A zip code of Niles' own: An 'impossible dream'?

by Shellya Hackett

Village Trustee Bart Murphy on March 26 questioned whether a zip code of Niles' own was an "impossible dream."

Murphy noted a quest for Niles' own zip began when first class postage was six cents.

He outlined the vexations resulting from not having a uniquely Niles zip code, among them, 1) residents and businesses in the north end of Niles are in zip 60016 and though Niles residents, must indicate their address as Des Plaines; 2) the 60016 designation caused sales tax money to be diverted to Des Plaines and

Firefighters contain liquid propane leak

Highly flammable liquid propane, dripping from what a fire department source called a "pin-hole leak" in a tank car disrupted traffic at Lehigh Avenue and Howard Street, Niles, the morning of March 22.

Niles firefighters, assisted by Morton Grove units and a hazardous material team, pumped the liquid from one railroad tank car to another on a siding next to the Barr Company, 6100 Howard St.

Barr Company is a contract packager of consumer products. Howard Jessberg, Barr president, described the leak as minor.

Village elections on Tuesday

Positions on Niles village, park district and library boards will be decided in this coming Tuesday's election. When voters enter the voting booth April 2, they will be facing the names of nine candidates contesting for the five openings on the village board; five Nilesites running for the two openings on the park board and three candidates lined up for three library board posts.

Seeking four-year terms as Niles village trustees are: Betty Marie Beech, 67, 8258 N. Newcastle. Beech, a retired bookkeeper, heads a guild at St.

John Brebeuf parish and is past president of the Grandmothers Club.

We hope Niles voters will write in the names of Mary Marusek and Carol Panek for village trustees in next Tuesday's village election. They are the only candidates running for Niles village trustee who have not been hand-picked by Niles village president Nick Blase.

In the first village election in the 1990's, it is essential Niles village board should voice more than one point of view. Nick Blase's dominance of the village board, whom he personally appointed, makes it incumbent Niles has a second (and third) point of view emanating from village board members.

The lack of a second voice prevents the checks and balances which are essential for a democratic government.

Recently, a Bugle reporter said she spoke to a businessman who was having problems in Niles because he balked at buying insurance from a local Niles firm. It was "suggested" by a Niles village employee he purchase insurance from the preferred com-

Fire Department warns businesses of fake solicitors

Telephone calls are being received by Niles businesses in which the caller identifies himself as a Niles fireman and an employee of the Niles Fire Department.

The caller is soliciting funds for an ad book which he states contains information for businesses on fire safety together with decals to put in the window of their business.

Niles Fire Chief Harry Kinowski warns Niles businesses that the Niles Fire Department is not involved in any soliciting of funds nor does it derive any monetary benefit from this solicitation. Therefore, Kinowski is warning all Niles businesses to be wary of these phone solicitations.

MG firefighters complete course on hazardous materials

by David Miller
Firefighters of the Morton Grove Fire Department are just finishing up a 66-hour course designed to give them the information and practical "hands-on" experience needed to handle most hazardous materials spills that might occur within the village.

The course is conducted by instructor Bruce Bernstein and course coordinator Stanley Kimura, both of Oakton Community College.

The handling of hazardous materials spills, such as from a railway tank car or a tank truck using the roadways within the village, requires considerably more preparation and careful execution than most emergency personnel are normally trained for, according to Kimura of OCC's special instruction unit.

The firemen have undergone a thorough course familiarizing them with the chemistry of hazardous materials, pesticide dangers, handling of flammable and compressed gases, oxidizers and organic peroxides special handling, as well as the special care

Two Morton Grove firefighters practice proper hazardous chemical spill containment, under the supervision of Oakton Community College needed for dealing with corrosive products and radioactive materials.

With the amount of industry in our area and the possibility of chemical spills from vehicles entering, leaving or simply passing through the village the chances of a hazardous materials spill increases and the people that the community depends upon to handle these emergencies must be kept up-to-date on the latest procedures, according to a fire department spokesperson.

As a regular part of their course, Kimura and Bernstein get the course participants fully involved in a series of "hazardous materials spill simulations."

The firemen are first given a lecture/demonstration on proper handling procedures involving a particular material, along with all of the known "do's and don'ts," then they are asked to demonstrate their understanding of the issues by their involvement in a full-scale simulation exercise.

This gives the men a feeling for the "real thing" and also permits the instructors to critique their performance on the spot, so any mistakes can be pointed out which could prove harmful in an actual emergency spill, according to Bernstein and Kimura.

Day number 10 of the course consisted of decontamination procedures for containing a simulated 55-gallon drum hazardous material spill and involving an unconscious victim (workman).

Firemen first set-up their team positions via radio, sized-up the dangers involved and identified the contaminant using binoculars, established command, isolation and control zones, outlined their plan of approach, and only then, entered the danger zone to remove the victim and contain the contaminated zone caused by the simulated leak.

Their objective was to help the victim as quickly as possible but without added injury to department personnel and to prevent the leak from spreading to any more areas than it had already contaminated. Sewer inlets were blocked, the area "foamed down" and a water-filled "containment ring" installed around the affected area.

During and after the exercise, Kimura and Bernstein of OCC offered their advice and critique of the handling of the situation, which could be the "real thing" at any time.

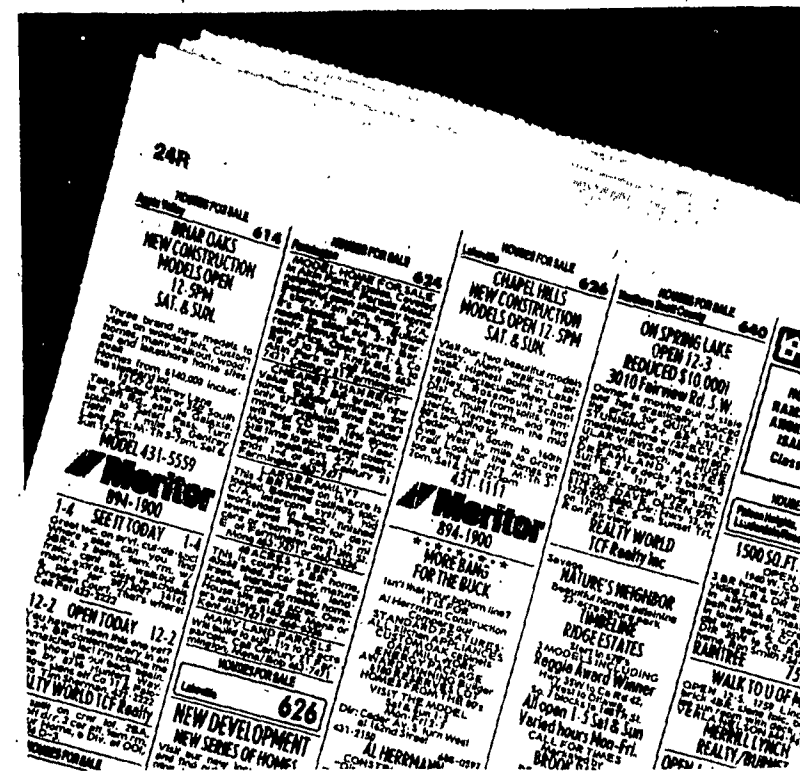

The course offered for area firefighters by OCC is certified by the State of Illinois and includes a certification test to allow the participants to see their strong and weaker areas so that they can train further on their own.

Firemen are also encouraged to view video tapes of their own simulations and to keep abreast of new techniques and procedures as they become available.

instructors, as they apply sealing tape to a 55-gallon drum used for the simulation in the parking lot of the fire station.

OLR students create practical inventions

Our Lady of Ransom third grade student Amy Litterski, demonstrates her invention she calls the "Grand Opening" at the school's third annual "Invention Convention". After seeing her mother struggling to open stubborn glass jar lids over the years, Amy developed a rubber glove fitted on the palm with a soap holder suction-cup pad. The extra traction provided by the suction cups helps remove stuck lids.

The students at Our Lady of Ransom grammar school, 8624 W. Normal Ave. in Niles, went all out for the school's third annual "Invention Convention" March 21 with approximately 45 entries from which the judges had to select winners.

M-NASR seeks home at park facility

by Linda A. Burns

The organization seeks at least 6,500 square feet of space and employs about 15 full and part time staff members.

M-NASR now rents space in Skokie and part of the reason for the move would be to save money on high commercial rental rates, Koenig said.

"We would be paying less rent (at a park facility)," he said. M-NASR would also be closer to the member park districts which it serves, Koenig said.

Included in those districts are Niles, Morton Grove, Golf Maine, Park Ridge, Skokie and Construction of Bartlett disposal site is stalled in courts

SWANCC seeks third balefill transfer site

by Shellya Hackett

Construction of the balefill waste disposal site in Bartlett is stalled in the courts, but its backers are confident and working to bring the project to completion.

As an indication, balefill's developer, the Solid Waste Agency of Northern Cook County (SWANCC), is actively trying to secure a site for the third in its stable of transfer stations. It is looking for a northwestern location, somewhere near the Kennedy Expressway or the Northwest Tollway, according to SWANCC Executive Director William Abolt.

This third site would service Skokie and other towns in the southern third of the SWANCC constituency, Abolt said.

He noted securing permits for, and financing the transfer stations was as significant as balefill (in Bartlett) from the cost aspect, because two-thirds of their revenues are used for the stations.

Plans are already in place for stations in Rolling Meadows and in unincorporated Wheeling Township, near River and Central Roads. Abolt said SWANCC directors voted unanimously to continue the balefill project, to secure its approval, in spite of ongoing litigation.

Balefill, located in south suburban Bartlett, is planned as a 20-year depository for solid waste from the 26 northern suburbs joined together in SWANCC.

The $11 million balefill plan coordinates the disposal of garbage from its initial collection through its compacting into bales at transfer stations, to its final deposit at the Bartlett balefill site.

SWANCC bought about 490 acres near Bartlett for the project

Fire damages apartment in Maine Twsp.

A housewife, who stepped outside her kitchen door to wave good-bye to friends the afternoon of March 23, found herself locked out when the wind blew her door shut. It separated her from cooking oil she was heating on the kitchen stove.

By the time the resident of an apartment in the 10,000 block of Maine Lane in unincorporated

Maine Township could get to a phone, the cooking oil started on fire and involved the kitchen stove, counter and cabinets.

Arvey's smoking bet makes lots of cents

Tommy Arvey, co-owner of Arvey's Restaurant, Oakton and Waukegan, Niles, found out recently that his bet with a friend to quit smoking not only made sense, but brought him lots of cents.

Sometime back, Tommy made a bet for $1,000 that he could kick his smoking habit with a purvey-or friend who frequents Arvey's restaurant. When the deadline for that bet arrived last week, Tommy had made good on his bet to quit smoking, but his friend had not been able to kick the habit.

Last weekend, living up to his promise to pay Tommy $1,000, the friend arrived at Arvey's with

Expert To Discuss The 'Living Will' And Durable Power Of Attorney At Ballard Seminar, April 2, 1991

You should make your wishes known about the continuance of life support systems before illness or accident strikes.

A "living will" is not necessarily the best way to insure that your wishes are followed; according to Eli Pick, Executive Director of Ballard Nursing Center, Des Plaines, "In Illinois, a much better and more flexible instrument is the durable power of attorney for health."

Pick said that living wills, as well as power of attorney for both health and property, will be thoroughly explored in a presentation at Ballard by Cynthia Farenaga, a private attorney specializing in elder law.

Farenaga's discussion will begin at 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday, April 2, 1991 at Ballard Nursing Center, 9300 Ballard Road, Des Plaines, Illinois. The program, "Healthy Legal Check-Up: The Facts on Living Wills and Durable Power of Attorney," will cover all legal aspects of the "right-to-die" decision.

"This program is intended to eliminate much of the confusion which exists about such issues such as removal of life support sys-

TAXING FORMS

The April 15 deadline is fast approaching and the Morton Grove volunteer income tax aides are available again this year to assist senior citizen residents with their federal and state income tax forms. The program assists those who would like help with the language, formulas, and the understanding of tax laws. There is absolutely no charge for this service.

RTA REDUCED FARE CARD

The Regional Transportation Authority's Reduced Fare Program provides an approximate 50% discount on Pace, Metra and CTA services. Unfortunately, because of the great value the program offers, it has been the target of persistent fraud attempts by people who are not eligible for this benefit. To safeguard the program from such abuse, and to preserve the reduced fare benefit for its rightful recipients, those senior citizens who have registered, the RTA is revising its Reduced Fare Program. Between March 1 and Aug. 31, all eligible special users travel card holders must re-register if they wish to remain active in the RTA's Reduced Fare Program. Call the RTA Travel Information Center at (312) 836-7000 to find a nearby Reduced Fare Program registration center.

SLOW PITCH SOFTBALL

Wanted, over 50 years young slow pitch 12" softball players. A new league is forming in Chicago's northwest suburbs with special rules to avoid injuries. It makes no difference if it has been years since you last played ball. Slow pitch softball is fun at any age. Contact Howie Lipschultz at (312) 769-5007.

DIABETES SCREENING

Blood sugar is the fuel that runs the body. When blood sugar is out of normal balance, many types of symptoms develop because nearly all tissues in the body depend on it to function. There are two basic types of diseases associated with blood sugar. Diabetes mellitus is a condition in which the blood sugar is too high and hypoglycemia is a condition wherein the blood sugar is too low. Free, simple and quick blood sugar evaluations are offered from 9 to 10 a.m. on Tuesday, April 2 in the Flickinger Senior Center. People coming in for the screening should not be known diabetics and should fast from the evening meal of the night before.

Car dealership should be allowed to fly flag, Dudycz says

Dear Editor:
Last Thursday afternoon, I received a telephone call from Mr. Gary Assell, general manager of Jeep Eagle of Schaumburg. Mr. Assell told me that his employer was being subjected to an unfairly restrictive village ordinance seeking to minimize his quite prominent display of the U.S. flag.

The controversy began when the Schaumburg Village Board passed ordinance #3149 on March 28, 1989. The action was taken in response to complaints that the U.S. flag was being subjected to visual exploitation by certain businesses in Schaumburg, and in some cases placing public safety in jeopardy. With the new ordinance enacted, many businesses voluntarily complied. Jeep Eagle of Schaumburg did not. The village then attempted to enforce the new ordinance upon Jeep Eagle.

The owner of the car dealership, Mr. Sid Sherman refused to comply with the contention that although his 45 ft. flagpole had been affixed to his property just one foot inside the property line, the new ordinance required the flagpole to be moved an additional 49 feet. Such a move would place the flagpole either in the middle of the parking lot, or in the middle of the showroom.

Several Schaumburg businesses such as Hyatt Regency and the Schaumburg Corporate Center applied for and were granted variances to the ordinance. Jeep Eagle of Schaumburg (under case #89-30) also applied for a variation on November 1, 1989, due to the fact that the flagpole had been erected at least two years prior to the enactment of the new ordinance. The request was denied and the controversy began.

This past year, Jeep Eagle of Schaumburg has been taken to court by the village of Schaumburg, and subsequently fined in excess of $19 thousand, because they were prominently displaying the U.S. flag!

As a former Chicago Police officer and detective of 13 years, I saw no visible signs of obstruction of view, nor anything that would make me personally believe that the flagpole was either a hazard or a public nuisance.

As a Vietnam veteran and an American citizen, I was actually quite impressed with the flag and how it was being displayed.

I have instructed by legislative staff to draft a bill which I plan to introduce this week. The legislation is intended to exempt the display of the U.S. flag from restrictive ordinances like the controversial one in Schaumburg.

I commend Jeep Eagle of Schaumburg for their commitment to principle and common sense approach to fairness.

It is Scott Tyler has a lawful right to display His American flag on the floor of Chicago's Art Institute.

If Joey Johnson has a lawful right to burn His American flag on the streets of Houston...

Then Sid Sherman should also have His lawful right to continue to proudly fly His American flag on His property in Schaumburg.

Sincerely,
Walter Dudycz

Resident irate over construction company's use of village property

Dear Editor:

Why is Abbott Construction Company allowed to use Niles village property at the corner of Waukegan Road and Oakton Street for storage of trucks, dirt and sand next to a "No Dumping Sign" and allowed to do truck repairs, change oil, plus leave oil spills and leaks? They start work at 6:30 a.m. sometimes, running their motors next to Culver School. I am sure zoning ordinances do not permit this next to schools or anywhere in Niles.

They have a 500-gallon or more gas or oil tank stored on the property unmarked and not fenced in. There was a tank of the same type at the intersection of Kirk and Nora, again a hazard and unsafe condition for the residents. It has been moved due to construction at the corner. But it must be somewhere else in Niles, unsafe. Harlem and Kirk has a deep hole with no fence or barrier to keep children or other residents from falling in. Construction and other materials are all over the streets and sidewalks-again no protection and unsafe. This may be progress for Niles residents, but to destroy trees and private property and the ecology is wrong. Better, safer, healthy procedures should be figured in their cost.

If any resident was having work done, it could not be done in this unsafe, unhealthy manner. The only ones getting away with this are politicians and big business where money counts, "Not People".

All of us would like to run a business on village property. No property taxes and code violations and safety inspections are ignored. Let's clean up our village property, give it back to the people, tell big business to buy their own property and pay their fair share of taxes and repair trucks on their own land.

Every resident should speak out at this outrageous practice in your neighborhood. Oh yes, businesses that work, pay taxes and add to the community are forced out of Niles. Rusch's Garage, Lovred Construction just to mention a few.

Outraged Niles resident

NOTE

While several Letters to the Editor were received from political candidates and their supporters for publication in this week's edition, it has been the policy of The Bugle not to publish any letters dealing with politics in the last issue preceding the election. We feel this is a fair policy since such publication would not allow for any rebuttal.

April is National Lawn Care Month

Lawns and their value to our environment are the focus of National Lawn Care Month, an educational program designed and sponsored by the Professional Lawn Care Association of America (P.L.C.A.A.), and locally, Canterbury Landscape Design Ltd.

National Lawn Care Month, April, 1991, celebrates the important contribution healthy lawns make to the quality of the world's environment. The month-long program features weekly themes promoting environmental, recycling, maintenance and safety messages.

Scientists have long recognized the environmental importance of lawn grasses. Lawns cool our neighborhoods, replenish our oxygen supply, prevent soil erosion, filter dust and pollen from the air, purify water, build topsoil, reduce sunlight glare, and absorb noise pollution.

"Lawns need to be recognized for the necessary benefits they provide to our health and our future," said John Fryksdale, president of locally-owned Canterbury Landscape Design, Ltd., and member of P.L.C.A.A.

The four themes are as follows: Lawn Appreciation Week - April 1-6, Lawn Maintenance Week - April 7-13, Lawn Care Product Safety Week - April 14-20, and Grasscycling Week - April 21-27.

When it comes to investing for your retirement an Individual Retirement Account (IRA) continues to offer important advantages.

Here's why:

You may deposit any amount up to $2000. You may still be eligible to make full or partial tax deduction for your deposit.

One of the primary benefits of an IRA remains intact: The money your IRA earns, continues to grow tax deferred, which means it grows faster than if held in a similar investment outside the IRA.

Finally, unlike many investments, an IRA can be opened for as little as $250.

Saint Anselm's plans Holy Week services

"It has been said that the services of Holy Week are really one liturgy that is lived out in serial installments over several days," explains Father Gregory Hinton, pastor of Saint Anselm's.

Each of the services attempts to recreate the sense of being there, with the early followers of Jesus as they experienced the events of Holy Week.

The Service of Maundy Thursday commemorates the three commands that Jesus gave his disciples: to wash one another's feet, to celebrate the Eucharist (supper of the Lord) and to love one another. During this liturgy, in obedience to our Lord's command, Father Hinton washes the feet of representatives of the congregation.

The service continues with the stripping of the Altar, which commemorates the mocking of Jesus by the Roman Soldiers, and an all night vigil at the Altar of Repose. The Vigil is a reminder of the agony in the Garden, in which Jesus asked the disciples to pray with him for an hour. Members of the congregation take turns praying for an hour at the Altar of Repose throughout the night. The Service begins at 7:30 p.m.

Determining popular design colors

by John O'Grady A.S.I.D.
O'Grady Interiors

People always ask me "What are the new and popular colors now?" I say, that is a difficult question to answer. Changes in color, as well as furnishing styles, is gradual. "What's new" may not get beyond the showroom of a seasonal buyer's market.

I have my own ideas about color. I believe no color is ever out; each may be right for some individual. In my work, as well as, on my first house call to a client, color discussion is an important first in my notations. I like to bring my client in on the subject of color; what do they like; what are the window exposures?

Sometimes important things, such as carpet, sofa, or woods, which are remaining the same and should be color complemented for the best end result for the setting.

About current color trends; I see the color wheel still full of the peach family, going on to include warm rose hues. The greens, I like to call jade, are all cool, and include the deep values like forest. Blues are always high in preference by the public, and we are seeing some return to the aqua and turquoise cast.

Gold is scarce, and one of my favorites-yellow is in quiet retreat. While a whole new group of interesting beiges is appearing in carpet, I find that color family not extensive in fabrics. Black, gray, and white are not considered colors at all, but are always standard.

I can't decide what creates a "color style change," except that it may be due to our wanting a change. We can only look at a color so long, like the Halloween Pumpkin or Red Poinsettia, they eventually have to go!

War-related charity sued for fraud

Attorney General Roland W. Burris has filed suit against Voice for Freedom and Phone Base Systems, two Virginia companies that allegedly defrauded consumers in Illinois and nationwide out of as much as $500,000 by operating an unregistered war-related charity.

The companies allegedly collected over $500,000 in donations and pledges that was supposed to pay for a phone message center between troops in the Persian Gulf and their families here in the United States. However, by the defendants' own estimate, fewer than 25 messages from military personnel got through.

The defendants are charged with failing to properly register with the Charitable Trusts Division of the Attorney General's office, as required by the Charitable Solicitations Act, and with violating the Illinois Consumer Fraud and Deceptive Business Practices Act and the Uniform Deceptive Trade Practices Act.

Glenview man flashes women at Golf Mill

Niles police charged a Glenview man with public indecency after he allegedly exposed himself to two women at Golf Mill shopping mall March 21.

The 21-year-old offender, who wore a long brown coat, reportedly stood near his red Chevrolet car in the mall's west parking lot and called to a Des Plaines woman, 27, as she walked by. He asked her the time and when she pointed to an outdoor clock, he exposed himself to her.

Vandalism to cars reported

An employee of a club in the 8800 block of Dempster Street, Niles, reported unknown offenders used a sharp object to scratch the finish on his '89 Chevrolet Camaro while he worked the night of March 23.

He estimated the damage at $800.

The employee was stopped as he was leaving the store and store officials recovered the tape and $1,750.

A police search determined the man also carried three credit cards stolen from a Lake Zurich couple two weeks ago.

The employee, 20, of Chicago, was placed on $10,000 bond and has a May 2 court date for theft and possession of stolen credit cards.

A Niles woman, 39, reported her wallet was lost or stolen when she shopped in a grocery store in the 7900 block of Milwaukee Avenue, the afternoon of March 23. She could not estimate the value of the lost wallet, credit cards and identification.

NILES POLICE REPORT

Column

by Lt. Jerry Sheehan
Niles Police Department

Construction underway for 9-1-1 center

If you plan on stopping by the NPD in the near future you're going to find our front door locked! And in the semi-circular front drive out front rather than finding a Niles squad parked you will now notice a large red dumpster. Are we closing? Not hardly! Are we moving? Nope! We're now into the hands of our 9-1-1 transition.

A construction contract was awarded for the 9-1-1 project as the February village board meeting and the contractor is now in the process of demolishing the old comm center and preparing for the new comm center. The construction is estimated to be completed by the end of June.

For the last two weeks the police department has been swarmed with telephone, radio, computer, and electrical technicians moving our radio and phone communications into a temporary location until the new center is finished. Our front and side door have been locked and there are large signs compliments of Terry Gondola and the Niles Public Works directing visitors and other citizens with police business around to our rear entrance.

This entrance will now serve as our main entrance until our construction is done. So, if you are coming to the PD park your car on the Milwaukee Avenue or Touhy Avenue side of our lot and enter through the rear door on the west side of the police department. After 11 p.m. at night and until 7 a.m. in the morning the door will be locked but an intercom is there to let you speak with the dispatcher who can "buzz" you in. Signs on the inside of the building will direct you to the desk. We're still open seven days a week, 24 hours a day, all we've done is changed our entrance for now. Once this construction is over our front desk operation will again be accommodating people through the front door.

Our cut over date to the 9-1-1 emergency number is not until May, 1992 so if you have a police emergency still use our 647-2131 exchange and for non-emergencies use 647-0400. To contact the Niles Fire Department and paramedics for an emergency call 827-2121 and for non-emergencies 967-6100. When the time comes to cut over to the 9-1-1 number you will be given ample notification, but we still have a ways to go.

Needless to say we will be anxious to finish up with this project as it is a lot of work and inconvenience, but we feel when the 9-1-1 service is initiated it will be a great benefit to the community.

Employee theft incidents reported

A security agent at a Golf Mill retail store saw an employee take $50 from the cash register she was attending and called police. The employee, 31, of Chicago, told authorities she gave the money to an unnamed friend. She was placed on $1,000 bond and has an April 11 court date.

An employee of a tile store in the 9000 block of Milwaukee Avenue, Niles, was arrested after he admitted taking over $336 from the cash register over an eight-month period, from July of 1990 to mid-March, 1991.

The employee, 34, of Hanover Park, gave a written confession and agreed to make restitution to a regional manager investigating money losses from the store's cash register.

The employee was placed on $1,000 bond and has an April 3 court date.

Police nab drivers with suspended licenses

Early March 21, a 31-year-old Glenview man was stopped in the 8700 block of Milwaukee Avenue, Niles, for driving 51 miles per hour in a 35 mile per hour zone.

Investigation by police determined the man's driver's license had been suspended twice and he carried no insurance. In addition, the registration plates on his Ford van belonged on a Chevrolet sedan. The driver has a May 2 court date.

Niles police stopped a Morton Grove man, 39, the morning of March 23 in the 7300 block of Milwaukee Avenue because the man's car had an expired Illinois registration.

Investigation determined both the man's driver's license and registration were suspended. He was placed on $1,000 bond and has an April 10 court date.

Purse stolen

A quick man in his 20's grabbed a woman's purse from her car as the Des Plaines woman and her husband were fixing a flat tire at a gas station in the 8000 block of Oakton Street, Niles, the night of March 23.

The unknown thief jumped into a car containing three other people and fled. The woman lost a purse valued at $65, $20 in cash, keys and identification.

Car burglary

Persons unknown entered a Glenview man's '78 Chevrolet Camaro the night of March 23 when it was parked in a theater lot in the 9100 block of Golf Road, Niles, and took dress shoes, compact discs and an equalizer valued at $1,000.

Park facilities need improving: Baczek

"As a life-long resident of Niles I feel there is a need for improvement in the quality of facilities and services offered by our park district," Marlene A. Baczek, a candidate for Niles Park Board commissioner said.

"As a candidate for Niles park commissioner I have the knowledge, experience, education and vision to serve my community and improve the situation which exists," she said.

"Why did the Niles Park District pay $1.5 million for a facility which could only be used less than three months out of the year? Why do Niles children participate in little league baseball at Park Ridge? Why do Niles children have to go to Morton Grove to participate in gymnastics and dance? Why do Niles seniors use the Morton Grove Community Center? Where do our teens go for social and recreational time?" Baczek asked.

The people of Niles deserve a park district, which can supply them with progressive, quality programming and facilities for all ages, she said.

"We do not need higher taxes. Effective May, 1991, the Niles Park District has administered a 4.9 percent tax levy. I will initiate a Comprehensive Financial Master Plan consisting of a series of 3-year, 5-year, and 10-year plans. With a plan such as this the board of commissioners does not have to expect the taxpayer to make up for their mismanagement of funds."

"I want to plan and work towards the future for the growth of our park district. Without vision and fresh ideas our community becomes stagnant. I am well qualified for the office."

"My experience as a business systems analyst has assisted me in developing skills such as: organizing, planning and forecasting. My recreational participation has ranged from organizing, coaching, and playing team sports, to teaching dance and performing on stage. I feel a performing arts program is long overdue. Through these activities I have acquired the insight to meet the diverse needs of the park district," Baczek said.

Baczek is a member of the League of Women Voters Morton Grove/Niles and a recipient of the 1980 Outstanding Young Women of America Award.

"My commitment as a commissioner is to represent the people of my district, by meeting their recreational, social, and cultural needs," she said.

Ease financial obligations for troops, Dudycz says

The Illinois Senate has adopted a resolution supported by State Sen. Walter Dudycz (R-7th, Chicago) asking for a temporary easement of financial obligations for troops serving in the Persian Gulf.

State Resolution 109 urges financial institutions, utility companies and other businesses holding financial obligations of armed forces personnel to negotiate payment plans on outstanding debts, overdue balances and other obligations, and to forgive interest and penalty charges that have accrued during Operation Desert Shield and Operation Desert Storm.

Beusse claims 18 years experience on park board

Walt Beusse, the incumbent president of the Niles Park District Board, seeks re-election to the office of Niles Park Commissioner on April 2 with 18 years of experience and dedicated service to the Park District and the community of Niles, according to a press release from Beusse.

Beusse is a retired mechanical senior engineer for the Teletype Corp. and has been a resident in the village for 35 years. Walt and Lorraine have three children, Pamela, John and Dr. Walter J. Beusse D.O.

He has presided as chairman over all Niles Park District facilities and departments - finance, maintenance, recreation, revenue producing facilities including Tam Golf Course, swimming pools and Ballard Sports Complex, and is currently president.

Walter Beusse

Beusse admits he is proud of the achievements the Park District has experienced during his tenure of office.

Park District plan nothing new to Heinen

Always Committed to Excellence (ACE), is Park Board Commissioner Candidate Elaine Heinen's major theme in this campaign.

Experience, with her record of 12 years on the park board, holding the presidency four times, you can be assured that she can and will aspire for excellence in the Niles Park District, a press release of Heinen's states.

Recently, she has been hearing fellow park board candidates using terms like 3, 5, and 10-year plans for the Niles Park District.

"Before any kind of master plan is developed, you must have a planning assessment. In doing this you must have a 'team' approach with all park district staff and commissioners, not just one individual setting the sights for everyone," stated Commissioner Heinen.

"Local community involvement in the planning process is essential in order to be thorough and responsive to the district's needs."

"A pre-planning assessment for a proposed 5-year Master Plan is being projected now by the Park District Staff and Board of Commissioners, who the whole concept of a Master Plan is nothing new - we're doing it!," Commissioner Heinen stated.

Elaine Heinen

missioner Heinen stated. "Current park district facilities and parks are being refurbished yearly and cleaned daily. Facility and park preventative maintenance has been going on for years, which brings us back to 'Always Committed to Excellence (ACE).'"

"Much has been and will be done, but you need a 'team player' and a person with experience in these critical financial times," said Heinen.

Henriksen proposes new Tam clubhouse

Jack Henriksen

Jack Henriksen, candidate for Niles Park Commissioner, has the benefit of years of experience with the Niles Park District as an employee, a volunteer and as the father of a young family active in recreational programs.

As a former manager of Tam Golf Course, Henriksen knows first hand of the need for improvements at the course, especially for a larger, better designed clubhouse.

A new clubhouse would benefit the district thru increased revenue, but it would also make Tam a more attractive course for the golfers and a more efficient place to work for employees.

According to Jack, "Now that the Recreation Center swimming pool is being renovated, plans must be made for the Sports Complex pool, so that it will not sink to a second class status with use concentrated at the main pool. If we allow that to happen, it will become a drain on the park budget."

Henriksen is employed as a Niles firefighter/paramedic.

Sheridan believes in park board teamwork

Rick Sheridan

"Although I do not have great name recognition I have tried to express my background, expertise and desires through press releases, interviews, involvement and meetings with as many people as possible - about who I am, my family and why I'm a candidate for Park Board Commissioner," Rick Sheridan said.

"I have no personal vendettas or 'axes to grind', just to get the most out of our park district as possible," he said.

"I believe I can work with the Niles Park District staff without getting involved in day to day staff decision making, personnel, or emphasis on only one facility or program - but on the overall picture."

"We would have the makings of a great park and recreation system in Niles, one that we are all proud of, and I would appreciate you allowing me the opportunity to see this through."

Niles Village Board Candidates

Politics

Leadership with Economy Party slate

Jeffrey Arnold

Incumbent village trustees, who are all candidates of the Leadership With Economy Party in Niles, are: Jeff Arnold, running for a two-year term; Jim Mahoney, Tom Bondi and Bart Murphy, all running for four-year terms; and Andy Przybylo, running for a two-year term.

Trustee Louella Preston is enthusiastic in her role as campaign manager because she believes it is very important to keep the team together.

The incumbent trustees have kept the village property taxes the lowest in the north and northwest area, while still providing fine village services to the residents, she said.

These services include the only village free bus; new roads, water and sewer lines for the 21st century; expanded recycling programs; a comprehensive senior citizen program; and outstanding police and fire services.

The Leadership With Economy Party has made Niles a great place in which to live, a press release issued by the party stated.

Through the efforts of the incumbents, Niles delivers senior programs unmatched anywhere in the area, the release stated.

"Through astute planning and vision, Niles is providing new sewers, roads and water systems that will meet the needs of the next century--and beyond. Our Niles free bus system continues to be a unique transportation system. Niles' lifesaving paramedic response time is among the fastest in the suburbs. Enhanced 9-1-1 will meet future needs of the residents."

"Niles was the first to offer its residents a recycling program that not only works and fits the needs of the village, but manages to save its taxpayers' money."

"Perhaps the greatest accomplishment of this team has been to provide all these outstanding services while maintaining the lowest village property tax rate in the area. When you compare Niles' village tax rate of .347 per every $100 assessed valuation with neighboring Morton Grove (1.719), Skokie (1.62), Park Ridge (1.27) and Des Plaines (.891), it's easy to see why the smart property owner chooses Niles."

"All that Niles has become is due largely to its elected officials, those public servants who have given freely of their time and talents to make Niles the wonderful village that it is today."

"The Leadership With Economy Party candidates are your neighbors and are as concerned about our village as you. They have given you the Niles of today. They have begun to plan for the Niles of tomorrow."

Tom Bondi

James Mahoney

Bart Murphy

Andrew Przybylo

Beech campaigns for seniors in race for trustee

Betty Marie Beech

"My concerns are that all of us have some interest in this community, whether you are a senior or whether you have a young family with children. We all have something at stake on April 2," Betty Marie Beech candidate for Niles Park commissioner said.

"We know that property taxes have gone up dramatically in the past number of years, primarily due to increases required by our school systems, but it is important for all of government including our local government, to raise their voices against property tax increases."

"As a candidate for public office, I will make sure that other taxing bodies are aware of the need for them to be conservative in their future plans and to understand the frustrations of senior citizens, in particular, whose income is set."

"Being the only retired senior citizen running in this election, I have first hand experience on problems confronting our Niles seniors."

Marusek, Panek question Niles' services

Mary Marusek

Carol Panek

Write-in candidate for village trustee, Carol Panek and Mary Marusek, urge voters to examine closely the claims of low taxes and great services the present village board provides.

A press release sent by the two states:

"Our village tax rate is not so low when combined with the library rate to make an honest comparison with other communities, which have the library levy in their village rate. In fact the last publication from the Illinois Dept. of Revenue includes figures for village and library rates that show Glenview's actual rate to be lower than Niles when the library is included."

"Add to that the utility tax, which includes not only a tax on the utility costs but also a tax on the state utility tax and the state utility fund tax. The Niles tax is then figured on that total. That tax had been increased 9 percent with the Commonwealth Edison rate increase. And it will be going up each year with the remaining Commonwealth increases."

"When it's all added up the taxes are not as low as we are made to believe. Are the services as great as we're told?"

"The Trident Center was innovative years ago when it was started but the teens were soon removed and now even the other community groups are being kicked out for lack of room."

"The seniors have outgrown it and plans for a new center seem to be on hold because the Civic Center Plaza is not bringing the revenue anticipated. Other communities boast of much better community facilities."

"We have a Beautification Contest to encourage residents to improve the appearance of their property, which will in turn help keep the property values up. How would the judges rate the dirt area at Milwaukee and Oakton - in the center of our community and seen by so many people? It has remained an ugly undeveloped patch. When you drive through surrounding communities are there many that have neglected an area like that for so many years?"

"Are the taxes so low and the services so great that there is not need for a trustee who will ask questions, speak for the residents and work for a more open government in Niles?"

Residents who want to vote or write-in candidates Panek and Marusek, must do so on the inside flap of the ballot envelope and follow these directions:

- 1) Use the lines and box provided to write in one candidate.
- 2) Duplicate the lines and a box for the second write-in candidate.
- 3) On the first line, put the office.
- 4) On the second line, the name.
- 5) Don't forget an 'X' in the box next to the name.

Panek is running for a 4-year term and Marusek is running for a 2-year term.

Her community involvement includes a five-year stint as a volunteer for "spread program" for the developmentally disabled. She is also a member and officer of St. John Brebeuf Women's Club.

"I would like to maintain the high level of services for which Niles is known, while keeping the current tax rate," she said.

Her goals are to have the free bus service handicapped accessible and to work for a much needed supervised village teen center.

Science team drills for meet

Faculty advisor John Keane of Notre Dame High School, Niles, conducted a final science team drill before the fifth annual Argonne Science Bowl, at Argonne National Laboratory near Lemont.

Dist. 207 gets new phone system

District 207 will save about $37,000 a year thanks to a new phone system that will not only reduce repair and operation costs, but improve service as well. At $179,626.27, the Centrex System is expected to pay for itself in five years.

About $20,000 will be saved for message unit charges that will not be required with Centrex. Another $10,000 will be saved in maintenance charges that will no longer be necessary. An additional $5,600 in savings will come from data line charges that are not needed with Centrex. A further $1,500 in special air conditioning charges related to the current telephone system will no longer be required.

According to Joel W. Morris, assistant superintendent for instruction, the Centrex System was recommended after a telephone task force reviewed various options to replace the current telephone system. Replacing the rotary dial phones that still are used in many locations throughout the district, the Centrex System will feature touch tone service. Since calls will no longer run through a central switchboard, staff members will be accessible via telephone before and after school hours. All staff members will have greater availability to phones allowing them immediate access to emergency services.

Additional features include conference calling and voice mail capability and the capacity to eventually provide both audio and video to individual classrooms.

Although the current annual cost of phone service from Centel is about $150,000, those charges are expected to escalate because of the cancellation of call pay, new line charges, and accelerating costs for equipment repair and replacement of the current system. The annual cost for telephone and voice mail service with the Centrex System is anticipated at $154,837.06.

Current plans call for beginning installation at Maine East about April 1. Completion of the project for the entire district is anticipated to be on or about Aug. 1.
The district will pay for the new telephone system either with interest from the Site and Construction fund that was established with the proceeds from the sale of Maine North or with current education funds that will be reimbursed during the first five years of operation through cost savings.

Afternoon travelogue series offered

A new afternoon travel series will be offered on Wednesdays starting April 3 and continuing through April 24 from 1 - 2:30 p.m. in Room 112 at Oakton Community College's Skokie campus, 7701 N. Lincoln Ave.
The first travelogue will focus on Alaska and the upcoming summer tour which will be led by Patricia Handzel, director of College Relations. Succeeding speakers will be Professor Rinda
West discussing Kenya on April 10.

The cost is $5 for the series.

'Jump for Heart' nets $4,867 for charity

More than 200 girls from Niles West High School raised $4,867 for the American Heart Association in the national Jump Rope for Heart.

The event was held during sophomore girls physical education classes for one week. Juniors and seniors also had the option to participate. The students jumped for a maximum of three hours, with pledges based on the total number of minutes jumped.

The participant bringing in the most pledges was junior Nancy Kim with $361. Top sophomores were Lynn Mierkiewitz with $231, Chris Samuelson with $217 and Therese Pobre with $200.

ter Court, WMTH provides the communities of Park Ridge, Des Plaines, Niles, and 33 others with student-produced shows, films, school activities, etc. WMTH is the oldest high school TV station in the country, dating back to 1975, and has aired on cable since 1985.

Currently there are four regular programs airing: Newsbrief (a weekly news show), Sports Capper and Chalk Talk (both weekly sports oriented shows), and Maine East Magazine (a monthly collage of the best projects to come out of the various Broadcasting classes). For example, Eric Kinzie of Niles, a Broadcasting II student, plans to produce a
"David Letterman" type of show.

The students enrolled in Broadcasting classes II, III, and IV are taught to produce, direct, write, and edit video productions.
"This is very beneficial to me because it's what I'd like to have a career in," says senior Gary Kosnoff of Glenview. Kosnoff plans to attend Northern Illinois University and major in TV production.

Over the past few years students have interviewed sportscasters Bruce Wolf, Mark Giangreco, and Brad Palmer as well as news anchor Janet Davies, and traffic reporter Roz Varron. More recently, however, Broadcasting IV student Staci Jacobs interviewed Sue Suter and Dawn Clark Netch, both competing for the office of Comptroller of Illinois.

WMTH-TV staff include: station manager Gary Kosnoff of Glenview, executive producers Jenny Ricciardi of Glenview and Dave Saperstein of Des Plaines, program directors Adam Beck of Des Plaines and Matt Karth of Glenview, publicity coordinators dreiter said, "and thank you for your selfless devotion and efforts on our behalf during the Gulf War. My congratulations to all of you! I hope you will now enjoy this belated Thanksgiving repast."

Schaidreiter first came to this country in 1975 from Innsbruck, Austria. He took over ownership of The Black Forest Chalet restaurant in Morton Grove in 1980, doing everything from mangeling to cooking to waiting on tables himself.

Schaidreiter recalled how badly some of his friends and associates, who were vets returning from Viet Nam, felt about their homecoming after service in that far-off land and he looked around to see how he might be able to make a difference for the returning Gulf War troops.

"I couldn't see that happening again to our soldiers," Schaidreiter said. "I hope others will follow this gesture."

President Bush has similar feelings and has asked that the nation make this coming Fourth of July a day of special patriotism and thanks to the men and women who saw the Gulf War through to a quick and just end.

order and construction stopped. SWANCC answered with a request for dismissal of the restraining order and for a change in venue from the Kane County court since balefill is solely within Cook County. The next court hearing is in late April.

March 25, Abolt said "We believe the bird habitat and our development can be accommodated," and noted SWANCC is "in the process of trying to address the concern of different agencies" in order to go forward.

Several years ago we mentioned to a former Blase-selected village trustee the police department had a policeman near the top of its hierarchy who had a questionable background. The trustee said he knew nothing about the policeman. But after months of Bugle reports, Blase initiated an investigation. The policeman left the force several months later. Most of the people in the police department knew the questionable cop was a detriment to the police force. Ironically, he was close to connected to Blase and was reported to be Blase's "man" down at the department.

There was no one on the village board who ever publicly criticized this man's presence on the department.

We have now entered the last decade of the 20th century. It is quite likely Nick Blase will not be in office by the year

2,000. Rather than have Blase select the next village president, it is important new independent political people take part in Niles political process.

Since the Blase era has centered around his profiting from his elective office, he would likely choose a successor who would have similar $$$ inclinations.

If only Blase people are on the village board there will be no one to contest his selection.

Mary Marusek and Carol Panek are experienced, community-minded women who have served Niles in the public and private sectors. They both have served as park commissioners for many years and Ms. Panek has also served on Niles village board. They have been active in their churches as well as with The League of Women Voters.

When Carol Panek was a village trustee she spent 18 months on a study to select a cable television company for Niles. She was a member of a 15-20 member joint northwest suburban committee which recommended a different company which the committee believed was better qualified. After this year and a half study, Blase and his village board rejected the recommendation of the top company and chose another cable company.

There was no other member of Niles village board who supported the joint community recommendation after it completed its 18-month study.

If you want to help write a more democratic future for Niles government, write in the names of Mary Marusek and Carol Panek for village trustees in next Tuesday's village election.

All the incumbent trustees are running under the banner of the Leadership with Economy party.
