by Bud Besser

We're using a little of our clout this week by placing a wedding picture on the front page of The Bugle. The pretty bride is a 10-year member of The Bugle family, Sandie Lindquist-Beierwaltes.

She was a lovely bride. She is a lovely girl. She comes from a great family. And there lies the story.

When she was fourteen years old she came to work at The Bugle. She set type. She made-up ads. And she became a jack-of-all trades, filling-in wherever she was needed. After she graduated from high school she literally worked her way through college, putting in thousands of hours at our office while completing four years of college. She has been teaching at St. John Brebeuf the past two years and working part-time at the newspaper.

We've another young lady, Jennifer Decker, who graduated from The Willows Academy in Niles and was salutarian of her class. Last week she told me she'll be attending Illinois Benedictine College in Lisle this fall. Jennifer told us she already has $32,000 in scholarships to be used over the next four years.

We've a third young man, Tom Chwojko, who is a senior at Northwestern at the age of 19 and is majoring in physics. He's a brilliant young man who has an unlimited future. Continued on Page 38

Nilesite wanted for village manager post

by Nancy Keraminas

Niles' next village manager may be someone presently in the village administration or serving the village in any capacity," announced Mayor Nick Blase at the June 27 village board meeting. The Mayor said the full board will examine the credentials of qualified village insiders for the next two weeks before expanding their recruitment efforts. Blase expressed the hope that the search would not have to go beyond Niles' borders. Blase later said "about five or six" current employees qualify but did not say who. Continued on Page 36

Blase wants deadline on Ruesch closing

by Shellya Hackett

Niles Mayor Nicholas Blase is putting the force of his office behind a drive to oust the 60-year old Ruesch Garage, 8650 Sherman Rd., from its residential area surroundings. June 27 Blase said, "We intend to move him out of there as rapidly as possible, unless he agrees to move by a certain date. We are firmly committed...prepared to do it legally." Blase put aside references to a "grandfather's clause", a term describing the situations under which municipalities cannot establish laws that in effect legislate against a business that has been operating prior to the law's inception. District 207 proposes budget

The proposed budget for Maine Township High School District 207 for the 1989-90 school year has been established at $54,883,870, according to Donald E. Kenney, assistant superintendent for business.

"Almost 90 percent of the revenue required to fund this year's budget will continue to come from local sources," Kenney said. "The percentage of revenue from the State of Illinois will remain unchanged." Kenney predicts no substantial growth in the local tax base until the 1989 quadrennial reassessment.

At $43,551,510, the Educational Fund continues to make up the largest part of the budget, according to Kenney. Up from $41,137,376 in 1988-89, the additional dollars will cover a six percent salary increase, increased medical insurance costs, and increases in life and disability insurance benefits. "The education budget also includes the replacement of the district's main computer systems, computer based writing lab in each school, and the purchase of a computerized library system," Kenney said.

While the cash balance has declined for three consecutive years in the educational fund, Kenney said he is more concerned about the financial position of the Operations, Building and Maintenance Fund. "This year is the second time in recent years that expenses in the Operations, Building and Maintenance Fund exceed available revenues. In order to maintain and operate our facilities in the future, we must control expenses, retain earned interest in the Operations, Building and Maintenance Fund, and consider transferring at least a portion of the Working Cash fund to the Operations, Building and Maintenance Fund at the end of the 1989-90 school year."

Maine Township High School District 207's tentative budget for 1989-90 will be available for public inspection from now until July 5 at eight area locations.

Copies of the budget are on display at the Ralph J. Frost Administration Center, 1131 S. Dee Road, Park Ridge; Des Plaines Library, 841 Graceland Ave., Des Plaines; Park Ridge Library, 20 S. Prospect, Park Ridge; Morton Grove Library 6140 Lincoln Ave., Morton Grove; Niles Library, 6960 Oakton, Niles; Eisenhower Library, 4652 Olcott Ave., Harwood Heights; Glenview Library, 1930 Glenview Road, Glenview; and Rosemont Library, 6101 N. Ruby St., Rosemont.

A public hearing on the tentative budget has been scheduled for Wednesday, July 5, at the Ralph J. Frost Administration Center at 8 p.m.

nine gallons; Ed Vorpapel, 10 gallons, Ralph Hintz, 11 gallons; Kathy Mohrdeck, R.N., blood drive coordinator; and Village Trustee Scanlon.

About 100 pints of blood are collected monthly throughout the Morton Grove community. The next blood drive is scheduled from 3-8 p.m., Thursday, Aug. 3, at the Richard T. Flickinger Center.

Retirement of Deputy Chief C. Cassidy

A first for the North Maine Fire Protection District, Deputy Chief Carl C. Cassidy is retiring after serving twenty years as a firefighter and officer. Deputy Chief Cassidy is the first of the original members of the North Maine Fire Protection District to retire. Cal, as he is known by his friends, was one of the original members of the Fire Department. He came to North Maine from a rural department in Monmouth, Illinois.

Cal's retirement plans call for the moving of he and his wife, Sharon, to the Northwest corner of Phoenix, Arizona.

A Retirement Coffee will be held on Monday, June 26, 2 p.m. at the North Maine Fire Station 1. At this time, Deputy Chief Cassidy will enjoy a cup of coffee with his friends, and be toned out of service for the last time.

Groundbreaking for Tam garage

Groundbreaking for a new maintenance garage at Tam Golf Course in Niles is targeted for early August, according to Park Commissioner James Pierski. The 4200 square foot building, pared down from 6,000 square feet, will be built by Ili Construction of Chicago at a cost of approximately $275,000. Pierski indicated the district will finance any additional costs above the $250,000 originally budgeted for the project with interest from a $900,000 General Obligation Bond issue adopted in December, 1988. Completion for the garage is anticipated for November. The previous structure was razed this spring.

Fireworks cited for eye injuries over July 4th

by Illinois Society For The Prevention Of Blindness

Four Illinois males lost eyes last year in accidents they probably thought would never happen to them. The four—two men in their late 30s, a 16-year-old and an unidentified fourth—were injured seriously enough in fireworks accidents to require the removal of eyes.

James A. McKechnie, Jr., executive director of the Illinois Society for the Prevention of Blindness, which conducts an annual survey of Illinois ophthalmologists and hospital emergency rooms, said the serious injuries were high for the 13 years the ISPB has been conducting its survey.

Four Illinois males...were injured seriously enough in fireworks accidents to require the removal of eyes.

"The number of reported eye injuries was down significantly over the preceding year which we were pleased to see," McKechnie said, "but these four were especially tragic." McKechnie said the disturbing rise in the number of female injuries to male injuries also continued.

Males used to be injured three times as often as females but the likelihood females would be injured compared to males more closely approached one female for every two males. A four-year-old boy with a burn to the eye from a sparkler was the youngest victim reported. The oldest was a 60-year-old man.

Commonly perceived to be dangerous attractions to young boys, fireworks accidents injure people from infants to those in their 80s. Last year, 25 percent of those suffering eye injuries were 30 and older; 20 percent were between 20 and 30. Some 30 percent of the injuries were to males and females between 10-20 and the rest (23 percent) to children under 10.

Burns continued to lead as the most commonly reported injury at almost 30 percent followed closely by corneal abrasions. Hemorrhages of the vitreous (the fluid in the poster of the eye) and hyphemas (blood in the anterior portion of the eye) occurred next most often.

Bottle rockets continued to be the firework most likely to cause a serious eye injury followed by firecrackers in general. Two people were seriously injured by homemade explosives of oxygen and acetylene.

"In a recent report on risk, one researcher said fireworks tend to be an easily tolerated risk," McKechnie said, "because they have been around for a long time. The perception of the risk, however, is not always related to the probability of injury. It only takes a moment to wreak the devastation visited on the four Illinois men last year. Celebrating with fireworks can cost dearly."

MG Avon ends use of animals in product testing

by Nancy Keramias

Avon Products of Morton Grove announced June 22 they would permanently stop using animals in its products' safety tests. The company operates a plant at 6901 W. Golf Rd. which has been the site of at least two demonstrations by animal rights activists.

Avon spokesman John Cox said the company had unfairly been the focus of PETA (People for the Ethical Treatment of Animals) and AWARE (Awareness of Wildlife and Animal Rights Through Education), a Des Plaines based non-profit group. According to Cox, the company had closed its own Suffern, New York animal laboratory more than eight months previously and discontinued its use of contract testing through other laboratories in mid-March. No company laboratories are located in Morton Grove. PETA members have been boycotting Avon Products for several years, Cox said, saying the recent demonstrations have been "media events." Pictures depicting rabbits in stock type of collars have been used in PETA literature, restraint devices that Avon denies having used.

Cox said the cosmetic industry has been responsible for one half of one percent of animal testing in labs, bolstering his assertion that the animal-rights focus on Avon has been unfair. "Avon has done more to reduce and find non-animal alternatives than any

by Nancy Keramias

Developer Gerald Biehl who currently has two shopping center projects in the works in Niles, is seemingly having a tough time signing up tenants for the 30 million dollar Civic Center Plaza Shopping Center at the southeast corner of Waukegan Road and Oakton St. While Biehl's tenant count is on a holding pattern (an 85,000 square foot Dominick's Omni megagrocery and a Mac Cleens Car Wash are the only announced lessees), the village of Niles' plans for building a new municipal complex to house various departments must also be on hold. Biehl's home base is in Colorado. Continued on Page 37

MG pool evacuated after chlorine leak

The smell of chlorine gas caused evacuation of 150 swimmers from Morton Grove's Oriole pool, 9006 N. Oriole Ave. the afternoon of June 20. Lifeguard David Haberkorn, 19, detected fumes in the pool filter room and alerted fire department and emergency crews. Fire department Deputy Chief Norman Ruth ordered evacuation of the pool as a precautionary measure and his crews inspected the building. Continued on Page 37

The Northwest Community YMCA, 1515 W. Touhy Ave., Park Ridge, will close Aug. 19 for monetary reasons. Joe Roknich, senior vice president for operations of the YMCA of Metropolitan Chicago, indicated the YMCA is reducing its operations "Where units are consistently unable to generate sufficient revenue to sustain the operations."

Dave Lee, Executive Director of the Park Ridge facility, said the property, which is zoned for single family residential use, has not been sold. Park Ridge Park Director, Steve Moxer, said, "There is some interest" in buying the property for the park district, but that no action has been taken. Park Ridge's Centennial Park adjoins the YMCA property. Meyer commented (the closing) "It's really a shame. We viewed them as supplemental (to park district activities.) We always supported them."

Lee said "The staff was devastated" when they learned of the closing. He said the staff and community had been buoyed by the success of a fund raising summerfest recently and that programs were on the upswing. Thirty thousand people attended the fest and some of the revenues

Library may move entrance to Oakton

by Nancy Keramias

The Niles Library Physical Plant Committee met June 19 to view drawings for a re-vamped entranceway on Oakton Ave. Committee Chairman Ted Przybylo said his committee will recommend to the full Library Board to renovate the existing Oakton Street side so it will be a proper front entrance to the library, hopefully in time for the opening of the Civic Center Plaza, which it faces. The existing pentagonal courtyard has deteriorated to the point where it is considered hazardous for pedestrian traffic.

Plans for the courtyard may include any combination of a handicapped ramp, benches, and lighting. Przybylo also told The Bugle he feels the library entrance properly belongs on Oakton Street.

When plans are drawn up for the entranceway, the project would be re-bid, just as the Library's parking lot will also have to be re-bid, on the recommendation of the committee, subject to the board's approval. "I'm 90 percent sure of completing the parking lot this year," Przybylo said. "It's a top priority with the board. People forget that the construction season doesn't end on September 1."

The physical plant committee will also recommend that the Bill lowers seniors' property taxes

The Illinois Senate has passed legislation that will help lower property taxes for senior citizens, according to State Sen. Walter Dudydz.

Senate Bill 896 will raise the senior citizen's homestead exemption from $2,000 to $2,500.

"Increasing the amount senior citizens can deduct from the assessed value of their residences will help reduce the amount they have to pay in property taxes," Dudydz said.

"Skyrocketing property taxes in Chicago have put a real strain on many people's budgets, especially senior citizens on fixed incomes," Dudydz said. "The legislation will help ease the financial crunch for many older people."

The law currently allows persons 65 years of age or older to deduct $2,000 from the assessed value of their residences.

Sponsored by State Sen. Greg Zito, the legislation now moves to the House of Representatives for further consideration.

Hartigan guidelines for senior insurance

Attorney General Neil F. Hartigan has mailed more than 50,000 packets of information to help take the mystery out of selecting health care providers.

"Then consult with your health insurance agent and choose the policy which gives you the best buy for your needs."

Hartigan said the attorney general's hot line will be available for further inquiries. Chicago area callers should dial 1-800-243-5377, downstate 1-800-252-2518.

Maine Township seniors see 'Music Man'

Maine Township Seniors will head for the Fireside Theatre in Fort Atkinson, Wisconsin, Wednesday, July 5, to enjoy lunch and a matinee performance of "The Music Man."

The audience will thrill to such all-time favorites as "76 Trombones," and "You've Got Trouble in River City" as the charlatan Professor Hill sells his dreams to small town America.

Deluxe transportation will leave from the Farmer's Market Parking Lot, Lee and Perry, Des Plaines at 8:15 a.m. and return at 7 p.m. Cost of the trip is $31.35 for members. Guest reservations at $36.50 will be accepted after June 25 on a space-available basis. For reservation information, contact the Maine Township Seniors Department at 297-2510.

The seniors regular monthly bingo will be held at noon Wednesday, July 12, and Thursday, July 13, in the Maine Township Town Hall, 1700 Ballard rd., Park Ridge. In order to provide air-conditioned comfort the location has been changed from the Des Plaines Leisure Center. Because of space limitations, seniors will be required to preregister for the date of their choice. Seniors should also note the change in date from the first Wednesday of the month. Sweet rolls and coffee will be served.

fee will be served, a 50-cent fee will be collected at the door.

It will be a red, white and blue tribute to our country when the seniors celebrate American Pride at their three July luncheons. A special screening of the short film "Washington, D.C., City of Wilderness" will give guests an overview of our American heritage. Other entertainment will include that American favorite - Bingo - with special patriotic prizes.

Seniors can choose one of three luncheons to be held at noon Tuesday, July 18, at Brigante's Banquets, 2648 Dempster st., Des Plaines, noon Wednesday, July 19, at Brigante's, and noon Thursday, July 20, at Casa Royale, 783 Lee st., Des Plaines. Senior Citizens' Handbell Choir performs

They call it the shortest hour of the week. The Golden Belles, ten women with little or no musical training, have discovered a new experience as members of the North Park Village's handbell choir. This program, conducted by Rebecca Patterson and financed by a grant from the Neighborhood Arts Program of the City of Chicago, is uniquely suitable to people with little musical experience.

The Golden Belles, who meet weekly on Monday afternoons at North Park Village, are rehearsing for their first recital which has been planned for July 8 at 7:15 p.m. The brief program will feature familiar favorites ranging from "Ode to Joy" to "America". For more information, call Rebecca Patterson, 973-0808.

BLOOD PRESSURE

Moderate exercise and activity can be important assets in a person reaching their blood pressure goal and staying fit. Everyone has individual differences and conditions that need to be considered when planning a healthful program of exercise. People whose health does not allow exercise can often take part in other enjoyable physical or mental activities such as hobbies, social activities, volunteer work or attending classes. A free blood pressure screening clinic is offered for Morton Grove senior citizens from 9-10 a.m. on Tuesday, July 11 in the Flickinger Senior Center.

SENIOR OLYMPICS

You needn't be an olympic caliber athlete, but only a senior who enjoys having fun, to compete in the upcoming Six-County Senior Olympics. This year's games will be presented from July 26-28 at West Chicago High School. Events include: archery, basketball free throws, bike race, bowling, golf (9 and 18 holes), shuffleboard, swimming, table tennis, tennis, track and field. The Secretary of State's office issues handicapped license plates and temporary or permanent handicapped parking cards. Letters To The Editor

Reader prefers 300 small businesses over Sears

Dear Editor:

The state legislatures are giving Sears $61,000,000 of the tax payers money to stay in the Chicago area. They say this incentive will keep Sears in Illinois. The money even surpasses the give away dollars to the Japanese to build a auto plant in southern Illinois. This also was an incentive to bring industry to Illinois. They claim they can save 6000 jobs here in Illinois by keeping Sears locally.

I am sure there are many companies in Illinois with 20 employees or less that can use some tax incentive. It would take only 300 small companies with only 20 employees to have a work force of 6000 people. I am sure some of these 300 companies can use some aid or assistance from the state to either keep from going under or leaving the state to go to Indiana for a better tax and business climate.

Where is the $61,000,000 coming from? Probably from increased taxes on the 300 small companies. It's taboo to say to the tax payers that they will be paying for saving 6000 jobs for the state of Illinois, it's easier to place this burden on the 300 small companies by increasing corporate taxes. In reality, the state is paying Sears $10,196.66 per employee to keep their jobs in Illinois. I am sure many small companies could use this assistance to either keep them in business or keep them from moving out of state.

The 300 businesses don't have the CLOUT that the Japanese have or big businesses like Sears.

Cablevision subscriber questions channel elimination

Dear Editor:

We have been subscribers to Cablevision since its inception here in Niles. During that time we have enjoyed viewing the EWTN Catholic Cable Network—especially Mother Angelica Live. This program became a habit with our family every Tuesday and Wednesday evening—among others on the EWTN Network.

We learned last week that Cablevision is dropping this channel at the end of June because "WE GET NO CALLS FOR IT".

Who would call for the channel isn't it part of basic service? Why doesn't Cablevision survey the area to find out how many viewers want this fine channel before taking action to remove it?

Who makes these decisions for Cablevision—are there any other viewers out there in TV land who would be disturbed as we are about losing this great program?

Please let yourself be heard—and let CABLEVISION hear from you.

Sincerely,
Name withheld by request

spans many years. Among the many things she has done include serving as a member of the Board of Trustees, being chair of the annual Yard Sale, Heritage Roundtable program and Christmas Gift Shop.

"Mrs. Nedwed is the most delightful person to work with and whenever she says she will do something, we consider it done," said Vice President and Program chair, James Whitcomb.

The presentation of the plaques to Nedwed will be made by Mayor Michael Albrecht and Historical Society President, Jack Branding. Nedwed will join a long, prestigious list of Historical Society supporters that include most recently James Williams, Walter Spiegler, Savana Ahbe Gorsline, Jeannette Jefferson Baranski and Hazel Minnich Froelicher among others.

"The Board of Trustees should be congratulated on their choice to honor Mrs. Nedwed," said Museum Director, Keith Coryell. "She has singlehandedly run the Heritage Roundtable for many years and that program stands perennially as our organization's best history program, not to mention all the other work she does in our behalf."

The ceremonies will be presented on the Fourth of July in conjunction with the annual Ice Cream Social and Museum Open House. Festivities will begin after the Fourth of July parade at the Museum on the corner of Pearson and Prairie streets. For details, stop by the museum Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., Sunday, from 1-4 p.m. or phone 391-5399.

IRS gives jobs to parents

Are you an individual with school age children looking for a part-time job during the school year with good benefits? If you like helping people and have good communication skills, the Internal Revenue Service may be looking for you.

In the Chicago area, the IRS is seeking to hire additional Taxpayer Service Representatives. Those who are selected will receive over 200 hours of paid training in taxes and IRS procedures which will enable them to answer questions from the public next filing season. People who have demonstrated an ability to work with the public and who can apply rules to specific life situations would be excellent candidates for this position. Prior knowledge of taxes is not required.

Once chosen, the new employees would be scheduled for the classroom training program, which lasts about six weeks, according to George Johnson, chief of the Taxpayer Service Division in the Chicago district. "We don't teach everything there is to know about taxes in the classroom, but we certainly cover the basic issues of individual and employment taxes," he stated.

While the positions are part time, employees are eligible for year-round health and life insurance coverage and also earn vacation and sick leave benefits. The starting pay is $6.74 an hour, with the possibility of an increase to $7.54 within 90 days.

If this sounds like a job you might like, call 886-2363 for an application by the end of June. Interviewing will be done this summer and training classes will begin in October, 1989.

Film series at St. John Lutheran

In a day of fading hopes, weak resolve and yawning indifference, Charles Swindoll is giving Christians across the country a new enthusiasm for Christian commitment. Today's woman needs special care

You've met her. You've probably envied her. And you've definitely judged yourself against her.

She is the perfect wife, mother, and employee. Her house is always perfect; designed with taste and style. There is never a cobweb, or a dirty window or an unmade bed. She has several degrees, a glamorous and exciting career yet is able to raise perfectly mannered, neatly dressed children who never throw tantrums, talk back, or ask embarrassing questions in front of others.

Who is she? The superwoman of the 1980's and she's too good to be true. This may be what you see on the outside but chances are she is either absolutely crazy or secretly planning to poison her family and runaway with a gang of skinheads.

What's worse is that we tend to measure ourselves up to this ideal and we always come out wanting to be like her.

"Over the last decade, what has occurred is not so much role changes as role additions," said Ruth Couch, director of Holy Family Hospital's Mary Mullinix Hackett Women's Health Center, a new women's health center which opened in December at the hospital.

"We add but never subtract roles," Couch said. "We take a deep breath, adjust our shoulders to bear more responsibility and announce that we can do it. We accept and even foster this notion."

"The key to dealing with super responsibility is balance," Couch stated. "We tend to send the wrong signals about self-reliance. Sometimes we need to learn to give ourselves permission to ask for help."

Aiding women with physical and emotional help is Holy Family Hospital's Mary Mullinix Hackett Women's Health Center. The center, named in memory of Mary Mullinix Hackett, an active wife and mother who died of cancer in 1987 at age 43, can offer help to women through its varied services.

Services at the center include health screenings to detect diseases, educational programs to increase awareness and knowledge of women's health concerns; one-on-one instructional classes and private consultation.

Women may also take advantage of instructional video tapes, a free loan library of resource books and a physician referral service. Also sponsored by the center are prenatal classes and tours of the Maternity Unit, coordinated in conjunction with Holy Family's Maternity Unit/Child Health program.

Centers hours are 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday. Special evening hours are available upon request. For more information, call 297-1800, Ext. 2727.

Gynecological surgery procedure reduces recovery time

A procedure called pelviscopy is currently being used for major gynecologic surgery at Lutheran General Hospital-Park Ridge. This procedure, which is performed with a closed abdomen, reduces the patient's post operative hospital stay, decreases the postoperative complications and reduces the time it takes a patient to return to normal daily activity.

Developed in Europe, pelviscopy is performed by inserting a pelviscope into the abdominal cavity through a half inch incision near the belly button. The pelviscope has an attached video camera which allows the physician to see inside the abdomen without having to use conventional gynecologic techniques. Additional instruments for performing surgery are inserted through even smaller incisions near the pubic area. The physician can see the inside of the abdominal cavity and the image is projected onto a television monitor.

Using pelviscopy to treat such conditions as ovarian cysts and uterine fibroids reduces the hospital stay to 8 to 36 hours (conventional surgery takes an average of four to seven days). In addition, the time required before return to normal activity has been decreased to five to ten days compared to conventional surgery which takes three to six weeks.

Patients also report that the amount of abdominal pain is greatly lessened and because the incisions are so small, the technique has cosmetic benefits. Studies show there are less complications after surgery such as post operative adhesions, intestinal paralysis and infections and in most cases, physicians can preserve reproductive function.

It has been estimated that over 60 percent of conventional open gynecologic operations can be performed by pelviscopy. The new procedure can be used to remove ovarian cysts while preserving the ovaries; remove uterine fibroids; evacuate tubal pregnancies without removing the fallopian tube; treat pelvic endometriosis; or remove an ovary or fallopian tube. The physicians using pelviscopy must be trained in the use of the special instruments and new suturing techniques. There are only a limited number of doctors in the country who are using this technique for major gynecological surgery.

Infant car seats available

As a reminder, Illinois law requires infants to be placed in an approved car seat when they are traveling by car.

Parents with infants may take advantage of Holy Family Hospital's rent a car seat program enabling them to rent an infant car seat for an entire year. The cost is $10 plus a $20 refundable deposit.

Holy Family's infant seats, which are manufactured by Century, are designed for a baby's protection. The seats conform to the Federal Motor Vehicle Safety standards and are approved by the Illinois Department of Transportation.

A double-shell constructed bucket seat faces the rear of the car. It is semi-reclining and has an adjustable shoulder harness.

The seat may be used for one year or until the baby reaches 20 pounds. Larger toddler-sized car seats may be rented for one month.

The program is sponsored by Holy Family Hospital, the City of Des Plaines, and in cooperation with the Illinois Department of Transportation and the Cook County Department of Public Health.

Legion of Polish Women receive award

The Polish Museum of America has announced that this year's recipient of the prestigious "Polish Spirit Award" will be the Legion of Young Polish Women.

The Legion is celebrating its 50th Anniversary this year, marking a half-century of service to a broad range of charitable and cultural causes. The organization was founded in September, 1939, just two days after Germany invaded Poland in World War II, to help the Polish people during the crisis of war. Members raised money to send aid to Polish soldiers who were interred in German prison camps, and to help the Polish people in general. After World War II, the Legion channeled its energy into post-war help in Poland and other good causes in the Polish American community.

The Polish Museum of America presented the first Polish Spirit Award to Aloysius Mazewski in 1987, for his untiring devotion and service to worldwide Polonia as President of the Polish American Congress and President of the Polish National Congress. Last year the Polish Spirit Award was presented to Bishop Alfred L. Abramowicz of Five Holy Martyrs Parish in Chicago for the many years of humble service as an inspiring religious leader, and an active leader in Polonia.

The year's presentation will be made at the Polish Museum of America summer ball, to be held on Friday, July 14, 1989 at the Itasca Country Club in Itasca, Ill. Cocktails will be served at 7 p.m. with dinner scheduled for 8 p.m. Music will be provided by the Mark Anthony Orchestra. At the summer ball, a silent auction will be held for the benefit of the Polish Museum of America.

For information or an invitation to the summer ball, please contact: Arlene Prugar at 631-0785.

Robbery at yard sale

One person's carelessness became another man's treasure during a weekend yard sale in the 8200 block of Ozanam Ave. The owner conducting the sale went inside the house while a male browser was eyeing the merchandise. The owner returned just as the suspect was fleeing and discovered a $10 roll of quarters missing as well as a 24-carat gold watch valued at $4000 missing from a purse just inside the kitchen door. Also stolen was a 35 mm camera valued at $200.

Theft from auto

Sometime during the night of June 24 and June 25 the driver's door window of a 1988 VW Jetta parked in the lot of the Burning Bush Condominiums at 6872 W. Touhy Ave was shattered. An unknown thief caused $100 damage while removing the $500 AM/FM stereo unit from the vehicle.

Drunk driver hospitalized

A 22-year-old Des Plaines man is facing numerous traffic charges and a headache far surpassing a normal hangover as a result of a traffic accident on June 25. The driver was found bleeding from the head by Niles police following the fenderbender and taken to Lutheran General Hospital where he was hospitalized for a concussion. He refused a blood test and was charged with DUI, driving without a seatbelt, failure to reduce speed, improper lane usage, and driving on a suspended license. He will have a July 25 court date.

Felony forgery

An alert Sears cashier thwarted a would-be weed-wacker purchaser who attempted to buy the $212.47 implement with a stolen check using fraudulent identification. The clerk noted the ID card used by a 20-year-old Chicago woman had been issued shortly before the June 25 purchase and summoned security agents. While the purchaser was still in the store, security traced the real owner of the checkbook, who verified her book was stolen earlier. The Chicago woman had a June 28 court date facing felony forgery charges.

Battery

A 20-year-old Des Plaines student suffered an apparent broken nose when he was punched by a man near the intersection of Waukegan Road and Dempster Street the afternoon of June 21. The six-foot tall man with spiked blond hair knocked on the student's car window, then hit the student when he rolled it down. The man shouted "Don't you ever!", reentered his car and drove off.

A motel in the 9300 block of Waukegan Road in Morton Grove wants payment for a window that was broken during a scuffle between two men the night of June 24. The window is valued at $50. In the scuffle, a 26-year-old Glenview man was hit during an argument over a girlfriend. His attacker then smashed the room window and fled the motel grounds in a gray Oldsmobile.

Criminal damage

A young woman who complained that a Chevrolet Suburban was blocking her in the 8200 block of Waukegan Road may have left her imprint on it before she left. The Suburban owner re-parked his car, then noticed that a fender and a tailgate were dented. There was a partial shoeprint on the fender. The suspected five-foot tall woman was seen leaving in a late model Saab.

Tobacco heist

$1800 worth of cigarettes were stolen June 20 from a 1986 Chevy parked in the 7900 block of Milwaukee Ave. One hundred and fifty cartons of the smoking materials were removed when someone smashed the driver's side door of the vehicle.

Retail theft

Grocery store employees cornered a Chicago woman as she left the store in the 6900 block of Dempster St. carrying stolen merchandise the afternoon of June 21. The 29-year-old woman had hidden 19 packages of deodorant and 11 bottles of Tylenol in her duffel bag style purse. She was arrested by Morton Grove Police who subsequently discovered additional merchandise from a nearby drugstore in her car when the woman asked them to retrieve her purse from her car. The grocery store merchandise totaled nearly $80.

The owner of a flower shop in the 7900 block of Golf Road left her store unattended for about 10 minutes and returned to discover a vase missing. The vase, a 36-inch, hand painted Chinese

Damaged property

On June 20 a resident of the 9000 block of National Avenue in Morton Grove complained she lost wildflowers worth $45 she had planted on land she rented beneath a power line. The loss was incurred when a landscaping crew, hired by Commonwealth Edison, trimmed off her flowers along with the rest of the land they were maintaining.

$24,000 jewelry disappearance

Service Merchandise lost several mens' diamond rings and one gold charm on June 1 when an employee put the items into a plastic bag and handed them to another employee. The jewelry, valued at $24,333, was intended to be set aside for a display. Niles police were asked to assist the investigation on June 21.

Retail theft

Two suspects were arrested by Niles police after K-mart security personnel observed a 22-year-old Glendale Heights man and a 20-year-old Niles man steal a $79.98 pair of black hightop style gym shoes on June 20. One man tossed the shoes over a fence on the shopping center property to his waiting accomplice. A foot chase westbound through the parking lot followed the theft before the arrest. They will have a July 3 court date.

porcelain, had been displayed near the store door. The vase was valued at $800.

A Morton Grove man, living in the 5500 block of Lincoln Avenue told police he suspects one of 50 visiting nurse's aides of theft who cared for his ailing 65 year old wife over a nine month period.

He reported the wife's gold jewelry, valued at $2000, was removed from a box in a nightstand drawer while she was under the aides' care.

A resident of the 8600 block of Ferris Avenue in Morton Grove reported his lawn mower was taken from beneath a patio table in a rear yard sometime between June 12 and 18. The mower, a red and white side-bagger, was valued at $300.

Fare flees cab

A cab driver complained to Morton Grove Police that a fare he picked up in Chicago left his cab without paying at the intersection of Golf and Waukegan Roads in the early morning of June 23. The young man wearing blue jeans and about 20-years-old, jumped out and ran as the cab waited at a traffic light. A search by police found no one, but an hour later, the cab driver spotted the man entering a car in a Waukegan Road restaurant parking lot. Police checked out the car's license number to multi-owners in Evanston. The fare loss was $35.

Auto stolen

A 1985 Chevy which had recently been repainted was stolen from the 8000 block of Overhill Avenue between 1 and 7:30 a.m. June 22. The car was worth $11,000 according to reports.

Auto dealer report thefts

King Nissan at 5757 W. Touhy Ave. reported two separate thefts during the night of June 21. A stereo system from a 1986 Pontiac Fiero was stolen. $1500 was the total reported loss. Two tires were stolen from a 1989 Sentra parked on the lot. The tires were valued at $150 each.

Construction equipment stolen

Workmen at Village Green Shopping Center at 5555 W. Touhy Ave. are missing valuable tools in two separate incidents June 22. One workman briefly left a demo saw unattended in the early afternoon and returned to find it missing. Sometime during the previous night, persons unknown stole a $4,000 pipefitter from the site when someone used a bolt cutter or similar implement to cut a lock securing the device.

The Forest Foundation, Des Plaines, has launched its 1989 grant program with distribution of more than $160,000 in peer leadership grants to 20 area schools and organizations. Lincolnwood Girls Softball League, which serves 220 girls, ages seven to 18 from Lincolnwood and the surrounding area, received a grant for $11,000. With their motto, "Say No to Drugs!", emblazoned on their uniforms, the team members carry their anti-drug message wherever they play. All team members make a personal commitment to be drug-free and encourage others to do the same.

Protection from ticks, Lyme disease

In 1975, only a few Connecticut residents had heard of it. Last year, 5,000 people were diagnosed with it. We're talking about Lyme disease, a tick-borne illness that can be serious if left untreated.

Lyme disease is caused by a spiral-shaped bacteria, which deer ticks pick up from field mice, jackrabbits, or lizards. These ticks wait on low vegetation in wooded areas and nearby grasslands, then transfer themselves to the deer, dogs, cats, and people who brush by.

You're most likely to be bitten by a tick in the summer, and that's when the insect can pass on Lyme disease to you.

Symptoms vary from person to person, and you might not see any signs at all. Most common are a circular or "bull's-eye" rash, flu-like chills, fever, headache, dizziness, fatigue or a stiff neck. Weeks or months after being bitten, some 20 percent of untreated people develop heart rhythm abnormalities, paralyzed facial muscles, impaired motor coordination or similar conditions. About half of untreated people develop recurring or chronic arthritis up to two years after the bite.

Regina athlete honored

Amy Gonka, a graduate of Regina High School and an alumni of St. John Brebeuf, was recently honored at a Regina Sports Banquet for her many accomplishments during her high school career.

Her greatest achievements were in softball. During her four years as a starter on the varsity team, she broke 12 school records and played every position except catcher. During her junior and senior year she was a starting pitcher for the team, but when not pitching, she was always on the field—usually playing a key position for the team.

Gonka, who started out playing softball for the Niles Park District teams when she was just in 5th grade, was able to fill in any position in the absence of a starter. It was her value to the team that led to many of the school records she broke including most times at bat (396).

One of the most dependable hitters of the team, Gonka also scored the most runs, 124; the most hits, 166; the most doubles, 32; the most triples, 22; the most total bases, 267; the most game winning runs batted in, 14; the most walks, 59; and led her team with homeruns during her 121 game career.

In addition, Gonka was a starter on the varsity basketball team and played varsity volleyball. Her coach, Rich Majcinc, noted that she was probably one of the best athletes to attend Regina in the history of the school. Gonka was chosen All Star on conference and tournament teams in both basketball and softball during her four years on varsity.

The Regina softball team won the White Division Championship of the Girls Catholic Athletic Conference this year and Gonka was again chosen as a G.C.A.C. All Star.

Orchard Theatre presents 'Educating Rita'

The Orchard Theatre in Mount Prospect will present "Educating Rita", a comedy play from Friday, June 30 through Sunday, August 20, at weekends only.

Directed by Tom Miller of Chicago, the play is a fresh and funny look at the pursuit of knowledge. The four year London run served as a springboard for the successful film starring Michael Cane and Julie Walters. Willy Russell, playwright, creates a smooth and amusing comparison of two educators: that of streetwise "Rita" and that of Frank, the cynical, jaded, indifferent professor.

Featured in the cast are Kathline A. Halter and Tom Quinn, both from Chicago.

Performance times are Friday and Saturday, at 8:30 p.m. and Sunday at 5 p.m. Ticket price is $10 and reservations are required.

The air-conditioned Orchard Theatre is located at the Old Orchard Country Club, Rand and Euclid Roads in Mount Prospect. Call 259-4840 for ticket information. Fine dining is available.

Barat Adopt-A-Book program

The Barat College Library is initiating a program to preserve its older book collection. The library hopes to obtain enough donations, either from individuals or granting agencies, to establish a small endowment dedicated to restoring irreplaceable books. Donors will know that they have contributed to preserving scholarship, in that a plaque will be inserted into the book which their contributions have helped restore and let them know the title.

Most of the books needing "adoption" are older, relatively unique items the library holds in religious studies and the humanities. However, materials in other disciplines will be included in the program.

The cost to restore any particular item may vary widely depending upon its condition, especially that of its paper. Currently, the library estimates an average cost of $35.

For more information, or to adopt a book, please call Alan Bane, College Librarian, at 234-3000, Ext. 617.

Resurrection Hospital equipment produces images of body tissue

Imagine viewing the body through a scientific window and discovering images never seen before. That's how medical science's newest diagnostic tool, the magnetic resonance imager (MRI) is aiding Resurrection Medical Center physicians in shedding light on many problems and abnormalities in body tissue, nerves and bones.

Resurrection's new 5 1/2 ton MRI scanner located on the ground floor of the Resurrection Professional Building is the most technologically advanced and complex method of imaging," said Dr. Stasia Frank of Resurrection's Specialized Imaging department.

As a unique type of body imaging, the MRI combines a superconductive magnetic scanner, radio frequency waves and computerized graphics which help generate the clearest and most precise images of body tissue. In addition to viewing soft tissue, the MRI also sees cervical disc disorders, spinal vascular malformations, abdominal and pelvic soft tissue growth, bone disease and cartilage tears. And specialists may be assisted by MRI in the detection of problems such as multiple sclerosis, tiny tumors, small abnormalities in fluid spaces of the brain and spinal cord and blood flow abnormalities of the heart and major blood vessels.

As a unique type of body imaging, the MRI combines a superconductive magnetic scanner, radio frequency waves and computerized graphics which help generate the clearest and most precise images of body tissue.

The MRI computer records the entire process. The data is then translated into detailed anatomical images which are projected onto a computer screen. The process is repeated many times. The result is a series of cross-sectional images or pictures shot from multiple angles and on multiple planes.

Dr. Alfred Horowitz recently joined the imaging department staff and brings with him two years of experience with MRI technology, garnered at the University of Illinois.

"Because of the cost factor (typically $2 million to $3 million) and government regulations," Dr. Horowitz explained, "the MRI has been restricted to university sites for the past few years."

Dr. Frank said having Dr. Horowitz as a resource before the MRI facility was opened "meant we started out with a state-of-the-art facility, both in terms of equipment and medical expertise."

According to the experts, MRI has opened up a new frontier in radiology. And exploration over the next few years will lead to enhanced health care for many patients.

Halie Pagowsky has been hired as a part-time art therapist. Trained as a social worker, she is also a commercial artist and will be working with the chronically mentally ill patients. Betty Contorer, a specialist in treating young children will be working at Turning Point, Orchard's child and adolescent center. Mrs. Contorer is completing her Ph.D. in Counseling Psychology at Northwestern University. Kathleen Gunning joins the Rehabilitation Program, leading groups, providing individual therapy to the chronically mentally ill, and serving as liaison to Elgin State

The Day Isaac Discovered Gravity

Five-year-old Isaac Noonan doesn't know much about science yet, but he does know a little something about gravity. It's a discovery Isaac made purely by accident, in a fall from his backyard apple tree.

Fortunately, Isaac's discovery brought him no greater harm than a sprained wrist. Also, fortunately, Isaac's mother had already made another important discovery—the Resurrection Immediate Care Centers.

Resurrection Immediate Care Centers treat everything from sore throats and sprained wrists to more serious, non-life threatening conditions. You'll find that immediate care can be both efficient and inexpensive. And you'll find the staff in at very convenient hours.

Resurrection Immediate Care Center locations are wonderfully convenient as well. There are four Centers in the northwest Chicago area, all just minutes from Resurrection Medical Center—offering you the assurance of hospital backup close at hand.

The Centers are open Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. Weekend and holiday hours vary. An appointment is never necessary. And Visa, Mastercard, personal checks and Medicare are accepted.

Loyola examines home health legal issues

Changes in reimbursement policies and the development of new technological capabilities have combined to thrust home care into the national spotlight. As a result, home care agencies are forced to play an even greater role. Now, to function effectively, the agencies must understand the legal environment and adopt appropriate policies.

Responding to this timely issue of home health care, Loyola University of Chicago's Institute for Health Law will present "Legal and Regulatory Issues in Home Care," on Friday, July 7, from 8:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m. It will be presented at Loyola University School of Law's Institute for Health Law, One E. Pearson St., Rm. 110, Chicago.

The conference will present an in-depth analysis of the most pressing legal and regulatory issues facing the home care industry. Among the issues discussed will be the future of home care, the accreditation and liability involved, pediatric and medicare coverage and nurse staffing agencies. The conference faculty are nationally recognized experts on home care.

"Legal and Regulatory Issues in Home Care" is presented in cooperation with Loyola's graduate program in Community Health Nursing/Home Health Administration, the Illinois Council for Home Health Services, and the Indiana Association of Home Health Agencies, Inc.

The conference costs $75 per person and pre-registration is recommended. To register or for more information, contact Carla Tomaso, of Loyola's Health Law Institute at 670-6608.

In other business, the board approved new sign regulations as a result of an agreement between the Morton Grove Chamber of Commerce and the appearance commission.

The ordinance makes it easier, according to Mayor Richard Hohns, for businesses to display temporary or interim promotional signs, banners and balloons to announce, for example, grand openings, sales, new hours and sidewalk sales.

"We're going to be a lot more lenient (on sign restrictions)," Hohns said.

Another section in the sign ordinance, political signs, was first questioned by Trustee Lewis Greenberg who requested extending the limit to display political yard signs. The trustees agreed the ordinance, which allows such signs to be planted in residents' lawns only on election day, should be extended to four days prior to election Tuesday. The regulation does not include window or car signs, letters or newspaper advertisements.

tion. Blase said a seven-year reprieve after an ordinance is passed should be sufficient, though he agreed that a court might rule differently.

Jim Ruesch, operator of the garage, and his father, George, have turned the matter over to an attorney.

The younger Ruesch had recently complained of harassment by village officials who feel the garage facility doesn't belong in a residential area.

With increasing frequency over the months and years, village inspectors visited the firm, noting zoning violations. Capping a series of such visits, on June 5 four inspectors surveyed the property for violations.

Working with little help, Ruesch has attempted to correct violations such as debris clean up, removal of chicken coops, and repair of fences, but a recent order to pave the parking lot and install an underground water retention reservoir with retarded runoff has loomed as a prohibitive expense.

down by some lunatic," Blase said as he urged board members to support the ordinance. The mayor acknowledged the bill "creates some rancor" with citizens as well as "new problems for the police department" but insisted that the village take a stand against a driver who passes a breath test for the presence of alcohol but is, in the judgment of police, incapacitated for driving.

The department has been offered the free use of a $60,000 computerized testing machine which will be kept on police premises to perform an analysis of a traffic violator's urine specimen.

"I feel very strongly that we should get involved in this ordinance," Blase asserted as he opened up the topic for the Board's continued discussion, adding, "I would like the support of this ordinance by the Board."

Trustee Louella Preston first inquired about the penalties for refusing the test. Village Attorney Dick Troy cited Illinois' implied consent law which subjects a driver to a 3-6 month automatic license suspension for refusing to submit to a breath, urine, or blood test.

Troy also advised that the informative ordinance was the village's safeguard when prosecuting DUI drivers, describing a prototypical offender situation:

"He's woozy, he's wobbly, he's chalking (not walking a straight line) crazy" but "defense attorneys are very skillful in explaining away why someone is woozy." Troy said a traffic offender's drunk behavior is often characterized as being the result of a leg injury or other preexisting condition. Troy said the courts virtually require open-and-shut forensic documentation that a person is drunk and this also necessitates the use of "some type of clinical test for people taking drugs other than alcohol."

Trustee Pete Pesole, who opposed the measure, was careful to explain that his "no" vote on the measure did not signify his approval of illegal drug use. Following the meeting, Pesole cited the lack of precedent for this type of testing, the "demeaning aspects" to both drivers and police personnel when collecting urine samples, and the fact that there is no widespread police testing of urine in other departments. While underscoring his abhorrence for unsafe drivers, Pesole felt that "Niles should not be the leader" in this type of legislation.

Pesole was also the sole dissenter to an ordinance introduced by Trustee James Mahoney eliminating one of three existing promotional ranks for uniformed police officers. The board voted to discontinue the grade of lieutenant as a promotional rank in order to become an appointive rank. Candidates who have passed a test for that rank will remain eligible for promotion until June 21, 1991.

Pesole later elaborated on his no vote, saying he felt the change would discourage the newer officers. Pesole added that the current policy is objective and keeps the department clear of any potential accusations of favoritism when promotions are announced.

Blase also formalized his wish to eliminate the elective post of village clerk, a position held by Frank Wagner, for 20 years. Wagner's retirement to Valparaiso, Indiana, became effective on June 16. The board unanimously appointed Deputy Clerk Kathy Harrison as Acting Clerk until March, 1990 village-wide referendum can be held to determine the clerk question. As he had indicated in a June 19 Bugle interview, Blase praised Wagner's achievements as records director and newsletter editor but said the clerk post itself was a throwback to bygone days when the job's responsibilities entailed more than calling the roll at meetings and signing official documents.

In other business, Trustee Bart Murphy introduced the unanimously passed ordinance to increase water rates, noting the increase given to the village by the City of Chicago which supplies the water to the area.

The trustees also acted on behalf of two Village Crossing Shopping Center tenants. Osco Drugs was granted a liquor license for its new outlet at 5665 W. Touhy Ave. and Trak Auto was referred to the zoning board which will rule on its request to open an outlet at 5623 W. Touhy.

Also referred to the zoners was F&M Distributors request to install a parabolic dish at 8251 Golf Road.

Trustees approved Public Works Director Keith Peck's request to seek federal funding approval by the Northwest Municipal Conference for a Cumberland Ave. flood control and resurfacing project. The $3 million project, which affects that portion of the street between Oakton Ave. and Dempster St., is expected to improve stormwater retention in various areas to either side of the street. Niles expects to fund its $1,682,738 share of the cost with motor fuel tax funds. When work begins in early 1990, an existing water main, with "15-20 leaks" which has been judged to be of "substandard size" will also be replaced.

Next year's tentative budget, scheduled to be adopted in September, has allotted $10,353,067 for the Education Fund or about $17,160 more than the 1988 to 1989 school year. Increases probably will be made in special education and some staff salaries, according to Dr. Eldon Gleichman, district superintendent. The total tentative budget, including all funds is $16,025,304.

A combination liability insurance and property insurance will cost the district $80,363. This premium will be paid to an insurance pool of school districts known as the Collective Liability Insurance Cooperative (CLIC).

Excess liability coverage will be renewed at the premium cost of $15,004 and paid to the Excess Liability Fund (ELF).

A third insurance will be charged to the School Employees Loss Fund (S.E.L.F.) and is provided for in Senate Bill 1200.

District 63 serves students in Niles, Morton Grove, Des Plaines, and unincorporated Maine Township.

Service in the 11 Northeast and Northwest, Cook County townships for persons who use wheelchairs will now run from 5:30 a.m. until 10:30 p.m. Monday through Friday. The service previously ran from 7 a.m. until 6 p.m. In addition, new weekend service will begin. Service on Saturdays will operate from 7 a.m. until 7 p.m. Most communities in the service area will have Sunday service which will operate from 8 a.m. until 7 p.m.

The extended paratransit service essentially reflects the same hours and days as fixed-route service in the area.

"Pace is trying to convey its commitment to improve service for those persons who use wheelchairs," said Chairman Boone. "This is something we have been working on for months, and hopefully will be able to implement soon in the South and Southwest Cook County projects."

The fare for this service will remain the same, $2. Attendants or companions ride free. Passengers must schedule their Monday through Friday trips the same way they previously did, and Saturday and Sunday trips should be scheduled Friday. To schedule a trip, registered riders should call 1-800-233-0806 24 hours in advance. Reservations for Monday service will be accepted the preceding Friday.

Passengers must pre-register for the service. To request a registration form or for any other information on this service, call the Pace Consumer Service Office at 364-PACE, Ext. 500.

Since 1972, he has been employed by the Illinois Dept. of Employment Security and is now a management operations analyst.

He and his wife, Merle, have two children; Frank, a sophomore at Maine East High School in Park Ridge and Melanie, who is entering Gemini Junior High School in Niles.

During an abbreviated board meeting, board members approved the appointment of personnel and salary increases for five secretaries and four teacher aides.

They also agreed to renewal of three insurances for a total of $167,371.

Also, board members resolved to transfer interest earned from the Transportation and Working Cash Funds to the Education Fund.

The Education Fund is the district's largest fund and currently was working at a deficit. A total interest of $265,893.44 will be transferred into the Education Fund.

which, if any, staffers were formally seeking the board's nod or had been approached about the position.

Trustees Bart Murphy and Jim Mahoney reported back to their fellow board members about polling village employees in all departments about their concerns and needs. Murphy said those interviewed were quite candid in their remarks and that some of their suggestions have been implemented. The trustees said the conferences with staffers revealed that the village had dedicated, capable and efficient employees.

Blase said the next village manager will have three attributes: be capable and knowledgeable of administration and financial matters; good employee relations qualifications; and good knowledge of Niles and its village government. "We will start with our own people," the Mayor said.

YMCA members seeking transfers or refunds will be served by the business office through the Aug. 19 closing. Depending upon the members' geographic location, they will be automatically transferred to nearby YMCA centers, including the Leaning Tower YMCA, 6300 W. Touhy Ave. in Niles or the Lattot YMCA, 300 E. Northwest Highway in Des Plaines.

Members may also choose any other YMCA center. Because there is no Indian Guide program at Leaning Tower YMCA, those in the Park Ridge program can join with the group at Lattot YMCA.

John Casey, president of the YMCA of Metropolitan Chicago, said "We greatly appreciate the hard work of the Northwest Community staff and board and the support and contributions of the community. We regret the inconvenience to our members and friends and hope to continue serving them at one of our other fine YMCA facilities."

The village of Niles is awaiting news from Biehl before it will go forward with its own plans to develop its 7 1/2 acre parcel on the Civic Center site. According to Finance Director Gary Karshna, revenue from Civic Center realtors is necessary for the village to pay for a $4 million bond issue to finance construction of a complex which may include space for a fine arts theater as well as the village's senior, family service, administration, code enforcement and finance departments.

Civic Center was formerly the site of the Lawrencewood Shopping Center. Niles acquired the 24 acre parcel in August of 1988 for 13.5 million dollars, and sold all but 7 1/2 acres to Biehl for the same amount of money. All previous businesses relocated with the exception of Mac Cleens, which will move to an expanded location on the southwest portion of the property.

According to Niles Housing Director Todd Bavaro, construction on the site is progressing, with the "E" building adjacent to the Omni shell underway. The Omni Store construction is on schedule with an opening date of fall of this year projected.

Local governments must explore all reasonable efforts to relieve serious traffic congestion in urban areas or face the consequences of gridlock and restrictions on motor vehicle use, according to the AAA-Chicago Motor Club.

The Federal Highway Administration estimates that 60 percent of urban interstate travel is congested, Lehrer said. To alleviate traffic congestion in urban areas AAA-CMC is supporting a resolution that was adopted recently by delegates to the 86th annual American Automobile Association meeting. The recommendations include:

- Develop realistic land use planning to accommodate the increasing needs of motor vehicle travel without discriminating against the motorist.

- Construct interstate bypasses around congested urban areas and, where possible, construct separate car-only and truck-only lanes.

- Synchronize traffic signals and integrate entire traffic control systems to improve traffic flow.

- Initiate car and van pool programs.

- Encourage staggered work hours, four-day work weeks or work-at-home programs among major employers.

- Restrict large trucks to non-rush hour traffic on crowded highways and other key urban routes.

- Develop in-car navigation systems to help guide motorists around congested areas.

do but he has employed a Loop answering service to take calls from his potential tenants. Biehl, unlike Trammel-Crow which is developing Village Crossing Shopping Center at 5500 W. Touhy, did not have as many verbal commitments from tenants prior to beginning construction plans.

Village Crossing has a Jewel/Osco and a Montgomery Ward department store as anchors and the Niles portion of that development is almost fully leased.

Toddler Time, for two-year-olds and an accompanying adult, will be held at the library at 10-10:20 a.m. on Tuesdays from June 27 through July 25. There will be no class on July 4. At each of these sessions two or three brief stories are shared with the participants. The child must be two years old by June 1 to attend the program.

Freshchild storytime, for children ages 3-5 years, will be held at the library at 10-10:40 a.m. or 7-7:40 p.m. on Wednesdays from June 28 through July 26. Each program is forty minutes long and includes stories, fingerplays and songs. Adults must stay in the building but are not to stay with the child during the program. The child must be three years old by June 1 to attend the program.

Children entering kindergarten are asked to attend Stories & More at 10:30-11:15 a.m. or 7-7:45 p.m. on Thursdays, June 29 through July 27 rather than Preschool Storytime.

These are great young people and we are fortunate in selecting such fine young people to work here. But it isn't a choice of chance. One of the prime requisites for a teen working at The Bugle is he/she must be a top student. We realize top students have better work habits and are self-disciplined. They are able to plan their day's work so it can be completed and done well.

It wasn't too many years ago we had a young man, Doug Barlett, who was a co-sutorian at Maine East, who went on to Rochester University and is now successful in the graphic arts world. We had a young lady, Sandy Tikuski who went to Purdue and who became a pharmacist. We had Janet Anderson, who also graduated from college as a pharmacist. Not too many years ago Tsuwun Lin was at The Bugle, then moved down to Champaign and graduated as a mechanical engineer. She worked for one of the top architectural firms in Chicago and now lives in England.

There have been other fine young people who've moved in and out of The Bugle offices. Maryann Massari was at the top of her class at Maine East and worked her way through college and is now the mother of three children. Her brother, Jeff, was a Bugler for many years and wound up in law school. Roseanne Dalmaso did well at Marquette University and wound up with Jeff in law school. And then there was the lovely young lady, Sheila Finnegan, who did yeoman's work as a Bugle typesetter. One fond memory left by Sheila concerned our typesetting machine. She accidentally spilled a "slurp" on the machine keyboard which played havoc with it. Old slurp drinkers also go on to law school. She's now a legal assistant in the attorney general's office.

There's another story more important than these young people's successes. It's the story of their parents. The support and dedication and effort of these young people's parents is the key to their children's success.

We had the two Suljic kids working for us in recent years. Their father, who emigrated from Yugoslavia, did janitor work in Chicago and the suburbs. He worked long hours doing back-breaking work. His son, Frank, graduated as an engineer from Wisconsin and his daughter, Jasmine, has a brilliant future, based on her scholarly high school work.

Tom Chwojko, our budding physicist is a first generation American. His family came from Poland and both Tom and his brother are the recipients of hard-working parents who have made the jump to America a successful one.

We remember Doug Barlett's father for the patience and effort he made. Joe Barlett worked at R.R. Donnelly handling the color separation work for the National Geographic magazine. When his 15 year old son worked in our darkroom Joe spent endless hours with Doug guiding him in the ways of darkroom procedures. Joe's patience was most admirable.

It was interesting watching Doug grow up. When he was a senior at Maine East he was not driving a car. His parents had one car and they didn't feel it was necessary the young man drive a car during these early years. They set different priorities for their son.

We never met Tsuwun Lin's parents. But she too was a first generation American. And her becoming an engineer in college manifested the guidance and direction she had from home.

We now have the Bugle class of '89, Sandie and Jennifer moving on. Jennifer's parents sent her to the very fine Willows Academy from the sixth grade through high school. It was expensive. But they made the effort and the scholarship money Jennifer received, shows the path they led her on was the right one. We've been told her younger brother and sister are going to private schools because the parents are interested in their education being on more of a one-to-one basis which they feel can be had in smaller group classes.

Our Tom Chwojko is working this summer with a professor at Northwestern and plans on getting a PhD at the Evanston campus. His younger brother, Don, already is working at The Bugle. And he has won awards in a statewide science contest this past year.

School teacher and new bride, Sandie Beierwaltes, also has special parents. Carl and Charlotte have worked very hard to raise three fine girls. I was told Carl gets up in the early morning hours and has worked diligently through the many years to provide for his family.

Watching Sandie walk down the aisle at Brebeuf Saturday afternoon was a sentimental moment for all of us. The sun was reflecting down into the church from the center spire of glass. And the warmth of love filled the church. And while Sandie and David were in center aisle for the entire day and evening, behind the scenes were Carl and Andy Beierwaltes...And behind the scenes of the scholarship girl, Jennifer Decker are the Decker parents and behind our budding physicist and his brother are the Chwojkos. Behind Doug Barlett are Joe and Mim Barlett and behind our lady engineer, Tsuwun Lin, are her parents and behind the pharmacists are the Andersons and the Tikuskis, and behind the Suljics, And the Massari parents and the Dalmaso parents and.....

Township's annual Agency Day seminar

Maine Township Supervisor Joan B. Hall has announced plans for Maine Township's annual Agency Day seminar and information exchange Thursday, July 6.

This year's program will focus on techniques for successful communication, including networking and lobbying.

"Winning Strategies for Networking" will be the topic of speaker Jeffrey B. Paige, president of Paige, Martin, and Associates, Incorporated, a firm that offers seminars to businesses and other organizations.

"Lobbying-It's Many Faces" will be addressed by Helen Heyrman, executive director of the Illinois Council of Home Health Services.

Cost of the seminar including lunch, conference materials, and a directory of area social service agencies is $12.

For reservations, call Marlene Laws or Meryl Rivenson at the Maine Township Town Hall, 297-2510.

Assistant principal leaves RES

Resurrection High School's assistant principal, Barbara Heyrman will be leaving her position at the high school after a tenure of eight years.

Heyrman began her career at Resurrection as a Social Studies teacher and soon entered the administration as assistant principal in charge of personnel. For the last two years Heyrman has served as Parents Club Moderator as well.

Leaving the school to pursue an academic course leading to a doctorate in Psychology, Heyrman will be taking on the position of principal at St. Barbara School.

We wish Barb well and we are confident she will succeed with all her future plans. All of us who have had the good fortune to work with Barb know first hand the dedication and professionalism with which she faced every challenge given her. We will miss her fresh ideas, her good judgment, and her unique sense of humor.

Motorcycle safety tips

by Secretary of State Jim Edgar

When riding in traffic, motorcycle riders must be able to control direction, speed and balance of their vehicles. Practice these safety tips for turning and braking so you can keep control and avoid an accident:

1. Limit your speed. New riders often try to take curves or turns too fast. When they cannot hold the turn, they cross into another lane of traffic or go off the road. Some brake too hard and skid out of control. Therefore, approach all turns carefully. Reduce your speed before entering a curve, and increase your speed gradually as you come out of the curve.

2. Lean with the motorcycle. Some riders are afraid to learn how to lean. For most turns, you should lean about the same amount as your motorcycle. If you take sharp curves at high speeds, you must lean even more.

3. Use both brakes every time you slow down or stop. If you use only the rear brake for normal stops, you may not develop the habit or the skill to use the front brake properly when you need to stop quickly.

4. Apply both brakes at the same time. Some people believe the rear brake should be applied first. However, the sooner you apply the front brake, the sooner you will start slowing down.

Remember, you can also use both brakes in a turn. Using the front brake is dangerous only if the road is slippery and you use the brake incorrectly.
