

3.15 PUBLIC AND COMMUNITY RELATIONS

- I. The primary community relations goals of the Library are:
 - A. to inform the general public, including governmental officials and civic leaders, of programs and services offered by the Library; and
 - B. to promote active participation in the varied services of the Library by residents and businesses.
2. The Niles-Maine District Library is a public institution, serving all residents of the community on an impartial basis. Personal prejudices must have no part in this public service.
3. The Board recognizes that community relations involve every person who is affiliated with the Library.
