easily broken off and swallowed are hazardous for infants. Toys should not be made of highly flammable materials and any toys that run electrically should be UL approved and checked for defective wiring.

The Federal government is doing its part to ensure that harmful toys do not enter the market, but it cannot do everything. There are thousands of new toys on the market each year that are not always inspected by the Consumer Product Safety Commission. The consumer must be the final judge when purchasing a toy. Not only should the toy be safe, but should be the age of the child as well.

Once a toy enters the home, it is then the job of the parents to see that their children are taught its proper use.

This Christmas, Royal-Globe urges you to concern yourself not only with your family's happiness, but their safety as well.

For those inevitable hard-to-wrap gifts

In every group of presents, there's always at least one item of such an irregular shape that it's impossible to wrap it neatly. For these problem gifts, try making a paper sack from bright red paper, using a plain grocery bag as your pattern. Apply a design cut out from left-over gift wrapping paper for colorful decoration.

Here's another tip for yet another holiday headache: trying to wrap that gift bottle.

A clever way to handle this problem is by turning your gift into a clown with bright, gummed-back paper. Draw the clown's face on the neck of the bottle and tie it with a big bow. Make paper into a cone shape for the clown's hat, finishing it off with ball fringe. The fringe can also serve as his nose and for the buttons on his "suit".

BANKING IS EVERYBODY'S BUSINESS

For Christmas Treats—Some Savings Tricks

By Willis W. Alexander
 Executive Vice President
 American Bankers Association

If the need for Christmas gift funds has you robbing Peter to pay Paul, or even going into debt, why not begin to think now about planned systematic savings for next year?

No, it's not easy. Many of us tend toward good intentions while the bite is on, but then come the end-of-season sales, a leak in the roof or a yen for a vacation—and out the window goes the plan.

For this reason, most banks across the country offer an incentive to help you fulfill your 12-month goal. It's called a "Christmas Club." This account is designed to promote systematic savings by providing you with a reminder coupon for the amount you determine you want to save weekly, biweekly or monthly.

When you sign up for a Christmas Club account be aware that you are signing a contract which includes certain stipulations. Generally, these are printed in the coupon booklet and include such things as forfeiture of interest if you do not complete the one-year payments.

Questions have been raised about some banks not paying interest on Christmas Club accounts. The reason is economic. The deposit amounts are often too small to offset the expenses involved in handling the paperwork.

The Federal Reserve Board, which analyzes bank costs each year, says small- and medium-size banks actually lose anywhere from 73 to 87 cents per account even without paying interest.

If you're loaded with will power and anxious to have your money earn interest, it's easy to arrange. Open a regular savings account, write out a payment schedule for yourself—and stick to it.

You could even dream up your own penalties for skipping a payment. And, plan a reward for yourself at the end of your 1977 Christmas shopping spree with a special treat paid for out of the interest earned.

Or, you could arrange for your bank to automatically transfer a set amount from your checking to your savings account each month. You might even begin a dime or quarter collection at home and periodically deposit all coins of that denomination in your account. Tricks? Yes, but tricks to provide nice treats—this time next year.

Step Out for The Holidays in Comfort, Style

Savvy women manage to stay on their toes through the holiday festivities, often working all day and making the party scene after dark.

One secret of their non-stop success is a worry-free, comfortable wardrobe. For example, a shoe that will carry through the holidays in style and comfort is the sandal. In step with this season's dressed-up looks, the sandal goes smoothly from the office to the dance floor.

For this all-day schedule, Scholl styles a T-strap sandal with wide-open toe and low-heels. A versatile look that's right for floral shirt-skirt separates or elegant long gowns, the sandal's designed with an adjustable buckle strap and comes in brown or black leather, black, suede, or silver or gold leather for dress. It features comfort bonuses of padded insoles, built-in support and soft fabrics.

Holiday feet also need extra pampering to keep them going through the busy season. A soothing foot-soak should follow a long day of shopping or an evening of dancing, for example. Before party-going, spray on foot powder or deodorizer to help keep feet cool and comfortable. During the evening, give toes a "pick-up" by spraying an instant foot-refresher right through sandal openings.

Depending on your budget, you can go all the way from a vested suit to a new pair of socks.

In between, you'll find the latest sweaters and shirts, often shown in the new layered look.

Sweaters are bulky or smooth, ethnic or classic, wrapped or pullover... anything goes! A smart, rugged look is the turtle-neck sweater, worn with a classic shirt. Over it all, a rugged jacket in corduroy, or quilted nylon-filled-with-down, would suit the season.

Hint around for his favorite men's store, then surprise him with a gift of fashion this Christmas.

Walnut holiday wreath

You'll need about 2 lbs. in-the-shell walnuts, candy, plastic wrap, #28 wire, ribbon, wire coat hanger.

Cut wrap squares 2" larger than walnuts and candies. Wrap, fasten with a twist of wire. Cut, leaving 6" wire stem. Dip in boiling water—keeping wire above water. Wrap stems of candies with florist tape.

To form wreath: Cut coat hanger to desired length. Fasten ends to make circle. Flatten with pliers. Fasten 20" length of wire around base of one of wrapped walnuts. Attach where coat hanger is joined

A Yule Log

Decorate a yule log this Christmas for your own fireplace or for gifts to friends. It's easy and fun to do.

Use an oak, cedar or eucalyptus log, split lengthwise. Melt paraffin wax in a double boiler and let it cool until it is pliable but not hot to the touch. Use holly leaves, berries, branches from evergreens and pine cones for decorations. The paraffin, placed to the center of the log will hold the decorations securely. The wax is consumed by the fire when (and if) the log is burned.

Brighten Holiday Table With Festive 'Golden Bird'

Every few years, the urge hits holiday chefs to add a different, exotic touch to the usual turkey-with-trimmings dinner. Guests this year can feast their eyes and palates on a gorgeous "Golden Bird", complete with special browning glaze and accompanied by Italian stuffing. Chocolate Mousse Galliano is a fitting finale for the holiday celebration.

Start with the browning glaze for the "Golden Bird". To make the glaze, melt 2 jars (12 ozs. each) of pure quince or crabapple jelly in a saucepan; stir in $\frac{1}{2}$ cup lemon juice and $\frac{1}{2}$ cup Liqueur Galliano for about 3 cups of glaze.

The Italian stuffing comes next. Combine $\frac{1}{2}$ cup sweet butter, $\frac{1}{2}$ cup water, and one large chopped onion in a saucepan. Simmer 5 minutes and stir in $\frac{1}{2}$ cup of browning glaze. Combine in a large bowl with 12 cups torn bread, preferably Italian; $\frac{1}{2}$ cup chopped parsley, $\frac{1}{2}$ cup chopped ham, 3 chopped, hard-cooked eggs, and $\frac{1}{2}$ cup pine nuts or chopped cashews.

Prepare a 12 to 14 pound turkey by spooning stuffing into neck and body cavities. Place turkey on rack in shallow roasting pan, and brush the skin with softened butter or margarine. Roast at 350 degrees for 3 to 3 1/2 hours, or until thermometer inserted in thickest part of thigh muscle registers 185 degrees. Baste with butter, margarine or pan drippings until 30 minutes before bird is done. Then baste liberally with browning glaze. Remove stuffing to separate dish before serving turkey.

An unusual Chocolate Mousse can top off the feast perfectly. Blend 12 squares semi-sweet chocolate, one heaping teaspoon instant coffee dissolved in 6 table-spoons boiling water, 4 eggs, 1 cup boiling hot milk, and $\frac{1}{2}$ cup Liqueur Galliano. Blend all ingredients in a mixer at high speed for one minute. Chill and garnish with whipped cream if desired. Enjoy a holiday feast family and friends will long remember.

Holiday Repairs

There is an old superstition that says doing household repairs on Sunday or Christmas Day will not cure the trouble. It may even make the trouble worse!

Gift Suggestion:

Hobby shops carry kits and materials to suit all ages and many interests. For families, there are hobbies everyone can enjoy together.

Bundle Of Joy Or Basket Of Trouble?

Planning to give your children a pet for Christmas? These suggestions from the American Veterinary Medical Association can help make the gift a joy for the entire family.

Consider why you want the pet. Will it be a companion, protector, hunter? Some breeds are better suited than others for certain roles, and some animals do not make good pets at all. Monkeys, skunks, reptiles and other wild animals belong in their native homes or in zoos. Wild animals are usually expensive and difficult to care for. Many are potentially dangerous and can cause extensive property damage or serious injury to owners, their families and friends.

In addition to selecting your pet carefully be sure you are prepared to pay both the initial cost of the animal and day-to-day expenses for food, health-care and other essentials. Even adopting a "free" pet from an animal shelter or humane society involves some expense. The animal should be thoroughly examined by a veterinarian and properly vaccinated against infectious diseases. It may also need a license.

Remember that animals are not toys. A pet requires proper treatment and daily care. Don't forget that after the novelty wears off, someone still has to feed the pet, clean up after it and exercise it, if necessary, even when you go on vacation.

Decide before the animal arrives where it will sleep, what it will eat and where it can play and exercise. Be sure you have enough space in your apartment, house or yard to accommodate a pet.

Good health depends on regular medical attention, proper nutrition and correct treatment and handling. A veterinarian should give your pet regular medical checkups and can advise you on planning a properly balanced diet. Be sure family members do not mistreat the pet. Very young children may unknowingly injure a young animal, often by "over loving" it.

Unwanted dogs and cats are becoming a major health and safety problem. Don't add to it. Unless you intend to breed your pet, plan to have it spayed or neutered as soon as your veterinarian thinks the animal is ready.

Pet ownership can be one of life's greatest pleasures if you consider the duties as well as the benefits of owning and caring for a living creature. Be sure the gift you give is a bundle of joy and not a basket of trouble.

Christmas Confection

These spectacular three-layer bar cookies have just been perfected in time for the holidays. Almond Paste Brownie Bars are suitably rich for the season, decorative on a plate, delicious on the palate.

Almond Paste Brownie Bars

Brownie Layer
 1/2 cup butter
 1 cup ground blanched almonds
 1/3 cup sugar
 1 cup flour

Almond Paste Layer
 1/2 cup finely chopped natural (unblanched) almonds

Beat butter with ground almonds, sugar and flour. Pat gently into 9-inch square baking pan. Gently spread Brownie Layer over. Top with Almond Paste Layer. Sprinkle with chopped almonds. Bake at 350 degrees for 50 minutes or until sides begin to pull away from pan and center is firm. When cool, cut into 32 bars (2 x 1-inch).

Brownie Layer: Melt 1/4 cup butter with 1 oz. unsweetened chocolate in saucepan, stirring often. Cool partially, then beat in 1/3 cup sugar, 1 egg and 3/4 cup flour.

Almond Paste Layer: Crumble 1 cup almond paste into mixer bowl. Beat in 1/4 cup softened butter, 1/3 cup sugar, 3 eggs, 1/8 teaspoon salt and 5 drops green food color.

Homemade Almond Paste: Grind 1 1/2 cups whole blanched almonds, a portion at a time, in electric blender or food chopper using fine blade. Combine with 1 1/2 cups sifted powdered sugar, 1 egg white, 1 teaspoon almond extract and 1/4 teaspoon salt. Work to a stiff paste, then refrigerate in airtight container or disposable plastic bag. This makes 1 1/3 cups almond paste.

Remedies for holiday spots and spills

Planning a great holiday party gives you enough to think about without having to worry about the festivities laundry problems. If spots and spills overflow along with the good cheer, don't despair; a little spot-removal know-how makes quick and easy clean-ups of party-time calamities.

Always remember, a spot is easiest to remove if it's treated as soon as possible. Washable items should be laundered according to the manufacturer's instructions; most common spots will respond to a treatment of Spray 'n Wash® laundry soil and stain remover. Just spray the pretreat directly on the spot, wait 60 seconds, and launder normally. For extra-tough spots, try another application.

Non-washables will come clean with an application of K2® Spot-lifter. Coat the spot with spot-lifter, wait until it dries completely, then brush the white powder—and the spot—away. (Check the effect of any spot remover in an inconspicuous place before attempting to remove a spot from a non-colorfast fabric.)

Here are the spots a home-maker is most likely to encounter at holiday time—all of which will respond to the above-prescribed spot-removal remedies: gravies and fondues; egg nog and heavy cream; cranberry sauce and berry juices; wine; candle wax; chafing dish smudges; coffee, candies and cream-filled sweets; lipstick; green vegetable spots; and ever-green sap.

What to Do with Turkey Leftovers:

"Turkey AGAIN? Mom, can we go to McDonald's?"

Holiday cooking brings with it the inevitable - holiday leftovers, and kids seem to have less tolerance than the rest of us for the re-eating of birds and trimmings. Unless you are particularly creative in the use of holiday leftovers, subsequent meals can become a drag, and the rest of the family may rebel against you as well. Here are some ideas on how to disguise and adapt your leftovers to make them more palatable:

- Use stuffing to make main dish pie shells by pressing and compacting it against a pie plate. Then fill the shell with leftover turkey and vegetables. You can also use stuffing to stretch hamburger and meat loaf.

- When it comes to the turkey, you can soup it, sandwich it, grind it or salad it. Use white meat for pies, chopped light and dark bits for salads, light and dark strips for turkey stew.

- Simmer the turkey carcass and you have a broth that makes a great base for other soups. Or just add noodles or rice and seasonings.

- Add leftover turkey to potato salad or Waldorf salad and you can eat it as a main dish, or substitute turkey for beef and serve it as stroganoff or use turkey instead of chicken and eat it a la king.

- Make a turkey hash or turkey pizza, grind up turkey and make it into patties or pate, use it in scrapple or curry. The possibilities go on and on...

Gift suggestion:

Potted house plants are available in many sizes. The smaller pots indicate younger plants that have a longer life ahead of them if they are cared for properly. If you are giving a potted plant to someone who is not used to growing plants, include a book on indoor plants as part of your gift.

Macrame, beaded and shell plant hangers are also nice gifts, with or without the plant included. You can buy them or make them yourself if you have the time. Be sure to include a bracket or hook that can be mounted on the ceiling or on the wall for hanging the plant holder.

Houseplants and gifts for gardening enthusiasts are fun to buy and show a personal, thoughtful touch.

Holly plants thrive only when the female and male species are planted very close together. The male holly has red berries, the female plant has white flowers. Holly prefers acid soil and should be planted in early spring, before growth starts. Ideally, pruning should take place around Christmas time. The English variety of holly grows as high as 82 feet.

Decorating Ideas

Here are a few Christmas decorating ideas guaranteed to keep children and adults blissfully busy on a dull winter afternoon:

(1) Paint the inside of bottle caps and glue them on to a styrofoam Christmas tree. Use a different color for each row.

(2) Dip differently colored pieces of yarn in glue and wind them around foam balls for attractive tree ornaments.

(3) Decorate a foam candle holder with different types of hard candies and licorice. Finish the project with a coat of clear varnish to prevent the candies from falling off or from being removed by hungry candy addicts.

To display cards

To hang cards from wall to ceiling without marring - tack a piece of cellophane tape (sticky side out) to the molding and baseboard. Just press the back of each card, as you receive them, to the tape. To keep the front pages of book-fashion cards in place, slant the top of the card a little.

Make A Snowy Christmas Tree

This year, why not give your holiday gifts a three-dimensional look with an easy-to-make decoration like the one photographed here? All you will need are some Q-tips cotton swabs, cardboard, solid-color gift-wrap paper, glue and two small pieces of styrofoam.

Here's how: make a cardboard triangle almost as tall as your wrapped package. Cover it with solid-color gift-wrap paper. Glue a tiny piece of styrofoam on the back. Set the "trunk" of the tree in the other piece of styrofoam, then cover with gift wrap paper.

You will need 41 Q-tips cotton swabs for this snowy tree. Snip off ends with scissors so swabs will cover the cardboard as shown. When the layout looks right, glue them in place and allow to dry thoroughly.

This unique tree can be fastened to the box by taping the styrofoam on the back to the box. Design can be removed easily and used decoratively.

Keeping Track of Toys:

Your children will doubtless receive many toys and games for Christmas gifts. A week later, you are likely to find these games and toys littered around your house, waiting for the children to pick them up. Why not create a place for these gifts and make picking them up a little easier for the children and for you!

Use vinyl tape in different colors to code toys and shelves. For instance, a doll could have a very small piece of red tape on the bottom of her foot. A larger piece of the same red tape can be placed on the appropriate shelf where the doll should stay when she is not being used.

This same idea has been used successfully for many years by kindergarten and nursery school teachers. Little children learn to identify colors along with a sense of responsibility for their possessions.

Decorative Ideas:

Clear plastic drinking straws and yarn left over from a needlepoint project can be combined to make pretty Christmas tree decorations.

Cut the straws into different lengths and thread brightly colored yarn through them, using your yarn needle. Arrange the straws to form abstract designs or snowflakes and hang them from your tree. Children will enjoy making this type of ornament, too.

Niles West winter dance

The Niles West High School Student Activities Board (SAB) will present "Anyone's Choice", a winter dance for Niles West students, on Saturday, Dec. 11, from 8-11 p.m.

Like the name implies, anyone may do the asking for this dance, providing he or she has the price of the ticket. Tickets will sell for $5 per couple.

And if the weather cooperates, the dance will be preceded by a snowman building contest in the school's courtyard at 10 that morning. Competition is open to all Niles West clubs and organizations. Cash prizes of $25, $15, and $10 will be awarded to the three winning snowman building groups.

That night, the musical group "Choice" will play for dancing in the Niles West student lounge and the adjacent room 145. Oakton offers many ways to learn French

Students interested in learning French can take advantage of several unique study options offered by Oakton Community College in beginning and intermediate courses.

Taught on a semi-independent basis, Oakton's four beginning/intermediate French courses use a text-tape system, but it is also possible for students who cannot attend the scheduled classes to work out a totally independent program with the instructor.

Serious French students also have the option to do two semesters work in one, receiving grades and credit for both courses according to Linda Korbel, assistant professor of foreign languages.

She suggests that students who already have some background in the French language consider taking French 105 (Conversational French) during the spring semester. Scheduled for Tuesday and Thursdays from 9:30-10:45 a.m., this course is for students interested in expanding and improving their conversational skills.

Small classes, individual attention, and personally-tailored programs are all features of Oakton's French classes. French 101 and 102 (Beginning), 105 (Conversational), and 201 and 202 (Intermediate) will be offered this spring.

For further information, contact Linda Korbel at 967-5120, ext. 326.

French club activities

Maine East's French Club members recently took a bike hike, sponsored a bake sale, and naturally participated in Homecoming activities, and members plan to attend the upcoming International Dinner for all Maine East foreign language students. French Club, along with other language clubs, will provide entertainment at the dinner.

In January French Club, along with Russian Club, will go tobogganing with the funds raised through bake sales.

French Club is also planning for a trip to Quebec, which will take place in the winter of 1977. Participants will be visiting Montreal and Quebec City, taking in some important sights and practicing their use of the French language.

The final club event will be a spring banquet at a French restaurant.

Officers this year are president Carolyn Glassman, vice-president Barbara Goodman and secretary-treasurer Andrea Gordan.

Gymnastics card flashers

1976 is a year for a change, and this year's gymnastics teams are trying something new—card flashers.

Card flashers are girls who show the scores of all the athletes after they have performed.

The judges fill out a score sheet with several numbers, and the numbers are then averaged together for the final score. The sheet is then given to the card flasher, who puts the athlete's score on the machine.

The girls are Sherri Fox, Sherri Feldman, Beth Mathis, Peggy Mathis, Gina Meyers, Tammy Miller, Laura Perlman, Lisa Schulman, Sherri Shaenitz, Arlene Sulken, Carrie Talbot, and Laura Weiss.

Organizing the card flashers was the idea of Coach Terry Beckwith.

Evanston Federal reduces mortgage rate to 8½%

Evanston Federal Savings and Loan Association has reduced its mortgage loan interest rate to 8½% per annum on loans up to $65,000, with not less than a 20% downpayment. The association's interest rate was formerly 8¾% for loans with similar downpayment requirements.

According to association President Donald G. Martens, the new interest rate applies to qualified single-family owner occupied dwellings, including townhome and condominium units. "The interest rate is the lowest offered by the association in several years," Martens said, "and is intended to make home buying easier for persons in communities served by Evanston Federal Savings. The reduction in the interest rate at this time is a result of seasonally lower loan demand in the winter months, coupled with the extraordinary inflow of savings deposits to all thrift institutions. When loan demand resumes its normal seasonal upswing in the spring, it is anticipated that interest rates will begin rising once again. Therefore, now is the best time to acquire the home you have always wanted."

The new mortgage lending rate is now in effect at Evanston Federal Savings' home office on Fountain Square, Evanston, and its new office in the Golf Mill area, near the northeast corner of Golf rd. and Milwaukee ave., Niles.

Following a suspicious behavior report to the base station Crisci said, "The reporting NICAP unit remains on observation in the area until a patrol car responds."

While Police Chief Clarence Emrikson commended the group on their voluntary aid approach to police, he stressed that direct police action remains in the hands of village police.

6. Always turn off lights on trees and other decorations when retiring for the night or leaving home. A short circuit in any electrical equipment could cause a fire.

7. When unwrapping gifts, place the paper and other wrapping material in a large carton and dispose of it immediately. Don't burn wrapping in a fire place; it may ignite suddenly and cause a flash fire.

8. Make an emergency plan to use if a fire breaks out anywhere in your home. See that each family member knows at least two escape routes.

taken place. Broken antennas, broken light fixtures, more than 100 light bulbs vandalized, sugar in a gas tank, and most recently someone spending much time taking off a pool cover and dumping it into his swimming pool resulted in Niles gendarmes giving extra time in his area.

In another area, Nick told The Bugle the 2 special reserve policemen being investigated regarding the Grand Jury probe of Niles policemen have not been suspended, pending its outcome. He said no action will be taken until after Niles hears from the State's Attorney's office regarding the matter. One Niles policeman told us the 2 reserves were briefly suspended but Blase rescinded the order. But Blase told us no Niles action will be taken until a report has been received from Bernard Carey's office.

A third area in which Blase is making news concerns the December 13 meeting of the Chicago Water Study Committee which he heads. He appeared before a committee of Chicago aldermen last week in which he reports Chicago is adamant in raising water rates to the suburbs by 21%. Niles now pays the City $670,000 annually. He adds the village income for water is $1,300,000 which is used to pay off outstanding water bonds, and to pay costs to maintain the system. Niles doubles the charge to communities it feeds water to but the plus one million income is at a break-even figure, without the village making any profit.

Blase concluded Mayor Daley will not budge on the pending water increase and Blase believes legal action will be the only avenue for combatting the increase. Whether or not the other 36 suburban communities will join with Niles in seeking this relief via the courts cannot be answered until after the December 13 meeting in Oak Lawn.

Reducing salon.

to request continued action on special use zoning for the weight salon. Zoning Commissioners are reluctant to recommend approval until they are assured of the safety of chemicals and process. In a Nov. 15 letter directed to the Zoning Board, Ms. Bizzoni said full disclosure of her process could result in duplication by unscrupulous persons. During the Dec. 1 hearing, she requested time to legally secure her process before divulging formula specifics.

Comr. Charles O'Grady expressed surprise that an attorney would allow his client to purchase a formula without first obtaining legal rights.

Atty. Ross said that prior conversation with his client (to which she signified agreement) indicated that aspect had been explored and the resulting purchase of the formula was in line with her wishes.

The petition was continued generally, allowing several months' time until the petitioner signified readiness to again appear before the Zoning Board, this time with full details of her operation.

The Zoning Board also continued action to Jan. 5 on a request by Lee Goyette, contractor of Builders, Inc., for rezoning from residential to manufacturing for a four-building single story office complex at 7353 Caldwell ave.

Morton Grove Library Happenings

Rhino hunts, Zulu dances, and battling barracuda will be some of the thrills shown in the travelogue on "Africa" at the Morton Grove Library on Tuesday, Dec. 14, at 7:30 p.m.

The sunburnt beaches and the plunging waterfalls of Natal, the Kimberley diamond mines of South Africa, and the strange people and animals of Central Africa are just part of the vast panorama of Africa, which can be seen and enjoyed by all who come to this exciting travelogue.

"Krimpart", a new and clever form of paper sculpture, will be demonstrated and taught in two workshops at the Morton Grove Library on Monday, Dec. 20.

These workshops will be held at 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. and both will be conducted by James Higa, the inventor of "Krimpart". Since this "art" is so much fun for the entire family, mothers and children are invited to attend. There is a limitation of 30 for each class and registration is now being taken at the Library. Further information on the "Krimpart Workshops" can be obtained at the Library or by calling 965-4220.

Three times each week, program members meet in the gym of E. Prairie School, 3907 Dobson, in Skokie, to engage in physical activities under the close supervision and guidance of an attending physician and a corrective therapist. Here they learn how to enjoy leisure activities within their own personal physical limitations.

The hour goes quickly as participants begin with stretching and toning exercises. This is followed by a period of walking and jogging activities, and then exercises designed to cool down the body. Members are encouraged to become involved in low-level recreational activities that are integrated into the evening program. All of this is done on the basis of an individualized exercise prescription for each program member.

What kinds of special advantages does a supervised program like this one offer community members who have heart problems? Why is it any better than exercising on one's own? These are questions often asked by interested individuals. To begin with, program members get a concrete way of monitoring their personal level of activity by learning to take their own pulse rates within the activity they are engaged in. Also, they get a meaningful understanding, often for the first time, of how directly the heart is affected by different levels of physical exertion. Then too, by keeping a written record of the amount of exercise they accomplish each week, participants can gauge their progress over the period of time they are involved in the program.

But perhaps one of the nicest benefits of the program is that members share their special recreational experiences with one another. As one participant stated, "I think if it weren't for the other people here each week I would have stopped exercising long ago, no matter how good the set-up or how good it is for me! I just couldn't do it on my own!"

The next program series is scheduled to begin Monday, January 3, 1977, and will run for ten weeks. Persons interested in joining are urged to call the Maine-Niles Association of Special Recreation at 674-5512 for specific details about how to sign up.

The cadet is a 1975 graduate of Niles West High School, Skokie.

Robert A. Nord

Cadet Robert A. Nord, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold C. Nord of 7828 Linder Ave., Morton Grove, has been promoted to the rank of cadet staff sergeant at the U.S. Air Force Academy.

Cadet Nord, a member of the class of '79, has also been appointed flight guide.
