OK parochial busing funds in District 67

by Deby Eisenberg

District 67 school board members reversed their previous decision to deny public funds for parochial school busing and voted to allow these reimbursements to parents for the 1979-80 school year. This action took place at the June 12 school board meeting at Golf Jr. High.

Last month the board, by a close decision, had voted not to appropriate public school funds to pick up partial bus costs for students within their district attending private schools. Until 2 years ago high school district 219 had paid this bill, but the courts had ruled that illegal.

Currently, there is legislation pending in Springfield on the issue and school districts are allowed to make their own decisions until a definite law is passed.

At the May school board meeting, board members had not realized that their vote denying these funds was applied to the 1979-80 school year now ending, rather than the upcoming one. Parochial school parents would be slapped with costs they had not been prepared for.

by David (Bud) Besser

Monday, July 7, the Maine Township troops will trek down to Maine North to discuss plans for the closing of high schools in high school district 207.

The past several months a district-wide citizens committee has been studying the future needs in the school district and will present its results at the upcoming meeting.

While the committee did not recommend which school or schools will be closed, Maine North supporters are the ones who are first in the line of parents whose school is likely to be closed. The 1,800 student population there pre-supposes the closing. Sister schools to the south and west are all closer to the 3,000 figure.

The most surprising news to come out of the citizens' committee discussion is the real possibility a second school will be closed during the first half of the 80's. The rapid decline of student population is descending so quickly a second school could close by the mid-80's. It was suggested the second school might be rented rather than sold.

We were told Monday some Maine West parents said they would secede from the union of schools if their Des Plaines school was closed. And you can be sure Park Ridge parents would start a revolution if their beloved Maine South was shuttered.

Admittedly, Maine South and Maine West do have a community identity lacking at the other two schools. Both schools are primarily institutions for one community as opposed to Maine East and North.

You could guess Maine East might be the second school to be the likely candidate for closing by 1985 or '86. But this speculating would only be a guess without much merit.

If the financial crunch, which is hitting elementary districts, moved into the high school areas, any school would be fair game for closing. In our district, any school but Maine South.

We've always had a bit of a chip on our shoulder about Maine Southies dominating the running of the school district. There's an old adage government protects and works mostly for the upper echelon. Whether its oil companies or the Chase Manhattan Bank or the blue chips in Park Ridge, you

Tuesday night Niles Park Board approved its 1980-81 budget and appropriation which calls for a 7% budget increase to $2,451,300 and its total appropriation up 11% to $3,696,600.

Money anticipated through taxation would be $1,306,850 while estimated receipts from sources other than taxation is expected to be about $2,335,650.

A breakdown of the appropriation shows personnel services come to $47,000. Contractual services for administration which includes accounting, legal, insurance, gas, electric, office furniture and other administration costs would be $133,500.

In the corporate fund parks and facilities maintenance totals $187,000 was appropriated. Contractual services in the parks and facilities for water, electricity, gas and other services totaled $35,000.

The corporate fund summary totaled $403,000 for the budget and $577,000 for the appropriation. This includes administration costs, parks and facilities maintenance and development, transfer to facilities and depreciation and replacement.

One figure noted is $75,000 appropriated for the ice rink deficit. In the recreation program fund

Medicare premium increase in July

Beginning July 1980, the monthly premium for Part "B" of Medicare will increase from $8.70 to $9.60. The new rate will last through June, 1981.

Medicare Part "B," also called Medicare Medical Insurance, helps pay for doctor bills, medical supplies, home health care and other services.

People who have the premiums deducted from their social security checks may not notice the increase because it will be more than offset by the 14.3 percent cost of living increase in benefit checks received in July.

The $9.60 is only about one third of the actual cost of the Medicare Part "B" insurance premium. The Federal government pays the remainder from general tax revenues.

For more information, call the social security Teleservice number for this area, 823-0815, or contact the Des Plaines office at 701 Lee St., Suite 420.

Workers' Compensation reforms needed

Senator John J. Nimrod, R-Glenview, declared today that unless the business community of Illinois—and the groups representing them—become very active in the next week or two, the General Assembly will again make only cosmetic and meaningless changes in the State's Workers' Compensation Law.

"It is so very obvious that we need reforms in the law," said Senator Nimrod, "in order to change the anti-business climate so that we can stop the exodus of plants from our state that are costing hundreds of thousands of jobs.

"The Workers' Compensation bill that passed the Senate, and was sent to the House of Representatives did not provide for the establishment of any kind of standards, did not provide any definitions and did not make the changes that would in fact stabilize the accelerating insurance premiums the employers are forced to pay.

"The Senate-passed bill did not take into account that under present laws there will be a 500 percent increase in insurance premiums during the next ten years, because of accelerating payments during the same period of time.

"The already deficient Senate bill—which is now in the House—has been assigned to sponsors who are responsive to the demands of labor leaders.

"Labor leaders have indicated that when the bill went to the House of Representatives, they would amend the bill into a more 'satisfactory form,' which basically means removing the two provisions that addressed payments for pre-existing conditions—unrelated to the job—and the problem of 'Doctor Shopping.'

"Governor Thompson has repeatedly said that he will veto any Workers' Compensation bill that does not provide meaningful relief to the business community. In these final days of the 1980 Spring Session, I urge the Governor to keep pressure on the Legislature to provide meaningful relief.

"We can amend the Workers' Compensation law and still provide the highest benefits in the nation so that manufacturing plants will not move to neighboring states.

"Hopefully, the Senate will amend the Workers' Compensation House bills this week so that we can live up to our agreement that meaningful changes in the law are needed," added Senator Nimrod.

Report nears on minimum competency

Senator John J. Nimrod, R-Glenview, said today that he is pleased the State Board of Education has completed its study of minimum competency testing.

"SB 238, (PA 80-1412), which I introduced three years ago," said Senator Nimrod, "required the State Board of Education to prepare procedures and materials to encourage and assist local school districts to develop minimal competency testing programs. A report is to be made to the General Assembly by the end of this month with recommendations for legislation."

"The State Board has complied with the mandate. However, I am disappointed that during their three-year study the Board did not provide the General Assembly with needed facts and figures concerning minimum competency testing in each of the local school districts."

"We need a more direct report so that we can find out if our graduating high school students can properly read, write and add. In my opinion, the Legislature should now come up with the authority to implement and enforce the program to ensure that these goals are met. We should be absolutely certain that our youngsters have learned the 'three R's' well enough to get and hold a job or so that they can go on to college."

"I realize that many local school district officials believe that the matter of minimum competency testing should remain their responsibility. I have no quarrel with that. However, we do need legislation saying that if local school districts do not have a minimum competency testing program, the State Board of Education would have the authority to enforce and implement such a program."

"A survey conducted by the State Board indicates that less than one-third of the school districts in Illinois—representing less than 10 percent of the students—will have any kind of a testing program for the 1981-82 school year. This excludes the cities of Chicago and Peoria where the programs are adequate."

"This would indicate to me," said Senator Nimrod, "that over 700 of the 1000 state-wide school districts have done nothing, or very little, in the past two years. "In my opinion, every single school district should have evaluating and testing programs. We need to make sure that our youngsters are at least learning the basics before they are granted a high school diploma."

The policy study done by the State Board of Education says that "imposing minimum competency testing cut-off scores as a criterion for graduation from elementary or secondary school has raised very serious technical, legal and policy questions which have yet to receive satisfactory answers."

Senator Nimrod said he disagrees with that conclusion, arguing that a state-wide program for evaluating or testing would be legal and relatively inexpensive.

"I'm going to introduce a resolution," said Nimrod, "which would set up representatives of both Houses—on Education Committees—to meet with the State Board to review their report to the Legislature and agree on additional legislation that would implement and enforce the evaluation and testing program."

"It is a sad fact that for the first time in the history of our great nation, the young people of today are less knowledgeable than their parents. My fervent hope and wish is to correct this sad commentary about today's generation. The best possible way to begin is to pass legislation evaluating, implementing and enforcing a testing program," added Nimrod.

Chicago Police warn residents

The Chicago Police Department has issued a warning to residents of the city's northwest side and surrounding suburbs to insist on proper identification from utility service people who must enter their homes to read meters.

The above is a composite picture of an unknown white male between 25 and 30 years of age, 5'6" to 5'9" in height, 150 to 160 lbs., who has approached women, working or sunbathing outside their homes on the pretext of reading the water meter inside the house. This generally occurs in the afternoon. After gaining admittance, the women are assaulted.

The man has been described as having a muscular build, brown curly hair and mustache, medium complexion, neatly dressed in blue jeans, blue shirt and boots. He carries a small blue vinyl notebook; however, he has never shown any identification.

The police are cautioning women not to admit anyone into the house until they are certain of their identity. When in doubt, a telephone call to the utility companies or the Water Department is stressed to insure that the man is an authorized service representative working in the area.

For their own safety, the police urge female residents to take the extra time to check.

The presence of any suspicious person should be reported without delay to the Chicago Police Department's emergency number 911.

Holy Family celebrates anniversary & growth

June, 1980 represents a month of milestones at Holy Family Hospital.

On June 12, the hospital observed its 19th anniversary year and the grand opening of its newly renovated Food and Nutritional Services Department. The month also marks the Emergency Department's 5th year of service to area residents in modernized facilities in Holy Family's Mother Frances Pavilion.

During the past 19 years, Holy Family's commitment to providing "personalized, quality care" to residents in Des Plaines and the surrounding communities has become a tradition. "Our Commitment to Your Family" is the theme of the facility's 1979 annual report distributed to area residents in June illustrating the many ways Holy Family is committed to providing personal care and concern.

This concept is exemplified in the hospital's Emergency Department where there has been steady, consistent growth of service to area residents. Responding to the challenges of emergency medicine, the department's success is attributed to a commitment to meeting the total emergency care needs of residents wherever they reside in the Northwest Suburbs.

Inside the Emergency Department—where well over 100,000 area residents have elected to receive care over the past five years—a group of four physicians with extensive background and experience in emergency medicine provide medical coverage. Each physician is a Board Certified Internist and a member of the American College of Emergency Department physicians. Physicians representing all specialties including neurosurgery, cardiology, orthopedics, pediatrics, and obstetrics also are quickly available for emergency consultations and procedures.

The department features eleven treatment areas, each with walls on three sides to facilitate patient privacy. A special trauma unit is equipped to provide the special treatment required by cardiac or multiple trauma cases, and the Des Plaines support equipment is provided. A suite is available for performing minor surgical procedures.

Specialized equipment featured in the department includes portable, LifePak systems. These combination heart monitors and defibrillator units serve as life support systems for the critically ill. Additional equipment such as a Silt Lamp is available to perform comprehensive examinations of the whole eye, including its inner structures. An audiometer booth is provided for performing extensive hearing tests.

The Emergency Department houses a Communications Center where paramedic telemetry equipment is located as well as other emergency medical communications with area police and fire departments. Doctors and qualified nursing personnel communicate directly with paramedics in the Mobile Intensive Care Network treating emergency cases throughout the Northwest Suburbs.

The benefits of visiting a full service hospital's Emergency Department is the availability of comprehensive services. At Holy Family these include "CAT" whole body scanning for three dimensional views of the body's inner structures, and complete Radiology and Laboratory services. Highly skilled nursing personnel administer quality care in the ultra-modern Intensive Care Unit/Cardiac Care Unit, a full range of Cardiac Respiratory services are available, and a Cardiac Rehabilitation Department offers inpatient and outpatient programs.

Adjacent to the Emergency Department is the Orthopedic Suite which includes a large treatment area with three separate rooms. Complete facilities are available for orthopedic exams, cast application and removal, and consultation with your physician.

Whether an area resident requires orthopedic care or a variety of emergency services, the Emergency Department's primary concern is meeting the total needs of the patient and providing personalized immediate service. However, priority must be given to persons who are in the most urgent need of medical attention.

A comfortable, inviting reception area is located across from the Emergency Department and features vending machines offering soft drinks and snacks. In addition, a color television set, magazines and public telephones are available.

In addition to providing personalized, quality care in modern facilities, the Emergency Department offers several community service programs: A state licensed Poison Control Center utilizes a system providing information on more than 6000 poisonous substances, their toxicity and treatment. Residents may call 297-1800, ext. 1017, 24 hours a day, seven days a week for information about poison.

A program called the "K-ID" Tag System helps hospital personnel identify children who usually do not wear personal identification. The child wears a tag featuring his name and phone number of Holy Family Hospital. This information directs the reader to contact the hospital's Emergency Department where a medical data card on each child is kept on file.

In addition to this service, parents in the hospital's service area are encouraged to sign emergency treatment forms enabling medical personnel to initiate care immediately to their child if the parent cannot be contacted. Completion of this form and placing it on file in Holy Family's Emergency Department is especially useful in the event the parents are out of town, enabling hospital personnel to treat children on an emergency basis without delay.

Members of the entire family are invited to receive free blood pressure tests at the Out patient Department, located adjacent to the Emergency Department, every Wednesday afternoon from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. Appraisals of blood pressure levels are given and persons are advised to see their personal physician if their pressure is elevated. Informational literature is distributed.

For additional information about Holy Family's Emergency Department, to obtain a consent for treatment form, or K-ID Tag application, contact the Public Relations Department at 297-1800, ext. 1174, weekdays, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Family Life

by Larry F. Renetzky, ACSW, AAMFT

Recreating or avoiding

"Take me out to the ball game, take me out with the crowd." You know that old favorite, I'm sure. My family and I were singing it to and from a Cubs game recently. We thoroughly enjoyed it, but I noticed something which caused me to reflect upon our use of sports. Though sports are great, healthy and usually therapeutic for you, I have also observed they can be a form of escape, thereby further breaking down family communication.

I was counseling a family where the use of sports by the husband/father helped intensify their marital and family conflict.

I finally concluded that the primary reason for this was due to the husband/father's use of sports as an emotional outlet, while his wife and children suffered emotional starvation.

Sure, there were reasons not entirely his fault that helped to bring this about, but he chose the easy way out through sports rather than having to face his wife or the humility of defeat by his sons.

In other words, it was less threatening and less of a risk to participate in sports by watching them on TV or listening on the radio, or seeing the live sports, than being involved with his wife and children.

Men, be honest. Why do you watch sports on TV, or listen to them on the radio, or see a live sport?

Because you enjoy them, or because you have nothing better to do? Or because you are also using them as an escape and an emotional outlet?

Your involvement in sports through TV, radio, newspaper, magazines or live observances is not bad as long as it is in moderation. In the case noted above, the husband involved himself in most major sports like football, baseball, hockey, bowling and golf, through all the news media as well as live games.

Therefore, he took up most of his spare time and his weekends through his involvement in sports.

Sports were a tremendous outlet for him, while at the same time his wife suffered because she wasn't involved.

She had like sports once, she said, but now was coming to hate sports. It was more than she could bear.

Also, the children felt neglected. Sports had become his companion, friend and confidant.

Sports didn't fight back or hurt him. This was an involvement that did not threaten his ego and yet at the same time permitted him to vent his emotions a great deal.

Sure, we all need an outlet to be able to release our emotions, frustrations, and anxieties, but we also must have time to express our true emotions and face the problems, anxieties and turmoil of our home with our wife or husband and our children.

If we don't, then our spouse and children feel that we don't really care, feel rejected, and that they are not really important to you.

The above mentioned case began to be resolved when the husband began to involve himself more with his wife and children.

At first it wasn't easy because it entailed a risk to his male ego as well as emotional strain, but he found he could do it. He started with a compromise—every other weekend sports, and the next weekend, family. He found he enjoyed being involved with his wife and children more. Then his wife stopped nagging so much because she felt more important, loved and appreciated. Slowly but surely, the marital relationship began to blossom because the two were cultivating their relationship through their involvement.

This also meant their sex life was more meaningful, which brought greater compensation to both a spectator sport.

The children were less antagonistic because they felt more noticed and part of dad's life. As they put it, "We are more of a family now."

Mom, dad and kids, I am talking about the degree you are involved in sports. I hit dad pretty hard because I usually find he is the one who usually over-does it, but the same goes for mom or for the children.

Recreation is great fun and quite therapeutic and healthy for all members of the family. In fact, sports can be a great medium to bring the family closer together.

I know we have a great time together as a family when we participate together in various sports, whether in action, seen on TV, or viewing it live. I have even said, "Families that play together have better change of staying together." Try it and see for yourself.

I would appreciate any comments you might have about sports and family. Write or come into the Niles Family Service in the Niles Trident Center, 8060 Oakton, Niles, IL. 60048, or call 692-3396.

Dog bites 1st cop, killed while attacking 2nd

Police officer Geoffrey Wilson was bit in the left leg and calf by a strag dog Monday after answering a complaint from Niles resident Mrs. Rajski, 8147 Grace. Mrs. Rajski, called police after she was unable to drive her car into the driveway by her home because the dog was blocking the entrance. When Wilson tried to remove the dog, he was attacked. He was taken for treatment to Lutheran General Hospital.

The animal warden was called to the scene and Officer Morgan attempted to stun the dog with a tranquilizer. But after the shot, the dog tried to attack Morgan. Sergeant Loverde, also on the scene, then killed the animal with a shot from a 22 caliber rifle. The animal's remains were taken to Niles Animal Hospital and a specimen was sent to the Rabies Control Center for examination.

An activated burglar alarm at 9701 Dec rd. brought police to investigate the area Monday. A red Cadillac was in the driveway and the 3 occupants were outside. A young Morton Grove woman and man appeared to be fighting. Police observed open bottles of beer were placed in the car by these people. They also found a clear plastic bag with a brown leafy substance found inside. It was later weighed and found to contain 30 grams of Cannabis, which the woman admitted was hers. An Ovalude pill was found on the young man. A minor was booked for possessing alcohol and placed under a $1000 bond. The woman was booked for a misdemeanor and also placed on $1000 bond and the other young man was booked for felony and placed on a $4000 bond. They were all released after paying the required 10% of the bond.

'Sand' man flees park

Three children, playing in a Courtland Park playground were frightened by a middle aged man who threw water and sand on the children. When the children started to go home the man left the area in a small red car. He was described as wearing a dark blue jogging suit, about 40 years old, and bald. The jogging shirt included two numbers on the back.

Punch-out

The 3rd punch-out Saturday resulted after eggs were thrown at a man's son's car in the Oconto-Dobson area. When the egg-thrower returned, the father blocked his car, punched the egg thrower and kicked in the driver's door. The matter was turned over to the community service branch of the police department.

Unknown persons damage

Unknown persons caused damage in several parts of Niles the past week. A storage door was kicked in on Nordica ave. in the 7800 block.

A Honda motorcycle was knocked over by an unknown person near Touhy and Milwaukee this past week. The vehicle struck the fender of a 1976 Ford Maverick, alongside the cycle. A resident of the 8300 block on Waukegan rd. reported a BB shattered a vent window on his car inflicting about $75 damage.

Short-cut short-cut

A 23 year old Glenview man was arrested Saturday after cutting thru the parking lot at Touhy and Caldwell, avoiding a red stop light. The man was booked for avoiding the stoplight and driving on a suspended license.

Tools stolen from garage

A 7600 Nora resident reported the past week a 7 1/4 inch Black and Decker circular saw valued at $70 and a heavy duty drill valued at $54 were stolen from his garage.

Auto break-in

A 9000 Grace resident reported Saturday an unknown person broke into his locked car breaking the inside rear view mirror and a light switch.

2 year old is too pushy

A push by one 2 year old by another resulted in a mother asking her complaint be recorded in the police file. The mother of the child pushed, pulled the hair of the more pushy child. When the child of the pushier child confronted the Mother of the pushed child she said if her child needed correcting, she would do it. The victim's Mother contended the pushy child's mother should be able to discipline her child. While it was duly recorded by Niles police, the officer involved said, "That's more than enough for this time."

Socko time in Niles

It was socko time in two different areas of Niles. In Grenman Heights a 49 year old man struck a 17 year old after the man's son reported his cap was taken by the teenager. The man returned to the scene and when the teen threw the cap, the man allegedly struck the teen. When the police arrived at the man's front door, it was reported he would not answer the door. The teen victim said he would like to sign a battery complaint. It was reported the right side of his neck showed a mark on it.

A Palatine man reported he drove into the Jerry's parking lot on Milwaukee ave. Saturday and heard a noise on the right side of the car. Inside the lot a young white male punched him once and then fled on a white bicycle.

Argument boils over

There was a lot of grabbing and pulling Saturday in Niles. In a store in the Golf Mill Shopping Center, a Glenview man got in an argument over the price of a ticket with a lady behind the store counter. When he reached over and grabbed her, she picked up a hot full coffee pot and allegedly spilled it on him. The grabber was taken to the Lutheran General Hospital for burns on his face, chest and arm and then later taken to Niles Police Station and booked, charged with battery.

Neighborly feud scratched

A long-simmering dispute between two women neighbors resulted in a scratched nose and finger, Saturday. One Kirk In. lady was upset because water was sprayed on her car by a neighbor's hose. After exchanging words, one neighbor grabbed the other scratching her nose. The second received a scratched finger. One neighbor wished the incident recorded with the police after their husbands agreed to maintain the peace between the neighbors.

Patio furniture stolen

A $500 valued theft was reported to police after a resident in the 6700 block on Lexington reported 1 table, 6 chairs, and 1 umbrella were removed from the patio in the rear of her home Saturday.

Emergency release forms available

With so many people taking vacations during the summer months, Skokie Valley Community Hospital is encouraging parents who will be leaving their children at home to come to the hospital's emergency room and obtain a release form which may help expedite the treatment of minor children in case of an emergency while the parents are away.

The release form lists the child's name, any allergies he or she has, any medications he or she may be taking, the name of the child's physician and the choice of specialists in case they are needed. The form should then be kept by the person taking care of the child while the parents are away in the event that it is needed for prompt treatment at the hospital.

While hospitals and physicians will immediately treat a minor (18 years old or younger) whose life is endangered, the law limits their treatment of a child in non-life-threatening emergencies until parental permission has been obtained," according to Rachel Hetico, R.N., critical care supervisor at Skokie Valley.

Adult baby sitters or even grandparents staying with the children cannot legally give this permission, she explained. "Since we must have the parent's consent, we often have to call Acapulco, Florida, or some other vacation spot to trace the parents. This may cause delays in the child's treatment and is frustrating to their adult baby sitters who feel responsible for the child."

Attempts will still be made to contact the parents," Mrs. Hetico said. "The final decision of whether to proceed without a parent's consent will be made by the treating physician."

For further information, people should call the emergency room at Skokie Valley Community Hospital, 677-9600, ext. 234.

John Slater, Americanism Chairman of the Morton Grove American Legion Post 134, has announced the students at various local schools selected to receive the Legion School Awards this year. The Americanism citation is awarded upon basis of courage, honor, leadership, service, patriotism and scholarship. Those honored and their schools were: Kathy Kelly and Jennifer Ovaert, St. Martha's; Christine Blaumueller and Tim Panfil, St. Isaac Jogues; Robert Bielinski and Jacqueline Pionus, Park View Jr. High; Kathleen Fritchie and Paul Hirsch, Golf Jr. High; and Karen Henning and Tim Holcomb, Jerusalem Evangelical Lutheran.

Job placement seminars

With the present increase in unemployment, the Leaning Tower YMCA has scheduled a series of seminars to prepare job applicants to present adequate vocational credentials to prospective employers. Those who attend these seminars will construct a Vocational Compendium based upon eight standardized, valid and reliable questionnaires which will be converted to a vocational graph on the applicant's aptitudes, skills, basic interests, temperament, preferences, verbal as against performance abilities and personality traits. These data give any employer a comprehensive appreciation of the entire job possibilities of the applicant.

The seminar attendees will also be assisted in preparing a Vocational Resume giving a condensed factual record of past experience, education, special training, vocations, personal data and references.

When these application forms are completed, B. G. Gross, the seminar moderator, will write to the firms that the seminar attendee designates and will include the above forms with the letter. This assures the applicant that when he shows up to apply for a job, the employer will have complete data sheets in advance of the appointment, which greatly facilitates any job interview and increases the probability of being hired. These seminars will be held on Mondays at 8 p.m. in the Skyline Room of the Leaning Tower YMCA, 6300 W. Touhy ave., Chicago. The first session will convene on Monday, June 23. For further information, call the YMCA at 647-8222.

Safety hints

by Alan J. Dixon
Secretary of State

Have you ever noticed your eyelids becoming heavy and drooping lazily when you were driving along a highway? The experts call this traffic hazard "highway hypnosis."

It gradually creeps up on you until you realize that your head is nodding, and it can happen at any speed.

There are several ways to combat highway hypnosis, all of them simple. Most important, don't start a trip tired. Your mind will stay clear longer if you are well rested.

Try to avoid driving long distances at night, but if you must be on the road, keep the dash lights low to reduce the glare.

Following the same car or truck for a long distance can cause hypnosis. If you find yourself staring at the same object, carefully pull off the road. A snack or rest break always helps.

You should wear loose fitting clothes, keep fresh air circulating in the car, and if the music on the radio is too dreamy, switch stations.

Rat problem on Ebinger Drive!

Dear Mayor Blase:
After being a resident of this village for the past 30 years, I find it very upsetting that I have to go to my village president with a complaint.

I live on the south end of the village, and for the past several weeks we have had rats roaming our neighborhood. Several of my neighbors have complained but to no avail. I personally saw a rat in my backyard. On Saturday morning I took a trip to the Administration Building to register a complaint but was told that I would have to come back or call during working hours of Monday thru Friday. Since when are there specific hours that one has to register a complaint or have a message delivered to the health department? Why bother having the Administration Building open on Saturdays? You will sure take my money to pay a water bill or purchase a sticker or animal license but you won't take a message of importance? I cannot come or call because I work during those hours and am unable to use a telephone for personal use.

There were complaints of rats before in the neighborhood, the first houses on Ebinger Drive off Milwaukee ave. had seen them and either nothing was done or if there was something done, there was no follow up and we are still having problems. I shudder at the thought if one of my small children would have a bad experience with one of them.

It is really terrible that one has to go to the village president of an "All American City" to tell him his village is being rat infested. I appreciate your immediate attention to this matter.

Very truly yours,
Mary Ellen Yactor

Drive with extra caution

Dear Editor:
The most precious life to a parent is his or her child. With our children out of school for summer vacation and their minds thinking of other things, it is our responsibility as drivers to be extra careful in driving our automobiles.

Our children are not concerned or familiar with our state law allowing right turns on a red light when making a complete stop. Respect the life of a human person and drive with extra caution.

An open letter to the residents of Niles

Frankly, this is a letter of solicitation - but not for money. We are searching for thoughtful people to serve on the Board of Commissioners, Niles Family Service, which is noted as an "Agency With A Heart".

Niles Family Service is a very unique agency in several respects. First we are proud to be one of the very few mental health/family service centers in Illinois run by a local municipality. Second, even though it is a department of the Village, it has an 11 member Board of Directors which sets policy, develops programs, evaluates the standards and makes recommendations regarding budget, etc., to the Village Board.

For more than 11 years the Niles Family Service has been of immense benefit to the people of Niles. Thousands of families and individuals have been helped by the professional staff of social workers, psychologists and psychiatrists. In addition, workshops and lecture series have reached hundreds more with advice on marriage, understanding teenagers, retirement, etc. Successful school and street projects have been instituted as well as a new counseling program for troubled employees within business and industries of Niles.

At the present time there are 2 openings on the board. The Commissioners must be residents of Niles, and are appointed to a four-year term by the Village Board. If you would like to be a candidate to serve on this important and challenging board, please contact our Executive Director Larry Benetzky, 892-3396, or present board member Marga Levy, 470-1455.

REPLACE YOUR OLD GAS FURNACE NOW

With a New Gas Efficient Climatrol Don't Wait - It May Cost You Money

DESCRIPTION

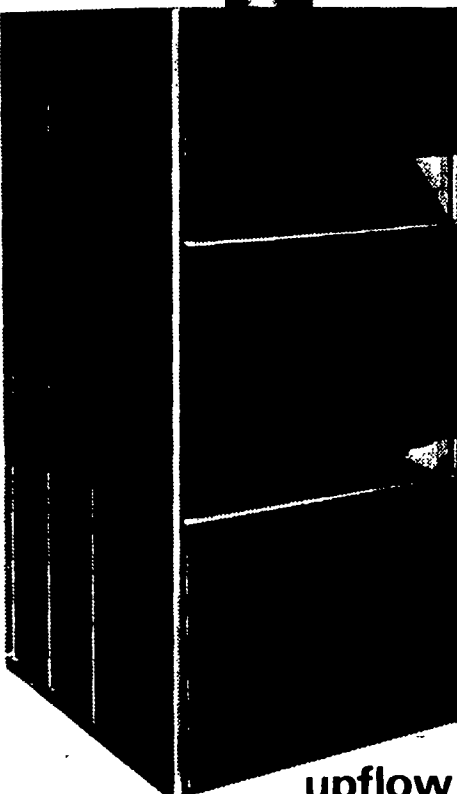

These spark ignition gas furnaces are designed for reliable, efficient and quiet operation, as well as easy installation and application versatility. Upflow, counterflow and horizontal models are available. All are A.G.A. design certified for natural gas; upflow models are also C.G.A. approved.

A spark-to-pilot ignition system replaces the conventional standing pilot, thermocouple and safety shut-off unit. The pilot is ignited directly by a high-voltage spark. A redundant type gas valve is supplied for main burner control and is used on all models. The system is controlled from a low-voltage thermostat and incorporates a flame sensor that safeguards against loss of pilot flame for any reason.

The entire line is equipped for air conditioning. Blowers and drives have been sized to easily handle the listed cooling capacities.

High-grade carbon steel heat exchangers are used in all furnaces. Steel burners are specially protected to resist corrosion and provide quiet, efficient operation. The flame is readily visible to simplify quality adjustment.

The cabinets have foil-faced fiberglass insulation to reduce jacket loss to a minimum and further provide quiet, economical operation.

A's 13, Red Sox 9

In this game the A's beat the first place team 13-9. A's hits were by DiMiceli (triple and a single), Lupino (triple), Cooper (double and single), Dymarkowski (double), and hits by Gattuso, Fireman, Martini, and Rolf. Pitching for the A's were Gattuso, Hickey and Fireman. Red Sox pitchers were Wagner, DiNapoli, Markos, Gable, and Piento.

The Pirates raised their record to 4-3 with a solid performance against the Cubs. The Pirates combined sterling pitching (allowing only 2 hits). Good solid defense (a leaping catch of a line drive by third baseman Wade Weston), a double play from 1st baseman Keith Parlich to catcher, Dave Englund and 2 out-standing plays by shortstop Scott Ciecko and solid timely hitting to beat the Cubs 11-7. Most of the damages was done by Pirate hitters Ciecko (1 hr. and 1 hit and 4 RBI's), Weston (2 hits and 3 RBI's), Kowalski (2 RBI's), and Steiner (2 base hits). The stingy pitching of the Pirates Scotsmen, Steiner, Serton and Ciecko, holding the Cubs to only 2 hits was terrific. Ciecko faced only 7 men in 2 innings, yielding no hits and 1 walk. Steiner pitched 2 innings, no walks and 1 run.

Orioles 5, Pirates 4
The Pirates 8th-inning rally fell short as they scored 3 runs to make it close, final score Orioles 5 and the Pirates 4. Parlich pitched 2 innings of no hit, no run ball. Ciecko pitched 2 fine innings giving up no runs and 1 hit, but it wasn't enough. Kowalski had singled in the 6th inning driving in 2 runs but the Pirates left 2 men on to end the game. Good pitching by Kuhr, Seigert, and Ugel of the Orioles. Oriole hits were by Siegart, Ugel, Biede, Richart, and Kuhr and defensive catch and throw home with bases loaded which prevented a run scoring led to the win for the Orioles.

A's 9, Oriole 0
Good hitting by Richart and a single by Garritano accounted for the 3 hits by the Orioles in the Orioles loss. For the winning A's there were hits by Dymarkowski (double), Lupino (2 singles), Cooper (1 single), Fireman (single), Gattuso (single), and Giovenco (single). Excellent pitching for the A's was done by Fireman, Gattuso and Hickey.

White Sox 5, Cubs 4
Two triples by Giovanelli, first hit for D. Baum. A double play in the 6th to save the 5-4 lead for the White Sox, by George Kwiatkowski. This was an unassisted double play. Kim looked good at first base and Loverde looked good behind the plate. Kwiatkowski got the game ball. Nice going George!

Red Sox 2-0
Cubs 2-2

Padres 1-1
Astros 3-4
Red Sox 1-8

Cubs 4, Red Sox 5
Outstanding pitching performance by Vince Clemente. Home run by Mike Aaknes. The winning hit in the last inning was by Jim Kline. Winning pitcher was Mike Gackowski.

Cubs 8, A's 1
The A's lost 8-1 to the Cubs. Mike Glauner and Steve Dombrowski pitched for the A's. AA players, Cieszykowski, Fritze, and Dax from the Expos played for the A's. Gibson pitched 4 innings of no hit ball for the Cubs. Padres 1, Giants 5

In a losing cause, Reeve pitched 4 great innings for the Padres as he struck out 8 Giants, while walking only 2. But the Padres couldn't get a hit when they needed it and lost to the Giants in a well-played game. The Padres had only 2 hits, while the Padres pitchers Reeve and Berg limited the Giants to 4 hits. The Giants got their hits in key spots to earn the win.

Padres 9, Cubs 7
Good pitching for the Padres by Reeve, Stiles, and Berg. The Padres were fortunate to win this game. They took advantage of some Cub mistakes, otherwise this game might still be going on. Padres catcher Larson had 2 hits and drive in 2 runs, while Chastain and Pierski played a fine outfield, making some great catches.

Red Sox 3, A's 2
Schmil and Glauner pitched excellent for the A's in vain as they lost 3-2. Glauner, Sall and Basso did the A's hitting. Sad note, Mike Nawrocki of the A's broke his collar bone in the game.

Giants 3, Cubs 13
Cub pitchers, Gibson struck out 8, Searle struck out 6 and Ganas struck out 2 for a total of 16 giant batters.

Good defense and pitching helped the White Sox win their second game of the season. A fourth inning bases loaded homerun by F. Ziebell put the game out of reach of the hard hitting Orioles. Also hitting for the White Sox were G. Hickey, M. Quinn, D. Mueller, J. Belmonte, and M. Belmonte each with a single. Orioles hitters were Porzycki, Argetsinger, Gieve, Riley and Barrett. Pitchers for the White Sox were Ziebell, Hickey, Syzmaniak, and Belmonte while the Orioles used Argetsinger, Riley, Chacunas, Gieve for pitchers.

6/6/80 Giants 5, Red Sox 0

Pitching dominated this hard fought game. The Giants' pitchers allowed no runs and two hits. H. Bachmeier sure handed made a diving catch of a line drive at a crucial time, with a man on first base and no one out. This play aroused the Giants bats in the sixth inning when G. Loeding singled and drove in the winning run. Other hits made by J. Calarco (2 doubles), F. Delamangas with a double and singles by M. Wojciechowski and H. Bachmeier. Congratulations Red Sox on an excellently played game. Pitching for the Giants were Calarco, Bachmeier and Delamangas while the Red Sox used Izicki, Alexander and Hammer.

Joe Gambino

wins Bugle's certificate of Merit for excellence in business achievement

by Ed Hanson

The old Horatio Alger theme of "WORK & WIN," certainly applies to Joseph J. Gambino, president of UNITED TRANSMISSION CORPORATION, 7460 N. Milwaukee ave., Niles and 2740 N. Kedzie, Chicago.

For more than 20 years, Joe Gambino has been doing business in Niles, providing transmission, rebuilding, tune-up work and complete car-care for residents of both the Niles and Maine township areas. He is now doing the same work for the sons and daughters of many of the same residents who have stayed with him thru the years.

For more than 22 years Joe has been doing the very same thing at his shop located at 2740 N. Kedzie, for Chicago based residents.

Today, Joe Gambino is not only a well-known businessman in this area, but a long time member of the Niles Chamber of Commerce and Industry, a local property owner, and a man who takes a keen civic interest in the community affairs of this village.

Joe, told me recently, at the Chambers Restaurant, where this interview was conducted, that he considers The Village of Niles, to be one of the best of all suburban areas.

"I believe," Joe said to me in his soft-spoken manner of speech, "that Mayor Blase, has been the person most responsible for making the Village of Niles the type of community it is today."

"And, just what is that, Joe?" I asked.

"I think it began when the Village of Niles was awarded the 'All American Village' Award by Look magazine. 'One,' Joe continued, after taking a sip of his Coke, "Niles has never had parking meters, which many business men, particularly at the retail level have resented in many other suburban areas."

Two, Nick Blase runs the town as straight as a string. There's no gaming machines, or gambling. Three, the Trident Center for senior citizens. Its one of the finest places where the older people can meet and engage in many recreational and civic activities."

Joe paused. "Then, there's the FREE bus service, which certainly saves energy and provides those folks who do not have cars a way to shop, visit their friends and so forth."

"I must agree, Joe," I said, taking a sip of my V.O. and water.

"The Niles police, Fire Department, Public Works, and those great Paramedics, certainly rate among the top 10 in suburbia."

"Say, maybe, you should run for political office, Joe. You're sure making a pretty good political speech."

"No way, Ed, I leave that to the professionals. I'm busy running what I know best, keeping cars running safely and smoothly thru the Village of Niles."

"Tell me something about your automotive experience and how you got started in your business, Joe."

This is Joe's story...

Joseph J. Gambino was born of poor Italian parents, in 1933, at Belmont and Kostner, Chicago. He attended Scammon grade school, and Carl Schurz High School. Joe met his wife, Catherine, at St. Bartholomew Catholic School Social Dance school at age 14 and married her at age 18.

Joe had enlisted, with his parent's consent, at age 17, in the U.S. Air Force during the Korean conflict. While in the Air Force, he serviced the first Jet fighter planes. To digress Joe worked from the time he was a young lad, cutting grass, repairing bicycles, sold newspapers and did all sorts of odd jobs, to make a buck to help his mother meet the family bills.

"I also managed to save a little, anything from a quarter to a few bucks. Even at an early age I had the dream of going into business for myself someday," Joe said.

After one year with the U.S. Air Force, Joe obtained a release on the basis of a hardship case so that he could help his mother survive financially.

At 18, he married his childhood sweetheart, returned to High School nights, taking auto shop transmission repair and finished his education. From his home he earned money while working at a gas station days, and repairing car transmissions nights for extra money.

In 1958, Joe started United Automatic Transmission in Chicago, which gave him two locations because he had previously acquired a small gas station called Joe's Auto Repair at 4440 W. Addison, where he had once worked for the sum of 40 cents per hour, pumping gas, repairing cars and transmissions.

In 1960, he opened his third location in Niles, as United Transmission and he has been there ever since. He sold his first location, and concentrated his energies and "know-how" in repairing and rebuilding automatic transmissions, and car repair in Niles and the Diversey and Kedzie location.

Thru sweat and toil his businesses grew. Slowly but surely, his sales volume increased with each succeeding year.

"Getting and developing the right type of help is very important in my type of business," Joe said. "Karl Braun, my service manager of the Niles location has been with me more than 16 years."

(Braun is at present vacationing in Europe.) Ralph (Bud) O'Connor, service manager for my shop at 2740 N. Kedzie has been with me many years. My other transmission rebuilding specialists, Donald Sternberg has 22 years of experience. Terry Young, another of my transmission rebuilders has more than 8 years of practical experience."

ployees, Joe," I said. "You must treat 'em right."

"I try to treat them in the manner I would have liked to have been treated as a young mechanic, Ed," Joe said quietly.

"What do you find in today's labor market, Joe?" I asked. "Is help for you easy to come by?"

"No way, Ed," Joe replied. "It seems that very few of our younger people today desire to become automotive mechanics, although it's a good paying career today."

"Maybe, Joe," I said, "they prefer to become salesmen or executives or some other professional white collar type activity whereby they can keep clean hands."

"Maybe so," Joe said. "What are the most significant things about you Joe?" I asked.

"I'd say a capacity for hard work, determination, and a positive mental attitude, Ed."

Joe is still married to Catherine, his boyhood sweetheart; has 5 children, Terry, Cathy, Toni, Joe, Jr., and Mike.

NOTE: MAYBE; those old Horatio Alger books I read by the scores, when I was a kid, contained a lot of truth. I know they sound banal, and corny today to our more sophisticated youth, but it sure worked in the case of the man I just told you about.

JOE GAMBINO, is a man you should know if you have transmission trouble or any car care problems. Tell him, Eddie sent you...

Porter holds public forum in Skokie

Congressman John Edward Porter will conduct a public forum on national and community issues from 2 to 4 p.m. Sunday, June 22, in the auditorium of the Devonshire Community Recreation Center, 4400 Grove, Skokie.

It will be the third in a series of open forums sponsored by Porter to meet with the public and discuss events in Washington. The forum series started with a session at Northwestern University in Evanston two months ago, and another was held last month in Marillac High School in Northfield.

At the Skokie forum, Porter will continue the format inaugurated at the start of the series, with no formal structure imposed on the session. It will open with brief remarks by Porter, who will invite the public to participate with questions or expressions of opinion on matters of public policy.

Those wishing to make lengthy statements will be given an opportunity to submit their views in writing, Porter said. A special table will be set up at the side of the auditorium for Porter aides to provide services for constituents with individual problems.

"These forums are an essential part of my program to assure frequent communication with the public on a personal basis," Porter said. "We anticipate the same demonstration of public interest in Skokie that we experienced at the forums in Evanston and Northfield."

Other forums are being arranged in New Trier and Maine townships at times and places to be announced later.

Skokie brochure wins National honors

Skokie's new brochure, "Skokie-A Vital Community," has won second place honors in a national competition.

The brochure, written and conceived by Public Information Officer Al Bernstein, won second place in the brochure category of the National Association of Government Communicators' "Blue Pencil Awards." These annual awards recognize excellence in work done by government communicators throughout the United States.

The U.S. Postal Service won first place in the brochure category for a national brochure it produced.

The NAGC awards will be given at a June 19 luncheon in Washington D.C. Bernstein and Mayor Albert Smith are expected to travel there to receive the award on behalf of Skokie.

"This brochure was an important project for my office," Bernstein said, "and to have it judged as the second best government brochure in the entire nation this year, makes me feel very confident about what we have done. The brochure is designed to be Skokie's calling card—to potential residents, to new residents, and to long-time residents who need to be reacquainted with the character of the village. Now, it's an award winning calling card."

The brochure is a 24-page publication with text and pictures in sections devoted to the government, culture, business, housing, transportation, recreation, library, schools, health services, religious opportunities, and history of Skokie. Copies are available at Village Hall, and are being distributed to institutions throughout the Village.

"We are all pleased with the brochure in any case," Mayor Smith said, "and now we have the added bonus of having it focus positive national attention on our village—before it has even gained wide distribution. It's hard to imagine how things could have worked out better."

Over 350 entries were submitted in the 10 categories judged in the Blue Pencil contest, but contest officials did not indicate the exact number of entries in the brochure category. A contest spokesperson did estimate that there were "over 50" entries in that category.

ED HANSON

Fan mail, Cub fans, Bear fans, Honey Bears and other things...

In our last issue (June 12), we published a "fan" letter which Joanne Morgan sent me. Her "Fan" letter started this way:

"Dear Mr. Hanson: I have been writing this for a year—I didn't know exactly how to word it but your last outburst at the Cubs made me very mad!"

Now, Joanne is the wife of Ken Morgan and he owns the popular spa in Niles known as "Ken's Place" at Dempster and Milwaukee, Niles.

First, Joanne, I'm happy to know that I have been occupying your thoughts for the past year. And I know that both you and your husband, Ken, are very loyal and very dedicated Cub fans.

Being a skilled psychologist, I also know that there is a very fine line of demarcation between the emotions of love and hate.

Actually, you and Ken do not love the Cubs. In reality, you both HATE them. That is, you both HATE to see the Cubs lose. This, in psychological terms, is the love/hate syndrome, and is the prime motivating force in all great love stories. Example: First, boy meets girl, boy hates girl, or girl hates boy, but love conquers all. They marry (because misery loves company) then begin to hate one another, divorce, and go thru the love/hate syndrome all over again. This prompted a very learned man to say, "A second marriage is the triumph of hope over experience."

You noticed, and at first probably resented, the fact I referred to your letter as a "fan" letter. How can a vitriolic letter, that drips with venom, be classed as a "fan" letter?

Very simply. It's that psychological love/hate syndrome manifesting itself again.

Guy Gauthier, champion balloonist, tethers his Yellow Yoplait Balloon in the parking lot of the Center during the afternoon to discuss "All You've Ever Wanted to Know About Ballooning" with his audience.

And, during the day, a Yoplait Yogurt Van will introduce the French yogurt to Chicagoans by dispensing free samples to shoppers. Resembling a French Cafe, the van is loaded with ten flavors of the world's most popular yogurt.

The 33-year-old Gauthier has been a balloonist for over five years and competes regularly in professional balloon races around the country. He owns four balloons of his own, and because of his expertise, was selected by Yoplait Yogurt as official pilot of their hot-air balloon.

The Big Yellow Balloon has been seen all over Chicagoland this month promoting Yoplait with Gauthier landing and presiding over Balloon Clinics in a number of parks and shopping centers.

Anyways, Joanne, keep up the good work—keep reading my column...

Town & Country Auto Parts has all parts for most domestic and foreign cars. In fact, at Town and Country Auto Parts— "One Call Does It All."

Myself and a lady friend had dinner at the wonderful Imperial Palace, Milwaukee and Ballard, Niles, the other evening. We had the Peking Duck and it was out of this world.

By the way, if your food check (no drinks) at Imperial Palace for your party totals $30 it entitles you to a half Peking Duck Free...and a half of a Peking Duck prepared by the Imperial Palace is a delicious, wholesome meal in itself.

The food, hospitality and the wonderful cocktails offered by the Imperial Palace makes it an adventure in good eating. For a charming evening, I cannot recommend the Imperial Palace too highly...they're, as many area folks have discovered, the best—the very best there is anywhere!

See you next week...

The event will feature entertainment, celebrities, games, rides, food and refreshments, hundreds of door prizes and other continuous attractions from 1:30 to 7 p.m.

Autograph hunters will have a field day meeting such present and former Chicago sports heroes as Stan Mikita, Tony Esposito, John Marks, Reggie Fleming, Keith Magnuson, Doug Buffone, Mike Pyle and Ron Santo.

Also Glen Beckert, George Connor, Tony Zale, Johnny Latner, Ziggy Czarowski, Bill De Correvort, Bill Gay, Johnny Kerr and more.

In addition to the main campus in Des Plaines, Maryville operates similar facilities in Maywood and Clearwater Lake, Wis.

"Sunday Sundown"

"Sunday Sundown," the free outdoor concert series sponsored by Skokie Park District and the Village of Skokie Fine Arts Commission, returns this summer for six Sunday evenings at Oakton Park, 4701 Oakton St.

The Summer '80 series includes puppets, magic, jazz, dance and song. "Sunday Sundown" is sure to entertain and delight all ages.

The series is kicked off on Sunday, July 13, with the North Shore Concert Band. Under the direction of John Paynter, the concert band will fill the park with several musical selections and marches.

Returning to the Skokie Park District for a second time is Danny Orleans. Danny will perform his special type of magic on July 20. Everyone gets involved as colors appear from no where and inanimate objects come alive.

A Skokie favorite, Giordano Dance Theater, performs on July 27. The Giordano Dancers present jazz dance at its best. August 3 features the Chicagoand Theatrical Troupe. Performing Broadway favorites. Some of the selections presented by this group are "Applause," "Chorus Line," and "Guys and Dolls."

The Marcus/Price Puppets will delight children on August 10 with "Hansel and Goose." They take a familiar tale and add a few surprises.

Concluding the series is the good old fashioned style of the Royal Blue Tinker Toy Dixie Band on August 17. The six piece band will play traditional New Orleans jazz, as well as some popular favorites.

All of the "Sunday Sundown" performances begin at 7 p.m. Programs vary in length from 60 to 90 minutes. Bring your blankets or lawn chairs to Oakton Park at sundown for the best entertainment bargain this summer.

Second City National Touring Company

Special group rates are still available for the Second City National Touring Company's benefit performance for Mayer Kaplan JCC's Nursery School and Day Care Programs.

The show is on Saturday, June 28 at 8:30 p.m. at Niles East High School Auditorium, 7707 N. Lincoln, Skokie.

Individual tickets may be purchased at the door or by calling 675-2200, ext. 201, 236. Tickets are $8.50; reserved section, $10. Free parking is available.

The zany hilarious humor of the group involves the audience in an evening of unmatched entertainment. The improvisational group offers sharp satirical reviews and good humor.

Second City has turned out more comic actors than any comparable group in America — Valerie Harper, Linda Lavin, John Belushi and Gilda Radner among them.

Funds realized from the performance will enable the Early Childhood Services Department of MKJCC to continue offering quality programs to all members of the community regardless of ability to meet the full cost of the program.

Included in the program is a Day Care Center available fifty-two weeks of the year from 7:30 a.m. till 6 p.m. for 3 to 5 year olds; Nursery School mornings and afternoons, 3 and 5 days for 3 and 4 year olds; Parent Cooperative Nursery School where mothers and fathers get a chance to work in the classroom; once a week classes such as Parent-Infant Social Center; Mother-Toddler and Father-Toddler classes for 2 year olds and Father-Child classes for 3 and 4 year olds.

The Early Childhood Services Committee comprised of Room Mothers and a Father's Subcommittee helps establish goals and recommends programs and evaluates them.

Director Elyne Handier can supply more information. Call 675-2200, ext. 201.

MG Mobile Eye seeks volunteers

The Morton Grove Police Department's Crime Prevention Bureau is looking for persons interested in volunteering their time to participate in the C.B. radio patrol program.

The patrol was formed in February 1977, consisting of Village residents who use their own mobile C.B. radio or base unit. The members with mobile units patrol the village, usually on weekend evenings, on the lookout for suspicious activities, or writing warning tickets to residents who have been careless about the security, such as leaving their garage door open. If a patrol unit sees a suspicious activity, he radios a base unit, who then calls the police department. The members act as additional "Eyes and Ears" for the police department, and are not authorized to take any action on their own.

Members are asked to donate at least 2 hours of patrol time each week. The C.B. patrol, called the Morton Grove Mobile Eye Patrol, has logged over 8,000 hours of patrol time since it's inception.

For information and licensing, contact Illinois Department of Children and Family Service, 1006 S. Damen ave., Chicago, IL 60612 (793-3817). Published as a public service by Bugle Newspapers.

"Swim for Life and Breath"

A special twilight "Swim for Life and Breath" benefit for Chicago Lung Association will be held Thursday, July 10, from 5-7 p.m. in the Niles Park District Pool, 7877 Milwaukee ave., Niles.

Purpose of the Swim for Life and Breath benefit is to help raise funds for Chicago Lung Association's programs of education and research on lung disease. Prizes will be awarded to the boy or girl raising the most money in pledges. All participants will also be awarded a special patch for their swimsuits.

The swim-a-thon participants will be contacting their friends and neighbors for pledges of ten cents or more for each length of the pool they are able to swim said Debbie Nelson, superintendent of recreation. "I hope all Niles residents get behind this worthy effort and make a generous pledge when asked to do so," she added.

Registration blanks and sponsor sheets for the swim-a-thon may be picked up at the Niles Park District pool office at 7877 Milwaukee ave. or call 967-6633 for more information.

president Lewis Masciopinto, 6615 Maple, Morton Grove, came before the District 67 board to urge them to reconsider.

Board member Mrs. Rosalie Applebaum, explaining that she was "aware that there has been a misunderstanding which I will let pass this time," moved to allow this payment. She implied that in the future she will not support this unless legislation dictates, and parents should not expect these retroactive payments.

Board member Sheldon Marcus once again spoke in opposition to the motion. "I firmly believe as a publicly elected school board official that we cannot take those monies which have been mandated for use in our public school and take them out for use in private schools."

Despite his articulate arguments, the board reversed its earlier decision and will allow bus payments up to $117 per student, with each parent responsible for $30 of the bill, as are public school parents.

In other business at last Thursday's meeting, free bus boundaries were identified for the district schools. Children living farther than 1 1/2 miles from the building qualify for this.

For Hynes School the free bus zones are the Eldorado subdivision, all of Golf and Glenview and the Capri Lane/Emerson neighborhoods. Golf Jr. High designations are unchanged.

Golf Elementary, which is closing as a public school this term and will be used as a rental facility, is in drastic need of roof repairs. Cautious to vote for a new roof for the structure until its long-range destiny is determined, board members voted money for patchwork unless over 30% of the roof needs repairs. At that point the architect would return to the board for further direction.

Marcus requested and received $100 from the board to help support the local school boards' Legislative Coalition. This group works for passage of bills in Springfield which would aid their districts.

He hoped that citizens were aware of the extraordinary pressure in Springfield coming from other special interest groups. He urged citizens to contact congressmen with their wishes. Future school board mailings will alert residents to controversial issues.

Citizens were also notified that next month's school board meeting date has been changed to July 17.

The health fair will coincide with Lincolnwood's annual art fair, held across the street in Froese Park. The paramedic ambulance will also be on site for inspection by the public.

Skokie's poppy princess

Mrs. Richard Schroeder of Skokie was Skokie's very own Poppy Princess for Skokie's official Poppy Day a week ago. Representing the Junior Girls Unit to the Ladies Auxiliary to Skokie Valley Post No. 3854 of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Kimberly took second-place honors in the 6-8-year-old category in the Poppy Princess contest conducted by the VFW 4th District of Illinois.

Entrants were judged on neatness, personality and poise. Precocious Kim got good marks for her answers to the judges' questions concerning school, hobbies and plans for her future. The most important question-can expect the existing government to bend in their direction. In Niles, Nick Blase, used to be mesmerized by the big buck boys in town, as well as those he quickly got to know in Chicago after his first election. The government and the money men quickly align themselves to each other. The duly-elected Allende was kicked out by our CIA, supported by the huge money interests south of our border, and the Shah of Iran was put back in power by our same CIA. The Shah would be a much more reliable friend of the oil companies than the duly-elected Mossadegh, back in 1953. These are extremes but focus on the way the money people dominate governments and their policies.

If you were to ask which schools which would bring the most money if sold, we would guess Maine East would likely top the list. East is in the center of the condo boom and those lush green fields on the east end of the campus would be ripe for more of these multiple dwellings. Maine West is in an industrial area which would have much potential. But South and North are both in the boonies, South across from the forest preserve area while Maine North is amidst multiple zoning areas near the tollway.

Tiresomely, we remind taxpayers how simple it would have been had Oakton College bought existing schools rather than building its new campus. Maine North and Apollo Junior High Schools would have been ideal schools for such a campus. And Niles East and New Trier West, both either closed or scheduled for closing, would have served the east and north end of the district as well. The savings to taxpayers would have been enormous. Instead, taxpayers are burdened with paying for the new Oakton College complex, plus the rental of Niles East, as well as maintaining and paying the bonds on the schools which have been closed or are scheduled to be closed.

Just as there is a Murphy's law and the Peter Principle so there is also The Bugle's law. It reads: "Let the government do it and it will cost more."

We thought it downright obscene when Superintendent Gogo in district 63 had Ballard school rehabilitated, upgrading administration offices, 3 or 4 years before it was closed. And we convulsed when he spent $400,000 on an Apollo School administration office addition, again with the likelihood it will be closed within the next year or two. And even though much of the money did not come from the district, still taxpayers had to foot the new Oakton College complex, even though everyone knew declining enrollments were closing schools all over the district.

The most important aspect of the market, according to Zabel, is the produce that the farmers bring into the market, and he said this year's variety should be even better than last year's. "We will have fresh fruits and vegetables of all varieties available, as well as fresh cut flowers and plants. Because of our success last year, we have continued to attract really quality farmers with excellent produce. That's what we're striving to maintain."

There is ample parking at the market site and across the street at Oakton Bowl. Police personnel will again be on hand to provide security and help with traffic control. "We are the only market in the Chicago area that provides police personnel," Zabel said, "and we think it's important to do what we can to make attending the market as easy and enjoyable as possible."

Marillac cager wins 4 year scholarship

Jenny Klauke (Glenview), Marillac High School's All-State Basketball Player, has become the first woman ever to receive a full four-year athletic scholarship to the University of Notre Dame. Captain of Marillac's Girls Catholic Athletic Conference Champions, Klauke led her team to I.H.S.A. Class AA Tournament titles in the Glenbrook North regional, the Conant sectional, and the Rolling Meadows super-sectional. She was the team's high scorer, averaging 17 points per game this season, and she scored 24 points in the Elite Eight clash at the University of Illinois. Klauke holds all of Marillac's scoring records including: 34 points for a single game, 468 points for a season and 694 career points. In addition, she holds the rebounding records for a single game (19) and for career 386.

Klauke was recruited by new Notre Dame coach, Mary Di Stanislao, the former coach of Northwestern University. She was also recruited by DePaul and Loyola Universities. Klauke, an outstanding student and an Illinois State Scholar, chose Notre Dame because of its academic reputation and its beautiful campus, and also for the challenge of helping to build a program. Notre Dame will jump from Division III up to Division I, the most challenging of women's collegiate basketball next year. As a first scholarship player on the squad, much of the burden for improvement will fall on her shoulders. Notre Dame is reportedly seeking to sign two more players before the 1980-81 season begins.

Klauke's coach, Pat O'Connell, was very pleased by Jenny's selection. He also attended the University of Notre Dame, graduating in 1978, before coming to Marillac. Klauke will be assisting O'Connell this July at Marillac's Basketball Camp for girls 11-16 years of age.

Park budget ...

$195,000 is allotted for personnel services, $130,000 for contractual services, $95,000 for commodities.

Summary of the recreation fund shows a total appropriation of $516,000.

The ice rink appropriation is $180,000 with a $643,000 total appropriation for taxation for the total costs of bonds plus operation of the rink.

Total money for the swimming pools is $140,500 while the golf course appropriation is $529,400.

Bond and interest redemption including losses for costs and collection total $495,180.

In an appropriation summary the corporate fund is allotted $577,000, the recreation fund $516,000, ice rink operation is $593,000 with depreciation and replacement $25,000 and bond and interest reserve for the ice rink $25,000. The swimming pool operation is $140,500, golf course maintenance and operation is $523,400 with depreciation, replacement and golf course surplus accounts totaling $6,000.

In other actions Tuesday night Pete and Flo Lencioni presented the park board a $100 check from the Plus 55 Club at St. Isaac Jogues to be used for the handicapped park in the Golf Mill area.

Commissioner Elaine Heinen extolled the Lencionis for their fine work and contribution.

Ms. Heinen reported the July 4th parade celebrating Independence Day will be a fun parade and will go from Notre Dame to Grennan Heights park beginning at 9:30 a.m. Friday, July 4. Lake of The Hills band will perform and businessmen have donated the funds for the costs of the festivities, 1,000 flags plus 36 larger ones have been donated (Attorney Tom Flynn) as well as McDonald's hamburgers and other items locally donated.

In other actions Comr. Walt Beusse reported broom ball has become a popular activity for ice rinks, noting Evanston has several leagues for this sport.

Beusse also reported he spent 10 hours checking on the parks and had many recommendations for upgrading them in the areas of landscaping, pruning, improving stairways and tiling washrooms. He commended Courtland Park residents who were provided paint and clean-up equipment from the park district and did their own maintenance. He added Point Park is progressing well and screening is now down there.

Beusse reminded all a park tour will begin 9 a.m. Saturday at Grennan Heights. Lastly, he reported 45 poplar trees have been installed at Grennan Heights to protect tots from balls hit there. Their cost was a meager $10 each which was considered a great bargain.

Beusse reported $1,500 should be allotted for two workers to maintain the parks on Saturday and Sunday. Primarily they would be used for cleaning trash from the parks. He believed present personnel could have their hours rearranged to fill this need.

In other park news Comr. Jeff Arnold noted the resurgence of life in local homeowners groups which he contended was a healthy situation for the community.

Finance chairman Steve Chameris noted the park treasury had a plus $1,000,000 balance and proudly announced interest for the month of June is already $8,183 for the first half of June.

A letter from the Oak PTA asked the Nelson School area receive similar attention the Oak School has had from the park district. Oak School closed Monday and students will be enrolled at Nelson in the fall.

Comr. Elaine Heinen reported the handicapped park should be renamed, perhaps the Niles Family Park. She has already received $9,000 in donations for the park and expects to receive $13,000 before long. The park is likely to be dedicated in August with completion of work scheduled for September.

Heinen reported her senior citizens liaison is planning monthly activities for seniors including tours, bingo games, square dancing and other activities.

Comr. Arnold reported all news releases should be mailed to homeowners groups as well as newspapers.

Director Bill Hughes' recommendation was approved for $1,380 for a concrete walkway at Tam Golf Course.

Mike Czerwicz and Tom Ferraro are undertaking two Eagle Scout projects to dress-up with flowers and landscaping Oakton Manor Park and the Sports Complex entrance.

Swimming pools officially opened June 14 and recreation and playground activities begin June 23.

Attorney Barratano announced village annexation of two lots at 9347 Knight and 9348 Lincoln will be studied by the attorney in anticipation of annexation into the park district.

Still counting in Niles

The Village of Niles is asking Village residents who have not received a census form to call the Village Administration Office #967-6100, ask for Mrs. Norman. If you received a form and have not returned it, please do so immediately. It is very important that all our citizens be counted in 1980.

Discord ...

timed from a recessed meeting June 11.

Formerly, the finance committee had presented the possibility of bringing five staff members on the lower end of the pay scale up and increasing salaries 7 per cent. A second option was to increase everyone's salary 8 per cent and drop insurance for spouses unless paid for by the employee. According to Czerwicz, both options were dropped in executive session.

In other action regarding insurance, board members decided to refer to committee all bids received. Bids, according to Harry Pestine, board president, were too high. The present carrier would be "several hundred dollars" less, said Pestine. With the library's good record, it may be as much as $100 less.

Formerly, the board criticized the present carrier for providing insurance which was too expensive.

Board members also discussed leasing of a branch library. A present contract with Callero and Catino provides an option to renew by July 1. Board members indicated the carrier would have to provide a "significantly" lower rent for them to renew the option.

Also considered was 6,130 sq. ft. of property at Ballard school, Niles. The school is in East Maine

District 63. Costs for renting would be $2.50 a sq. ft. or about one-fifth the cost of property in the commercial sector. Costs include indoor and outdoor maintenance, parking, heat and lights. Further talks will be conducted with James Bowen, business manager of the school district, and board members will be able to walk through the building.

A consultant to the U.S. Dept. of Education telephoned to inform board members that Dr. Donald Foos, formerly of Baton Rouge, La., and candidate for library administrator until declining May 30 has had two heart attacks and is recuperating in a Houston, Tex. hospital. According to Pestine, he was very hearty when interviewed and the litigation in which he was involved was apparently "taxing."

Board members reinstituted the superintendent search and will advertise with the North Suburban Library System, other districts and at the American Library Assn. convention. Board members agreed they would like the NSLS to screen all candidates.

Czerwicz disagreed and said she did not want the system "to do the picking and choosing for us. I don't want anyone at the system to eliminate anyone before we see those applications."

Attorney quits library post

by Eileen Hirschfeld

James Orphan, attorney for the Niles Library district for approximately 14 years, resigned in a special executive session at the regular meeting June 11 in the main library, 6360 Oakton st.

In a similar move, Irving Graff, library accountant for about 14 years, submitted a letter of resignation which was to be read at a finance committee meeting May 28.

Orphan said he had been thinking about the move for a long time but when asked if it was since the new board was seated said, "You've got it."

Orphan referred to the election of Harry Pestine, Margaret Rajski and Rita Breitbart about one year earlier. At that time, Edith Jackson, hired by the former board, left under controversial circumstances and two board members resigned.

Pestine, now board president, said Lawrence Weiner, attorney, "has been contacted by a board member to determine his availability." Weiner was a consulting attorney for the settlement agreement with Jackson about January, 1979.

Orphan will remain attorney during transition of library business to another legal firm.

Marge McNamara of Walsh, McNamara and Co., Arlington Heights, will replace Graff to begin work immediately. She will receive about $500 a month salary, $200 less than Graff.

Graff previously told board members he could not take the time to come into the library and work on records there. He preferred to keep them at home.

Pestine said, "It was an excellent coincidence but we did not know when we asked him to bring in the books that it would precipitate this decision."

Pestine also said Graff's work would bring him into the library about twice a month and "about 80% of the work is done by our staff. I was not pleased with the monthly statements and the quarterly reports (as prepared by Graff). We are not making changes just to get rid of people. We expect a product for the district's needs."

Tension between board members and both Orphan and Graff was visible at board meetings for a long time.

In other action, Pestine said bids for insurance were "higher than we would have liked." The current carrier will also be asked for quotes.

Board members discussed polling of members by telephone and legality according to the "Open Meetings Act." According to the "Open Meetings Act" public business may be discussed only at announced meetings open to the public. Tomlin, associate attorney, said recent case law may show it is not legal. Pestine said if board members would miss a deadline in applying for a grant, they would be "remiss" in their jobs to wait until a meeting was called.

Four new stops for the bookmobile were discussed including Ballard and Potter, Carol and Greenwood, the Ballard School and a stop near "The Landings". A final decision will be left to the bookmobile librarian.

In other action the president of the three-year-old Lioness Club presented several large-type books to the library for visually-impaired persons. A book a month will be presented to the library to enlarge this collection. About 200 persons, mainly senior citizens, use the large-type books.

Morton Grove residential rehab program

At its meeting on Monday, June 9, the Morton Grove Board of Trustees adopted policies which will be used in administering a Residential Rehabilitation Program in the Village.

The Program has two objectives—to provide assistance for the correction of problems which may affect the safety or livability of a residence; and to provide assistance for improvements which will make maintenance of the residence easier.

Some important aspects of the Morton Grove Residential Rehabilitation Program include the following:

1. Rehabilitation monies will be made available to owner-occupants of one- and two-family residential structures.

2. Rehabilitation monies will be made available through Zero Percent Interest Loan, repayable when the property is sold or when the property is no longer used as the principal residence of the owner.

3. A maximum of $15,000 in Residential Rehabilitation Program monies may be made available to correct any housing code problems; repair a condition that could become a housing code problem within the next 3-5 years; install energy saving material or equipment; and, if funds are available, to undertake other general property improvements.

4. Applicant eligibility will be determined on the amount of income earned during the previous taxing year. The income limits range from $12,000 for a single person household to $21,600 for a family with eight or more persons in it.

5. The Morton Grove Residential Rehabilitation Program is voluntary—property owners in the village are requested to make the initial contact.

6. Residential Rehabilitation Program applications will be processed on a first come/first serve basis. Specific information about the program can be obtained from either the Village Planning Department, 965-4100, or the Senior Citizen Coordinator, 965-4658.

Both the Village and the property owner are expected to benefit from the Residential Rehabilitation Program. Through the program, the Village is taking a positive step in preserving existing residential structures and maintaining the quality of its residential neighborhoods. The property owner will enjoy a safer, more easily maintained home.

The Residential Rehabilitation Program will concentrate the majority of the Residential Rehabilitation Program resources in the area bounded by Dempster st. on the north, Lincoln ave. on the south, the Forest Preserves on the west, and Georgiana ave., Capulina ave. and School st. on the east. If a property owner outside of this neighborhood meets the eligibility requirements, Residential Rehabilitation Program monies may be used on his property. Limited amounts of Program monies are available for properties outside of the identified neighborhood and it is suggested that interested property owners contact the Planning Department as soon as possible.

FNBO'S MoneyMarket

Rate of interest to be paid is established each month in proportion to the current money market.

Investment Income Certificate

$2,500 Minimum
Unlike the many money market accounts that require a $10,000.00 minimum. (Of course, you may deposit any amount over that minimum.)

30 Months
The current rate of interest at the time of purchase is guaranteed for the entire 30 months, not just for 6 months as many other money market plans offer.

Guaranteed Yield
Both the principal and the interest, compounded quarterly, are guaranteed up to $100,000.00, like all savings accounts at First National Bank of Skokie.

CURRENT RATE:
9.25%

Federal Regulations require that money withdrawn before maturity forfeit 6 mos. interest. If on deposit less than 6 mos. all interest is forfeited.
