Niles policeman suspended; investigate fellow-officers' actions

(By David Besser)

While Niles patrolman Eugene Ziegler received a 15 day suspension for beating up a woman while being intoxicated off-duty, Niles policemen called to the scene are also being investigated. Witnesses claim unruly behavior by the officers for their "roughing up" 3 young men who intervened in stopping Ziegler from beating up the woman.

Sunday, July 24, at 2:20 a.m., Kerry Kuhn and Mark Garrity, co-owners of Sgt. Pepper's Pizza, Greenlake Shopping Center, said they saw a man beating up a woman in the foyer at 9128 Greenlakes. They intervened, separating Ziegler from the woman. When policemen from the Niles and Cook County departments arrived, Ziegler was reported to have said he wanted the men who broke up the fight to be arrested.

Kuhn reported after the police arrived on the scene, Ziegler knocked down the woman in front of the police officers. Mrs. Kuhn reported the woman was bleeding badly and was severely battered. Niles policemen handcuffed Kuhn. When Kuhn's wife asked why her husband was under arrest, Kuhn reported Officer Ziegler came toward his wife, using foul language said, "Shut your mouth, you... bitch". Kuhn's partner, Garrity, stepped between Ziegler and Mrs. Kuhn and Robert Lerner wrote a good column in last week's Life about the inadequate sports coverage the Cubs receive in the Chicago newspapers compared to the lineage the White Sox receive. He described the south side tilt of the Irish sports writers who dominate Chicago's sports pages.

Lerner is about a decade behind me which makes a decided difference in understanding Chicago professional sports teams and particularly its sports writers.

Lerner should first of all understand the quality of writing sports in the second city has always been poor. When you get past Bill Gleason and Bob Marcus, you may as well close the pages and turn to less serious matters such as what appears on the front page and on the editorial pages. In past decades John Charnichael and Ring Lardner graced the pages during the front page era when newspapermen swaggered like newspapermen. Today, the sports guys take freebies from Bill Vecek's table atop Comiskey Park, and are beered and chowed down by all sorts of hustlers who promote Notre Dame, The Sting and other lesser lights.

Chicago, Mr. Lerner, is basically a winner's town. When the ballclubs win, the fans fill the stadium from Madison Street to Lake Shore Drive and from Addison St. to Shields Ave.

Last winter The Bulls weren't drawing much better than Northwestern until they began winning. Then Chicago sports lovers began filling up the seats. It became an "in" thing to gather up your bimbo and bring her out to the old roundball game. Stop off for a fast steak where they used to call everyone "Senator" and then wrap up the doll and slide over to the stadium where she parades up and down the aisles while Chi's great sports fans suddenly became basketball fans.

It's the same thing this year. Out at Sox Park the Cadillac crowd gets to the game 10 minutes before starting time, park in reserved places, and traipse down to their boxes just in time to see the Sox head out of the dugout.

Chicago is a winner's town. Lerner, and you must understand that. The present crop of sports writers, like yourself, were youngsters during the fifties. That was the era when the Sox woke up from its 30 year sleep and began

Oakton student raped on way to parked auto

A 20 year old student from Oakton Community College was raped on Monday, Aug. 1 at 10 a.m. while she was on her way to her parked auto.

The young lady, a Morton Grove resident, had parked her car in the lot located in St. Paul Wood adjacent to Oakton which has been designated as an overflow parking area for Oakton Students.

The victim told Morton Grove police that she was walking on the blacktop path when her assailant pulled her into the bushes. He was described as a 20 to 25 year old male, 5 ft. 9 in. to 6 ft. tall, approximately 170 lbs., dark mustache, dark straight hair, collar-length, unshaven and blue eyes.

Officer Baltzerson commended

At Monday night's Police and Fire Commission meeting, Police Officer Arnie Baltzerson was commended for aiding a distressed motorist in the Golf Mill Shopping Center.

A Broadview resident Thomas Lee sent Niles a letter commending Baltzerson for his politeness and assistance in aiding his wife and him. Mr. Lee reported the battery in his car was dead after they left the theatre late at night. He said Baltzerson had the Lees transferred to the police car and he drove to many stations before finding one which was open. Lee said Baltzerson remained at the station until he was assured the Lees would be serviced.

Lee commended Baltzerson for his "getting involved" and for his above and beyond the call of duty effort.

Cook-out for Bethany residents

The man walking on the moon for the first time must have felt somewhat like some residents of Bethany Terrace Health Care Facility, located at 8425 N. Waukegan rd., Morton Grove, an Intermediate and Skilled Health Facility, when they, too, had a "first".

This was the first time a group had been invited to a neighborhood residence, where they traveled via motorized wheel chairs from Bethany to the home - two blocks away - of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kwolek, Niles, volunteers at this facility.

On July 21, Roy and Lou, with the help of neighbors, Judy Koch and Irma Conrad, prepared a buffet supper ... a delicious supper including grilled hamburgers, bratwurst, German and American potato salad, 3-bean salad, a special Italian dish prepared by Mrs. Greco, and many other goodies concluding with watermelon ... people helping people and receiving so much satisfaction was apparent through out the evening.

Others attending, in addition to the Young People's Group from Bethany Terrace, were Mrs. Connie Kaufman, Miss Debra Milner, and Miss Mary Cashman, Social Service Dept., Miss Mary Lawlor, R.N. Nursing Dept., Lynda Santrella, Volunteer, Mrs. Roger Davis, Director of Volunteers, and Mr. Davis.

We expect this to be the first step toward making it possible for residents to become involved in neighborhood and community events. It will become even more possible when the necessary funds have been raised to purchase a specially designed bus with a hydraulic lift for wheel chair as well as ambulatory residents. A bus fund drive is now in process with $15,000 toward the goal of $20,556 having been contributed.

For further information about the bus fund of projects with which you might help, please call Chawn Davis, Director of volunteers ... 965-8100.

Editor's Note:

The following letter was written by a 20 year old Nilesite, Gary Chapman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Duane Chapman, 8739 Madison, Niles to Todd Bavaro of the Northwest Italian-American Society thanking them for their support of Up With People, a group of young people actively involved in presenting concerts to promote better understanding among people.

Dear Mr. Bavaro,
I would like to thank you and the Northwest Italian American Federation for your support. The money has already been put to good use. I have already been in Tucson for about two and a half weeks learning the show. All together I will be spending five weeks here.

The other night we found out what our schedule would be for the coming year. From Arizona we will be heading to Colorado, Wyoming, Kansas, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Texas and Louisiana, then it is home for Christmas. After Christmas we head for Georgia, North Carolina, West Virginia, Ohio, and then on to Spain, Portugal and Morocco.

This year looks like it is going to be very busy. There still is a possibility that this schedule could change. While we are traveling we will be staying with families in each community we visit. This will give me a great opportunity to learn about people. Not only in this way but also with students participating in Up With People. Not only are there students from the United States but some from fourteen other countries.

As for the concerts that we give, they will be given in many different places. Some will be at conventions, others auditoriums, prisons, high and grammar school, college campuses, old peoples homes and many other places.

The name of the group is Up With People and that is the whole purpose of the group, to deal, and learn from people and for them to learn from you. This year I will be living with 80 to 90 different families, sharing with them my background and they in turn will let me share theirs.

Sometime this year one of the Casts will be in the Chicago area. I'm not sure if I will be in one of those casts but even if I am not I hope you and the Northwest Italian American Federation can take the opportunity to see one of the shows and talk with some of the people and maybe get a better understanding as to what Up With People is all about.

Thank-you again for your support financially as well as morally. I'll do my best to be a good representative of my community in the many places I will be visiting.

Sincerely,
Gary Chapman

Mikva cites Raffé's remarks as 'dismaying and destructive'

Dear Editor:

Below is a copy of Congressman Mikva's letter to Philip Raffé, Maine Township Clerk, regarding Mr. Raffé's recent comments on unincorporated Maine Township.

Dear Mr. Raffé:

Your remarks in recent editions of some local newspapers concerning unincorporated Maine Township were dismaying and destructive. They can serve no better purpose than to attempt to shift attention from the fact that the Maine Township public officials have been of little help in solving some pressing problems for residents of the unincorporated area. I think that our mutual constituents deserve better.

Residents of the unincorporated area came to me for assistance in early 1974, after they had been faced with major problems relating to housing, water supply and public safety. Their requests for assistance to Township officials, unfortunately, had met with no success, and I agreed to convene a first meeting of a task force to attempt to pool resources and community input to help solve the problems of the area. The Township officials were invited to every meeting, as were other local and state officials. The task force met regularly and some progress was being made.

As one example, the task force was able to convince the Township Board, which you serve, to spend federal revenue sharing funds to hire additional sheriff's patrolmen. Tragically, the Township has allowed the contract for additional patrolmen to lapse,

The Bugle urges all its readers to submit Letters to the Editor pertaining to local issues or in response to editorials appearing in the paper. All letters must be signed and contain the name, address and telephone number of the writer. No letter will be printed in The Bugle unless this information is furnished. Niles Baseball League 'best in area'

Dear Editor:

This letter is being written in defense of the Niles Baseball League and the men who run the League, mainly the Commissioner and the Board of Directors. Every year these men are criticized for the way they handle protest games and for the way they run the League in general.

Managers who mistakenly or accidentally misunderstand some rule or regulation or the ones who lose their protest appeals are the ones who do the most crying and downgrade men who have devoted their leisure hours to giving our kids the opportunity to participate in a competitive sports program. How many kids would ever have the chance to play in an organized league if it were not for these dedicated men?

Each year at the start of the baseball season, 600 to 700 boys sign up because they want to be part of a team. After the registration is when the problems really begin:

1) Managers have to be selected, which is like pulling teeth. Parents want their sons involved but it seems no one has the time to devote when it comes to managing or coaching.

2) Existing rules have to be reviewed.

3) Some Rules have to be revised and some new rules have to be added in order to improve the running of the League. Rules must be upheld. If you alter a rule for one situation, you are going to have problems all the way through the season, because what's good for one is good for the other. It could be total confusion.

Our League has been in existence for 25 years. It is not an easy task year after year planning a new baseball season, but the Commissioner and Board Members spend many unrewarded hours trying to give our kids the best possible opportunity to have a pleasant, enjoyable season.

You'll notice that most of the men who give their time are the ones who have been involved in the Baseball League for many years because no one else wants these thankless jobs.

Even though managers are screened before being allowed to participate, there are a few every year who do not know how to accept their responsibility in an adult-like manner. These few men are the ones who complain and downgrade a League that is one of the best in our area. It's really a shame that adults cannot discuss and accept a decision as grownups, not like a child who retaliates and tries to hurt whoever he feels is responsible.

A big vote of confidence and approval should be given to these men who do such a good job in making our League a success year after year.

Sharon Berg

almost all of the meetings of the task force, despite repeated invitations to Mr. Dowd requesting his participation. The residents of unincorporated Maine Township need the assistance and cooperation of their elected officials, they do not need your shrill voice that cries "politics" to any official who tries to help.

I intend to continue doing everything that I can to assist the residents, your complaints are the worst kind of politics because they help no one, including you. I only hope that you and your colleagues on the Township Board would join in our efforts to solve the problems of the people who live in the unincorporated area.

Sincerely,
Abner J. Mikva
U.S. Congressman

NILES BASEBALL LEAGUE

Peanut League Round Robin tournament

Red Sox 11, Mets 1

The Red Sox won their first game of the Round Robin from the Mets 11-1. The pitching by Piento, Goldberg, Giovannelli, and Hickey was superb. The Red Sox exploded for 9 runs in the first inning with Larry Dombrowski getting 2 homers with 7 RBIs. Other hitting stars were Mark Goldberg, and Mike Piento going 4 for 5, Scott Serlin 2 for 2, Giovannelli with 1 hit and Mike Venetucci getting his first hit of the season. Jerry Romanek was the Met's hitting star, with a triple and 1 RBI. Jim Elenz, Glenn Szymaniak, Mike Kaplan, Dave Shibusch, and Jerry Romanek did a great job pitching.

Giants 1, Twins 2

In still another game of the Round Robin the parents were treated to a great, fine pitching, good defensive ball game. After Gasso of the Giants led off the 2nd inning with a homer, with some good base running, the Giants were held to one hit for the next 4 innings. Fine defensive plays for the Twins by F. Kuhr, S. Ciecko, F. Luppino and a good catch by T. Schreier. For the Twins, in the 3rd inning, after Ziebell walked, Kuhr singled, Ciecko walked, and Samelak grounded out, Ziebell scored from 3rd with the tying run. Krueger of the Giants then held the Twins scoreless until the 5th inning, where, with the aid of Luppino and Ziebell's walk, and Ciecko's ground out, Luppino scored the winning run from 2nd base. Gasso and Fireman of the Giants also pitched a fine game.

Angels 22, Braves 2

In this first game of the Round Robin, the Angels scalped the Braves 22-2. Leading the attack was Mike Furmansk with 5 hits, including 2 homers, one a Grand Slam and 11 RBIs. Also hitting for the Angels were Jeff Turofsky with 2 hits, Keith Parlich with 3 hits, including a homer, Dan Gabel with 2 hits and Vic Henzi with a bases-loaded triple. Angel pitchers were Gabel, Furmansk, Parlich, and Swidler.

Tigers 9, Dodgers 12

In a game that saw the lead change hands 7 times, the Dodgers came from behind to defeat the Tigers 12-9 in an exciting 3-hr. game of the Round Robin. The Dodgers first drew blood with 1 run in the 2nd inning. The Tigers came back with 2 runs in the 3rd. The Dodgers got 3 more in the 3rd as Englund tripled, Ugel walked, and Baker doubled and Gabriel singled. In the 4th, the Tigers roared back with 5 runs again to take a 7-4 lead. The Dodgers then came alive as Giovenco, Purvey, and Merenda-walked and Englund hit a grand slam putting the Dodgers ahead 8-7. Ugel held the Tigers scoreless in the 5th and Kassel shut out the Dodgers also. In the 6th inning, hits by Tigers, Benarz, Kim, and Hedrich were good for 2 more Tiger runs, and a 9-8 lead. But again, the Dodgers rose off the floor as Englund hit his 2nd Grand Slam to right center. It was a tough game to lose and a good one to win, as both teams showed a strong desire to fight back when down.

Twins 8, Dodgers 6

The Dodgers took an early lead in the bottom of the first as Englund's walk, Ugel's single and Bakers triple scored Ugel and Englund. The Twins tied it at 2-2 in the top of the second with Schreier's walk, Ziebell's triple and DiMiceli's ground out. The Twins continued with 3 more runs in the 3rd on walks to Henneid and Kuhr. Ciecko's triple and a sacrifice fly by Samelak making the score 5-4, Twins. The Dodgers came back with 4 big runs on a grand slam by Englund (his 3rd slammer in the last 2 games), putting the Dodgers ahead by 6-5. The Twins came storming back with 3 runs of their own in the 4th inning to lead 8-6 on Pierski's single, Luppino's grounder, Henneid's single, Kuhr's Fielder Choice and a hits batsman. The pitchers on both teams got tough as they pitched hitless, shutout ball the rest of the game. Ugel of the Dodgers held down the Twins the last two innings and Ciecko of the Twins struck out the last 6 Dodgers for a last inning rally. Gambro, Norberg, Giovenco, Purvey, Ugel, Block, and Chandler played fine defensive ball for the Dodgers. The final score was the Twins 8 and the Dodgers 6. The game between the Twins and the Dodgers put the Carvel Twins into the finals to be up against the Red Sox who had won their second game from the Angels.

Carvel Twins 19, Red Sox 3

The Carvel Twins were not to be denied this night. They all came out swinging on the leadership of Pierski's 6 RBIs on a grand slam homer and a hard ground ball. They all followed on Luppino's triple and 2 RBIs, Henneid's and Kuhr's two singles and Kuhr's good pitching, Ciecko's double, single, and strong two innings of pitching, Samelak's good pitching and home run, Mueller and Schreier going 2 for 4, Ziebell's fine base running, DiMiceli going 2 for 3 and 3 RBIs, and Litz getting on base twice and scoring twice. The Carvel Twins won the Round Robin Championship by a score of 19-3 to the Red Sox.

"THANK YOU CARVEL TWINS; YOU ALL DESERVE IT." Ron Ciecko: Manager -- Twins; Jim Gotshall: Coach -- Twins.

The Niles Little League, American Conference completed their regular season play last week. The Giants became the champs of the Western Division with a season record of 18 wins, 0 losses and 1 tie. Their final win of the year came over the Padres 13-10. The winner of the Eastern Division was not as easy to determine. Two teams, the Athletics and the Angels tied for first place. A playoff game between the two teams was necessary and the Athletics defeated the Angels in a one run contest. The Athletics and the Giants will now meet in the World Series.

Other teams the last week saw some exciting games. On July 12, there was a preview of the playoff game. This time the Angels defeated the Athletics 8-7. The Braves had 3 games. They defeated the White Sox 14-3; they struggled to a come-from-behind victory over the Padres 10-9 in the last inning which saw Bacchiere and Gaza collect walks followed by two hits from the brothers Early and then Ron Zygmunt hit a three run homer to win the game. Their final game saw them defeating the Mets 8-7. In this game the key hit was supplied by Chris Early with a 2 out bases loaded double to break a 4-4 tie. The Athletics ride to the top was stalled when they faced the Mets who defeated them 11-3. The Athletics then proceeded to defeat the Yankees 10-3, the Indians by one run in a game that ended a tie in regulation innings, and then their final win over the Angels.

The Orioles had 2 games to play and they won them both: a 3-2 forfeit win over the Indians and a 13-3 defeat of the Padres. The infield play of the Orioles in their last victory was brilliant by Scott Swidler, Tim Flynn, Jeff Evens and Matt Argetsinger. Dave Fronczek and Lui Alfano both had a double and a triple in this win. A high scoring affair between the Astros and the Yankees with the lead changing several times and the winner not determined until the last of the sixth inning was a game that provided a lot of entertainment for the fans. This game featured 39 runs, 29 hits, 19 walks, 9 errors. Trailing 18-14 going into the sixth, the Yankees rallied for 6 runs on the hitting of Pete Roggeman, Roger Golbach, Ed Sudendorf and John Sypniewski. But the Astros didn't give up. They loaded the bases with one out with the tying run on third when Randy Busiel in centerfield caught a line drive off Jim Mizialko's bat and with a fantastic throw to Roger Golbach catching, doubled up the tying runner to end this exciting game 20-19.

The White Sox defeated the Indians 20-8 on the strength of Mike Composito's 2 grand slam homers and Rob Burke's 2 home runs. Billy Hayes laid down 2 perfect bunts, Kotarski hit 2 singles and Szyalowski played for the Sox and hit a double. The Indians came back after this defeat however, and defeated the Orioles 14-0. After this fine game their manager presented his special team trophies to Tim Flynn, triple crown winner; Dave Fronczek, best hurler; Matt Argetsinger, golden glove.

The last out of the season has finally been recorded bringing an end to yet another successful Niles Little League Baseball season. Each and every Little Leaguer should be congratulated for the efforts he put forth this season. Many of them battled the cold, windy weather in the early going and then competed during the hot weather we all felt during the summer months of June and July.

The managers and coaches should be recognized for the commendable job they did volunteering their time to take teams and teaching the stars of tomorrow those very important fundamental baseball skills. The fans too, should be cited for the support they gave at the games, and also to the Niles Baseball League Officials who donated much time to make this season another successful one.

And last but not least to the men in blue who called the game from behind the plate.

The Expos and Cardinals ended the regular season tied for first in the National Division. These two teams both started slowly and then put it all together midway in the season to end up tied for the lead. They did it with excellent pitching, defense, and an offensive attack which featured timely and explosive hitting.

Every team should be cited-win, lose or draw. They played thrilling and exciting baseball. We hope the players this season learned sportsmanship, bettered their skills, and will again take part next year when the cry "Play Ball" is heard around the Niles Baseball League.

Pony AAA Standings

Braves	10 2 2
Giants	10 3 2
Padres	6 6 4
A's	5 8 0
Expos	6 6 4
Red Sox	4 11 1

Giants 5 - A's 4

Ron Bielski pitched four stellar innings only to see Dan Pierre falter in relief and lose the A's 4 to 1 lead. Final Giants 5, A's 4. The A's collected 2 hits each from Ron Bielski and Scott Channess, with Dan Pierre, Dan Palowski, Dan Frank and Tom Lober adding 1 hit each.

Braves 9 - Padres 7

In a close game, the Braves came from behind to win against a tough Padre team. If ever there was a team effort, this was it, for the Braves Dave Kolbaska, Barry Schreackel and Tracy Parker all came up with key hits in the 6th inning to put the game away for the Braves. Bob Berg made some great plays, defensively at 2nd base to stop the Padres attack and keep the Braves in the game. The boys on the Braves hung tough and kept fighting until they finally won it. Certainly a well deserved win, by a team of boys that come to play, and work hard to win.

Padres 7 - Expos 4

Mike Tait turned in 4 strong innings in pitching for the Padres to a 7-4 win over the Expos. Dave Thimm drove in 3 runs. Bill Norek was 3 for 3. Jim Mahoney, Rich Szatkowski and Jim Sliwa all hit for the Padres. Pitchers for the Expos were Steve Cohen and Mike Linhart.

Braves 20 - A's 9

In a game that saw the lead change several times, the Braves who played very erratically in the 1st few innings, came to life in the 4th to score 12 runs on 10 hits. While the Braves pitching was off, for the most part, Bob Berg came on to pitch the last few innings and stopped the A's to earn the win. The Braves again showed that they have what it takes to win, even in a tough contest. The Braves got 20 runs on 15 hits and some A's mistakes and: Mike Goldberg and Arnie Belker, both played a great game and got timely hits to keep the rally alive for the Braves. The A's tied off to a 9 to 4 lead on the Braves. With the help of 3 errors & many, many mental errors the Braves amazed a 12 run 4th inning to bomb out the hopeless A's 20 to 9. A's hitting consisted of Tom Lober, Scott Channess, Mike O'Neill 2 hits each with Dan Palowski and Phil Zangara one hit each.

Giants 20 - Expos 3

The Giants won easily against the Expos by a score of 20 to 3 in a game called at the end of 5 innings. Joe Booker pitched 4 innings giving up 2 hits striking out 8 batters and allowing 3 unearned runs and Chris Piazza hurling a scoreless 5th inning. Mike Ziebell hit 2 home runs, a single and S.O.E. 2 times, Chris Piazza singles, homered in the tennis court and walked twice. Ray Ziebell 2 hits, Joe Calderone 2 hits, Joe Booker 2 hits, John Allegretti 2 hits, Scott Hoffman singled and tripled, Dan Jasinski a triple. Bruce Pribatsky and Ken Ugel played fine defensive game at 3rd base and short stop as did John Gambre in right field. Dennis O'Donovan and Tony Zagone got the 2 Expos hits. Dave Cohen, Dennis O'Donovan and Mike Linhart pitched for the losers.

Red Sox 13 - Padres 3

The Red Sox having their team all together after three weeks, put it together with defense and offense. Dan Busiel and Rich Rinka went 2 for 4. Dave Murray 5 for 5, Rob Pullen, Jim Capek, Bob Pisani 3 for 5, Kevin Goczkeski, Jim Ratcliff, Rick Cohen 2 for 4. A job well done.

Expos 4 - Braves 4

Padres 6 - Red Sox 6

Down 6 to 0 going into the 5th inning and the Red Sox rallied to tie the Padres 6 to 6 in an exciting ball game. Dan Busiel had 2 hits, Bob Pisani delivered the ground ball which brought in the tying run. Rob Pullen helped to save the game with a 7th inning double play in which he had to run beyond 2nd base to track down the ball. Kevin "Worp" Goczkeski also turned in a superb defensive play in the 8th inning in which he stretched over the fence to snag a foul ball. Jim Capek had 2 hits to lead the hitting attack.

Giants 4 - Red Sox 2

The Giants got a break with darkness when the score reverted back to the 5th inning and won 4 to 2 against the Red Sox. Joe Booker pitched 4 innings allowing no hits and no runs. Mike Ziebell came in relief for Ken Ugel and Chris Piazza finished up before the game was called due to darkness. Giant hitters were Chris Piazza, Joe Booker, Scott Hoffman and a big double by John Gambre. Ray Ziebell played his usual fine game at 2nd base. Jim Capek went 3 innings and Dan Busiel allowed no hits, no runs in 3 innings. The Red Sox have improved and really were a tough team. Mother Nature was on the side of the Giants as the game was called because of darkness with the Red Sox in the lead on the basis of a 6 run rally. Unfortunately for the Red Sox the score reverted back to the previous inning with the Giants holding a 4 to 2 lead. A well-played ball game by both teams. Jim Ratcliff went 2 for 2 and had some excellent pick-ups at first base. Dan Busiel also had 2 hits, Dave Murray had 3 hits. Rob Pullen, Jim Capek and Rich Rinka also hit for the Red Sox. Very fine pitching by Dan Busiel to hold down a powerful Giants team. Additionally Kevin Goczkeski and Bob Pisani played very good defense.

Golf Maine Park residents to vote on working cash fund

The Golf Maine Park District has been petitioned to hold a public referendum on the question of establishing a "working cash fund." The referendum has been scheduled for Tuesday, August 9.

Under recently enacted state legislation, a park district is permitted to establish a separate fund - called a working cash fund which can never be depleted. Similar to a savings account, a working cash fund can be established by levying a very small tax for a period not to exceed four years. The tax rate is .025 per $100 of assessed evaluation. That low rate projects out to about $2.50 per year for the average home owner in the Golf Maine Park District - or a total of approximately $10 for the four years in which the levy will be in force.

Once established, a working cash fund acts as an interest-free source of additional short-term funds for the park district only during periods when money is in short supply such as when tax receipts are slow or delinquent. However, the separate working cash fund MUST be replenished from the park district's next year's tax collections. Therefore, a working cash fund not only saves the park district - and its property owners - money by allowing it to operate without borrowing funds in anticipation of tax revenues, but also grows by accumulating interest when it is not being used for park district operations. This year alone, the Golf Maine Park District was forced to borrow a total of $140,000 against expected tax receipts - at a cost of approximately $4,000 in interest. It is not difficult to see that a working cash fund, once established would save the park district and its residents a great deal of money.

Your recent tax bills showed that the district has reduced its tax requirements and your next tax bills which include another reduction. However, the park district has been forced to work within very stringent fiscal guidelines to accomplish this. Establishment of this working cash fund would help the Golf Maine Park District keep taxes low and still provide sufficient resources to operate adequately when unexpectedly reduced tax receipts or slow tax collections would otherwise force the park district to look for additional, short term funds to continue its day-to-day operations.

Remember to vote on Tuesday, August 9, 1977. The polls will be open between 6 a.m. and 6 p.m.

The polling place for Golf Maine Park District residents living south of Church Street, is at Maine Township Jewish Congregation, 8800 Ballard rd., Des Plaines, Ill.

For park district residents living north of Church st., the polling place is at Mark Twain School, 9401 n. Hamlin, Niles, Ill.

Careful laundry management lowers power bills

In most households the amount of laundry increases with warm weather, says Lynn A. Bredemeyer, University of Illinois Extension Adviser, Home Economics. Careful laundry management can conserve energy and keep power bills down.

Bredemeyer recommends washing only full loads of laundry unless the washing machine permits selection for load size. Care should be taken, however, not to overload the machine.

Heated water should be used only in the washing cycle. Wash water should be no hotter than necessary for adequate soil removal and sanitation. If good laundry techniques are used, only one washing cycle is necessary.

There are several ways to save energy when using a clothes dryer. Bredemeyer warns against overloading the dryer. The dryer cycle and temperature should suit the fabrics being dried.

Clothes should not be overdried. Overdrying wastes energy and shortens the life of fabrics. Removing clothes from the dryer while they are slightly damp also reduces wrinkling and lessens the need for ironing.

If there is no cool-down cycle on the dryer, Bredemeyer recommends using the dryer continually if there will be more than one load. Putting the clothes to be dried in a warm dryer shortens drying time.

Cleaning the lint filter after drying each load of clothes will keep the dryer working efficiently.

Line drying clothes outside on a clothesline definitely saves the energy required by the dryer. But Bredemeyer notes that many laundered items need little or no ironing if dryer dried; they are often much more wrinkled when line dried. The energy used in ironing should be considered as well as the energy saved by line drying.

Credit union names new director

Mrs. Helen Halverson, of Des Plaines, is the newest member of the board of directors of the Norwood Park Catholic Credit Union. She replaces Mrs. Margaret L. Urban of Niles, who resigned April 11 for personal reasons.

Mrs. Halverson, the mother of three, has worked part time for the past 19 years as a medical laboratory technician at Resurrection Hospital, 7435 W. Talcott ave., Chicago. The Norwood Park Catholic Credit Union serves employees of Resurrection Hospital as well as members of 16 Roman Catholic parishes on the far northwest side of Chicago and in Niles, Park Ridge, Harwood Heights and Norridge.

Mrs. Halverson's husband, Donald, is a sales representative for the C.E. Niehoff company, an automobile ignition manufacturer at 4925 W. Lawrence ave. in Chicago.

The credit union board, which has the power to appoint interim vacancies between annual meetings of the membership, formally seated Mrs. Halverson at its July 11 meeting in the Immaculate Conception school faculty room. With her appointment, the board is now at its full complement of 13 directors.

The Norwood Park Catholic Credit Union was founded in 1939 to serve the saving and lending needs of Immaculate Conception parishioners. Expansion into neighboring parishes began in 1970 and continues today. At close of business on June 30, the credit union had 3,424 members and assets of $3.44 million.

In an attempt to remind the public that the Resurrection Hospital Women's Auxiliary accepts more than just clothing for resale at its Bargain Basket thrift shop, Auxiliaries Marie McGeady and Margaret Busam display some of the side variety of items sold at the shop.

However, the Auxiliary does ask those who generously donate items to be selective in their offerings since storage and work areas at the shop are limited.

Persons can bring items for resale in the thrift shop to the store during its regular hours of 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Mondays through Thursdays and Saturday. On Friday the store is open from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. Forms for tax deductions are available at the store.

Illinois immunization program

Immunization procedures are a very important part of your child's early life. They prevent your child from harmful disease such as diphtheria, tetanus, Pertussis, polio, measles, rubella, and mumps. Immunization should begin in the first few months after birth and be completed by the time the child is two years old. The last major rubella epidemic occurred in 1964-1965, resulting in 20,000 deformed babies and 30,000 miscarriages.

The immunizations have been so effective in the past, that people are not aware of having them taken care of now. This results in the possibility of more epidemics occurring, unless we participate in the Illinois Immunization Program.

Illinois law provides that all children shall be protected by immunization against diseases specified by Illinois Department of Public Health. Immunity against the diseases is required for entrance into any Illinois public, private, or parochial elementary school, day care center, or nursery school.

Your family physician or outlying clinics will be able to provide this service for you.

Free, special immunization clinic for Measles, Rubella, Diphtheria, Whooping Cough, Tetanus, and Polio, will be given Friday, August 19, 1977 at Conant high school, 700 e. Congar Trail (intersects route 72), Hoffman Estates. Bring the child's immunization record. Consent is required and a parent or legal guardian must accompany the child. For more information call 298-5800. For more information concerning location of clinics or general information on immunizations call the Morton Grove Village Hall, Health Department, 965-4100, 6300 Lincoln ave.

Blase cites Raffie remarks as 'negative in a political vein'

Mayor Blase of Niles today commented on the statement issued by Maine Township Clerk, Philip Raffie, on incorporation of East Maine Township. He said it was a healthy sign to see a Township Official comment on the problems of the unincorporated area. He went on to say it was very unfortunate that all Mr. Raffie's remarks were negative in a political vein.

Mayor Blase said, "I support the incorporation of East Maine Township. Mayors Volberding of Des Plaines and Butler of Park Ridge agree with me. As Mayors in Maine Township we see and hear about the problems of the unincorporated area each day. We know that politics does not belong in the solution and we have not sought to make a political issue out of it. I urge Mr. Raffie to stop talking politics and start a positive action program for the residents of unincorporated Maine Township."

Mayor Blase went on to say, "The people of Maine Township are tired of politics using the unincorporated area. Mr. Raffie is beating a dead horse. I urge Mr. Raffie to rehire the off duty Sheriff's Police. The people need the protection. Several weeks ago a Niles Policeman arrested a man who had committed two attempt rapes in the unincorporated area in less than one hour. Our policeman went into the unincorporated area to make the arrest. I urge Mr. Raffie to protect the people by rehiring the Sheriff's Police, building inspectors and public health people. We must put politics aside and sit down and solve these problems. If we don't, it won't matter who says what in his next press release. We will have lost the ball game in Maine Township."

Skate fee change for ice rink

by Alice M. Bobula

Season skating tickets for the Ice Rink at Ballard Sports Complex may undergo a trial change for the coming season.

Sports Complex Manager James C. Weidus, Thursday, July 28 proposed to commissioners the idea of decreasing the flat season rate formerly charge, but adding a 50 cent admission fee for each skating session attended.

Five public skating sessions will be offered over a three-day weekend - one on Friday and 2 separate sessions Saturday and on Sunday for 36 weeks.

Lowering the seasonal charge plus anomol admission fee per skater would equate small with large families according to Park Director William Hughes.

"Families of 4 or more will now start paying their way," he noted.

Daily admission without the season pass is expected to remain at $1.50 each session, plus a skate rental fee if required.

In view of present economy said Hughes the decreased season charge would be more pleasing financially to skating families although they would be required to pay the additional fee upon presentation of the season pass.

Park officials anticipate a possible increase in revenue for the Ice Rink thru the new plan.

Revenue has been decreasing annually according to Weidus, down to $3,875 last year for 400 skaters from the previous year's income of $7,000 to $8,000.

"I don't know the population of Niles," observed Weidus humorously, "but there has to be more than 400 people."

In other business Park Commissioners in a continued meeting from July 19 awarded a contract for installation of fire detectors to Audion Systems Co. of Chicago for $2,235 plus a $243 charge for a fire department-required battery back-up of the alarm system.

Four other bids ranged to a high of $4,468.

Park Commissioners said the wide range in price was due to the number of heat sensors offered by each bidder. Park specifications asked minimum requirements as set by the Niles Fire Dept.

Bidding was on a package contract which included the Recreation Center, maintenance garage and the Grennan Heights Gym with a direct hookup to the Niles Fire Dept.

Robert R. McClarren, NSLS director, said the newly-acquired bank will give library patrons access to the 2200 periodical titles most frequently used. He said the consolidated collection is one of the two largest periodical banks in the nation.

The newly-acquired collection will be known as the Metropolitan Periodical Service and, for the present at least, will continue to be operated separately from the System's existing periodical collection, called Central Serials Service.

None of the magazines and newspapers in either collection circulate but are chiefly in microfilm, from which photocopies are made on the same day requests are received, McClarren said.

Library card holders in the 41 public libraries that are members of the NSLS and in the 130 affiliated college, school and special libraries may get copies of requested articles through their own local libraries, McClarren explained. Requests that can be filled by Central Serials Service will be handled there; others will be referred to the Metropolitan Periodical Service. A consolidated list of the holdings in both collections is being developed to facilitate the process.

The North Suburban Library System is assisted in the assumption and operation of the Metropolitan Periodical Service by a two-year grant of Library and Construction Act funds, awarded by the Illinois State Library. A condition of the assistance is that anyone in Illinois, through one of the 17 other library systems in the state, may use the service at cost. The service is also available for a fee to libraries outside the state.

Through the consolidation of the two periodical collections, the Associated Colleges of the Midwest will also receive expanded service.

"This is an example of reducing costs and accelerating service by inter-library cooperation," McClarren said.

Robby Brown of Gymnastics Unlimited in Addison scored 76.55 and should be a top competitor in the intermediate division next year. Bob Klawitter of Oak Park-River Forest scored 74.5.

Top Illinois performer in the advanced division was Kelly Crumley who scored 97.2 all around to place 11th. Crumley missed qualifying for the

NORTH MAJORS

The fantastic Midas Muffler Red Sox captured the North Majors championship with a thrilling come-from-behind victory over the TIT Bell & Gossett Athletics. Manager Bill Horewicz, elated over the win, stated, "This team won not because of one or two 'stars' but because of an all-out team effort." When the game started it appeared to be a runaway as the Red Sox led off with a walk followed by singles by Bob Elliott and Bob Wolf, all with no outs. But superb pitching by Joey Rodgers held the Sox to just one run. In the Athletics' half of the 1st, catcher's interference call plus a base hit tied the game at 1 apiece. Then in the bottom of the 3rd the Athletics erupted for 2 runs off pitcher Andy Kupciet. Two singles and an error led to the 2 runs. It looked like the 3-1 lead would hold up when the Red Sox came to bat in the 5th. A walk to Wolf followed by a long triple by Andy Kupciet tied the game at 3-3. The Athletics came right back with 2 hits and scored a run to take a 4-3 lead into the 6th. A lead-off walk to Ken Lammersfeld started the Red Sox 6th. Then with 2 outs Dave Olzowski came through with a base hit scoring Lammersfeld. A hit by Elliott was wasted as Olzowski was nailed at the plate to retire the side. In the Athletics' 6th a leaping catch by Lammersfeld at third base of a line drive off the bat of John Vaessen ended the inning and sent the game into overtime. Vaessen became the new pitcher for the Athletics, and he was promptly touched for hits by Andy and Mike Kupciet and Willie Flax. This put the Sox ahead, 6-4. Mike Kupciet took over the pitching chore from his brother and held the Athletics scoreless although they threatened with 2 men on base. Thus Mike Kupciet received a save, his first, and Andy Kupciet got the win to finish with a 7-1 pitching record. The Red Sox had a season record of 14 wins, 2 losses; and six Red Sox finished the season batting over .300. Andy Kupciet finished at .600.

SENIOR LEAGUE ALL-STARS
Morton Grove's Senior League All-Stars will play for the District 16 championship on July 23 at Libertyville. The tournament started last week as the Morton Grove team faced the Great Lakes All-Stars and routed them 18-8. Mike Biskis went the distance for Morton Grove and he was ably assisted by a hot Morton Grove offense. Kevin O'Brien had an outstanding day at the plate with 2 doubles and a single. Also powering the offense was Phil Wax, Louis Glauner, Jim Sundblom, and Mike Brown. Outstanding defense by Kevin O'Brien at short robbed the Great Lakes batters time after time of base hits. Jim Sundblom and Bill Egan, alternating in center field, held Great Lakes' men to singles with some great throws into second. After defeating Great Lakes, Morton Grove went on to play Libertyville's All-Stars. Again they won big, beating Libertyville 14-1. Phil Wax pitched the whole game and helped his cause with a home run. Teammate Mike Baron also blasted a 2-run homer. Baron was also the catalyst in a super double play in the 1st inning, catching a high pop-up and throwing to first to double the runner off. Also notable was Jim Sundblom's diving match in center field which brought the crowd to their feet.

the North. The North Majors All-Stars took on the Skokie Indians in the opening round last Sunday and were shut out 4-0. Starting pitcher Andy Kupciet had a shaky 1st inning giving up 3 hits as the Indians jumped out in front 2-0. Morton Grove could not even muster a hit off a super Indian pitcher. In the Skokie 4th, a lead-off walk scored on a wild pitch to give them a 3-0 lead. Morton Grove's only rally of the day came in their half of the 4th when John Herbert led off with a walk. One out later, with Herbert on third, Bob Gurolnick hit a long deep fly ball to right field apparently scoring Herbert. However, in a debated call, he was ruled out for leaving the base too soon, ending the threat. Kupciet was hit again in the 6th giving up a walk and a single, and was replaced on the mound by Jay Lehrfeld who yielded an RBI single. However, a second Skokie runner was cut down at the plate on a fine throw by right fielder Andy Kupciet to catcher John Herbert. The Skokie Pitcher fired a no-hitter and the final score was 4-0. Only other Morton Grovers to reach base besides John Herbert were Dave Wortsman and Joey Rodgers, both of whom walked. The next outing for Morton Grove North Majors All-Stars is in the Buffalo Grove Tournament coming up soon.

SOUTH MAJORS ALL-STARS

The South Majors All-Stars got as far as the third round of the National Little League Tournament despite the strong belief that the North had the overwhelming team. The opening round saw the South romp over the Skokie VFW All-Stars 15-0. Pitchers Eric Frank and Peter Joseph put together the shutout helped by a tough defense. Outstanding in this respect were Mike Weiss, Paul Calderone, Mike Nahabedian, and Steve Karbowski. Mike Dahm hit a 2-run homer to spark the offense. Their next outing, against the strong Lincolnwood All-Stars, saw them come from a 7-2 deficit to win 8-7. The Lincolnwood team took Morton Grove by surprise when they came out bunting and quickly jumped to a lead. Paul Calderone and Mike Ruedanz teamed up for the victory, with Ruedanz pitching three strong innings in relief to pick up the win. Again, alert baserunning, a strong defense, and a never-say-die offense were the keys to the victory. The third round saw Morton Grove face the Skokie Indians, the same Indians who had no-hit the North All-Stars on opening day. The South took a 1-0 lead in the 1st as Paul Calderone tripled and stole home. Bob Goldberg at second base robbed Skokie batters twice in the bottom of the 1st with a stab of a line drive smash and a diving stop of a hard hit ground ball. Four Skokie runs scored in the 2nd as Morton Grove's usually fine defense faltered and three errors were committed. In the 3rd 2 runs scored for Morton Grove cutting Skokie's lead to a single run. Pitcher Eric Frank retired Skokie in order in their half of the 3rd. Morton Grove threatened again in the 4th and 5th leaving 2 men on base in the 4th and 1 on in the 5th. Skokie started playing long ball in the 4th and 5th. One run came across in the 4th on a solo home run and 3 runs scored in the 5th as Morton Grove's defense again seemed to fall apart at the seams. Peter Joseph came in to pitch with no outs and balked, moving a runner to scoring position. The run scored but the inning ended with back-to-back strikeouts by Joseph. Morton Grove didn't give up; they fought back to load the bases in the 6th. Mike Nahabedian walked and stole 2nd. One out later, Bob Goldberg walked. At this point, a new Skokie Pitcher was brought in to face Paul Calderone. He drew a walk to load the bases. Much credit goes to the South whose play was, at times, awe-inspiring. Other members of this great squad are Scott Hewicker, Mike Simkins, Pat Meehan, Kevin Garner, and Dave Fickert. Manager is Paul Calderone and coach is Ed Weiss. The South All-Stars now proceed to a tournament hosted by Buffalo Grove.

The BUSINESS Picture

North West Federal assets climb to $717 million

North West Federal Savings experienced excellent growth during the first half of 1977, David J. Denwood, president, announced.

Assets increased more than $83 million, climbing to an all-time high of $717,387,087.03 on June 30, 1977. Savings rose $70.6 million to $595.3 million. Mortgage loans increased $55.6 million to $624.1 million.

More than $16.9 million in savings interest was paid to North West Federal savers during the first half of this year. Reserves climbed to $23.4 million.

At present, over 138,000 savers and 18,000 borrowers transact business at North West Federal.

"Our continued good growth tells us that our savers and home owners have confidence in our goals and operating policies," said Denwood. "We continually strive to offer more and better services. Soon we'll be opening our new North West Community Center which will benefit our customers and the community."

"Additional plans for improvement and growth are on the drawing board and will be announced in the near future. We are proud of our ability to be of service," concluded Denwood.

North West Federal Savings has five offices in the Chicago area: 4901 W. Irving Park rd., and 6665 N. Northwest highway, Chicago; 4208 N. Harlem ave., Norridge; 2454 Dempster st., Des Plaines; and 904 Algonquin rd., Arlington Heights.

Glenview State Bank offers high interest notes

John H. Beaulieu, President of Glenview State Bank, recently announced the bank's new offering to the public of 8 1/2% capital notes. These notes, which are due in 1988, reflect the continual growth of the bank which opened in 1921. "As we grow, so does our need for increased capitalization. We are proud of Glenview State Bank's impressive record; our closing statement for the first six months of 1977 reflect total assets of $188,024,407. Once again, we are anticipating a very favorable response to our capital note offering, not only because of the bank's reputation, but also because of the 8 1/2% interest rate which represents an excellent return in today's money market," Beaulieu stated.

Glenview State Bank ranks 631 among the 1000 largest banks in the United States and last year increased its legal lending limit to $1,000,000 for a single borrower.

Skokie Federal reports record growth

Savings increased a substantial $14 million in the first half of 1977 according to Skokie Federal president John R. O'Connell.

Association assets also reached a record high of $189 million, up from $165 million at the first of the year reported Mr. O'Connell.

Mortgage loans posted significant gains in reaching a record high of almost $163.9 million, an increase of $20 million in the first six months.

Savers received $2.4 million in dividends in the June 30th interest period.

"Our continued growth reflects the confidence Skokie area residents have placed in our association since its beginning twenty years ago."

We also reaffirm our commitment to continue the financial and social contribution we have made to the community," said Mr. O'Connell.

Talman Federal's assets up by $133 million

The assets of Talman Federal Savings and Loan Association, 5501 S. Kedzie ave., increased by $133 million for the six-month period ending June 30, 1977, according to an announcement by Dimitry Wanda, Talman's President and Chairman of the Board. Assets totaled $1,764,171,921 and reflect an 8.2% growth since the beginning of the year.

In making this announcement, Mr. Wanda also reported a six-month savings growth of $106 million raising total savings at Talman to $1.44 billion. Interest paid to savers hit a new high, reaching $44,383,795 for the six months.

In the same period, total mortgage lending activity climbed to $261.9 million and represented the largest six-month lending volume in Talman's fifty-five year history. It is almost double the figure Talman reported for the first six months in 1976.

General reserves and surplus reached $76 million as of June 30. This is an increase of $4.1 million since the first of the year.

In commenting on these figures, Mr. Wanda said, "We are pleased with our operating results for the first six months of the year. And we're optimistic for the remainder of the year. The economy is growing at a moderate, sustainable pace, unemployment is dropping, and even inflation appears to be easing."

"Although the economy has picked up nicely, people are still cautious in their spending, preferring to invest their money safely and profitably as they can do in savings and certificate accounts."

"In the area of lending," Mr.

Wanda went on, "our large savings inflows enabled us to increase our mortgage lending. Loan demand at Talman has been very heavy since the beginning of the year, so great in fact that we witnessed our greatest lending activity ever."

Founded in the Southwest side of Chicago in 1922, Talman has grown to become the second largest savings institution in Illinois and one of the largest in the country. And Talman has grown in the number of offices it operates, which now totals nine. In addition to its home office at 55th and Kedzie, Talman operates full-service facilities in downtown Chicago, Skokie, Schaumburg, Oak Park, Glen Ellyn, Oak Lawn, Orland Park, and Aurora. A Talman office in the Piper's Alley shopping complex in Chicago's Old Town is scheduled to open later this year.

Resurrection's family practice center opens

The first family to be treated at Resurrection Hospital's newly opened Family Practice Center found just what it was looking for in the center, one doctor to serve each member of the family.

The Melvin Thomas family of Park Ridge had a family doctor who retired recently and was looking for another doctor in the community.

But, says Thomas, "we found that we would have to send our sons to one doctor, our daughter to another doctor, and that my wife would have to go to a third doctor."

Then his wife, Patricia, heard about the hospital's plans for a family practice center and the family decided to avail itself of the center's services.

During their first visit to the center, Mr. Thomas was given a general physical and son, Wayne, a camp physical. A check was also made to see that daughter Sharon's immunizations were up-to-date.

"The center offers us the advantages of having one location to go for a doctor's visit and one doctor to call if we have any questions or in case of an emergency," says Thomas. "The center also is convenient, being just 2½ minutes from the house."

The center opened recently with the first three physicians to have enrolled in the hospital's family practice residency program serving as the center's physician staff members.

The opening fulfills a commitment made some four years ago by the hospital's sister governing board, administration, medical staff and medical education committee to develop the family practice residency program and provide additional health care services to the surrounding community.

"The center's three physician staff members are well-qualified graduate physicians who have completed their medical education and have earned their M.D. degrees to practice medicine," says Dr. Thomas Tomasik, director of the center.

These graduate physicians are enrolled in the three-year residency program which is designed to provide them with a stimulating experience in a model family practice setting. They will be imbued with the philosophy of family practice and with an understanding of the role of the family physician.

The purpose and function of the family physician is to serve as the first contact with the patient and provide a means of entry into the health care system, and whenever possible, offer the same comprehensive health care to other family members. This comprehensive health care includes preventive medicine and diagnostic, therapeutic, rehabilitative and health-maintenance services.

The family practice center offers many families in the hospital's service area the opportunity for the services of a family physician. The facility is located on the first floor of the Professional Building adjacent to the hospital.

Area residents can avail themselves of the services of the center by calling 774-9144 and requesting an application.

"We are primarily looking for people who do not have a family physician at this time and who want to become involved in a family practice center where the entire family is enrolled," says Sister Mary Gerard, C.R., assistant administrator.

The center is able to serve family members of all ages and provide comprehensive health care services, including management and treatment of acute and chronic illness, emergency care, rehabilitation services, preventive medicine, health hazard appraisal and health education. The center will be able to give routine examinations and school physicals, manage obstetrical cases, give checkups and physical exams of infants and children and handle all other matters which concern a family's health.

Olympians, a 6-time winner of the Amateur Athletics Union Championships and holds the American women's record for the running high jump, the 400 meter relay and the 440 dash.

What had to be the most exciting telephone call in her life came Tuesday, July 26 at 11 a.m. from the Indiana Hall of Fame.

She began to get excited, she said, remembering an Olympics teammate told her in 1975 that Kelly had been nominated and her credentials sent to the Hall of Fame.

"When the Executive Director, Dave Woods, asked Tuesday morning whether I could leave for Washington on the 13th and be inducted on the 14th," said Kelly, "all I could say is 'Oh, I'll be there.'" From then on "everything went so fast!"

According to the Director, only 100 men and women have been inducted into the Hall of Fame, initiated approximately four or five years ago.

Born in Boston and bred in Chicago "near Broadway and Devon," the Niles housewife credits her fantastic athletic career to her parents (now deceased) who "never held me back"; to an elementary school teacher, Margaret Leimer, who bought a 10-year-old girl her first spike shoes and running outfit (in those days of depression) and to Coach Frank Hill (deceased) of Northwestern University, who encouraged her "all the way."

The first woman ran in track Olympics in 1928. Kelly made it in 1932. "We were the pioneers in those days, coming up the hard way, digging holes in the ground and running in cinders... now it's astro turf and starting blocks."

"My goal was to be a teacher but those were depression days. Mom and Dad couldn't afford to send me to college, but I was determined to attend Northwestern University. I made the Olympics in 1932 and with the help of Margaret Leimer who talked to the Dean, was accepted at Northwestern under a scholarship with the understanding I had to maintain a "B" average. I worked in the school education library to earn the $50 needed per semester."

She remained in training for the 1936 Olympics. "The main thing is making the Olympic team," she emphasized, "not getting the medal." One takes an oath to partake in the Olympics "to honor your country."

In those days she noted it was necessary to win each event, as compared to the present when "timing and standards" are more important. Each division became tougher, but when she placed in the Dyke Stadium tryouts, she knew she was going to the Los Angeles Olympics.

"But going to Berlin for the 1936 Olympics was something else." She won the preliminaries in Chicago, going on to the Olympic tryouts in Providence, R.I. and "When I placed in three events, I knew I was on the Olympic team."

Of the 500 athletes headed for the Berlin Olympics, she noted there were only 16 in track and field. "We went over on the S.S. Manhattan and after 6 days on the water," said the Irish lass "the first land we saw - at 4 a.m. - was Ireland. We all bawled to see the green grass and white houses."

The athletes went on to Berlin "not realizing the dangers all around... swastikas and OSS troops were everywhere, but no one bothered us. Hitler in his enthusiasm for physical culture went all out to greet us but ignored the Jewish and the black athletes completely."

After winning her gold medal in the 1936 Olympics, Kelly remained in competition for another year or two, then returned to co-chair in physical education at Northwestern University. She was advised by fellow teachers to "hang up her spikes and start teaching -- then the U.S. went to war."

After taking a teaching position in Chicago schools, she was considered a professional, no longer eligible for sports.

Kelly married Peter, "a good Irishman" in 1948, moving into Niles in 1954. When her husband retired last September, she followed suit.

They have 3 children, Kevin, 26, a Los Angeles photographer; Terry 24, a job consultant in Des Plaines and 19-year-old Kathleen, an art major at Southern Illinois University who has worked at the Niles Park District for 3 years. "The boys were active in athletics, but didn't pursue it after high school," she reflected. During her career she won a total of 500 trophies, ribbons and medals. "In those days," she reminisced, "one first won ribbons then medals"... to win trophies "you really had to be tops."

She still feels the thrill of winning but her husband has maintained permanent care of the medals, setting the "significant" ones on a plaque and other on a bracelet which she doesn't wear because it "jangles too much."

The gold Olympic medals are encased, floating, in plastic. Victory ceremonies then were "thrilling," she remembered. "Real olive leaves were placed in our hands, just as was done in Grecian days. Then we were presented with the medal, in a box."

"There is nothing more beautiful..."

a policeman grabbed Garrity by the hair and back of the pants and pulled him away.

Kuhn's brother-in-law, Bob Rosencranz, who was also at the scene, was taken into the police car. According to Kuhn, officer Ziegler was then placed in the same car with Rosencranz. Kuhn reported Ziegler began hitting Rosencranz, and the driver of the police car got out of the car, locked it and left the men inside.

Kuhn told The Bugle Tuesday he was not as concerned with Ziegler's actions as he was with the other Niles policemen. He said one came to his store the next day and told him, "You know how it was in high school, we all stuck together." He added the policemen are colleagues implying they back one another up.

Kuhn said he had not decided if he would take civil action though he was concerned about continuing to do business in Niles.

Niles police Sergeant Ray Giovanelli reported Ziegler appeared before the Niles Police and Fire Commission Monday, and received a 15 day suspension without pay. He was cited for intoxication, conduct unbecoming an officer, civility and an altercation.

Giovanelli told The Bugle two of the men, Kuhn, and Rosencranz, were arrested on the scene but released. Kuhn was handcuffed and then released.

Niles police reported Kuhn had grabbed Ziegler and Rosencranz had struck him. He said Rosencranz was placed in a police car and while he contended he was hit by Ziegler inside the car, there were no witnesses to substantiate his charges.

According to Giovanelli, he confirmed Kuhn's statement an ambulance was called to the scene to aid the battered woman, but it was dismissed at the scene. He said no ambulance report was logged by Niles or the North Maine Fire Department, but he thought the Niles ambulance would be the likely one called to the scene. Niles Fire Chief Al Hoelbl told The Bugle no ambulance was logged at that time or for that location.

Giovanelli said the conduct of the policemen at the scene will be investigated. While Mrs. Kuhn said "We stopped the policeman who was beating up the woman we're not mad at him." But she said, "We were mad at the officers who came to the scene." She said they handled themselves like some "cool" high school kids from the '60's, rallying around their colleague.

opening scheduled for Tuesday, August 23, at 1:30 p.m.

A general contract bid for exterior masonry and interior construction will be opened on Tuesday, August 30, at 1:30 p.m.

The building will have a gross area of about 214,000 square feet and will consist of art labs, occupation and science labs, classrooms, accounting classrooms, offices, Learning Resource Center, dining and kitchen.

The permanent campus is located on the east side of the Des Plaines River between Golf and Central Roads in Des Plaines. Construction began with site development in the Fall 1975. Completion of Phase I will provide space for about 3600 of the 6200 students presently attending Oakton.

winning games. The Cubs were always down near the bottom so the Sox were getting most of the headlines.

In my pre-teen days in the 30's, the Cubs were the big team in town. They won pennants every 3 years from '29-'38 and again in '45. If you grew up then, all you read about in Chicago was about the Cubs. The Sox news copy was around the obituary page, between Solters and Szolowski. With names like Hartnett, Herman, Jorges, Cuyler, Malone, Root, Hack, Grimm and Galan, there was little room left for Appling and Lyons, the only bonafide major leaguers on the southside.

You, Mr. Lerner, decry the Irish writers who favor the southside and its southeast suburb, South Bend, where Notre Dame plays. Well, You and I are of the same persuasion, but I grew up Irish. In my old neighborhood, in the shadow of St. Columbanus, lived sports writer Gleason, footballer George Connors, among many illustrious neighbors. I was playing team softball and football games before I arrived in second grade. Sports wasn't a way of life on the southside. It was all there was. I still remember to this day letting a grounder pass me by at first base, and being ostracized by every guy on the block for several days afterward. I was only 6 or 7 years old.

You write about the Irish and Chicago's Irish sports-writers. Well, Chicago's southside was Irish. And Notre Dame was a sanctity which had no competitors.

Saturday afternoon in the fall we'd rush over to Columbanus where my guys would hurry thru Confession, and then rush back home to listen to Grahame McNamee extol Notre Dame's fighting Irish. There was never a soul on the streets Saturday afternoon between 2 and 4. You would have been disloyal if you were outside the house.

As a Chicago sports fan you learned to love and hate. When I read where you like the Sox AND the Cubs, I'm horrified. In my Chicago you loved one team and spewed hatred on the other. We would go into the playground in late afternoon and battle for hours over the merits and demerits of the teams we backed. My love for the White Sox was unfettered. And hatred for the Cubs was equally as ardent. I also learned with ease to hate the Yankees. And after supporting a loser for so many years, I soon got to despise Notre Dame. I became venomous toward success.

So Mr. Lerner, remember you grew up when the Sox were up and the Cubs were down. I grew up in the opposite era. And the dumb sports writers follow the tide.

Chicago is a winners' town. The fans support a winner, and stay home when a team is a loser. When Mr. Leibling coined Chi town as the "second city", he may have been right. We've had second rate teams thru the years, second rate writers, and fans were conditioned to become second rate fans. No town has had less winners, and no town has had poorer owners, who had less thought for the fans.

After the Black Sox scandal in 1919, the Sox became a financial liability which was mostly owned by the First National Bank of Chicago. During the ensuing 58 years the Sox have won once. Since '38 the Cubs have won once in 39 years, a wartime club which disintegrated when the major leaguers came back home in '46. The Sox lacked money to create a decent club for 30 years. And the Cubs were the most mismanaged team in all of baseball. The fans, Mr. L, got the short end of the bat, and got a baseball stuck in their ears. The sports writers got their freebies, and wrote enough mush to keep the natives quiet, which resulted in no demand for a winner. Only during recent years, when the writers are beginning to "tell it as it is," did the fans begin to demand better teams. Mr. Halas raped his football followers, and the hockey owners at the Stadium, were so interested in the fans that you had to buy a beer, because the water faucets were non-existent.

We're rambling Mr. Lerner, so we'll end this diatribe. Don't expect much from the Chicago sports pages nor the Chicago radio-TV stations. A town which can take Jack Brickhouse and Vince Lloyd year after year knows how to endure pain. Having been mesmerized on the sports pages for all these years, they dutifully listen to the worst broadcasting in the entire nation (when the Cubs play).

Chicago is hopeless. Even Bill Veck decimated the Sox in the 60's, and watch out when he decides to sell this franchise.

Despite my despair I know there's not another show in town. And I love the dumb city and its rickety ballparks, and its carcinogenic-smoke-filled stadium and the worst football stadium in America along its lakefront, which is also the coldest place south of Antarctica, to watch a game.

But what the hell. Chicago's all I got. And I'll be out at Sox Park tonight because they're winning.

Last year I didn't go to one game.

CRIME PREVENTION TIPS

Keep a dog at your house if you can. If he makes noise (and most dogs will) that's enough to cause a burglar to look for easier - and quieter - pickings.

Police send pharmacies security manuals

Pharmacy security manuals were recently delivered to all Morton Grove pharmacies by the police department.

The manual was prepared by Smith, Kline & French Laboratories. The book includes information on robbery prevention, burglary prevention, internal security, burglar alarm systems and many other ideas to assist the pharmacies in adding to their security.

The manual makes suggestions on improving security, and gives ideas for interior protection and internal security. The book was written for both large and small pharmacies.

The Morton Grove Police Crime Prevention Bureau can assist any local businesses or residents in crime prevention ideas and techniques. The Crime Prevention Bureau can be contacted by calling 966-7800 on weekdays between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m.

Boy wanted for Kubrick film

Stanley Kubrick will be directing "THE SHINING," a motion picture for Warner Bros., starring Jack Nicholson and Shelley Duval, based upon the novel by Stephen King, published by Doubleday, to be filmed in London, England, this winter.

One of the major parts will be played by an as yet unknown boy of between 5 and 7 years of age. Casting interviews for this role will take place, in Chicago, shortly. No previous acting experience is necessary.

Parents who are interested in having their son auditioned in Chicago, should send a photograph of the child, writing on the back of it, their name, address, telephone number, and the child's date of birth. The photograph should be mailed to, "THE SHINING," Warner Bros., 550 W. Jackson Blvd., Chicago, Ill., 60606.

A preliminary selection will be made by Mr. Kubrick from these photographs, and the parents of the boys selected will be contacted for an interview in Chicago.

Lincolnwood Library seeks donations of used books

The Friends of the Lincolnwood Library are looking for those old books gathering dust on the shelves of Lincolnwood homes.

"You know the kind we mean," said Flora Morris, chairperson of the Friends' Used Book Sale, upcoming on August 20. "Everyone has some. Books you really don't want anymore but don't know what to do with. Kids' books that belonged to sons and daughters who've grown up and moved away. Grandma's books on tating and crocheting. Reference books you don't need because you know it all. Health food books you don't use because you've gone back to the doctor. Fix-it books from the time your husband had a checkbook with no funds in it. Rare and antique books because you've found them too expensive to collect."

The Lincolnwood Friends of the Library are asking their neighbors to drop off gift books at the Lincolnwood Library, 4100 W. Pratt before August 12. The gifts are tax deductible.

Some of the gift books will be added to the library's collection. Those that can't be used in the library - because of duplication, for example, will be offered in the Friends' Book Sale. In either case, the library will benefit, Mrs. Morris pointed out.

The sale will be from 10:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday, August 20, in the Terrace Room of St. John's Lutheran Church 4707 W. Pratt, Lincolnwood. St. John's Church has donated the space as a public service.

OCC Board plans search for eastern facility

The Board of Trustees of Oakton Community College has retained Neil King as real estate consultant to assist in locating a site for an eastern facility for the college.

King, president of King Realty, Inc. of Skokie and a resident of Winnetka, will assist the Board in researching available properties with a minimum of three acres of parking or potential parking and approximately 50,000 square feet of building space.

College officials indicate that the college seeks to move into the eastern facility by Fall 1979. Leases on the Interim Campus at Oakton and Nagle in Morton Grove expire in January 1980.

Search for the second facility would include the area approximately one mile west of Edens Expressway to one mile east of McCormick or Green Bay rd. and from Howard st. on the south to Willow rd. on the North, according to Paul D. Gilson, chairman of the OCC Board of Trustees.

Gilson said that a second phase in the search for the second facility would include employing other consultants for in-depth studies, including surveys on traffic, for sites selected by the board.

Oakton trustees have stated the intention of the college to establish a satellite facility in the eastern half of the Oakton district at various times since the selection of the Des Plaines River site for the permanent campus, Gilson noted.

In addition, the college this fall has 12 extension centers throughout the district and plans to continue developing these community locations for college-credit courses.

George W. Henning

George W. Henning Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Henning of 9506 Lawler ave., Skokie, has been commissioned a Navy Ensign and received a Bachelor of Science Degree upon graduation from the U.S. Naval Academy in Annapolis, Md.

He is a 1973 graduate of Niles North High School.

Mikva bill fosters international cooperation on retirement benefits

Legislation introduced by Congressman Abner J. Mikva would enable international cooperation on retirement benefits so that a person moving from one country to another would receive the total amount of retirement funds to which he or she is entitled.

The bill, which has been referred to the Social Security Subcommittee of the House Ways and Means Committee, would authorize the President to enter into agreements with other nations providing for cooperation between our Social Security system and the agreeing country's retirement benefit program. Congressman Mikva is a member of the Social Security Subcommittee.

The result would be that naturalized citizens in this country and people who moved from the United States to another country included in the agreements would be able to total their time of employment in each country in order to receive full retirement benefits. Without the legislation, such people would continue to be denied benefits under either country's system if their total time of employment in either country does not qualify them for retirement benefits under either country's retirement benefit program.

"People who have worked all their lives are entitled to some financial security in retirement. Until now, people who have moved from one country to another have lost out on the fruits of their labor because each nation's retirement program is based solely on the number of years of work in that country," Congressman Mikva said. "Under the legislation I am sponsoring, a worker would receive retirement benefits from both countries in proportion to the length of his or her employment in that country."

"Totalization" agreements, as they are called, have already been entered into between the United States and West Germany and the United States and Italy. Congressional approval is required, however, and passage of Mikva's bill would implement these two agreements.

"People who would benefit in particular from passage of this legislation are former German citizens, many of whom were victims of Nazi persecution, who left Germany after several working years. They would be able to obtain retirement benefits for which they had qualified through employment in Germany, or they would have the option of contributing to the West German social security system to become eligible for benefits," Congressman Mikva explained.

"I hope my colleagues will support this action to guarantee old age and disability benefits for so many of our naturalized citizens," Mikva concluded.
