No tax hike despite 15% increase

Board Okays $14 Million Budget

Niles 1983-84 budget will be increased by 15% to $14,160,853 as the result of approval given by the village board at Tuesday night's village board meeting. Village president Nick Blase emphasized there would be no tax increase despite the additional expenditures.

Last year the budget went up 4.4% to $12,287,421.

Financial director Jeff Bell said the increase would only have been 5% if it wasn't for additional capital outlay for the new Public Works garage, sewer construction on Greenwood Ave. and a third construction for additional sewer work.

A recapitulation of the budget appropriation shows the corporate fund will be $9,023,777; the village water fund, $2,176,443; the village automotive fund, $519,056; the village vehicle tax fund, $300,000; the road and bridge fund, $32,000; the social security and municipal retirement fund, $500,000; the capital projects fund, $1,159,377; the police pension fund, $200,000 and the fire pension fund, $250,000.

Niles cable T.V. company, Cablevision, has been fined by the Federal Communications Commission for unauthorized use of broadcast frequencies on its Oak Park cable system. It was accused of using 5 aviation frequencies in its Oak Park system without receiving government permission. The fine, announced Monday, is for $15,000. Cablevision representatives said the FCC action was "absurd" and will ask for a full hearing on the matter.

Cable systems are authorized to use broadcast frequencies used for airplanes but only at low power levels and with FCC approval.

In a FCC statement issued in Washington Monday it said: "When a cable system such as Cablevision not only violates a rule designed to preserve the life and safety of the public, but also repeatedly misleads the commission as to the system's unauthorized use of aeronautical frequencies, that cable system prolongs the attendant dangers to the public. Such conduct demonstrates a disregard, not just for the commission's rules, but for the stated and evident concern for

District 63 Board approves Wilson School sale

by Eileen Hirschfeld

Sale of Wilson School, Niles, has been approved by board members of East Maine School District 63 at a regular board meeting June 28, in the Educational Service Center, 10150 Deer Rd., Des Plaines.

The buyer, Eden Mission Educational Center, Inc., a church group, successfully bid $500,000 for the school property in early June. A contract between the church group and District 63, dated June 7, could not be approved at an earlier meeting because board members asked for more time to examine contract terms.

Now renting space at Wilson is the Low Incidence Cooperative Agreement (LICA), an umbrella organization for five special education cooperatives. One

WALKING - THE PERFECT EXERCISE

As the medical world places more attention on preventive medicine rather than just treating diseases, they are finding that walking is an excellent way to insure good health. Walking is a wonderful exercise in that everyone can do it. Dr. Theodore G. Klumpp, medical consultant to the President's Council on Physical Fitness and Sports, recommends walking as an excellent activity for general fitness.

Walking is virtually the safest exercise a person can choose. It is an exercise that spans all age groups and can also be enjoyed by people with special health problems that might otherwise keep them inactive.

A person's fitness level is measured in terms of aerobic capacity; that is, the ability to pick up oxygen, send it through the body, and use it. One's aerobic capacity can be improved by proper walking. For walking to be aerobic, one must "walk with authority". Step out, swing the arms, hold the head high, and walk with pride.

The body is the best judge of how much walking is enough. An average of 3 miles per hour is a normal speed. Walking should be painless. If it's not, slow down and call the doctor.

UNDERSTANDING HEART DISEASE

In the United States it is estimated that close to 550,000 people die each year from coronary heart disease. This disease is caused by an accumulation of fatty deposits and thickening or narrowing of the inner walls of the arteries that carry blood to the heart. The effect is similar to that of a water pipe clogged by deposits. A number of factors are linked to risks of developing coronary heart disease. Some of them, like aging, being male, or having a family history of heart disease, are unavoidable. However, other risk factors such as weight, blood pressure, cholesterol level, and smoking can be changed to reduce the likelihood of developing heart disease.

HOSPITAL BILLS

Any hospital patient is entitled to an explanation of his or her hospital bill before paying it, according to the American Hospital Association's "Patient's Bill of Rights". Questions about the doctor's bill should go to him, not the hospital. On hospital costs, call the business office and ask to speak with a financial representative. Use your hospital identification number to identify your bill. If you insist, the hospital will mail an itemized list.

MG Police stress laws against fire works

A sign you will not see in Illinois, or 32 other states. Over one half of the United States have found it necessary to prohibit the public sale of fireworks or the possession of them.

The reason being the National Safety Council has conservative estimates which indicate at least 5,000 casualties (fatal and non-fatal) and 1,400 fires are still caused by fireworks each year. The misuse of fireworks by adults and children continues to cause several thousands of needless injuries and deaths each year.

The National Safety Council points out adults must teach children that playing with fireworks can cause pain and injury not only to themselves but to others as well. In addition to fireworks being illegal, they are extremely dangerous and considered a "deadly weapon," especially with children ages 6-11 suffering the largest number of injuries. Injuries suffered by these children include eye damage, blindness, severe burns, lacerations, and dismemberment.

The Morton Grove Police, Larry Schey, points out the danger is not only to the operator but the persons and property in the area. Those using illegal fireworks have little or no ability to change their direction once the fuse is lit. The police department WILL strictly enforce the State and Village laws, says Chief Schey. It is in the best interest of all the residents' safety to enforce the restrictions of fireworks. Wishing everyone a safe and enjoyable 4th of July!

High school equivalency exam scheduled

Richard J. Martwick, Superintendent of Schools, Educational Service Region of Cook County has announced that Joseph C. Fogarty, Director of the G.E.D. Program will accept applications for the high school equivalency examination at WILLIAM RAINY HARPER COLLEGE, Algonquin & Roselle rds., Palatine on Tuesday, July 5 from 7:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. in Building J - Room 143.

Successful completion of the G.E.D. test entitles the applicant to receive a high school equivalency certificate which may be valuable in fulfilling college entrance requirements, or in meeting educational standards for job placement or advancement.

Application is open to adults 19 years of age and over, presently living in Cook County who have not received a high school diploma. Under special circumstances 17 and 18 year olds may be tested. Please call our office at 443-5192 for details.

Home fires are a serious threat to your family's safety. More than 6,000 people die and over 300,000 are injured each year by fire in residences. Most home injuries and deaths are caused by smoke, not flames.

A closer look gives an important clue to a way that those frightening numbers can be reduced. Many deaths and injuries occur in fires that happen at night, while the victims are asleep. A reliable way to awaken these sleepers before the smoke becomes unbearably dense would help more people to escape uninjured. Over 444 people died in home fires in Illinois last year.

About 400 of these deaths could have been easily prevented with a minimal investment of time and money. Now there is a way-the home smoke detector.

The National Fire Protection Association warns that it takes most people at least three minutes to escape the average night fire. But often the circumstances allow less time. If you have a smoke detector outside your bedroom, you stand a 40 per cent chance of getting that precious three minutes escape time. If you install a detector on every level of your home including the basement, your chance rises to 88 percent.

The Fire Department encourages the use of the home smoke detector and is starting a program to let you know how essential a smoke detector is in your home. To make sure that one is available to you, the Fire Department plans to sell detectors directly at a cost of $9 per unit, no middle man, no profit, just an approved detector to help your family.

Starting with the Niles Picnic on July 9 and 10, in the Golf Mill Shopping Center, these approved detectors will be available at the Fire Department Booth. Follow the picnic you can obtain them at either fire station-6611 Jarvis ave., or 8360 Dempster st., The Trident Center, 8060 Oakton st., and the Administration Building at 7601 Milwaukee ave.

Join in the "Smoke Detector Program" and protect your loved ones. Install a smoke detector. If you have one check it and plan your home escape drill.

"The Testament of Freedom"

"The Testament of Freedom" by Randall Thompson will be presented by the choir men and selected instrumentalists of Trinity Lutheran Church, 3637 Golf rd., Evanston-Skokie, on Sunday, July 3. Performances will be at both the 9:15 and 11:15 a.m. services, and the public is invited.

The Fourth of July weekend is a particularly appropriate time to be performing "The Testament of Freedom," says T. Randall Casey, Organist-Choirmaster at Trinity. It was composed by Thompson in honor of the 200th anniversary of the birth of Thomas Jefferson, its text being taken from Jefferson's writings.

The idea to which the composer's chief musical theme is set, "The God who gave us life gave us liberty," is an excerpt from Jefferson's "A Summary View of the Rights of British America," published in 1774. Just a year later Jefferson was publishing his "Declaration of Causes and Necessity of Taking Up Arms," portions of which Randall Thompson has set to music in the second and third choruses of this work.

Says Dr. Casey, "Our performance of Randall Thompson's 'The Testament of Freedom' on the Fourth of July weekend will celebrate our cherished past and help us look toward a future of promise. It provides a particularly powerful and memorable way to observe this important American holiday."

"Bon Appetit" from Niles students

Our menu is so la, la, Let's begin with avocat, Liver pate, s'il vous plait, Soupe a l'oignon And a Perrier!

Duck l'orange, Vichyssoise, Truffles or petits pois, Crepes suzette or omelette, Salad with bifteck, I regret, monsieur, we have no Big Mac!

Chocolate mousse and eclairs, It's all so rich, I do declare! Pie a la mode with champagne rose, Quickly, garcon, bring the Nescafe!

I fear my estomac is very agile! You are probably wondering what this Epicurean jungle is all about. Its design, aside from tantalizing your palate, is to introduce you to the beginning French language program at Niles South Elementary School, district 71. The 37 third grade students who participate in the language program are enthusiastic learners who have progressed rapidly since their first timid "bonjour" last September. They have learned words and phrases relating to a vast variety of subject matters which they repeat with convincing pronunciation. At the same time, these children are discovering that learning another language can also be fun.

The most exciting project of the third grade class is preparing French menus. After days of patiently learning the words for various foods and delicacies of the French cuisine, the students are ready for some creative work of their own. They carefully select the most appealing dishes and present them in a menu form that would draw the praise of even the most sophisticated food connoisseur. The result of these efforts is truly an impressive display that is both distinctive and amusing.

Once the project is completed, the menus are then placed on display in the school cafeteria for all of the students and teachers to see and enjoy. Now, however, the work begins for the French teacher who is left with the task of making a dessert for 37 hungry little mouths as a reward of the students' hard work. Doesn't this sound like a 'fun' project!

District 71, which comprises Niles South Elementary School (grades K-6) and Culver School (grades 6-8), is quite proud of its language program, and deservedly so. It is one of the very few school districts that offers a comprehensive foreign language program for children. By its solid and continuing support of foreign language study, the entire Niles community has deeply enriched its educational program and has demonstrated a cultural sensitivity which is unique in a society which has been described as being "linguistically malnourished."

At a time when public interest in foreign language study is diminishing, the Niles Community is showing educational leadership by promoting linguistic awareness in its own school system. In going so, Niles has set a challenging example for other schools to follow.

He selected science teachers Dennis Hoepfner and Warren Holz, social studies teachers Irwin Drobny and Celestine Van Dorpe, and mathematics teachers Don Field, Dr. Anthony Kort and Dennis Fillman to honor.

Other departmental winners and the teachers they selected are: for art - Adele Rose and Lisa Wright and teachers Gary Davis and Richard Requarth; for music - Julie Kellman and Robert Harles and teacher Dr. Charles Groeling; for English - Tamara Weitzman and teacher Angela Graham; for foreign language - Elizabeth Lee and Azra Bojic and teachers Madeline Loughran and Peter Zorn; for industrial arts - William Decker and all his teachers; for business education - Stephanie Poulakides and teachers Dorothy Wise and Ewald Grosshensch; for home economics - Jennifer Baer and teacher Marian Jaeschke; for girls' physical education - Dale Larson and teacher John Burkel; and for boys' physical education - Thomas McCarthy and teacher Fred Ricard.

Niles North students receive scholarships

Four Niles North High School seniors have received college scholarships from corporations or foundations based on their performance on the Scholastic Aptitude Tests and a variety of other factors. The students are Andris Grikis, Paula Tsagaris, Michael Schintgen and Paula Jones.

Andris Grikis and Michael Schintgen received their scholarships from the Frank E. Payne Foundation, while Paula Tsagaris is being honored by the Quasar/Matsushita Industrial Company. Paula Jones, a Finalist in the National Achievement Program for Outstanding Negro Students, has received a scholarship from the Caterpillar Foundation.

According to Niles North principal, Dr. Galen Hosler, "The high school is extremely proud of these students and grateful to private corporations and foundations for their support in these times of rising costs. We know these four students will make the best possible use of these funds."

Edgar supports tough drunk driving bill

Sec. of State Jim Edgar Tuesday praised the final passage of two bills he said would limit the number of times an arrested drunk driver could be granted court supervision and clarify the law regarding the illegal transportation of alcoholic beverages.

"The two bills passed today by the House and sent to the Governor for his signature are part of the package of DUI legislation we proposed to refine the new drunk driving law," Edgar said. "Passage of these two bills is an excellent first step toward our goal of imposing tough, uniform sanctions against drivers who threaten the public by drinking alcohol then driving."

Senate Bill 175, sponsored by Sens. Charles Chew (D-Chicago) and David Barkhausen (R-Waukegan) and Reps. Roger McAuliffe (R-Chicago) and Sam Wolf (D-Granite City) would limit the granting of court supervision in DUI cases to once in any five year period. The bill passed by a vote of 88-11.

"Under the present system, a defendant can be granted court supervision repeatedly," Edgar said, "and as a result will never lose driving privileges. The loss of driving privileges is one of the greatest deterrents we have against drunk drivers and this legislation increases that deterrent."

Senate Bill 173, sponsored by Sens. Sam Vadala (D-Edwardsville) and Max Coffey (R-Charleston) and Reps. Monroe Flinn (D-Granite City) and Roger McAuliffe (R-Chicago), clarifies the law on the illegal transportation of alcoholic beverages by creating specific offenses covering the driver and passengers of a vehicle carrying open alcohol in the passenger area. The bill passed by a vote of 111-1.

The current law prohibiting the transportation of alcoholic beverages applies to drivers and passengers with no distinction made for identifying the driver.

Bill expands travel aid to handicapped

The Illinois House recently passed and sent the Governor legislation proposed by Sec. of State Jim Edgar to improve services to and make traveling easier for disabled persons.

"If signed into law, the proposed changes in Senate Bills 1269 and 1270 will extend our special services for the disabled to more persons, and make it more convenient for them to get around," Edgar said.

The bills would make the following changes: Broaden the definition of a disability to allow handicapped persons to be purchased by persons with severe cardiac and respiratory conditions and those who cannot walk without braces or other prosthetic devices. The plates could also be purchased by family members who frequently transport blind persons and could benefit from using designated handicapped parking places; and allow the Secretary of State's office to distribute handicapped parking cards that could be displayed in lieu of handicapped license plates. Many disabled persons do not own vehicles and rely on friends and family for transportation in vehicles without any form of handicapped designation. Many local governments also do not exercise their authority to issue handicapped parking cards; and allow disabled persons to provide a signed affidavit indicating a specific handicap in lieu of the present requirement that they provide a physician's certificate to be eligible for waiver of the $4 fee for an Illinois photo identification card, which is good for five years. This change would simplify eligibility requirements and no longer require disabled persons to undergo an examination which could cost at least $40.

Edgar said his office would make the handicapped parking cards available on a statewide basis. Many local governments do not provide the cards, and some municipalities do not recognize the cards of other municipalities for the use of handicapped parking places.

Under the handicapped card program which was initiated in 1980, the Secretary of State's office is responsible for designing the cards, while the local governments print and distribute them.

Legislation creating handicapped license plates went into effect in 1975. Currently, there are about 8,500 registered vehicles with handicapped plates and 2,800 with disabled veteran plates.

Carroll endorses Sunday burials

State Senator Howard W. Carroll, Wednesday praised the Legislature's passage of his bill which will allow burials on Sundays and holidays.

The House approved Senate Bill 1200 on Tuesday, sending it to the governor. Senator Carroll's measure was handled in the House by Representative Alan Greiman.

The bill voids any practice which ban Sunday and legal holiday burial. "Persons who believe in a religion which calls for a strict timetable of burial following death have every right to follow their faith. At a time of the greatest personal tragedy and grief, to allow someone to force a violation of religious piety merely for convenience is unconscionable," Carroll said.

The existing prohibition of Sunday and holiday burial restricts these persons' rights from freedom of worship under the religions of their choice," Senator added.

The bill also amends the Vital Records Act to require issuance of a burial permit for a decedent whose time of death and religious beliefs necessitate Sunday or holiday burial.

DeBartolo answers critic

Dear Ms. Tasarpalas:
I am sorry you were so greatly appalled, as you stated in your letter to the editor (6/23/83), by my news commentary, "Bells are Ringing in Morton Grove" (6/16/83).

However, in my consideration of your extreme affectual reaction, I fear your family ties to Mr. Cancellieri produced an unduly colored reading of my work, and as a result you missed my point and what was generally at issue.

My article did not concern itself with the integrity, motivation, style of articulation, nor even mathematical skills of Mr. Cancellieri.

Also, the articles' focus was not the rather mundane affair that Morton Grove will hoist red plastic bells upon their light poles next Christmas instead of freshly cut evergreen wreaths, nor for that matter, the extra expense or relative savings, whatever the eventual case may be, the red plastic bells will bring.

What was at issue was the process of the purchase, not its specific content or merit. That is to say, a municipality's purchasing process which allows the personal or political influence of the salesman to in fact be the primary causation of the sale, demands to be given attention by any journalist so witnessing the event. To do otherwise is simply unconscionable.

In any event Ms. Tasarpalas, thank you for the opportunity to re-state my concern.

Anthony DeBartolo

Praises Youth Commission workers

Dear Editor:

When we decided to put our house on the market last March, we felt we could use some help cleaning out our huge basement and garage. I got three names from the Niles Youth Commission, called them and, as he was first to respond, hired George Norberg. Since we thought we could use two pairs of young hands and legs, George brought along his friend, Mark Pualis. They were an absolute delight. Our only "complaint" was that they worked so fast - and well - it was hard for us to keep ahead of them planning chores. Maybe it was only coincidence, but we sold our house in just three days.

On moving day, May 23, we had them helping again with all those little jobs that have to wait until the last minute. I'd promised them each two hours' work but the "white tornadoes" whirled through the house in 1 1/4 hours. I paid them for two hours anyway - they deserved every penny.

These two 15-year-olds are ready, willing and very able to do almost any kind of job (Mark learned how to clean out a refrigerator) and I give them an A-1 reference. I told them I'd recommend them to other Niles area residents and this is the best way I know.

Sincerely,

Nuclear Freeze advocates invite marchers

Dear Editor:

Morton Grove will hold its Independence Day Parade on Sunday, July 3, this year. As always, many groups will join to celebrate this proud and happy national holiday. Each group will have its own particular approach to the occasion.

Our group, supporters of the Morton Grove Nuclear Weapons Freeze Campaign, will march with our message that we must end the arms race, by freezing all nuclear weapons at their present level, and proceeding to evenhanded reductions through agreement with the Soviets.

We are a fortunate people, we Americans, endowed with riches of every kind, including our prized legal structure and the great talents of our people.

However, terrible chances have already been taken with our lives by our policy-makers. Machines of destructive power sufficient to destroy us all are emplaced, East and West, and on computerized readiness to be unleashed, whether by accident or design. How it is conceivable that this great nation should allow itself to drift toward the unparalleled disaster of which Albert Einstein warned us? Shall we indeed continue to squander our intelligence and resources, and to damage our economy and institutions, in this mad race to destruction?

We say "NO"! If you agree with us, make your opinion available to your Representatives and Senators. And we will welcome everyone who wants to march and sing with us on Sunday.

For life against death,

Jean Gump, Chairperson
Isabel Condit, Secretary
James Paprocki, Treasurer

A Cablevision bargain?

Dear Editor:

In February a representative of Cablevision told our homeowners association that we would surely have cable by June. Well, it's June. We don't have cable.

Cablevision apparently does not know yet what they are going to do in the areas where cable has to be run underground. Someone from Cablevision left a tag on our doorknob so we called the Evanston office but there has been no response.

Shortly after that we received a promotional flyer in the mail advising that there was a short term deal with free installation. We ignored it because we had already called. Last week we received another promotional flyer with the same warning: the time is getting short for this free installation offer. We called the number on the flyer, an Oak Park number. They couldn't do anything for us there because our area has underground cabling and the Oak Park office has nothing to do with that part of the operation. So we called Evanston. We were told that our area "has not been released" yet, so they didn't even take our number. They said we should call again in about ten days or two weeks, but that they couldn't promise that the free installation promotion would still be available then.

I don't like to be asked to buy something only to be told that they won't sell it to me and when they are, they might not give me the special price that is available now.

Sincerely,
Benjamin H. Cohen

Capparelli supports crackdown on repeat traffic offenders

Legislation that would stiffen the penalty for habitual traffic offenders passed the Illinois House recently announced Majority Whip Ralph C. Capparelli (D-13th).

The legislation (H.B. 326) provides that a person who has been convicted of eight or more moving violations committed within a three-year period or four or more convictions of certain specified offenses committed within a three-year period may be adjudged a habitual traffic offender.

The proposed law defines a habitual traffic offender as one who has committed one of the following offenses four or more times during a three-year period: driving while a license or permit has been suspended or revoked; any willful violations of the Illinois Safety Responsibility Law; fleeing or attempting to elude a police officer; leaving the scene of an accident which results in death or personal injury; failure to give information and render aid; unlawful conduct upon damaging an unattended vehicle or other property; failure to report an accident; providing a false report; and driving under the influence, reckless driving or drug racing.

"There is some leniency in the new legislation. For example, several offenses arising out of the same occurrence can be treated as one offense provided it is the first occasion and the person charged has no prior convictions in the preceding three-year period," said Capparelli. "The Secretary of State is also authorized to forward a copy of the offender's conviction record to either the state's attorney of the offender's county or to the Attorney General."

This conviction record can then be used against the offender in a court of law that can lead to drivers' license or permit revocation. The individual shall be ineligible for a driver's license or permit for five years. Violation of a license suspension or revocation will be a Class B misdemeanor.

Capparelli pointed out that at the present time the Secretary of State has the discretionary power to suspend or revoke a license for up to one year if a traffic offender is convicted of not less than three moving violations, and may cite repeat offenders with progressive suspensions.

The bill now goes to the Senate for hearings.

Tollway defers rate increase to Sept. 1st

Senator Kustra, who was refused the opportunity to speak at the March 30 meeting of the Tollway Authority when the toll increase was ratified by the Board of Directors, continued to criticize the Authority's unwillingness to open up its deliberations to the public. Commenting on today's decision, Kustra said, "This is a victory for the Tollway users and for all motorists in northeastern Illinois who use the Tollway from time to time. It's about time that the Authority be subjected to the same kind of public scrutiny as all other state agencies are. It's time that the sun shine on the Tollway Authority."

Commenting on Franzen's decision, Kustra said "It is about time that we let in a little sunshine on the Tollway Authority's decisions.

In a reaction to a formal complaint filed by State Senator Bob Kustra (R-28th), Gayle Franzen, Executive Director of the Illinois Toll Highway Authority agreed to postpone the rate increase until September 1, while the Authority complies with the Illinois Administrative Procedures Act.

In his complaint, Kustra argued that the Tollway Authority had failed to publish notice in the Illinois Register and that it had failed to accept public comment as required by law. The law also provides for public hearings if requested by 25 people or more, or an organization representing 100 members or more.

Businessmen forecast continued economic improvement

Business executives are clearly becoming more optimistic about the course of the economy but increasingly concerned with the federal deficit, government-imposed regulations and the need to lower interest rates.

These are among the findings of the Center Middle Market Economic Poll, a survey of executives in companies with $25 million to $300 million in sales. The survey was conducted in 13 mid-America states by Center Bancorporation, a $5.1 billion bank-holding company based in St. Louis, Missouri.

"Center regularly surveys the middle market business community because it is the backbone of American economic health," said Clarence C. Barksdale, chairman of Center Bancorporation. "Their opinions have proved to be a valuable indicator of business trends and conditions."

Today more than eight in 10 middle market business executives, or 82 percent, believe business will improve over the next six months. When asked a similar question in the July 1982 Center Poll, three-fourths, or 75 percent, predicted an upturn in business.

A majority of those surveyed, 66 percent, forecast expansion within their business in the coming year and 58 percent predict equipment modernization within the same time frame. Slightly less than one-half, 45 percent, believe their company will increase inventory and more than one-third, or 35 percent, believe money will be borrowed for new investments.

Last July, 70 percent of the respondents accurately predicted an improved stock market by this time. When asked recently to project a year ahead, 52 percent predict the stock market will continue to improve; however, 24 percent think it will begin to drop and 18 percent predict it will remain the same. Private Business to Lead Recovery

Seventy-two percent think private business will be most responsible for economic progress while only one fourth, 24 percent believed continued economic recovery is in the hands of the government.

As confidence in the economy continues to rise, a number of business executives are expressing concern in other areas. When asked to name the most pressing problem facing American business today, those polled frequently cite the size of federal deficit and government spending (15 percent); government interference in business and excessive regulation (14 percent) and high interest rates (14 percent). Business productivity and an unfavorable balance of trade resulting from a high volume of imports were both mentioned by one of 10 executives.

Today, only 6 percent of the middle market business executives surveyed think eliminating inflation entirely is an appropriate goal. Seventy-six percent, or three of four persons, believe inflation should be reduced to 4 percent or less and only 15 percent favor 5 percent or higher inflation.

Businessmen were asked if they supported a second term for Paul Volcker, chairman of the Federal Reserve Board, prior to his recent reappointment. Seventy-nine percent were in favor of his reappointment, while only 14 percent were not.

When asked to predict the prime rate one year from now, 62 percent of the respondents said it will be in the range of 10.0 to 10.9 percent or lower while 33 percent believe it will rise to the 11 percent level and higher. The prime is currently at 10.5 percent. Does Volunteerism Work?

Fifty-six percent of the businessmen polled are in favor of corporate support of the arts, social services, training and education, yet less than half of their companies actually elevated funding to these areas over the past year.

Forty-eight percent said their companies increased support of training and educational programs; 31 percent escalated donations to social service programs and 24 percent elevated funding to the arts. Approximately one-tenth of these companies increased funding because of reduced government support.

The Center Middle Market Economic Poll is based on telephone interviews with 312 businessmen in Colorado, Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Louisiana, Missouri, Ohio, Oklahoma, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia and Kansas. The survey was completed in late May, 1983.

Increase in job placements by youth department signals business upturn

The economy is truly coming out of recession, if the numbers of students finding jobs this Spring and Summer through the Village of Niles job service program is any indication.

Both applicants and placements reached new highs during the three-week period ended June 10, compared with the same period a year ago, according to Bart Murphy, Village Trustee.

"We have more than 100 applicants seeking summer work, either full or part-time, and from high school graduates who are looking for permanent positions," Murphy said. "The majority of these have already been matched up with jobs which is certainly an indication that companies in the area are reacting to an upturn in their own business."

Niles has been running a sophisticated job exchange service every summer for the past six years. All together, the service has handled 2,869 job placements for young men and women. Murphy estimated that the Village will place nearly 300 applicants before school starts in the Fall, an increase of 20 percent over the 250 placed last year. "Actual placements for the three weeks so far are running 50 to 55 per cent ahead of the same period last year, but that brisk a pace just won't be sustained," Murphy added.

The job program, one of the services of the Niles Youth Service Department, has won wide acceptance among Village businesses because it so carefully matches students with employers' requirements. At the time students apply, they fill out an application form listing education, experience and skills which might be found useful by an employer. Then they are interviewed by Carol Chaconas, Department Director, who tries to match the applicant with one or more of the openings which have been reported by businesses.

Students spend their summers as stock, inventory or retail clerks, product inspectors and a wide range of other factory, industrial and retail jobs. Many of the students are earning money for college. Ms. Chaconas said, but others are recent high school graduates looking for their first permanent job. The Niles youth job service manages to place a majority of applicants, some of whom have been looking for work for a long time.

Kelli Williams, 20 had been looking for work on her own weeks when she came to the Niles Youth Department. In a few days she got an office job at World Carpets, 7405 Oak Park ave., in Niles, where she is "happily learning a lot of new skills. Certainly the Niles Youth Department was the best avenue to a permanent position for me. I wish every young person in Niles knew about the service and used it," she said. Another seeker of a permanent job was Fred Lauer, 19, who landed a job almost immediately, also with World Carpets, in its warehouse. "I'm pleased and proud that my village offers a service like this," Lauer said.

Another booming aspect of the job service is the chore service for boys and girls 13 to 15 who work for Niles homeowners, cutting grass, putting up screens, cleaning attics and garages, painting fences and doing other odd jobs. "There has been an absolute explosion of demand for the services of these young teens as people clean up and fix up. Much of the demand seems to be coming from senior citizen householders who need someone to do the heavier chores," Ms. Chaconas said.

"Employers often list positions with the Village before they advertise them, Murphy said. "They feel that we will give them good, qualified applicants and that's a reputation of which we are proud. But the best part is just the satisfaction of knowing that you've helped the son or daughter of a Niles resident find jobs in a tight market." The job service like the Niles free bus, is another example of the village's efforts to make Niles in truth, "The All American City," Where People Count. Performing a unique service is one way to make Niles a great place to live.

Real Estate Sales Breaking New Records

ERA Callero & Catino Realtors sales of residential properties have almost tripled over last years business for the same period, reports Bill Alston, sales manager for the quarter century old real estate firm.

Commercial real estate also has shown a substantial rebound from the recession, says W.C. Walters, executive vice president of the same firm. Both men are confident that the present boom will continue as long as interest rates remain at an affordable level, and the general economy and job outlook continues to improve. Indeed, it appears to be an excellent time for business expansion, relocation, or even a totally new venture, adds Walters, whose commercial department inquiries for commercial, industrial and investment properties have quadrupled in the last quarter.

Alston's greatest concern now is maintaining an adequate inventory of residential property in what has again become a 'seller's' market. He feels that many home owners who put off a decision to retire out of the area or to trade in their old home for a larger or smaller one due to the poor market during the last 3 years, should now reconsider these plans. We are now selling basis. It is also taking a much shorter time to affect a sale than before. We are always available to discuss moving plans and help develop a timetable that will be most convenient and profitable for our client.

Both Walters and Alston agreed that, as with many types of business, the long term future may still be hard to determine, but for now our real estate market in this area has recovered.

How to Plan Your Portfolio

Every individual or family should have a well-developed financial portfolio. The first step in planning or upgrading your portfolio is to determine your immediate and future financial needs. Some common family needs that require solid financial planning are monthly bills, insurance payments, real estate taxes, vacations, education and medical or household emergencies. To meet these needs adequately, your financial portfolio should include investments that range from short to long-term. Unfortunately, long-term investments are often overlooked.

There is a penalty for early withdrawal from a certificate. Rates subject to change.

Become a Smart Investor

After establishing a safety cushion of savings, you should lock a percentage of your portfolio into long-term, high-yielding investments. Norwood Federal offers three types of long-term investments—the 4-Year Investors Certificate, the 2 1/2-Year Wildcard Certificate and the 1 1/2-Year Small Savers Certificate. Each affords you, the investor, an excellent opportunity to earn competitive interest rates with the added benefit of FSLIC insurance up to $100,000.

Plan for your future! Open a long-term certificate at any Norwood Federal location in the northwest Chicago metropolitan area.

Income tied Centel customers eager to purchase leased phones costs

Northern Trust Corporation, parent of the Northern Trust Company, reported that continued depressed oil and gas prices and reduced demand for gas have caused further deterioration in those sectors of the industry affecting the Bank's energy loan portfolio. Because of continuing uncertainty in the energy industry, higher provisions for loan losses than previously estimated will be made during the remainder of 1983. The Corporation anticipates this may reduce 1983 net income by one third to one half from 1982 rather than the previous estimate of an earnings decline of up to one third.

Residential and single-line business customers of Central Telephone Company of Illinois are responding enthusiastically to the opportunity to purchase their leased phones, according to Dale Cross, general customer services manager.

Des Plaines/Park Ridge business office figures calculated through the end of May show the sale of 23,700 phones. Approximately 85 percent of the 17,000 customers who responded have elected to purchase their in-place telephones.

Nearly 40 percent of Centel's 100,000 eligible customers statewide have applied to the Customer Ownership Program with 90 percent of those customers choosing to buy their leased equipment.

In announcing the program's first three month's results, Cross noted that customers have until November 30, to decide whether to purchase or return the Centel equipment they are now leasing. The program was launched on March 1.

The Customer Ownership Program is the latest in a series of options the company has initiated since 1978 in response to continuing deregulation of the telephone industry.

"The big advantage is that our customers can eliminate monthly leasing charges they are now paying Centel for the use of their equipment," Cross said. "At the same time they'll be getting the best equipment for the best price."

"For example, in most of our locations the monthly charge for a leased instrument starts at 87 cents. If you're leasing a basic desk phone with a dial, you can buy it through our Customer Ownership Program for $11.50, plus tax."

"In making such a purchase you eliminate the monthly charge of 87 cents. Within 14 months you've recovered $12.14, which is slightly more than it costs to buy the phone."

Central Telephone Company of Illinois is an operating unit of Centel Corporation, one of the nation's largest communications companies, and the fifth largest telephone company in the United States. The company's telephone operations provide more than 1 million customer lines in 10 states. Centel serves a total of more than 71,000 customers in Des Plaines, Park Ridge and surrounding communities.

Unclaimed property available to local owners

State Representative Ralph C. Capparelli is trying to locate constituents who may have funds which they have forgotten.

He is working with the Illinois Department of Financial Institutions in a cooperative effort to find owners of unclaimed assets.

"Many area residents have at least $100 of assets waiting to be claimed," Capparelli said. "These unclaimed assets generally consist of checking or saving accounts, dividends, uncashed payroll checks and safe deposit box contents; although they could consist of nearly any unclaimed financial assets," he said.

After assets have been abandoned or inactive for seven years, the holder of that property must attempt to locate the owner. If the effort fails, the assets are turned over to the State. The State then holds the assets indefinitely until they are claimed by the owner.

"We are attempting to rejoin the owner with his or her lost assets before the State takes custody," Capparelli said. "If you are on the following list, write to the Department of Financial Institutions, 421 East Capitol, Room 205, Springfield, IL 62706, include your name, address and county of residence and they will put you in touch with the holder of the property who will then provide you with specific information about the amount or type of assets being held."

Area residents on the list are as follows: Nim (No first name avail.), 6637 W. Touhy ave., Niles and L. Siegel, 6637 W. Touhy ave., Niles.

They will participate in small group discussion and exercise, receive vocational interest and aptitude testing, and learn to use career resource materials.

"Information and activities will be presented to provide participants with a better understanding of how to set career and job goals, and to build motivation to achieve those goals," he added.

Edison announces new billing format

Commonwealth Edison customers will be receiving a newly designed postcard bill soon, according to Supervisor of Advertising John Maxson. The latest computer printing technology makes the new billing format possible, improving the clarity of the print while reducing costs.

The new bill format is larger than the previously issued postcard bill, a feature that will enable Edison to communicate more information to customers. Each month a different message will communicate customer service information, effective techniques for conserving energy, or facts about other energy topics of general interest. If the customer has light bulb service, a note will appear indicating the number of bulbs and the period for which the stub is valid.

Maxson notes that customers will continue to find all of the information necessary to verify billing, including the present meter reading, kilowatt-hours ever used during the billing period, fuel adjustment and rate. The average daily cost and the telephone numbers of the local Edison office will continue to appear.

The new bill format is another way improved technology has enabled us to better meet customer needs. Without using an envelope and bill insert, which cost an additional $280,000 per month, we will be doing a better job of providing customers with information they find convenient and helpful in managing their household expenses," according to Maxson.

The new format has been introduced in Chicago and will be expanded to Edison's entire service territory, the northern one-fifth of Illinois, in the near future.

Tax Shelter Investments

by Timothy P. Sheehan, President

Peerless Federal Savings. In today's economic environment, many media stories are written about Income Tax Real Estate Shelter Investments. We at Peerless have had inquiries from our customers who are interested in a real estate investment which would give them a yearly tax shelter, produce some yearly income not subject to taxes, and would enable them to possibly make a profit on their investment when the real estate is sold 5-8 years later.

Investments in a limited partnership, through real estate syndication, have mushroomed during recent years. Peerless Federal has had a great many years of experience in the home construction and home-lending markets, and we are becoming active in forming limited partner syndicates in real estate investments.

However, an investment in a limited partnership is not for everyone. General suitability guidelines for a married couple means they should have taxable net income (after deductions) of $40,000 or more per year and be prepared to leave the investment intact for 5-8 years. Because it is not a liquid investment which can be "cashied in" readily, one should not be in an immediate need of any part of the investment. A minimum investment of $5,000 is generally required to become a limited partner.

If any of our Peerless customers are interested in knowing more about this form of tax shelter investment, they should contact our financial consultant, Mr. Frank Hianik, for more details.

Ms. Blakeslee joined Prudential in 1977 as an agent in that office. She is the recipient of several awards, including the industry's National Quality Award, given for her outstanding sales and service achievements. Ms. Blakeslee is a 1955 graduate of Lake View High School in Chicago.

Business Networking Society

Business Networking Society will sponsor a meeting and cocktail party at the Gaslight Club, 13 E. Huron on Wednesday, June 8, at 5 p.m. Steve Good, vice president of Sheldon Good & Co., Realtors will speak on "Making Money In Real Estate Today."

Maine East English teacher to retire

Traveling plans are on agenda for English teacher Betty Press, who retires this June after seven years at Maine East.

Mrs. Press and her soon-to-be-retired husband plan on doing a lot of traveling after their retirement. They wish to go to different parts of the U.S. that they haven't been to yet. And they also would like to travel to Europe. Having five married daughters, three of which live out of state, the two retiring parents plan on visiting and spending more time with them.

Other plans following retirement consist of home projects. Living in an older house in Park Ridge, Mrs. Press said, "There are a lot of things that can be done around the house, and now that we'll have time, we can get them completed."

Hobbies such as reading, one of Betty Press's favorite pastimes, sewing, attending concerts and operas and, of course, traveling will take up a lot of her time after retiring.

When asked what some of the best things she likes about teaching were, the retiring English teacher commented, "I enjoy contact with young people and with other teachers."

To everything that has advantages, some disadvantages exist, and in teaching the biggest disadvantage, according to Mrs. Press, is all of the personal time outside of school devoted to grading papers and class planning.

"If you could do anything over, would you still have gone into teaching?" was another question we asked Mrs. Press. She replied, "Yes, although I probably would have taught something where the students use their hands, like sewing or cooking or even something like music, where the students can see more immediate results."

When asked if she feels the English program has changed throughout the years, Mrs. Press

WIU graduates

More than 1400 students completing bachelors and graduate degree programs at Western Illinois University are expected to participate in Commencement Exercises at 10 a.m. Saturday, May 14 in Hanson Field. Local graduates included:

Nicholas A. Parashis and Ralph A. Reporto, Des Plaines; Andrea Lynn Rubinch, Lincolnwood.

said, "In some ways, but it's still basic literature, grammar, and composition, although the teaching approach has varied." Mrs. Press feels that students nowadays don't regard education as important as it used to be. She feels one reason this has happened is that many colleges have eased admission standards, and many students now go to junior colleges, which make the requirements to enter easier.

Betty Press attended the University of Chicago and received her Master from Northwestern Illinois University in linguistics.

Mr. and Mrs. Press (who reside in Park Ridge) have five married daughters, the two oldest being twins. They also have four grandsons and nine granddaughters. Three daughters graduated from Maine East. The other two graduated from Maine South.

The organization recognizes high achievement in the Spanish foreign language and seeks to promote participation in foreign language study.

Members inducted were: Jose Behar, Merle Bergman, Julie Berk, Antonietta Bellissimo, Joanne Cabreira, Lesley Fair, Dee Dee Frey, Janice Gajdek, David Glassner, Robyn Harris, Gayle Hartzen, Julie Kellman, Michael Korey, Tom LaBelle, Devra Lipsky, Daniela Macadino, Karen Minkoff, Arbella Odishoo, Sue Peiser, Julie Saper, Karen Schwartz, Christopher Steele, Carrie Weinberg and Becky Weinstein.

Entertainment for the induction ceremony held May 22, included a poetry recitation by Behar, a musical selection performed by Kellman and a skit by Society officers Heyman and Svreck. Heyman also made the closing remarks.

A flyer describing the 83 courses offered in a six-week Summer Term has been mailed to all recent registrants in MONNACEP courses. Others may secure a copy at any MONNACEP Center or by phoning 962-9888.

"We offer courses which tend to be over-subscribed in our regular terms," states Stan Harris, assistant director. "These include a number of PE courses, data processing, defensive driving, typing, GED, and ESL."

Classes will meet at Niles West High School, Oakton and Gross Point, Skokie, on Tuesday, and at Maine East High School, Dempster and Potter, Park Ridge, on Thursdays. Starting dates are June 14 and 16. Registration by mail or at MONNACEP offices is now open.

District 219 announces heavier grade weighting

A new, heavier system of weighted grades will be initiated in the Niles Township high schools beginning in September 1983. "Grade weighting" refers to the fact that harder courses are assigned more points than easier courses, and that these points can be tallied to determine class rank. For instance, a student who earns an "A" in an Advanced Placement English course receives more points than someone who makes an "A" in an easier English course.

"We believe," says District 219 Superintendent, Dr. Wesley Gibbs, "that the new system is fairer to all students, because it will result in a more accurate record of their achievements. Moreover, a policy is being developed to count only the best 28 weighted grades of the 36 required courses, thus encouraging students to take more courses as well as to take electives."

The new weighted grade policy, which the Board of Education adopted this year, was developed by District 219's Curriculum Council, composed of administrators and teachers, with advice from the Educational Policy Advisory Committee, made up of administrators, teachers, PTSA leaders and students. "While Niles Township high schools have had weighted grades since 1977," says Dr. Gibbs, "teachers felt that the weights should be increased to more accurately relate academic achievement to class rank."

Grades accumulated prior to September, 1983 will be utilized by a multiplier. "It is important to note," concludes Dr. Gibbs, "that weighted grades affect only rank in class, not the opportunity to gain recognition on the school's honor roll or other honors programs."

OCC advance Fall registration to avoid crunch

Now is the time to register for fall classes at Oakton Community College and avoid the crunch, according to John Gagin, director of admissions.

New students can apply for admission at any time for the fall term which begins the week of August 22. Telephone registration begins on June 21. This is for part-time continuing students or part-time new students who have received their letters of acceptance.

Part-time students who wish to register by phone can call 685-1616 from 12 noon to 2 p.m. on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, beginning June 21. There will be no telephone registration on July 5.

Advisement workshops will be scheduled throughout the summer for new and continuing full or part-time students. All advisement workshops will include fall semester registration.

"We want to encourage people who are planning to attend Oakton to apply and take part in the workshops," Gagin says. "Early registration allows better selection of classes and the opportunity to attend advisory workshops which introduce the students to the resources at Oakton and provide assistance in planning their schedule of classes."

The College will be closed on weekends, Friday-Sunday, during the summer through August 12, and on Monday, July 4, for Independence Day.

Classes will meet during the fall term at both OCC/Des Plaines and OCC/Skokie. Several courses also will be available in evening sessions at New Trier West High School.

Oakton tuition is $16 per credit hour. Senior residents of the district, age 60 and over, receive a 50 percent tuition discount.

Loyola to offer classes at Niles Campus

An introduction to fiction, industrial psychology and the fundamentals of statistics are three of the 12 liberal arts classes that will be offered at Loyola University's new extension at the Niles College Seminary Campus, 7135 N. Harlem, Niles, beginning August 29.

Each course will be worth three undergraduate credit hours. Classes will meet from 6-8:30 p.m. on weekdays.

This is the first time Loyola has offered a full extension program away from its three main Chicago area campuses. The evening hours and convenient location were selected to help working adults, as well as other part-time students, continue their college education.

Other classes in the fall curriculum include Spanish, history, criminal justice, politics, writing, natural science, principles of economics, exceptional child studies and Christian marriage.

Michael Colky, director of extended campus credit programs, will administer the Niles program. It is a part of Loyola's University College, the part-time studies division which began in 1914. About 2,300 students are enrolled in this division, and more than 75 percent are working adults.

Loyola University is one of the largest universities in the state. A Jesuit Catholic institution, it was founded in 1870 as St. Ignatius College.

Ostrowski graduates from dental school

THE STEEL DEAL

Wedding Bells...

My first, very young wife, looked good after a fashion. After several old fashions, she looked even better. She did, I must admit, have the right combination to not only open a man's heart but his wallet as well - 38-24-36.

We did have a beautiful wedding. Laughter and tears. Guess who was crying? That big ball of a brother of hers was twisting my arm. Anyway, our wedding really was one of those romantic milestones filled with a tender sentiment. How was I to know it would end with a legal tender settlement?

Now in my dottering old age, in the loneliness of my 200 room residence, what I wouldn't give to have permanently captured in color video that precious, propitious moment in time, for all time...our wonderful, beautiful wedding.

But, alas, in those bygone days, even radio was in its swaddling clothes. And, although being a brilliant young man, (I was attempting to acquire a patent for colored radio, feeling it was a coming industry) those were the days when baby sitters were mothers. People who wore blue jeans worked. And, they paid three cents for a newspaper which they read getting there. A seven cents fare on a trolley car, that clanged, clanged its way to Chicago's infamous loop.

Seriously, how I envy you young people of today. You have all the advantages of modern technology. TV in living color. Stereophonic sound, computers, space ships, Atari, etc. And, that miraculous tiny electronic chip that can solve a million problems in a second (why don't they use it to solve unemployment and balance the national debt?) Beats Me?

Now, here's some good news for people of all ages. On page 26 of all five BUGLE NEWSPAPERS is an ad you should read, clip out, and save and act on when the "OCCASION YOU CHERISH ARISES".

The advertiser, SANTA VIDEO PRODUC-

CTIONS, 6957 W. North Ave. is the foremost leader in its field. Their technical professionals can video tape weddings, parties, anniversaries, christenings, communions, reunions or ANY kind of special occasion that is special to you. And, at an extremely low price. Their mobile studio vans have the most modern computerized equipment available and the technical staff with the "know-how" to reproduce top quality TV images, from a low priced "special occasion" event, or a ten second TV commercial to a multi-million dollar full length movie.

All their work is guaranteed, and you'll be amazed at just how low in price they can video tape your wedding and reception or any other low cost special occasion that's near and dear to the heart of you and yours.

There is no obligation. No video job too small or too big they can't handle. There is no charge for consultation and the low, low, price quoted for your specific need in advance is the fee you pay. No "ups"!! No gimmicks!! No angles!! or short cuts. Samples of their work are available at their headquarters in Oak Park, so why not drop in or call for an appointment. Just phone 383-2250 or come in - the address is 6957 W. North Ave., Oak Park, Ill., 60302.

Believe me...

Blase heads Little City fundraiser

Niles Mayor Nick Blase, for the 5th straight year, heads a Suburban Mayors Committee of 70 strong (6 counties), and more to come, for the 1983 Little "Smiles" fund-raising drive.

The program, known as "ILLINOIS SMILES FOR LITTLE CITY", will be held on Friday, August 12 and Saturday, August 13, throughout the Greater Chicago Area, in over 150 communities which have granted permission for the activity.

Volunteers will be stationed on busy street corners, in shopping plazas at commuter stations and other areas of heavy pedestrian traffic. They will hand out sheets of happy-face "SMILES" stickers and accept donations.

Proceeds from the "SMILES" Drive will enable Little City to carry out its ongoing expansion program, which will permit more facilities and specialized training for the mentally retarded and blind students.

Established in 1959, Little City is a training, treatment, research, evaluation and habilitation center dedicated to the personal, social and economic development of the mentally retarded and emotionally disturbed. It is a complete residential community for the mentally retarded located on 60 acres of land in Palatine, Ill.

Here, the mentally retarded are viewed as individuals in their own right. They are granted the dignity, respect and opportunity to develop their own highest potential in order to improve their lives and become self-sufficient individuals in their community.

OCC telephone registration for fall term

OCC's new and continuing part-time students can now register for the fall term by telephone throughout the summer on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays (except Tuesday, July 5) from 12 to 2 p.m.

New, transfer or readmitted students can apply for admission at anytime, but must receive their letters of admission before registering by phone.

The telephone registration number is 635-1616. If lines are busy, College officials request that students call again later. Students should not call the College switchboard. Before calling, students should write down their social security number, classes and section numbers plus alternative classes should their first choices not be available. Listing for fall classes are printed in the May issue of Oakton Report. If not received in the mail, copies can be obtained at either OCC/Skokie or OCC/Dos Plaines.

Fall classes at Oakton begin August 22, 1983.

Kustra passes Voting Rights Act out of committee

The Senate Elections Committee last week approved the Voting Rights Act of 1983, a series of election law reforms introduced by House Minority Leader Lee A. Daniels (R-Elmhurst) and sponsored by Senator Bob Kustra (R-Glenview) in the Illinois Senate. The measures spell out voters' rights and establish tougher penalties for vote fraud.

Kustra said he was optimistic the full Senate would approve the legislation.

"The stories we have for too long heard about voters coming from graveyard addresses and other callous and outrageous abuses reflect a serious deterioration in the confidence citizens have in their ability to control the course of government through the ballot," Kustra said.

"This package of election law reforms will correct the kinds of vote fraud that marred the 1982 gubernatorial election."

Election judges would have their duties more clearly defined under this legislation. People who vote more than once or participate in collecting bogus absentee ballots would face tougher criminal penalties. Voters would be advised to check their ballots to make sure they are initialed properly. These are steps that could effectively deter fraud," he said.

"It is intolerable for Chicago to be defamed as the 'Vote Fraud Capital of America,'" Kustra said.

"Nor will we tolerate any further abuse of the sanctity of the secret ballot, our most basic right in a free and democratic society," Kustra concluded.

The series of bills begins with House Bill 1983 and includes the following provisions:

-The penalty for voting more than once would be a Class 3 felony rather than a Class 4 felony.

-An election judge's responsibility to initial ballots properly, seal ballot boxes and report precinct election returns would be clearly spelled out.

-To discourage fraud related to use of phony absentee ballots, physicians would be required to specify the nature of the voter's illness when filing affidavits for absentee ballots. The legislation also creates the new crime of "unlawful procurement of an absentee ballot."

-Notices would be posted in each voting booth instructing voters to be sure their ballots have been initialed properly. Some election judges have been accused of discarding only the uninitialed ballots which record votes for the "wrong" candidate.

-Voters would be able to cast absentee ballots in person in village and township halls during partisan elections in the even-numbered years. Under current law Cook County suburbanites must travel to the County Building in the Loop to vote in person absentee.

Legislation proposed to enforce drunk driving law

My proposed nine-point legislative program to fine-tune Illinois' new drunk driving law is designed to reduce traffic accidents and fatalities. It contains several recommendations of the Presidential Commission on Drunk Driving, of which I am a member.

Four of the bills in the legislative package, to be introduced in this session of the General Assembly, would:

- Establish a mandatory 30 consecutive day jail sentence for persons convicted of driving with a license that has been revoked or suspended for DUI, an implied consent refusal, reckless homicide or leaving the scene of an accident where death or personal injury is involved.

This proposal is one of the recommendations of the Presidential Commission on Drunk Driving.

-Require a mandatory 48 consecutive hour jail term or 10 days of community service work for a second or subsequent DUI conviction.

-Limit the granting of court supervision in DUI cases to once in any five-year period.

-Suspend driving privileges for six months of an Illinois driver who has refused to take a chemical test under another state's implied consent provision.

This is another recommendation of the Presidential Commission on Drunk Driving.

Folk night at free Starlight Theatre

An evening of free folk entertainment will be presented at 8 p.m. Thursday, July 7 at the Wilmette Park District's Starlight Theatre in the Wallace Bowl at Gillson Park.

The program of songs, music and tales from the British Isles, America and Zimbabwe will star Paul Berliner, Kathy Cowan, Becky Armstrong, Shepard, Gerry Armstrong and Howard Levy.

Berliner, a musicologist and professor at Northwestern University, combines his vocal virtuosity, African music, jazz and American folk music to present an absorbing and unusual performance. He became a skilled mbira player after many years of study in Zimbabwe and also plays kudu horn and drums.

Shepard, director of development at the Old Town School of Folk Music, will sing songs from the British Isles and America while playing guitar and banjo.

Wilmette's Starlight Theatre, supported in part by a grant from First Federal Savings of Wilmette, offers free concerts and performing arts events throughout the summer.

Stone bleacher seats are available. Bring blankets for sitting on the grass area close to the stage.

Free parking is available for all Bowl performances in the beach lot, Lake and Michigan aves., Wilmette.

Proposed law would end written drivers test for seniors

Illinois drivers age 69 and older with good driving records will be exempt from having to take the written drivers license renewal examination under legislation proposed by Sec. of State Jim Edgar and passed Tuesday by the Illinois House.

Senate Bill 60, which now goes to the Governor, is sponsored by Sens. Clarence Darrow (D-Rock Island) and John Davidson (R-Springfield) and Reps. Sam Vinson (R-Clinton) and Jim Rea (D-Christopher).

"A new law that went into effect last year rewards good drivers under age 69, with no accidents or traffic convictions on their records, by exempting them from having to take the written exam when they renew their drivers license," Edgar explained. "Senate Bill 60 extends that reward to senior drivers, many of whom have been driving safely for decades."

If signed into law, the proposal would exempt drivers over age 69 whose records indicate they have not been convicted of any traffic offenses or have been involved in any traffic accidents in recent years. Eligibility for the waiver would be checked when applicants bring their drivers license renewal forms to Secretary of State facilities.

Under Edgar's proposal, approximately 129,000 of the 215,000 drivers age 69 or older whose licenses expire in 1984 would be eligible for the exemption.

Pre-Marital institute at Lutheran General

The institute is conducted by the Division of Pastoral Care as a community service to supplement pre-marital programs in local churches.

Engaged couples are invited to attend a pre-marital institute to be held at Lutheran General Hospital, Park Ridge, on July 11, 18, 25 and August 1.

The sessions are from 7:30 to 10 p.m. and include lectures and discussions about the physical, emotional, spiritual, and social aspects of marriage. Participating in the institute will be a physician, psychiatrist, social worker, hospital chaplain, and financial advisor. The topics to be discussed are "A Theology of Marriage," "Finding Strengths and Adjustments in Marriage," "The Meaning of Sex and Love in Marriage," "How to Budget," and "Emotional Differences of the Sexes."

The tuition is $25 per couple and covers the cost of materials used in the course. These include a "Sex Knowledge Inventory" and various textbooks. Couples may enroll through their own clergyman or be contacting the Division of Pastoral Care at Lutheran General at 696-6395.

On Dean's List

Capparelli votes against gas tax increase

State Rep. Ralph C. Capparelli (D-13th) voted recently against increases in the gasoline tax, license plate fees and truck weight limits.

The legislation, House Bill 1305, passed the House by a 75-42 vote and, if approved by the Senate, could raise an additional $390 million for each of the next four years.

"I opposed the bill because it was done to receive matching funds from the federal government," said Capparelli. "Not only did it add an additional 3 1/2 cents per gallon beginning July 1, but it also added one cent a gallon in each of the following two years. In effect, the gas tax would increase from 7 1/2 cents today to 11 cents by 1985, making the cost of gasoline excessive for those poor people who drive cars."

"I don't think it's fair that the federal government raise the gasoline tax and then expect states to do likewise to qualify for federal monies," he continued.

The bill also raises license plate fees for large cars from $30 to $40 annually, and fees for small cars from $18 to $28 in two steps. Another part of the package provides for a diesel fuel surtax, amounting to about $26 million, that would be utilized to repair highway damage caused by trucks weighing as much as 80,000 pounds who will be allowed to travel designated routes.

"The tax is simply too high, and the distribution of motor fuel tax funds is too inequitable," said Capparelli. "The way the bill is structured - 70 percent of the increase would go to the state compared to only 40 percent of the current tax, leaving less monies for local governments."

"I urge everyone to write their senators and ask them to oppose this bill. This tax increase is not fair and should not become law."

Niles Baseball League

Niles "Nuggets"

Nuggets 7 - Northwest Rebels 0
Nuggets 4 - Northwest Rebels 7
Nuggets 7 - Maryville 0 (Forfeit)
Nuggets 7 - Maryville 0 (Forfeit)

Our record is now 8 wins and 6 losses

The "Nuggets," sponsored by Bennigan's, 8480 Golf Rd. in Niles, shut out the Rebels in the first game of the doubleheader. Lee Newlan pitched a super game, only giving up 6 hits and allowing no runs to score. Nick Busija, Ray Del Fava and Bob Fergus teamed up to execute two picture perfect double plays and catcher, Gary Birr, picked off a runner at first base. Dan Birr, our left fielder, robbed a batter of what looked like a sure home run by catching the ball before it went over the fence. Right fielder, Scott Swierad, also made 2 outstanding catches. It was a great game! Hitting for the "Nuggets" were, Scott Swierad with a single and a triple, Brian Sherwin a triple, and Ray Del Fava with a single. Excellent pitching, fielding and base running were the keys to this victory.

Jim Prims and Ken Gast teamed up to pitch the second game. Scott Madsen made some incredible plays at third base in this game. We were beginning to think he was using a magic mit! He robbed 3 batters of line drives that should have been sure hits plus he made 4 plays of hard hit balls, throwing the runner out at first base. Our 5 hits came from: Brian Sherwin a triple, Scott Swierad a double, Ray Del Fava a triple, Rich Schumacher and Nick Busija a single each.

We were sorry to hear that the Maryville team has had to drop out of the league. The rest of their season will be forfeited.

We played 2 exhibition games against the Northbrook Hornets in place of the Maryville doubleheader. Bob Bradley did an excellent pitching job in the first game, collecting the win, 6-4. Unfortunately in the 7th inning, a batter hit a line drive back at Bob, hitting his hand. Bob Bradley has a broken finger. We hope it will heal quickly and he will be able to play again this season. Mark Menich, a fine person and umpire in Niles, did one of the best jobs we have seen this season while umpiring this doubleheader. We would like to thank him again. Our hits came from Brian Sherwin with 2 singles and a triple, and Scott Swierad and Ray Del Fava with a double each.

We had 3 more hits in the second game than we did in the first, but lost 7-4. John Niero did a fine job of pitching. Hitting for the "Nuggets" were: Gary Birr with 2 singles, Bob Fergus with a double, Brian Sherwin, Scott Swierad, Scott Madsen, Dan Birr and Paul Calderone with a single

Majors

In Major League action, Vince Ceralde keyed an A's 4 run, 6th inning rally to beat the Angels by a run. Steve Shinanski pitched well for the Angels in their losing effort. The Red Sox beat the Indians 12 to 4, despite the outstanding hitting and defense of Keith Smith. David Lee hit a homerun and Matt LaLiberty also played well in the Orioles victory over the Indians. Arron Bates had a homerun for the Tribe. Matt Molay pitched 6 strong innings in the Angels 5 to 2 victory over the White Sox. The A's beat the Red Sox 10 to 5, with Robert Holton each.

We would like to thank everyone who have given us moral and financial support and the Park District for maintaining the fields beautifully. We are so lucky to live in this community! Won't you catch some Nugget Fever!

Minors

In the Minors, the Green team came away with an undefeated week, beating Blue and Red. Ray Rocchi played well in both victories. In other games, the Red, led by the pitching of Alanso Acosta and the defensive heroics of David Richman, beat the Gold by a score of 5 to 2. Dan Udono gave the Gold a strong pitching performance and Brian Sternstein provided the offensive punch in Gold's 7 to 1 victory over Blue.

Minor League second half standings

	W-L
Gold	6-1
Green	4-3
Red	4-3
Blue	0-7

Pony A

Adam Slutsky hit a homerun, but it wasn't enough for the Astros to defeat the Pirates, who got key hits from Craig Brodsky and Tim Trojan. The Pirates also beat the Cubs, getting a strong 6 innings of pitching from Rick Mayburn, and Joe Meehan who came in to strike out the side in the last inning. The Cardinals, using 3 players from Pony C due to absences of their own players, beat the Astros 10 to 7. In the Cubs 12 to 6 victory over the Padres, Tom Mohenichk pitched 6 and 2/3 innings and came up with a bases loaded triple to break open the game.

Troiani was appointed general contractor to seek bids for an addition to the police building which would not exceed $100,000. Troiani will receive an 8% fee for acting as general contractor.

Cub Foods received approval for a variation in the building code to use painted cement block for its building next to the Venture store at Golf and Milwaukee.

Trustee Ottow similarly reported outside printing bids for work now done by village employees would save about $14,000 annually. He said he received bids from 5 printing companies with the low bid being $14,000. Similar work done by the village last year cost $32,800. Adding $5,000 for art work to be continued by the village the net saving for doing about 106 forms annually would be about $14,000.

Approved letting out for bids for a new outdoor warning system for Niles civil defense system. The new type sirens would be located in 3 Niles areas and would be heard throughout the village and would be radio-activated.

Waived bids for 2 Wang terminals costing $2,750 each with 512,000 bits of main memory and for a $6,222.25 security alarm system for the administration building.

BEST FOOT FORWARD

By Dr. Leonard Pock

JOGGING AND FOOT CARE I

Jogging boosts the health of your cardiovascular system, but it has some drawbacks. They begin with your feet.

Your feet are the last link to the ground in your whole body chain, and one of the first to undergo a breakdown. The constant pounding can take its toll. Example: At six feet, weighing about 200 pounds, say you jog a mile a day, one yard a stride. Each time your foot hits the ground, some two or three times your body weight presses down through each heel. Multiply that by the 1000 times each heel hits the ground in that mile of cross-country exercise. Women runners receive the same body-weight shocks with every stride.

They may predispose one to painful conditions of the lower extremities, including shin splints, runner's knee, heel spurs, etc.

the public safety underlying those rules."

Managing director for Cablevision, Arthur Thompson, representing the parent company in New York, said, "We make this out as a major life and safety question is verging on the absurd." He accused the FCC of "bureaucratic muscle." He noted the FCC has given Cablevision permission to use 4 of the 5 questioned frequencies and a ruling on the fifth is pending. Cablevision began using the frequencies in 1979 but waited 6 to 8 months before telling the FCC it was using the broadcast bands. Thompson said he guessed the problem was Cablevision didn't tell the FCC fast enough (about using the channels).

Both the FCC and Cablevision said there has not been any interference with aviation broadcasts by the cable system. But an attorney for the FCC said the potential for problems in the crowded airways in Chicago is great and the fine would have been higher had there been interference.

It was two weeks ago when we reported Cablevision was fined $50,000 by the city of Evanston and threatened to have its franchise revoked because it failed to provide 5 public-access channels. The public access studio began construction last month. It had been promised it would have been completed January 1.

In Niles, Ang Marcheschi, who is chairman of Niles village committee overseeing the cable operation, has said Niles has only a few small problems with the company's operation. He said telephone responses between the company and subscribers have caused problems. Breaking service appointments has also caused concern. Bill delays and issuing credits have been other complaints received from Nilesites. But complaints about unclear channels have lessened and Ang thinks the bugs in the system are being worked out as time goes on.

An anonymous letter-writer sent The Bugle a letter Monday contending charges and services have not kept pace with neighboring Park Ridge, Morton Grove and Evanston. He, Marcheschi, who also saw the letter, said non-signed letters do not carry too much weight. He thought the services received by local residents are quite comparable and charges are similar.

The letter-writer noted Park Ridge was receiving 65 channels while Niles receives 33 channels on its basic service. Marcheschi said there are only 35 active channels in the United States and the other channels are reserved for public access programming and other minor services. He reiterated he attends innumerable meetings with other northwest suburban community representatives and he is satisfied Niles is getting equal services and charges for its dollars.

away. Top award is $5,000! The other prizes are $500, $250 and $125. Tickets on this drawing are available in advance from Legionnaires and Legion-associated personnel and will also be available on the carnival grounds at the prize booth. They are available for $1 apiece.

Residents have previously been issued tickets through a mail delivery accompanied by a letter from retiring commander Roland Keppen. Upon their return of these tickets, they will be eligible for special prizes of a bond each evening.

Winner need not be present for any of these cash prizes.

The American Legion Post #134 proudly relates they donated $1,000 to the village celebration of the 4th of July to enable residents to participate in the fireworks and parade commemoration and hope the citizens will stop by the Legion Post sometime during the long weekend and spend an enjoyable time at the yearly Krazy Daze Carnival which is being presented for their pleasure.

Society statistics, the disease is responsible for the deaths of 1 out of 5 U.S. residents each year.

Trustee Snider also offered, and the board approved, a motion calling for the creation of an ad hoc committee, composed of Fire, Police, Public Works and Civil Defense Department heads, to work out a village wide disaster plan. Snider noted that such a plan was sought by the village last year, but no action had been taken.

In other village business, Mayor Richard Flickinger proposed, and the board approved, the retention of Village Administrator Fred Huber until such time his successor is named. Huber was to retire from his post July 2.

Lastly, it was made known at the board meeting that village resident Herb Rizzo, 7848 Central ave., will be soliciting petition signatures to support the closing of Central Ave. at Oakton St. At issue is the large amount of traffic using the street to gain access to Oakton from the Eden Expressway Touhy Ave. exit, in addition to those motorists using the street to reach east bound Howard St.

After the petition is presented to village officials, a public hearing will be set to allow residents to voice their concerns. Trustee Richard Hols noted that an approximately equal number of pro and con telephone calls have been received by the village concerning the closure of Central at Oakton.

entertainers scheduled to participate in the two-day extravaganza at Golf Mill Shopping Center at Golf Mill Shopping Center deserve the support of every area family," Crestodina said. "This will be a quality event, worthy of the people of Niles," he continued.

"We literally are building a fun city under canvas," commented Chamber Executive Director Curt Hockett. "And, construction requires a good deal of money and a large number of dedicated people. In our case, volunteers from our own organization."

According to Hockett, the Chamber became involved in the picnic concept because "a community that wishes to grow again and attract new, young families as residents must demonstrate its ability to both work and play together."

An Admission Free Saturday night community dance was added to the festivities as a way of saying thank you to those who support the merchants and food vendors who are the heart of the All American Picnic. The well known Tiny Hill Orchestra is being brought in for the enjoyment of the dancers.

It was the Golf Mill State Bank that came forward with significant financial support to make the Saturday night show a reality. "It's the banks gift to the community," Hockett said.

The Chamber is still looking for a few dedicated volunteers to work four-hour shifts selling food tickets, and a few good restaurants to complete the tasty portion of the picnic.

Upwards of 30,000 people are expected to visit the popular shopping center to take advantage of Golf Mill's Second Annual Sidewalk Sale which will run both days.

"We expect to sell thousands of food tickets to hungry residents," Hockett said. He noted the All American Picnic will go on come rain or shine. Most activities will be under cover.

The Chamber's Executive Director predicts this will become one of the major annual events in Northern Illinois. He said that without the active support of Mayor Nick Blase, Village Trustees and the Village staff, an undertaking of this magnitude would not have gotten beyond the talking stage.

Residents can call Anne Skarb, 635-4393 for details.

source said LICA headquarters may be moved to Park Ridge.

As the first business item of the meeting, board members adjourned to executive session to discuss appointment, employment or dismissal of personnel. An item added to the list was possible litigation.

Following the session, board members named Patricia Johnson, a teacher at Twain School about 15 years, to be included on a list of personnel appointments as principal of Washington School.

Johnson would replace Milo Heilman who was named to a new administrative position as an administrative assistant to the superintendent. Heilman is recuperating from a recent illness.

Appointments of school principals approved for the 1983-84 school year, are Johnson; Donald Huebner, Gemini; Robert Jablon, Nelson; Stewart Liechti, Stevenson; Kenneth Pancyk, Melzer; Walter Siekierski, Mark Twain. Other approved appointments are Raymond Kuper, assistant principal, Gemini; Lenore Page, assistant superintendent; and Donald D. Stetina, associate superintendent.
